The Pro Arte Orchestra of Oberlin will present a symphonic concert in the auditorium Thursday, April 20th

Pro Arte Orchestra Sponsored Here April 20 By Centennial Committee

In cooperation with the Centennial Committee, the Convocation-Lyceum Committee of Glenville State College is sponsoring a symphonic concert featuring the Pro Arte Orchestra of Oberlin. The concert will be held in the College Auditorium on Thurs., April 20 at 8 p.m.

The Pro Arte Orchestra of Oberlin specializes in the authentic performance of the works of classical composers. Its sections duplicate the musical forces available and the instrumentation used in the symphonies of Haydn, Mozart and early Beethoven as well as the 20th century neo-Classicalists like Stravinsky, Prokofiev, and Hindemith, who also wrote pieces for a similarly proportioned orchestra.

To contemporary concert-goers accustomed to the lush, massive sounds of the modern symphony orchestra (required for the more thickly scored Romantic symphonies) the Pro Arte's lean and graceful style of recreating the original classical orchestra sonities offers a refreshing and stimulating contrast.

The Glenville program will feature Symphony No. 38 by Mozart, Serenade in A Minor by Brahms and Introduction and Allegro by Ravel.

Based in Oberlin, Ohio the orchestra draws its players mainly from the famous Oberlin Conservatory and the academic community of the greater Cleveland area. In this respect it is one of a handful of ensembles, like the Paris Conservatory Orchestra and the Mozarteum Orchestra of Salzburg, Austria, that depends upon the faculty of a great conservatory for its nucleus.

The orchestra's excellence derives from its members' experience in 18 symphonic and operatic groups, including seven first chairs of major symphonies. Its personnel represents graduates and faculty of eight American and six foreign conservatories and 22 American and four foreign colleges and universities.

The concert is open to the public. Tickets are available at the door at $1 adult and $0.50 student. College students and faculty will be admitted by ID cards.

Suggestions Given To Avoid Confusion

The position of Editor-in-chief of a college newspaper entails a great many responsibilities. The Editor must serve as a voice reflecting the desires and opinions of the college community, be the overseer of all material which is published, but above all the Editor must use this position to express—or if you prefer—expose any problems or injustices that are inflicted upon the college students. It is in this last capacity that this particular editorial is written.

The new Student Congress has taken office as of last night. I have some suggestions to some disturbing problems which over the past few weeks, have become a source of tragedy for those involved and grossly out of proportion with any situations that should have occurred from a simple college election—situations that could have been avoided.

There were, as I see it, five sources of information concerning this past election, those being the Student Congress constitution (unrevised since 1970 because of lack of student support), Robert's Rules of Order, Dr. Paul Nagy (the poor man who often got hit for an answer on questions about which he didn't have benefit of the two former sources), Ed Suddath (past President who kept getting called from student teaching to answer questions about things he, too, was unfamiliar with), and Marlene Parsons (past Parliamentarian who also got called from student teaching under similar circumstances).

My point is this: Because the Student Congress Constitution is so vague and ambiguous all of these other sources were consulted at various times by various people who were for the most part emotionally involved. The needed amendments include: (1) a deadline for filing that is not flexible; (2) all rules for filing posted well in advance of the filing deadline including procedures for unfiling and refiling; (3) definite statements concerning the right of a candidate to run on a "write-in" campaign; (4) a definite statement concerning the sending out and validation/proceedings of absentee ballots. (Here it should be noted that the Student Congress Constitution says that such ballots must be returned by 4 p.m. the day of the election—a fact most Student Congress members were not aware of and a fact not well publicized);

(5) a policy concerning the role, in a student election, which a faculty member may assume—if he should be allowed to assume any role whatsoever; (6) a stated procedure for the establishment of a counting committee and for the replacement of committee members who cannot attend; (7) a rule stating the absolute necessity of the faculty advisor and/or a qualified impartial faculty or administrative official to oversee the tabulation of the ballots; (8) a rule concerning the allowance—if such an allowance is at all valid of ballots which were cast but which exceeded the number of signatures taken; (This situation could be avoided if a series of tables were used the first containing ID validation, the second containing the signature pads, and the third containing ballots). (9) a statement of a time lapse during which results of the elections should be considered "unofficial" perhaps of 24 hours—giving those wishing to contest the results ample time to do so but making the time as short as possible for the supposed winners to wait in anguish.

