Birthday Ball Is Scheduled

Commemorating Glenville State College's 100th birthday on Feb. 19, a centennial ball will be held that evening from 9-12 p.m. in the Pioneer Center.

Two bands will be featured at this semi-formal affair. The Dusty Rhodes Quartet, Morgantown, will provide music in the ballroom while the Headstones, a local rock group, will perform in the snack bar area of the Pioneer Center.

This dance will be open to the public. Tickets may be obtained by writing to Mr. Beryl Langford. Advance tickets will sell for $2.50 per student couple and $3.00 per non-student couple.

Centennial Queen Rosanna Corathers and her court will reign over the ball.

The art department is presently building a large replica of the Centennial birthday cake which will be served at the ball.

All former GSC basketball players have been especially invited back as guests for the Centennial basketball game which will be held on Saturday, Feb. 19, at 2 p.m. At this time, the Pioneers of Glenville State will oppose W.Va. State College.

Second Semester Enrollment Tallied

Enrollment at Glenville State College for the second semester of this year is 1364. Of this number, 84 are part-time students enrolled largely in the expanded program of evening classes. Sixty-two students are enrolled in evening classes only. This is three times the number enrolled in evening classes for the second semester, 1970-71, larger by 12 students than the total part-time enrollment for the first semester of this year which was 60.

Students enrolled for classes in the evening program only commute to the campus from a wide area in central West Virginia. Students are commuting to the campus from the following communities: Auburn, Baldwin, Big Bend, Buckhannon, Burnsville, Cairo, Camden, Clay, Corley, Craigsville, Crawford, Grantsville, Harrieville, Jane Lew, Linn, Middlebourne, Orlando, Palestine, Proctor, Reedy, Rondale, Sand Fork, Spencer, Stumptown, Summersville, Sutton and Weston.

Nineteen students enrolled in evening classes only are residents of the town of Glenville.

Last year the enrollment for the second semester stood at 1426.

INCREASE PROPOSAL DEFEATED SEVERELY

The Student Congress proposal for an increase in student fees to support the Glenville State radio station, WGSC, failed to pass constitutional requirements.

According to the constitution of the Student Congress, for an increase in fees proposal to pass, 40% of the eligible voters on campus must cast votes. Of these 40% a majority of the vote must be in favor of the proposal. This vote for an increase in fees had only half of the necessary 40%. Of those people who voted, 70% of the vote favored the increase in fees while 30% opposed the increase.

Alumni-of-the-Year Named for 1972

E. Paul Floyd

Miss Phala Woods

Phala Woods and E. Paul Floyd, class of 1922, have been selected by the Alumni Council as Glenville State College's Alumni-of-the-Year for 1972. For the second time in the eighteen year history of the top alumni award, the Council has selected two grads to share the annual honor. The awards will be presented at the Annual Spring Alumni Banquet, Saturday evening, April 22.

Miss Woods, the daughter of William and Cordelia Woods, was born at Beaver, in Nicholas County.

She attended school at Craigsville and began teaching on the elementary level at 18. Her first teaching assignments were in Nicholas, Webster, and Kanawha counties.

In 1916 she made a first grade certificate on the Uniform Examination and then attended Glenville Normal School completing the Short Normal in 1920 and the Standard Normal in 1922.

Miss Woods then studied at WVU where she received an A.B. degree with a major in American History and a minor in Spanish in 1927.

She taught one year in Buckhannon and Gassaway High Schools and thirty-two and one half years in Widen High School. She also served as the principal of Widen High from 1942-45.

For over twenty years, she taught West Virginia Club work and had fifty-four Golden Horseshoe winners.

She earned a master's degree in political science from Columbia University in 1939.

Miss Woods retired from Widen H. S. in 1963 after teaching a total of (in her words) 42,937 years.

Recently, Miss Woods established a substantial loan fund in her name with the Alumni Foundation. The fund provides loans for young women and men of need from Nicholas and Clay Counties.

