'The Last Editorial'

It seems like a century since I entered here as a freshman in the fall of 1968. After two years as Editor-in-chief and three and one half years of working on the Mercury, I feel a bit like a 65-year-old retiring after many years at the same job. Though it has only been four years since I started college here, it hasn't been hard to observe a few basic things about Glenville State College and to recognize the changes that have come about.

Four years ago the students had a totally different outlook upon their stay here. It was much less a suitcase college because the students made something to do. Everyone went to the plays that were given with unusual frequency and the campus organizations clamored for a slot on the social calendar for every kind of dance possible. For once-a-year events like Homecoming and Sadie Hawkins, it was hard to imagine how so many people managed to crowd onto such a small campus.

Academically, the instructors cared more about the students, and so the students were more interested. There was always the fear of the almighty grade and that has worsened. Some teachers are more interested in the number of cuts and style of clothes, length of hair, etc., of a student than in his academic abilities demonstrated in class.

Everyone blames the Administration or the Board of Regents for this lack of enthusiasm and the declining enrollment because of the antiquated dorm regulations, stiff penalties for dissension among the ranks, and lack of activities of interest to the students. These factors certainly do have some effect. But when the Seniors of '72 remember what their freshman year was like under the same or even more restrictive rules and regulations, the questions remain, who's fault is it really? Surely, there are no traditions left at Glenville as far as the students are concerned. The only times tradition settles on our campus is when the alumni are invited back.

College life, per se, is also non-existent. Very few students are concerned with the college community and its welfare. Their spheres of interest revolve around either their home town life or one special person here at Glenville. Many miss the experience college life can provide by hiding in a dorm or in a beer joint or packing up and going home at every opportunity.

But, alas, Glenville is still "the friendly campus" and you would never feel like you were a number here. A small college has its advantages. It could be more advantageous if more people cared.

There are several people who have made these last couple of years as editor more exciting and enjoyable. Dr. Wilburn, I thank you for keeping me honest and being very understanding and helpful. Dr. Dollgener, a special thanks for being just great in helping with our Kansas City trip and in supplying information from the physical education department whenever we asked. To the 1970-71 and '71-72 Mercury staffs, without your dedication and enthusiasm my job would have been impossible.

Most importantly, I thank Mrs. Yvonne King, Mercury advisor and a treasured friend. Her guidance and understanding have been invaluable from my first year at GSC.

My best wishes go to Dianna Moore, next year's editor, and her unusually talented staff.

Editor-in-chief

"Remember When" Offered To Seniors

Seniors:
Remember when:

- May meant something besides the end of school.
- The middle of campus was graced with old broken-down wooden steps.
- GSC sidewalks meant "hole hopping."
- You could get a real coke in the union for a dime.
- The WH dorm only had four floors and two wings.
- Girls had to be in at 12 on weekends.
- The home management house was up against Women's Hall.
- You could tell a mile away when they cleaned out the college farm barn.
- The faculty offices were in that old house that would barely stand next to Women's Hall.
- The Union was "the" place to go in Glenville.
- You couldn't breathe for the smoke in "Naps."
- You could walk downtown at night and not get arrested.
- We beat Fairmont 7-6.
- Homecoming was a big event.
- Girls had to wear dresses to classes and the cafeteria.
- The Student Congress had uncontested elections.
- Long hair meant a guy was a radical hippie.
- They put up the fence around the sundeck because the guys in Louis Bennett got telescopes.
- Verona Mapel was for girls.
- There was a dance on the hill every weekend and the sponsors made money.
- GSC didn't have a hot line or even a radio station.
- GSC was only 97 years old.

Home Economics Class Is Offered As Elective

Home Economics 499, Problems in Home Economics (Knitting), 1 semester hour credit, which is being offered on Thursday evening during the first semester fall school term, 1972-'73 DOES count as a 1 hour elective in Home Economics toward the total 128 semester hours required for graduation.