(10) the dates of the election made flexible to fit into a changing college calendar. (This year's election was held two weeks prior to the date stated in the present constitution); (11) most importantly, once a fair constitution is drawn up and passed by the necessary student vote, the new Congress should abide by every rule and not just those clauses that it chooses to follow (ring a bell, old Student Congress?).

Perhaps some of you have more and better suggestions for the defeating of the "GSC election hassle." I've had one student suggest a complete rewrite of the evil constitution which doesn't sound like a bad idea.

The old Student Congress allowed this election to become a rat race ending with many severed friendships personal as well as organizational and a bitter taste that won't leave many GSC students for some time. Long after the bitterness subsides, however, it remains for this new Congress and those that shall come, to remember the shameful experiences of the Spring of 1972 and to make sure no student has to go through the tormenting hours spent by nearly all the candidates and certainly all the old Congress members because of such an election.

Good luck to the 1972-73 Congress and as Ed Suddath says, "You'll need it!"

The chapter brought home many honors including Most Improved Chapter in the state and 100% initiation. One outstanding honor was brought to the chapter by Paulette Jackson when she was awarded the trophy as outstanding collegian of Delta Zeta in West Virginia. This award is based upon achievement in all areas including scholarship, campus and community activities. Miss Jackson, a junior math major from West Union, serves as vice-president of Delta Zeta, president of AWS, secretary of Chi Beta Phi, is pledging Kappa Delta Phi, honorary society. She has a 3.88 overall average.

Visiting with Theta Xi chapter this week was Miss Cheryl Sweeney, national field representative. Miss Sweeney stayed at the sorority house and met with each girl for a personal interview. Numerous house improvements have recently been made. A bar has been installed in the basement and the basement has been somewhat remodeled. A sign has been placed in the front yard reading "Home of TKE," donated by the pledges.

A house party has been scheduled for Saturday night at 8 p.m.

Court Ball is scheduled for Saturday, May 6 at North Bend State Park. The music will be provided by "Stone Rose." The ball will last from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The Beta Beta chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity initiated sixteen associate members this past weekend.

On the weekend of March 14, 1972, several brothers will be representing Glenville State College and Beta Beta Zeta at a national "conclave" in North Carolina. Conferences of this nature are sponsored annually, and feature an exchange of ideas concerning rush, financial management, public relations and scholarship.

Suddath Declares S.C. Election Valid

Dear Editor:

After every close election, there is bound to be controversy. The 1972 Student Congress elections were close in every office and position. And talk about controversy!

I'd like to take this opportunity to clear up any and all questions that may remain in anyone's mind. The original filing left one candidate running for president; three for vice-president; two for secretary; three for treasurer; and two for parliamentarian. After a ruling on write-in candidates by the Student Congress, one of the candidates for vice-president withdrew and began campaigning as a write-in candidate for president. Yeah for competition! As a result of that particular candidate's action, there were many other write-in candidates. Oh yes, at this point, I'd like to say that one person had filed for the office of vice-president unaware of the qualifications. After being correctly informed, this person then filed for the office of treasurer. All of which was perfectly legal.

Now I'd like to deal with absentee ballots. Article V, Section 6 of the Student Congress Constitution states very clearly that absentee ballots must be returned to the Student Congress office by 4 p.m. on the day of the election. Therefore, there were no absentee ballots involved in this year's election.

Discrepancies creep into everyone's life at one time or another. They creep into my life and the Student Congress's life early this year. In a particular election, there was a large discrepancy between the number of persons voting and the number of ballots cast. At the time of the aforesaid incident, the Student Congress adopted several guidelines for its Counting Committee. These guidelines appear in the minutes of the Student Congress meeting of September 14, 1971. The guidelines read that if there is a discrepancy of more than three per one hundred people voting then the election shall be declared invalid. In this year's election there could have been a discrepancy as large as fifteen; but there was only a discrepancy of six. Therefore, on behalf of the Student Congress, I declare the election held on Tuesday April 11, 1972 as being valid.

If anyone has any further questions about the election please address them to me or a Student Congress member.

If anyone has any suggestions please address them to the newly elected Student Congress.