E. Paul Floyd, retired industrialist, of Duxbury, Mass., was born in Glenville, the son of Ernest and Bertha Floyd. Floyd attended the Glenville public schools, and graduated from Glenville Normal School in 1922. In 1926 he graduated from the W.Va. School of Engineering and in 1928 from the Harvard Business School. His first business association was with a specialty steel manufacturer in Fitchburg, Mass. He left this concern in the early 1940's when, with two associates, he bought the Waltham Grinding Wheel Co., with plants in Mass., Calif., and Ill. The three operated this company very successfully, raising it to one of the five major manufacturers of grinding wheels in the U.S. In 1969, it was sold to a large Midwestern conglomerate, at which time Floyd retired from active business. However, he still travels extensively and serves as consultant to several Boston-based companies.

Floyd was very active in the Harvard Business School Alumni Association, and served as President for one term. He has also a long and continuing record of support for GSC. In addition to financial support of the Alumni Association and other college projects, he has established the Charles Whiting Art Scholarship in memory of his late uncle who was by avocation an artist of considerable talent. He has encouraged GSC's budding artists by arranging to show their works in the Boston area, and in several instances has arranged sales for them that would have been impossible to realize in W.Va.

Dreifus Speaks For Women's Liberation

"Liberation Now: What Are Militant Women Fighting For?" will be Claudia Dreifus' lecture topic in the upcoming convocation Tuesday, February 8, at 10 a.m. in the auditorium.

In this talk Miss Dreifus explains the goals and philosophy of the women's liberation movement and discusses some of the important issues for which they are fighting—equal job opportunities and equal educational opportunities, free day-care centers, free abortion on demand, a restructuring of marriage and the family, etc. She answers some of the questions which people are asking—questions like "Should marriage be abolished?", "What will society look like if the feminists actually do win their goals?", and "What do men have to gain from women's liberation?"

47 Students Recruit For GSC During Break

During the semester break, 47 GSC students volunteered to return to their high schools on an informative and recruiting basis. The students visited high school counselors and students interested in attending GSC.

The counselors and students were made aware of the courses offered and particularly the Foundations Program Advanced Placement, and the two year program in Land Surveying. High school students and counselors were also introduced to the new open admission policy at GSC.

Those GSC students who attended a "follow-up rap session" to discuss improvements to be made in next year's visitation program were Guinevere Lemon, Roberta Williams, Dennis Carpenter, Patricia McGowan, Terri Boso, and Walter Wolford.

The deadline for nominations of new Student Congress officers and delegates is March 15. Nominations must be turned in to the Student Congress. Elections will be held the first week in April.

Student-Welfare Program Is Organized On Campus

What is a big brother or a big sister? It's someone you can turn to in order to talk things over—no matter how big or how small the problem. Has there been someone like that in your life? Everyone has had someone who gave them an extra pat on the back or an encouraging word when the going was rough. Every child deserves that, but not all of them have someone who takes a special interest in a child's everyday problem. Would you be interested? If you are, then many children in Gilmer county need you.

Certain interested students from GSC held their second meeting Jan. 25 in Clark Hall. With representatives from the Welfare department, they discussed what they could do for children of low-income families who need extra attention. The Big Brother-Big Sister organization is being arranged by college students who will be working with the welfare department in order to successfully help as many children as possible.

The purposes of the organization are to (1) provide friends for boys and girls who may find it hard to make friends at school (2) to substitute for a parent who may be absent (3) to tutor the child in an area of study where he is having difficulty and (4) to offer a boy or girl an opportunity to see the world from another point of view.

People wanting to become involved would have to assume responsibilities to the children and the children's families. Also, working with social workers would be necessary in order to understand problems fully.

Student Congress To Sponsor Dance

On Friday, Feb. 4 Student Congress will sponsor a dance in the ballroom of the Pioneer Center. The music will be provided by the "Appalachian Cablecar" and the dance will be from 9 to 12 p.m.

An admission fee of $2 will be charged at the door and after paying this, free and "unusual" refreshments will be served throughout the dance.