This problem course in knitting will most likely be offered again during the period of time that one will be in college. It is hoped that similar problem courses in Home Economics can be offered in the future to meet student desires and needs. So, if you are interested in learning to knit or in learning more about knitting, see your advisor. Plan to add the course to your schedule during the "add-drop" period when the first semester term begins.

"I was never one that could express my feelings on paper, and now I find it even harder when it comes to thank-you's for so many wonderful friends.

I would like to thank each of you who have remembered me in these past few months. Thanks to all who donated blood in my name and for the many cards and letters I have received. I believe that you have helped more than any medicine could ever do.

I hope each of you have a wonderful summer and to the graduating class of 1972 my best wishes.

I think you are all fantastic!!!"

May God Bless You,
Susie Siers

College Dean Extends Greetings To 'Centennial' Graduating Class

As Dean of Glenville State College I extend greetings to the Centennial Class of 1972. You are doubly honored in that you are a member of the Class of 1972, and in addition, the first graduating group to be eligible to be designated as the Centennial Class. As the College enters its second century of Service and Progress, you will join the forces which operate to shape its role and destiny. This will be a part of your responsibility as alumni.

The College is composed of students, faculty, staff, and alumni, and not of bricks and mortar as is sometimes wrongly assumed. As I stated in my Centennial Message, you came to our campus four years ago with "faltering steps to your threshold" and are now "striding confidently away as alumni."

The poet has said.

"You will make the future welcome,
You are not afraid."

President Nixon's Letter Adds To Seniors' Memoirs

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

TO THE 1972 COLLEGE GRADUATES:

When I think of what it means to be graduating from college in today's world, I reflect sometimes on the story that is told of an old and wise teacher in ancient Greece. It is said that there was no question which the teacher could not answer and nothing which he could not understand. Finally, one student thought of a way to discredit his teacher's wisdom.

The student planned to conceal a bird in his hands. He would ask the old man to guess what he was holding and, if he guessed a bird, the boy would ask whether it was dead or alive. Should the old man guess dead, the boy would let the bird fly away. But, if the wise man guessed the bird was alive, the boy would crush out its life and open his hands to reveal a dead bird. And so it happened, until the boy asked, "Is the bird alive or dead?" The old man replied, "My son, the answer to that question is in your hands."

Today the future of this Nation surely rests in your hands. Whether the promise of progress and prosperity will be realized, whether democracy and freedom will grow, whether men will continue to be governed by human wisdom -- all this, and more, rests in your hands.

You are the best educated generation in our history. What will you do with your knowledge and ideas? How fully will you engage your mind and will and spirit in helping to make America an even better place to live?

I am hopeful that you will use your talents and knowledge to help make our Nation's ideals a reality. Now is the time for a future of peace, for more responsive government, for equal opportunity for all. I congratulate you on what you have finished and look forward with hope toward what you can now begin to accomplish.

Richard Nixon

Hewitt Chosen Pioneer, 6 Cheerleaders Elected

David Hewitt has been voted the Glenville Pioneer for 1972. Dave was voted spirit leader by his fellow students over two other worthy candidates, Bubba Smith and Joe Parton.

The qualifications necessary for a candidate are that he be a male senior who has a good academic standing and has never lettered in in any sport at Glenville. With these demands in mind, the all-campus election was held and Hewitt won out.

One of the biggest qualifications for a Pioneer is to grow a beard, and next year's Pioneer fits this requirement admirably. Dave has a full well-trimmed beard.

In an interview with the new Pioneer, he stated that being elected Pioneer, was a great honor for him. Dave also stated that he will strive to keep the spirits of the students up at all the ball games.

Dave is a senior business administration major from Glenville. Besides serving as Pioneer, David is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

One of the key attention getters that will allow David to be readily noticed is his rifle. It is a .58 caliber replica of a Doug Aims issue muzzle-loader.

Six new cheerleaders were chosen at the try-outs on Thursday, May 4. The squad for 1972-73 are: Sherri Catalano, a sophomore language arts major from Spencer; Becky Von Buseck, a sophomore art major from Erie, Pennsylvania; Jo Ann Westfall, a freshman in general studies from Glenville; Stephanie Shimer, a freshman physical education major from Clay, and Cathy Deem, a freshman elementary education major from Parkersburg. Serving as alternate is Sue Ann Maxwell, a freshman art major from West Union.