In closing, I'd like to thank everyone who served with me on the 1971-72 Student Congress for all they may or may not have done. I'd also like to thank everyone else who may have been involved with the outgoing Student Congress. I'd like to give a special thanks to Mr. Hilgenberg, our advisor and his wife.

To the newly elected Student Congress, I'd like to say good luck, because you'll need it. To the student body, I'd like to say quit being so apathetic and back your elected representatives 100% and make Glenville State College a much better place at which to go to school.

Ed Suddath

Senator T. Floyd Talks About Election

Dear Editor: (A talk with the Senator)

Student: Hey, have you heard? Wilson lost.

Senator: Lost what?

Student: Her mind I guess. Well anyway, I guess that showed her.

Senator: What showed her?

Student: Why the election of course. You can't get by with the stuff she's been saying!

Senator: Thank you. That shows me to least.

Student: How? What do you mean to imply?

Senator: Just that Denmark has that smell again.

Student: Have you been out attending those Student Congress meetings too?

Senator: Sort of—not really a meeting, more of a pageant than anything else. The meeting was before hand; all the important business was already taken care of before I got there. I just heard the results. Besides, my business wasn't supposed to be brought up.

Student: Wow man! You're really a prejudiced somebody aren't you? Kinda one-sided.

Senator: I guess so. I always did favor the one who could do the job the best.

Student: Oh come on. All those Wilsons are the same; fourteen points or just four, nobody wants to hear about a platform to end all wars or all hours. Besides, your candidate lost pretty bad didn't she?

Senator: Oh I guess so—one or two votes I think. That is, if you don't count the absentee ballots that were cast for her.

Student: Wait again Mr. Senator. You're whistling in the dark aren't you? I mean ballots are always counted aren't they? They don't just pick out the ones that they need do they?

Senator: No, I guess you must be right. I apologize. Anyway, don't get so upset, the ballots weren't counted.

Student: Thank you. You might have shaken my faith in the bureaucracy.

Senator: I'm truly sorry. I'm sure everyone voted the way they felt was correct and proper.

Student: Did everyone vote, Sir?

Senator: Everyone that had an interest in the election I suppose.

Student: Does that mean the faculty and administration voted?

Senator: I don't think so. Superstar was in Charleston that day.

Student: Well anyway, I think the guy that got them all the tickets is a good man to have around. He's the kind of guy who's not apathetic and isn't afraid to speak out. Are you that kind of man Senator?

Senator: That depends.

Student: On what?

Senator: You. I have to be sure you're not taking me serious.

Student: Oh don't worry Senator, no one will ever believe a word of this.

Senator: Alright then, I suppose I can tell you the whole story.

Student: Good. I haven't heard a good mystery for such a long time. By the way, Senator, I heard you may have to take an "extended vacation".

Senator: That's not true. I like the climate here; it's always so sunny and fair.

Bowling Bid Won by FSC

In one of the closest roll-offs in recent years the Fairmont Falcons gained an 87 pin advantage in the next to last game and held on to defeat the Pioneers of Glenville State, 5699-5631. The roll-off was held at the Compton Lanes in Clarksburg.

The lead changed back and forth between games as the Falcons went up by 68 pins after the first three games but the Pioneers came back and went up by 59 after the fourth game and by 19 after the fifth. In the sixth and deciding game however, Fairmont gained a 1049-962 advantage. Bob Gardner rolled a 245 and Bill Malone had a 235.

Wally Kesling was high for Glenville with a total of 1179, Ron Sams had 1124, Al Malone posted a 1112, David Grapes, 1105, Gary Humphrey 1058, and Jim Maddox 1027.

Fairmont squad consisted of Bill Malone 1180, Charles Scott 1118, Bob Gardner 1102, Bob Ayers 1099, Ralph Robinson 1072, and Terry Falcon 1067.

The Falcons will now compete in Area 8 competition against Gann of Erie, Pa.

Three men ended their bowling careers at Glenville last Saturday. They are: Al Malone, Ron Sams, and Wally Kesling. All three have bowled for four years. A large part of our success is to be owed to these three fine bowlers.

The bowling team has won the conference title over the past three years. In 1969 the strike and spare men went to Kansas City and finished fourth. The bowlers were invited to the 1970 National Invitational Bowling Tournament in New York and placed second. Also the bowlers have come in second three years in a row in the West Virginia University Invitational Tournament. And finally the bowlers won the national doubles championship held in Washington, D. C.