Student Congress has provided the entertainment, the refreshments, even the fun. It is up to you, the GSC student to come and enjoy yourself. So, don't go home this week-end, stay and come to a dance.

Mr. Carl Kerr receives congratulations and a check from Mr. John White on his winning the Willa Brand Award for poetry. He is the first faculty member to receive the award.

Free Movie Offered To GSC Students

The Glenville State College Veteran's Club announces that it will sponsor a free full length movie scheduled to be shown in the auditorium Thursday, at 7 p.m.

"The Mouse That Roared," a 1965 satire comedy, adapted from a book by the same name and written by Leonard Wibberley, is about a small nation which somehow takes over the world.

The movie, which is being sponsored by the club to help voter registration, will be preceded by an announcement of times and places of on-campus voter registration.

Formal Rush Ends For Greek Women

Today after 4 p.m., the Greek women's formal rush period will be over. There won't be a single Greek woman, or rushee, probably, who won't sigh in relief for the last two weeks have seen the utmost in tensions and anxieties.

The game of rushing is a psychological warfare for all participants. The rushee, first of all, is pulled and pushed from all sides. She has pondered over scrapbooks, jewelry, trophies and fakey smiles. She has been moved by sad songs, lifted by funny skits that invariably end with a psychological hint toward pledging, and generally given some kind of angelic picture of sorority life.

After being shuffled through anywhere from four to 12 parties and having lived through the emotional and often "mushy" preference parties, the rushee takes that long walk to the office of the Dean of Women where she makes known her preference.

There she stands, often trying to remember which girls belonged to what group, who gave the best favors, and where she did the most crying. Entering in here are also all those outside forces such as what rumors has she heard lately, which group her boyfriend likes, and where do the sentiments of her friends lie.

Finally she chooses. It may be that group that she finds one or two close friends in or the one that seems generally to represent her ideals. It may be simply, in her deep desire to go Greek, "eeney-meeney-miney-mo" choice. At any rate, she's chosen it for life.

Don't misunderstand. Greeks do have a great deal to offer a girl. Friendship, loyalty, something to believe in, and a place to belong are only a few of the benefits. It seems unfortunate, however, that such pressure needs to be a part of the Greek way.

We wish we had some solutions, but maybe there aren't any. At any rate, "hats off" to those who made it today—sane and happy—into the Greek system.

Three Appreciative Fairmont Students Express Thanks To Pres., Mrs. Wilburn

Note: (Dr. and Mrs. Wilburn received this letter of appreciation from three very grateful Fairmont State College students. The three students were stranded in Glenville after the Glenville-Fairmont game January 27. Lee Harbert, a helpful GSC student, volunteered to take the students back to Fairmont that night.)

President and Mrs. Wilburn,

We would like to thank you for your kindness during our seemingly impossible situation Thursday, the 27th. Your courtesy, sympathy and kindness was deeply appreciated when all our hope of return seemed to be gone. If you ever see Lee, would you please thank him for us. Everyone in Glenville was extremely kind and helpful and you all now have the undying gratitude of three Fairmont State College students.

Thank you again,

Vickie Sampson
Rhonda Taylor
Jim Salvi

There will be no edition of the Mercury until Saturday, Feb. 19 when the Centennial edition will be circulated.

Greek News

Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority held its theme rush party Monday, Jan. 31 from 6-8 p.m. in the Ballroom. The theme was "Laugh-In" and skits were shown on the television show by the same name. Favors of red rose nose-gays were given.

On Thursday, Feb. 3 from 7-7:45 p.m. Alpha Sigs presented their Wishing Well Preference party. Red cut glass brandy sniffers were given as favors.

The sisters are making final plans for their closed ball to be held Friday, April 7 at the Uptowner Inn in Clarksburg. There will be a steak dinner preceding the dance which will feature "The Applachian Cable Car."