Miss Maxwell, Miss Catalano, and Miss Westfall are members of Delta Zeta sorority, while Miss Von Buseck is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. Miss Catalano is the only returning member from the 1971-72 squad.

Dave Hewitt is the new Pioneer for 1972-73.

Davis-Elkin Sens. Take Twin Victories

The Glenville State baseball team lost both ends of a double header to Davis and Elkins on May 1 at Rohrbough Field to put a big dent in the Pioneer's hopes of a divisional championship.

In the first game the Pioneers lost by a score of 5-2. The Senators jumped on starter Bill Reynolds for four runs in the first two innings. Glenville was held to five hits by the D&E starter Bob Mattice. Jim Garnett and Danny Wessner had two hits each. Rudy King got the Pioneer's other hit. Glenville scored its lone run in the sixth inning when Ken Swisher came in on a double by Garnett.

Reynolds took the loss for the Pioneers. Reynolds and Rice combined to strike out six and walk four. The Senators had a total of ten hits.

The second game was a nightmare as the Pioneers dropped a 2-1 decision. The winning run came in the seventh inning with two away. Dale Mise was the D&E hero as he singled in two runs with a liner to deep center.

The Pioneers scored first as Ken Swisher scored in the third on a single by Jim Garnett.

Marvin Place did a good job of keeping the Senators in check through the first six innings before giving up the fatal base hit in the seventh. Place gave up six hits and struck out two.

Glenville had a total of four hits with Swisher, Garnett, Cunningham, and Wallen each getting one apiece. The Pioneers record now stands at 5-5.

MH Blasted By GSC Team

The Glenville Pioneers blasted the Morris Harvey Golden Eagles by a score of 7-3 and 10-2 to record their third and fourth victories of the season.

Paul Ashby started for the Pioneers. He did a credible job and was relieved by Marvin Place in the sixth inning.

The Pioneers struck fast and hard, scoring three runs in the first inning and were never headed throughout the contest. Glenville added two runs in the third, one in the fourth, and one in the sixth for a total of seven runs.

Jay Chambers led the Pioneer attack with three hits and one run batted in. Other players with hits were: Ken Swisher, Jim Garnett, Joe Cunningham, Rudy King, and Marvin Place. All had one hit. Cunningham and King had two runs batted in.

In the second game won by the Pioneers 10-2, the Glenville batsmen had their best day of the year at the plate as the Pioneer hitters blasted the Morris Harvey hurlers consistently.

The game was highlighted by a grand slam home run by Dallas Wallen to lead a six run uprising in the seventh inning. Jim Garnett had three hits to pace the Pioneer attack. Danny Wessner and Wallen had two. Ken Swisher, Jay Chambers, and Joe Cunningham had one apiece.

Joe Mitchem went five innings for the Pioneers in picking up the win. He gave up two runs on six hits.

Morris Harvey led until the fifth inning before the Pioneer bats began to get hot. The Golden Eagles were undefeated coming into the game.

Have You Heard . . .

by Mike Rust

Glenville State has accomplished a great deal during the past year. It is in my opinion that the Pioneers have a good chance of winning the Commissioner's Trophy for the WVIAC overall championship. Let us review back to last August.

The football season opened for Coach Hanlin and crew with a large crew of lettermen. The Pioneers suffered through some rough moments in the last part of the season. Glenville closed its season 4-4-1 overall. Probably during the end of the season the Pioneers had the best team in the conference. Victories came at the hands of West Virginia State, Bluefield State, Concord, and Wesleyan. The Pioneers suffered losses to West Liberty, Fairmont, Eastern Michigan, and Salem. Glenville tied with Shepherd.

Carl Alloway and Randy Dillon were chosen to the First String All-Conference team. Alloway played offensive halfback and Dillon played defensive end.