These three bowlers deserve a big hand of appreciation for their help in starting what is now called "The Glenville Dynasty."

Doubleheader Won By GSC Batsmen

The Glenville State College batsmen opened up their 1972 season in great fashion as they swept a doubleheader from the Bobcats of West Virginia Wesleyan. The Pioneers won the first game 12-4 and the second 6-3.

In the opener the Pioneers led all the way as they scored two runs in the first inning, four in the second, and six in the sixth. Ken Swisher and Joe Cunningham were the big bats in the first game. Swisher had four hits and Cunningham had three. The Glenville batsmen knocked the Bobcat pitchers for 11 hits.

Dennis Reynolds turned in a strong pitching performance as he gave up only four hits. Reynolds struck out one and walked four as he went all the way.

Paul Ashby pitched the second game for the Pioneers as he likewise went all the way. Ashby gave up three runs, had six strikeouts and walked four.

Coach Miliken's baserunners were behind 3-1 until the bottom of the sixth when the Big Blue Wave began to make their move. The Glenville batsmen had four hits in this inning as five runs came across the plate to insure the victory. Joe Cunningham had the big blast for the Pioneers as he hit a long triple.

Ashby yielded just four hits as Glenville opened up their season on a very right note.

Mr. Jesse Lilly, 'Coach of the Year'

Have You Heard . . .

by Mike Rust

Cagers Honored at Feast . . .

The Glenville Alumni Association of Parkersburg are making plans to hold a spring banquet. Members of the Glenville State Basketball squad will be the honored guests. After the banquet films of the Kansas City tourney will be shown.

Tickets for the April 28 dinner are priced at $3 per person. The banquet starts at 6:30 p.m. in the Wilmar Restaurant. Baseball Strike . . .

Now as the players strike one wonders who is hurting the most. I think I have the answer. Shortly after the San Diego Padres voted 26-0 in favor of a strike one of the players approached club President Buzzie Bavasi and asked: "If we go on strike, could you loan me some money?" . . . Football Captains . . .

Coach Hanlin has announced the captains for the coming 1972-73 campaign. Carl Alloway will lead the offensive unit, while Neil Christiansen will guide the defensive squad.

Christiansen played the outside linebacker position last year but was moved to the defensive end spot during spring practice.

Alloway was named to the first team all conference team. Carl played the half back position on this year's squad.

Jack Nicklaus has become only the second man to ever win the Masters four times. Big Jack took the title this year with a convincing three shot victory. The other person to win the tournament four times? Arnold Palmer, who else?

Bowling Wrap-Up . . . Even though the bowling team failed in their goal to reach Kansas City I still feel they deserve a lot of credit. The bowlers really gave it a game try to defeat Fairmont but fell a little short. Dr. Dollinger and the entire bowling squad deserve a big hand of congratulations for their fine effort.

Joe Kapp's signing of an unconditional $600,000 by the Boston Patriots has to be one of the most unusual contracts ever signed. The contract includes such items as a provision that sets forth $200,000 for an option year. It calls for Kapp only to do public relations work only during football season.

And the real big provision is that he is to receive the money unconditionally even though Kapp should be cut or injured for any reason at all.

Sistersville Tourney . . .

Three Glenville State basketball players will be competing in the 12th annual Sistersville Lions Club basketball tournament. The players are Dale Tawney, Jim Spicer, and Ken Ledbetter. They are representing Glenville Dowell.

Former West Virginia University, Marshall, Ohio State, as well as many West Virginia Conference players will compete in the tournament. NBA Draft . . .

Russell Lee of Marshall was a first round draft choice in the recent NBA draft. Lee was chosen by the Milwaukee Bucks. Wil Robinson went in the fourth round to the Houston Rockets. West Liberty's Chuck Taylor went in the tenth round. He was drafted by the Chicago Bulls.

Pioneer Linksters Place Third, Fourth

The Glenville State Golf team opened up their season last Friday in a five team match at Morgantown. The Pioneers placed third behind West Liberty and West Virginia University.

Glenville had a total of 421 with Neil Christiansen having the best score of 79. Other scores for the dusters were: Wayne Mencer 82, Bobby Wilson 84, Richard Sansburg 85, and John Taylor 91. West Virginia University's Barry Fleming had the low score for the match with a 76.