National Field Representative, Mary Jedrzejewski, is visiting the chapter this week. The sisters had a get-acquainted party Wednesday night at 10 p.m. in their lounge and will have a tea in her honor following the ribboning ceremony for the pledges Friday, Feb. 4 at 4:30 p.m. in Old Louis Bennett Lounge.

The fraters of Tau Kappa Epsilon held their formal smoker on Tuesday, Jan. 25, and it was proclaimed a success by all concerned. The second smoker was planned for Thursday, Feb. 3 in the Old Louis Bennett Lounge.

Advisor Gary Adkins and frater Steve Adkins plan to attend the Southeastern Interfraternity Council meeting and workshop in Atlanta, Ga. on Feb. 24.

On Sunday, Jan. 30, Mrs. Ralph Gay, C.C.D., for Theta Xi chapter of Delta Zeta held a dinner for the newly installed executive officers of the chapter. These officers are: president, Brynda Dunlap, a junior elementary education major from Gassaway; vice-president of rush, Kay Woody, a sophomore physical education major from Ripley; vice-president of pledging, Linda Fox, a junior elementary education major from Spencer; recording secretary, Paulette Jackson, a junior math major from West Union; corresponding secretary, Barbara Emerick, a junior elementary education major from Marietta, Ohio; and treasurer, Sue Smith, a sophomore math major from Parkersburg.

On Monday at an informal meeting, Tina Haney a sophomore elementary education major from Glenville, was recognized as assistant pledge trainer. Also at the meeting, the sisters welcomed Bobbie Nicholson, who has returned to active membership in the chapter.

On Tuesday, Feb. 1 the first formal party of spring rush was held at the sorority house, with an Hawaiian theme. The rushees were entertained with hula dances and skits performed by Delta Zetas.

On Thursday night the Rose Preference Party was held, also at the sorority house.

On Jan. 23, 1972, the brothers of Beta Beta Zeta, Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity hosted 58 prospective members at their first smoker which was conducted at the Old Louis Bennett Hall Lounge. Guest orators included advisors Dr. A.T. Billips, Dean of Student Affairs, and Mr. Ralph Gay, associate professor of social studies. Refreshments were served by the Ladies of the White Rose, who also provided the musical entertainment.

The second and final smoker was held on Jan. 31, 1972. At this time verbal bids were issued to eleven prospective members by president Dale Cox and rush chairman Joe Parton.

The formal pledging ceremony will be held on Feb. 7, 1972. Dress is coat and tie.

The brothers of Theta Xi held their first smoker Sunday, Jan. 23 in the Multi-purpose room. President Tom Carper discussed fraternity life as a whole. Several other members gave speeches on brotherhood.

On Tuesday, Feb. 1, the Theta Xi's held their second smoker. The Theta Girls featured entertainment. About 40 men attended. After the smoker the prospective pledges were taken to the fraternity house for refreshments.

Plans are now being made for the brothers to go on a skiing trip late in February.

Last Sunday evening the Theta Girls honored the brothers with a spaghetti dinner during which the house mother, Mrs. Nellie Turner, was honored for her birthday. Mike Rust presented her with a dress.

New officers for Delta Zeta are seated: Susan Smith, Linda Fox, Brynda Dunlap, Kay Woody, and Paulette Jackson. Standing are Sandy Suran and Barbara Emerick.

Ode to Glenville

Twelve strokes, then silence falls;
the full moon reflects the glow, of massive silhouettes outlined upon the falling snow.

A raucous wind comes howling past and hisses through the pine, cutting the soul with a frigid finger;
rounding the tower with an eerie whine.

In the star-filled night
A thousand hearts will know,
A thousand feet have trod the walks, have slithered through the fallen snow.

As phantom feet walk slowly tears and joys are found, on each tiny symmetrical flake scattered on this hallowed ground.

Hollow feet upon the side walk,
as they enter, pass and fade.
Some have chosen ports of safety, some succeeded, others strayed.

All she offers is a lifetime,
one hundred sentinels guard her gate,
from her tower cries loud a protest,
A thousand pleas decide her fate.