Ten players were lost through graduation but we will have a host of talent returning. Carl Alloway, Randy Jeffries, Howie Hoetzel, Kim Wilson, Brian Taylor, Richard Richmond, Chris Anderson, Jim Carter, Ken Morrison, Scotty Hamilton and Neil Christiansen to name a few. Glenville finished third in the conference.

Defense was crying going up in last October as the roundballers of Coach Lilly began their season. The GSC cagers started off impressively and never stopped finishing the season at 26-7.

For the first time in twenty-one years the Pioneers made the long trip to Kansas City. Coolness was the key to the last few games as the Pioneers won many close games including the ones at Charleston with Fairmont and Morris Harvey which led to the WVIAC championship.

The tight Pioneer defense seemed always ready to rise to the occasion. Coach Lilly's cagers led the conference in defense giving up a mere 60 points a game.

For the first time in a number of years the Pioneers were ranked in the NAIA poll. Glenville was rated number twelve in the nation by sports writers.

Among individual honors, Steve Datcher was named Most Valuable Player of the WVIAC tournament and was named Third Team NAIA All-American. Earl Hawkins got All-American honorable mention.

For the first time ever a swimming team was formed. The team made many fine showings and is to be commended for a great performance. Next year looks even better with many swimmers returning.

Among the stars of this year's team were Gary Field, Rick Cantarelli, Ralph Westbrook, Terry McCartney, Ed Williams, Hercy Given and John Howell. Coaches were Mr. Winkler and Mr. Bailey.

The Glenville matmen showed great improvement this year. The wrestlers placed fourth in this year's conference tournament. Coach Adolphson had seven wrestlers place in the tournament. This season marked the first year that the GSC matmen had a winning season taking seven matches and losing four.

Brian Taylor and Luther Hanson advanced the farthest for the Pioneers as each placed second in their division.

The tennis team also showed improvement over last year's squad. John Sizemore was the number one man on this year's team.

As usual the bowling team had their fine season. The Pioneers were number one in the conference but lost out in their bid for the tournament championship. Ron Sams was named "Bowler of the Year" to continue the Pioneer's dominance in this position. Other members of the squad included: Al Malone, Walley Kesling, David Grapes, Jim Maddox, Gary Humphreys, and Steve Martin.

The women's bowling team also came through with a fine season. The girls placed first in a tournament at WVU and fourth in a tournament at Marshall. Members of the women's team included: Linda Glass, Barbara Walker, Donna Newberry, Margii Jones, Glenna Gainer, Karen Lough, and Pam Abbott.

The golf team brought another trophy to Glenville this year by winning the conference championship held in Wheeling. The golfers won the tournament by a total of 24 strokes, which was the highest winning margin in a number of years.

Freshman Rich Sansbury was named to the All-Conference team. Other members of the championship squad included: Wayne Mencer, Neil Christiansen, John Taylor, and Bobby Wilson. The golfers will now compete in the NAIA championship held in New Mexico this June.

Last but by no means least is the baseball team. Coach Milliken's squad experienced, though, some bad weather and some tough luck but now stand at an even 5-5. The team has three more games to play and hopes are high for a winning season.

This is my last column of the year. Hope that everyone has a nice summer vacation. To the physical education department and members of the Mercury staff, plus my readers, thanks. It has really been a great time. See you next season.

Golfers Down Fairmont, Away To New Mexico!

Led by freshman Rick Sansbury, the linksters of Glenville State rallied to win the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Championship.

The Pioneer golf fashioned an almost unbelievable total of 304. Glenville had a two day score of 614, which was twenty four strokes ahead of second place, Fairmont. The top four scores were counted.

Rich Sansbury paced the Pioneers with a seven over par total of 151. Wayne Mencer had a 158 total for Glenville, Bob Wilson a 157, Neil Christiansen totaled 155, and John Taylor a 164. Mencer had an 83 the first day that was scratched and Taylor's 86 the second day was also dropped.

Four of the Glenville golfers were in the top ten for having the lowest scores. Sansbury was fourth, Christiansen was eighth, Wilson was ninth, and Mencer tenth.