In a match held last Monday the Pioneers placed fourth in a five team match. Fairmont won the match with a team total of 369. West Virginia Wesleyan was second at 385 followed by Salem at 385. Glenville was fourth with a 393 total and Davis and Elkins had a team total of 435.

Wayne Mencer had the low for Glenville with a 75 Bobby Wilson, John Taylor, and Neil Christiansen had 78. Richard Sansburg shot 84 and Mike Rust and Dennis Fitzpatrick both had 85.

David Sheradin of West Virginia Wesleyan had the low score of 68.

Jesse Lilly Honored As 'Coach of the Year'

by Dianna Moore

Coach Jesse Lilly, the cool, calm, and collected mentor of the high flying Pioneers has been received into the order of roundballers by receiving the coveted honor of being named W.Va. College Coach of the Year.

Lilly who became head coach of the Pioneers in 1967 guided the Big Blues to a Conference Championship in 1970 by whipping the league-leading Fairmont Falcons 61-60, and came from behind to defeat Morris Harvey in the finals 83-81.

In 1971 Lilly's men posted a 18-7 season mark and were ranked second in defense by the NAIA.

Defense is the name of the game at Glenville. "I've always been oriented toward a strong defense," Lilly said. "I'm glad our defense annoys the opposition."

Coach Lilly Starts at Elkview

Coach Lilly first coached at Elkview High School but was soon recruited back to Glenville by his former coach, Carlos Ratliff.

In 1962 he served as head coach at GSC while Leland Byrd was on a year's leave. Under his direction the '62 team posted a 16-11 record, their best in many years. Due to Byrd's return, Lilly went on to coach football and baseball.

Then in 1967 Lilly was once again back with the roundballers.

After three seasons of rebuilding Lilly had established his arsenal defense and coached the Blue Wave to 64 wins compared to 24 losses and, finally 'Coach of the Year' honors.

This year the 8th seeded G-men went all the way to Kansas City where the doomsday defense won their first outing and lost a heart-breaker to Augustana in the last second of the game. This was the first time in 21 years that the G-men had represented District 28 in the NAIA tourney.

The varsity harvested the honor of the trip by knocking the Falcons from their high perch in the NAIA ratings, handing Retton his first district playoff loss. The G-men even rated 7th in defense by the NAIA. The final polls ranked the Pioneers 12th in the nation after posting an 18-5 winning tilt.

Jesse received 91 total points from the sports writers to defeat Marshall University's Carl Tacy by one vote.

Victory Awards Dinner

Coach Lilly will be honored at the annual Victory Awards Dinner on Sunday, May 21, 1972 at Marshall University Memorial Student Center in Huntington.

Concrete Proposal Given For Dorm Hours Problem

To the Editor and all GSC Students:

Women's hours has been an issue long discussed on campus among many students and fought for by a few. In view of the coming legal adult status of eighteen-year-olds and equal rights of women, it is time for the women and men students of Glenville State College to stand up and be counted. If you have an opinion on the subject, either for or against the abolition of women's hours, now is the time to let the administration know how you feel. I have a proposal that I intend to submit to President Wilburn that I feel is fair, reasonable, and economically feasible, especially in view of the fact that more reasonable hours for women would undoubtedly increase enrollment. It is this:

(1) That women's hours for the summer session of 1972 and the school year 1972-73 be changed to midnight and two o'clock for women with less than twelve hours of credit and those women on academic probation, and no hours for all other women.

(2) That any woman planning to stay out after 6 a.m. or leave the town of Glenville must sign out by placing a sealed envelope containing the address and phone number where she may be reached in her mailbox, to be opened in the event of an emergency.

(3) That reliable male students be employed on workshops as night-watchmen to admit women with proper identification to the dormitory from eleven to six on weekdays and from two to six on weekends.

(4) That parents may request, if they so desire, in writing, that their daughters be restricted to freshmen hours.

This is a concrete proposal for reform and not just a complaint against rules as they are. I am willing to discuss this and any other constructive suggestions with other students, the faculty, and the administration. I am sure that President Wilburn, Dean Wright and others in the Office of Student Affairs are willing to listen to your comments and discuss the situation with you. This is your campus—GSC could not exist without you, the student, and you have a right to take part in how this campus is run.

Sincerely,
Mary Lisa deGruyter