Tear-filled eyes turn to her tower, silent lips form words of grief,
what tyrant dare threaten her existence,
what low, despicable, common thief?

One hundred flares to mark her service,
one hundred voices, strong in grief,
one hundred prayers to God in heaven,
one hundred ways to quell the thief.

For who can rob us of our college?
Who can still that ancient chime, weathering, holding, giving, caring,
Let Glenville stand for all of time.

INFORMAL PARTY HELD FOR ALL INTERESTED OHNINGOHOW PLEDGES

An informal party was held Wed. February, 2, from 4 to 5 p.m. in the underground for all students interested in pledging Ohningohow. Members of Ohningohow urge students who would like to enhance their knowledge of the theatre to join.

A second party will be held during the following week for definite pledges. Any student who is unable to attend the parties and would like to pledge may contact Douglas Morrison, President of Ohningohow or Kathy Fluharty, pledge master. There will be an open membership the remainder of the week following the final party.

The Highlight of Ohningohow's activities this semester will be a satirical presentation of life at Glenville State College.

Steve Datcher goes up for two points against the Falcon's Bill Lindsey. The Pioneers upset Fairmont 77-64.

Have You Heard

by Mike Rust

Four outs...

Glenville's victory over Fairmont has to be one of the biggest in the school's history. It was a case of too many outs accomplished by the Pioneer's outscoring, outrebounding, outshooting and the outstanding fans we have here at Glenville State.

I arrived at the game by 5:30 and already loyal fans were there cheering for Coach Lilly's hoopmen. By 6:30 the gym was almost packed and the emotional state of the fans was fantastic. The yelling and screaming that went on all night was almost deafening at times.

The Pioneer cagers played great basketball, controlling all aspects of the game. Glenville forced the Falcons into many turnovers which may be attributed to both the players and the noise of the fans. The game was a match-up of the cool and calm, Glenville, and the shaky and very shook, Fairmont State. So the mighty fall (from third to sixteenth in the recent poll), Cry Lerman, Cry... Reserve Power...

Much has been said about our powerful starting five but all too little has been said about the men who took these guys up. Our bench strength has played an important part in our success so far this year. Guys like Cook, Spicer, Ledbetter, Sellards, Lynch, King, Blackman, and Hess can come off the bench at anytime to help win a ballgame. Many of these cagers could start for a lot of the other teams in the conference. Also it has been said by many and I agree that this reserve unit could beat some of the first rate teams in the WVAC. Nice to know that Coach Lilly has this kind of strength waiting to go in.

Intramural Report...

I witnessed and played against one of the finest intramural teams in my two and a half years of Glenville State. The Boogerhole All Stars is the team I am referring to. The All Stars coached by Mike Smith and led by Larry Queen and Jim Cook look like the team to beat in the intramural competition. Other members of the squad include: Scotty Hamilton, John Bell, Claude Blankenship, Steve Porterfield, and Captain David-Do-Wright. Boogerhole soundly defeated its first opponent TKE 176-17 and in a close battle defeated the Theta Xi Animals 58-45. Also in case you are interested the dark-horse of the intramural league, the Theta Xi Barrells were upset in their first game by 20 points.

The Draft...

The National Football League held its annual college football draft last Tuesday and surprised many people with its picks. Instead of going for the usual fast-back this year's pro clubs invested heavily in the big linemen.

NFL clubs made linemen their first three choices and nine of the first round picks were linemen.

Walt Patulski, the 6'6", 250 pound "Lineman of the Year" from Notre Dame was the first player drafted going to the Buffalo Bills.

Some of the other big names chosen in the early rounds included: Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan, Ed Marinaro, Bobby Moore, and Jerry Tagge.

National champion Nebraska and Notre Dame tied with three men each picked in the first round.

Statistics...