Fairmont State was leading after the first day with the Pioneers two shots down. The match was close all the way and after nine holes of the second day, the tournament was all tied up between GSC and the Falcons.

Four Teams Still Remain

In Softball Tournament

Four teams now remain in the TKE softball tournament being held at the Community Field.

In the quarter final round held last Tuesday, the Yankees defeated the Wargips 12-8. Theta Xi Animals defeated BBB 7-4. The Faculty beat EFF 4-3 and LXA defeated TKE 4-2.

The championship game will be held sometime this week. In the semi-final games, the Yankees will play the Animals and the Faculty will meet LXA.

The Yankees came up against strong opposition with the Wargips. The game was a toss up until the end with either team having a chance to win.

The Faculty made a big comeback in defeating EFF by scoring four runs in the last inning.

In another close battle LXA defeated TKE. LXA started quickly and used good fielding to win.

The Animals started out fast and never trailed against BBB. The game was tied several times with the Theta Xi's winning out in the last innings.

The top five golfers in the event were named on the All-WVIAC team.

Rick Sansbury was among those named. Others to make the team were: Kris Vanderman of Alderson-Broadus, Jon Stricker of Morris Harvey, Doug Ray of West Liberty, and John Lay of Wesleyan.

Vanderman was the individual leader and was named Golfer of the Year. He posted a two day total of 148.

The golfers will now advance to the NAIA championship held in New Mexico. This is the first time the Pioneer golf team has advanced this far.

Pioneers Drop Two Against Mt. Lions

Coach Milliken's batsmen split two games April 29, with the Mountain Lions of Concord. The Pioneers dropped the first game 6-5 and won the second 6-1.

The lead bounced back and forth in the first game as Glenville scored first on a double by Jim Garnett and Joe Cunningham's single in the first inning. Concord came back with three runs in the third and two in the fifth. The Pioneers came up with four runs in the seventh to tie the score at 5-5. Concord opened up the bottom half of the seventh with a double, the next Mountain Lion batter walked and the next batter knocked a long double to bring in the winning run.

Jim Garnett had three for the Pioneers. Joe Cunningham had a double and a single. Glenville had a team total of ten hits.

Bill Rice took the loss. He gave up eight hits and struck out five. Glenville committed four errors.

Junior Ralph Cook hurled a neat five hitter as the Pioneers took the second game 6-1. Cook was really firing the ball as he struck out thirteen of the Mountain Lions.

Concord took the lead at 1-0 but the Pioneers came back quickly scoring one in the second and fourth, three in the fifth, and one in the sixth.

Ruby King had a double and a single to lead the Pioneer attack. King scored three of the Pioneers' runs. Glenville had a total of nine hits.

The Glenville bench is scene of much discussion in a pre-game pose.

GSC Student Is Sculptorer

by Susan Barnhart

A number of GSC students are known to have aspirations of becoming teachers, doctors, lawyers, and business administrators when they leave the confining college premises. Seldom, however, does one hear that a student would like to pursue such a career as a sculptor.

One present student would like to do just that. Ron Bennett has been doing wood sculptures since December.

His longtime interest in wood sculpture was sparked by his experience in forestry. He felt that walnut and cherry woods would be challenging mediums.

After receiving a degree in forestry from GSC, Bennett attended W.Va. Tech for three semesters and studied under the business program there. His desire to do sculpture led him back to Glenville where he hoped to get some pointers in design.

Presently Bennett prefers to work small, but he would like to work on larger pieces after he gains experience. He would like to study under a master sculptor next year. If the understudy program is an impossibility, he plans to study in California where wood is becoming a popular medium in sculpture.

Bennett would like to explore the possibilities of steel and bronze at a later date. He knows the future will see a revival of the arts, particularly in sculpture.

This summer Bennett plans to do more work in sculpture near the Atlantic City area. He feels this location will be a good environment for work and sales. He has sold several pieces and has entered one show.