In the weekly statistics the Pioneers are once again leading the conference in defense giving up just 65.6 points a game. Glenville is second in rebounding, hauling down an average of 54.6 a game. Steve Datcher is the leading scorer on the varsity averaging 17.4 points a game. Earl Hawkins is second with a 16.3 average. Hawkins also rates high in rebounding with a 13.1 clip a game. Also the Pioneers are averaging 80.7 points a game.

Feb. 8 is the day that the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles will play Glenville. This game will probably be one of the biggest contests in the conference this year. Have a good week and come out and support the Pioneers Tuesday night.

Womens Basketball Team Confronts Fairmont Feb. 7

GSC's Women's basketball team will confront Fairmont Feb. 6 for their first game of the season.

The team consists of Glenadine Gainer, Donna Newberry, Barbara Walker, Pam Abbot, Patty Dent, Leah Ball, Connie Cole, Beverly Rogers, Cindy Ramsey, Betty Coon, Draunta Mullins, Martha Blake, Brenda Riffle, Sandy Elmore, Linda Grandinette, Barbara Hathaway, Marty Blake, and Peggy White.

The following is the schedule for the remainder of the season:

February 9 Salem Away 7:00

February 10 Fairmont Away 7:00

Feb. 12 Morris Harvey, Home 2:00

February 21 Salem Home 7:00

Lilly's Lively Lillymen Beat Nationally Ranked Fairmont

The fired-up Glenville State Pioneers jumped out to an early lead and held on all the way as the Pioneers smashed the Fairmont Falcons 77-64, for the Falcon's first loss in conference play.

Fairmont, the nation's number three ranked small college team, led only once during the contest. Butch Haswell hit the opening shot of the game to give the Falcons a 2-0 lead. From there on in it was the Pioneers all the way as Glenville jumped out to a 17-6 lead before Fairmont knew what had happened. At the halfway point in the first half the Pioneers enjoyed a 21-9 margin. By halftime, Coach Lilly's hoopmen held a commanding 38-26 lead.

Steve Datcher hit the first five points for the Pioneers giving Glenville a lead it would never relinquish.

From the floor in the first half the Pioneers hit a remarkable 16 of 21 for a fantastic 76% shooting average.

Falcon ace Bill Lindsey kept Fairmont close in the first half scoring 15 points.

Datcher's once again started off hot in the second half scoring 10 of Glenville's first 13 points

With ten minutes to go in the game, Coach Lilly's hoopmen held a 61-44 advantage. Coach Joe Retton got his team going in the last ten minutes outscoring the Pioneers 9-1 in one stretch. It was 69-55 with five minutes remaining and 71-58 at the four minute mark, but Glenville regrouped and played control basketball to insure the victory.

Steve Datcher was Glenville's top scorer with 18 points, Dale Tawney added 13, Earl Hawkins finished the night with 11, and Jim Garnett had 10.

Bill Lindsey led the Fairmont attack with 27 points. Lerman Battle, Ed Lemon and Butch Haswell had 10 apiece. It was the play of Lindsey that kept the Falcons in the game.

The Pioneers out goalied the Falcons by five, 30-25. GSC hit 17 of 31 foul shots as Fairmont State converted on 14 of 24 charity tosses.

Glenville pulled down a total of 28 rebounds. Earl Hawkins was the leading GSC rebounder with eight.

Jim Garnett, Ron Jones, and Ken Ledbetter had three.

Coach Lilly's cagers hit a torrid 30 of 43 shots for a 69% average. Field goal shooting for the GSC cagers went like this: Steve Datcher hit 6 of 8 shots, Dale Tawney made 5 of 8, Earl Hawkins gunned in 4 of 6, Ralph Cook had 4 of 5, Ron Jones dropped 3 of 4, Jim Spicer was perfect hitting 2 of 2, and Ken Ledbetter counted for 2 of 3 shots.

Hoopmen Clobber Salem At Armory

Glenville State's power offense and tough defense paid off last Tuesday night as Coach Lilly's hoopmen waltzed to an easy 97-65 over the Salem Tigers at the Salem Armory.

Dale Tawney opened up the scoring for the Pioneers hitting on two straight field goals sparking Glenville to a 12 point spree that gave the GSC cagers the lead for good. The Tigers led just once in the contest 2-0.

Salem came back in the half to cut the Pioneer lead to 41-36 at intermission.

The Pioneers came out firing in the second half outscoring the Tigers 9-1 in the first four minutes of the quarter. Glenville completely dominated the action in the last 20 minutes. Coach Lilly's cagers outscored Salem 56-29 in the last half. When the Pioneers extended their lead to 83-53, Coach Lilly began to substitute freely, clearing his bench.

Four Pioneers broke into the double figure column with Steve Datcher leading the way with 26 points on 11 field goals and four free throws. Dale Tawney had a good night netting 17 points, Ron Jones pumped in 16 and Earl Hawkins had 13 points. Rounding out the rest of the scoring: Jim Garnett and Jim Spicer pumped in 9, Gene King had 3, and Ken Ledbetter and Art Blackman laid in 2 points.

This victory pushed the Pioneers West Virginia Conference record to 11-3 and their overall mark to 13-4.

Glenville travels to Beckley tonight to do battle with the Blue Hawks.

In the freshman game against Salem, the JV's of Coach Carney murdered the Salem freshmen 102-78. This victory moved the freshmen mark to 8-0.

GSC Matmen Place Second at Marietta

The Pioneer matmen of Glenville led by Captain Brian Taylor placed second in a four team match held last Saturday at Marietta. Taylor was the only Pioneer to win all three matches. Marcus Rice and Corby Stalnaker won two of their matches and drew one. All the Pioneer matmen won at least one match.

In Glenville's opening match the GSC matmen faced the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles. The Pioneers registered their first shut-out of the season as they soundly defeated the Eagles 48-0.

In the Pioneer's second match, Coach Adolphson's matmen met the Frostburg College wrestlers. Glenville defeated Frostburg 32-11.

In the Pioneer's final match the GSC matmen lost to the host school Marietta College. The final score was 23-14.

No Glenville wrestler was able to pin his opponent but four won by decision.

Matmen Soundly Defeat Morris Harvey Eagles

The Glenville Pioneer matmen showing good speed and ability soundly defeated the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles. The final score of the Jan. 26 match was 39-10.

Kenny Pritt, Luther Hanson, and Rich Pierson received six points each as they all won by forfeit.

In the 142 pound class Dennis decisioned Ken Dardle 5-1 to win his match.

Steve Lewis won his match in the 150 pound class by decisioning Henry Underhill 5-2.

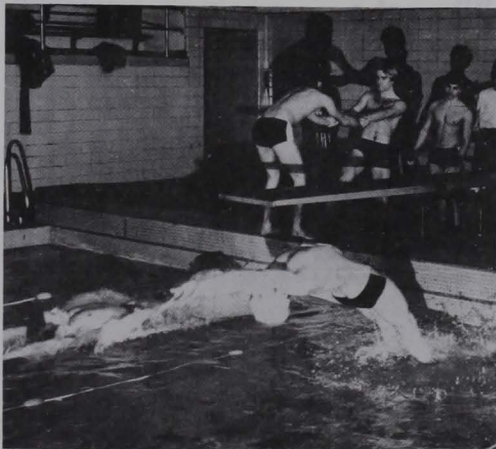

Captain Brian Taylor was decisioned by the Eagle's Tee Pecora. Taylor led until late in the match before losing 13-5.

In the 167 pound class Mike Snider showed good quickness and strength, pinning Barry Bernstein early in the first period.

GSC's representative Paul Rigenbach shut out Dave Austin decisioning the Golden Eagles 3-0 in a tough tough match.

John Peters met defeat in his 190 pound class match by Bob Hawkins. Peters was pinned late in the second period.

Marcus Rice won his unlimited class match by forfeit.

Pioneer men swim in competition against the West Virginia Tech Golden Bears. Glenville lost the meet 63-45.