Grass Is Always Greener When Choosing Spouse

Seeking a spouse? Where in the world should you go to find one? Surprisingly enough, despite popular opinion to the contrary, you might try staying at home. The marriage rate in the United States has risen 26 percent in the last decade, according to a recently released study on international marriage trends by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Last year, the United States recorded 10.6 marriages per 1,000 population, compared to a record low of 8.4 in 1961, and now has the highest rate in the world.

Nevertheless, note Metropolitan Life's statisticians, although the United States ranks high, our neighbor to the north, Canada, might also be a good bet. In the past seven years, alone, Canadian marriages have increased more than 27 percent, with the annual number of marriages reaching new highs in each of the last three years.

Indeed, all of the English speaking countries around the world are reporting increases in marriage. Another example is Australia, which recorded a rise of 24.3 percent in the past decade. Puerto Rico's marriage rate is also high, paralleling that of the United States and Canada - 10.5 per 1,000 population, or a 15.4 percent increase.

As for the Middle East and Asia, only Israel and Japan have reported complete marriage statistics for the past ten years. Israel's rate of increase - the highest of any country reviewed - is a startling 32.9 percent, Japan's is a relatively low 3.1 percent, concluded Metropolitan Life's study.

So, if you're looking for a likely place to land a spouse, simply check the statistics and choose a country!

TO THE SENIORS:

*Although it is said that you're eager to go,
You've learned all you can and want to know,
You've prospered in social and academic success,
You're touched by the lips of gentle caress.*

*The time has passed and as a fledgling freed,
Glenville has sent you winging with every need.
Return to the nest if trouble should fall,
And you'll find her waiting to comfort you all.*

*You can't destroy a memory or subjugate the fear,
Of failing a final this time of the year.
The lighthouse is casting a parting glow,
Glance up to your sentinel as you turn to go.*

*Then lift high your Boones Farm in final farewell,
And drink to the twelve stroke of that unfailing bell.
As you clutch your parchment and sweat trickles your brow,
Look to the real world, the present, the now.*

*What you have learned here you will take away,
On the many paths your feet will stray,
But as a token, a symbol, a rainy day song,
Pick up your parchment and take it along.*

*Glenville will travel in wake of your name,
And appear as often as you each make your fame,
Don't tarnish nor soil the life you've begun,
Wear Glenville proudly as a job well done.*

*Some of you will fall along the way,
Others will pause to stop you as you stray,
For you each have learned to live together, as brothers,
Though Greek or independent, help each other.*

*There's a special kind of friendship under the lighthouse spell,
You can hear it in every stroke of the old bell,
From under a freshman beanie that cautious, nervous smile,
You're still a Pioneer, though you stray ten thousand miles.*

The Institute Of International Education Opens 1973-74 Competition For Grants

The Institute of International Education has announced the official opening of the 1973-74 competition for grants for graduate study or research abroad and for professional training in the creative and performing arts on May 1, 1972.

These grants, whose purpose is to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and other countries through the exchange of persons, knowledge and skills, are provided under the terms of the Mutual Education and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961 (Fulbright-Hays Act) and by foreign governments, universities and private donors. It is expected that approximately 550 awards to 37 countries will be available for 1973-74.

Applicants must be U.S. citizens at the time of application, who will hold a bachelor's degree or its equivalent before the beginning date of the grant and, in most cases, be proficient in the language of the host country. Except for certain specific awards, candidates may not hold the Ph. D. at the time of application.

Creative and performing artists are not required to have a bachelor's degree, but they must have four years of professional study or equivalent experience. Social work applicants must have at least two years of professional experience after the Master of Social Work degree; candidates in medicine must have an M.D. at the time of application.

Selection is based on the academic and/or professional record of the applicant, the validity and feasibility of his proposed study plan, his language preparation and personal qualifications. Preference is given to candidates between 20 and 35 years of age who have not had prior opportunity for extended study or residence abroad.

These awards are for lectureships, research grants, graduate study, elementary and secondary teacher exchange and foreign student study in the United States.

Information for students currently enrolled in Glenville State College may be obtained from Mr. Kermit Kinder, guidance counselor, as soon as possible as there is a deadline on application.