Four New Residents Invade HM House

Four women under the supervision of Miss Elma Jean Woolfer are now residing in the home management house. The four women are: Pat Childers, Martha Welch, Kathy Lazier and Jennifer Osborne.

Every four days the girls participate in four aspects of the program; which are: The manager, who takes care of all the money and the entertainment, the cook, who prepares all the meals, the housekeeper, and the laundress. Each girl participates in one of these for four days and then assumes a new responsibility.

The girls stay at the home management house for thirty-two days in which they actively participate in various projects to improve the house. A project is now underway to construct a covered screen to divide the kitchen and dining room. Each girl must participate in her own project and also must construct a scrapbook concerning the activities and projects that take place at the management house.

Activities being planned now are birthday parties and a valentine buffet.

Ronald Sams, candidate for Gilmer County sheriff, visits at the "Mercury" office with Linda Mayfield, while planning publicity.

Carolyn Brisendine, Former Student, Begins Teaching Career In Australia

A former Glenville State College art student, Carolyn Brisendine, is learning about life "down under" as she begins a one-year teaching contract in Australia. She is employed as a teacher by the State Department of Education in New South Wales, and by the Government of Australia as a temporary instructor.

Her school is located on the edge of the Great Western Plains in the "Bush Country." Although her school is newly constructed, Miss Brisendine claims it "looks like something out of the Middle Ages." Both the exterior and interior are brick; the inside walls lack color; there is no equipment; gunny sacks serve as bulletin boards; and degreed teachers are few.

Miss Brisendine wrote to the GSC art department explaining the shortage of teachers in Australia in hopes of stirring interest in some GSC instructors, and next year it is estimated that 1600 will be needed. Miss Brisendine will send information to interested students if they write to her at Flat No. 5 Town House, Fitzroy St., Dubbo South, NSW, Australia, 2830.

In 1963 Miss Brisendine graduated from GSC with an A.B. degree in art. Since that time she has worked on her Master's Degree at Marshall University. She also taught in Parkersburg, Kanawha County, and Waterford, Ohio prior to her new position in Australia.

Glenville Student Strives To Recreate Days of Yore

The "whirr" of the spinning wheel and the "whump" of the loom are sounds generally associated with years gone by. However, to one GSC student, Becky Cutlip of St. Marys, these sounds are familiar vibrations of today.

An article entitled "Family Recreates Pioneer Days" printed in the Jan. 30 edition of the Grit newspaper explains how Becky and her family are striving to preserve the arts and skills of the past.

Mr. Cutlip operates a 1910 wood fed steam engine which controls a stone burs grinder that grinds corn into meal.

Mrs. Cutlip is one of W.Va.'s finest spinners and credits her interests in Pioneer skills to a visit with her mother-in-law 20 years ago. Browsing through relics in the attic, they discovered an old dust covered spinning wheel. The wheel, purchased at an auction in 1906, was a gift to Mrs. Cutlip's mother-in-law who was willing to share her spinning skill.

Since Mrs. Cutlip learned to spin, she has won wide acclaim for her work. She has demonstrated at churches, YWCA's, civic clubs and public school programs. She has also demonstrated her pioneer art in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, and Washington, as well as her native state of West Virginia. Mrs. Cutlip and her family have been an integral part of the Mountain State Art and Craft Fair in Ripley and the Glenville Folk Festival.

Becky, a sophomore elementary education major, is mentioned in the article as "a plotter and perfectionist by nature." Like her mother, she, too, can spin. She also makes corn-husk dolls; however, her specialty is weaving. She has served with her sister Joyce at the Mountain State Art and Craft Fair as an apprentice under Miss Lucy Quarrier, West Virginia's "dean of weaving." They both have woven placemats, and yardage for skirts and ponchos. Joyce also daps beeswax candles.

Both girls are members of the West Virginia Artists and Craftsmen's Guild and they plan to perpetuate their crafts and skills in hopes that they never become extinct. Their work is a part of the Appalachian culture which should never be destroyed, remaining always as a distinct part of unchanged American.
