A new music class has been added to the night class schedule. It is Music 156-Beginning Folk Guitar taught by Mr. Baldwin on Tuesday night at 6:30 It has 1 hour credit and will be taught in the Little Theater.

Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, president of Glenville State College, will address parents of incoming freshmen this afternoon at a meeting to be held at 1:30 p.m; in the Ballroom of the Student Center. Following are some highlights from Wilburn's address: "Education is something that each person must acquire for himself. It cannot be purchased, borrowed, or conferred. It cannot be imposed on a student. He cannot acquire it by some mysterious process resulting by merely living on a college campus for four years in contact with professors, classrooms and books.

Glenville State College will offer to your sons and daughters the opportunity to achieve an education; but each student must, through individual effort, acquire that combination of knowledge of maturity of thought, wisof dom, tolerance, curiosity, ambition. continued on p. 2

Glenville State College have long suffered the problem of gaining answers to the countless questions that arise. A possible solution to this complicated problem has been offered by members of the faculty and administrative staff. The solution is in the form of a 'Little Red Schoolhouse' located in front of the science building.

The building has been described as a 'Little Red Information Center' and its chief purpose is just that-to pro-vide answers via telephone to different departments when the need arises Students, faculty, and staff may ask any question and receive an answer without a tedious wait or an indirect reply

The center will be manned by a staff working three hours a day and one hour at night. The staff will have a telephone on which they may call any department and obtain an answer tirely by the GSC maintenance department under the direction of Robert ment under the direction of Robert Gainer. It was approved by both Dr. Wilburn and Dr. Maze. Should the position of the house be unfavorable it may be moved to a better location. It contains Dutch doors and windows which the doors and windows, shingles and the sides are red accented by white stripes A voluntary staff will be needed for the house and any interested-student or faculty member may contact Paulette Jackson or Robert Gainer.

Auditions for Concert Choir will be held immediately after the beginning of classes, according to a schedule to be posted in the music department. To qualify for membership- 1) come to the music department and sign up, and 2) keep the appropriate time slot (MWF, 12:00-1:00) open in your schedule, so that Choir can be added.

Mercury Dedicated To Freshmen

Well, Freshmen here you are. After twelve years of formal education, you have now taken perhaps the biggest and most imp't. step of your life in becoming a student at Glenville State College. Of course it may seem awkward and frightening at first, but many of you will find that Glenville's reputation of being a 'friendly' campus is really true. You will find that the students and faculty members here will be more than happy to lend a helping hand, so don't be embarrassed to ask directions or any questions that may arise during your first weeks here. There are many organizations and activities that you may find

There are many organizations and activities that you may find yourself interested in so that your life at college will not be one of constant research and study. For many of you football season will be in full swing shortly after your arrival, and for those not interested in football, the college also will offer Lyceum programs and/or a game room where many of you will find enjoyment in bowling or pool.

pool. One thing each of you must remember is the reason why you are really here. Is it for the good times only or is Glenville State College another stepping stone in reaching your objectives and goals in terms of your professional education? Whatever group you may be in, all of you must remember that your education should come first and foremost. This does not rule out a social life but it does mean that you as freshmen must take your time in selecting activities that will not interfere or completely take priority over your professional education.

your professional education. True, many of you were in countless activities in high school and kept up your academic standing, but college life is different and it does demand countless hours of research and study, so take your time in selecting your new and mysterious social life as a college student.

So, it is at this time the staff of the Mercury dedicates its first issue to all freshmen and their parents. We would also like to welcome all new staff and faculty members.

Again, we welcome and say good luck to all you freshmen in your enormous task of molding your past education into a professional one during your four years at Glenville.

The Mercury is a student publication produced for all students and faculty members. We welcome all letters and comments to help us become more actively involved in student needs.

THETA XI HOUSE BOUGHT IN APRIL

The local chapter of the Theta Xi fraternity has bought its house. The five acre tract was purchased last April from Mr. Wilbur Dye after being leased for the last ten years. The Theta Xi National Headquarters provided a loan for the purchasing.

The two-story house, located in Camden Flats, has accomodations for approximately sixteen men per semester. The first floor has a kitchen, two living rooms, a bedroom for the house mother and a bathroom The second floor has five bedroomsand a bath.

Mr. Ernie Smith, Theta Xi advisor, relates that some $1500 in improvements are planned for the house. Among these improvements are a new kitchen, remodeling of the meeting room and building new storage closets for all rooms upstairs.

In speaking of the next few weeks ahead, President Wilburn remarks, "Experience has taught us that the months of college are a time of early crisis for parents and students alike. Until now, most of you have been closely associated with the education of your sons and daughters. You have provided much of their instruction in your homes. Most of you have encour aged them to receive religious training You have known your children's teachers and the members of the school board; you have participated in PTA activities and school events; you have had the chief responsibility for discipline, supervision of study, and co trol of non-academic activities outside of school. And now, you are turning your sons and daughters over to Glenville State College. It is understandable if you have some misgivings and appre-

Dr. Wilburn pledges the cooperation of all of his staff personnel with these words:

"As parents of our entering freshman class, you are naturally favorably inclined toward higher education. You are hopeful of its value and are convinced that it is well worth the sacrifice many are making to send your sons and daughters to Glenville State...

"Finally, on the part of Glenville State College, I pledge to you that all who serve here will do their best to encourage your sons and daughters to become better men and women by reason of having studied here and by having associated with us. We appreciate your confidence in this College and giving us, for a time, your most precious possessions - your sons and daughters. We accept this trust with sincere responsibility."

Best Wishes, Class Of 1976

It is with much enthusiasm and high expections of your future that I greet you as the class of 1976. You undoubtedly, are beginning what possibly will be the most rewarding four years of your lives. I hope that most of what happens to you will have a most positive effect on what you will become and what you will believe in terms of values which will guide you in relating yourselves to others.

Glenville State College must quickly become, in every sense, truly your Alma Mater. If this is to be, it must necessarily include the arriving at a degree of maturity which is exhibited in a sincere personal logalty to yourselves, to your fellow students, to those who cause you to want to be creative, imaginative, and objective in all areas of daily living. Only when you measure what you do in terms of values which make actions positive, and only when you measure logalty to yourselves as being identical with your logalty to others will Glenville State College have the meaning that it should have as your Alma Mater. With hext wishes.

Have You Heard?

By Mike Rust

Welcome back. Hope that everyone had a nice summer vacation. Now that the weather is beginning to cool down the gridiron season is starting to move full speed ahead.

Prospects are bright for a great season at Glenville State. In fact, a win over Northwood Institute in the opening game could propel the Pioneers in-to a contending position for a high ranking among the nation's small colleges

Coach Hanlin will have about one hundred men reporting for football in-cluding thirty-two lettermen. Only the offensive and defensive lines need some filling in. The offense will be directed by Ed

Williams, a transfer student from Potomac State. Williams was hailed as one of the best junior college quarterbacks around If Williams should not be able to direct the offense effectively Chris Anderson and Joe Mitchen will back him up. All of the top backs return, including All-Conference Carl Alloway Also returning are fullback John Pratt and Mike Robinson, added to this will be hard running Jay Chambers.

The offensive line will be anchored by Larry Chapman, Vince Butta, Mark Watkins, Irvin Braniff and Tom Harvey

Three of the top pass catchers are back-Ken Morrison, Richard Richmond and Steve Buffington

Defensively the Pioneers should stand strong. Leading the defensive team will be Neil Christianson. Neil will be the leader of the linemen corp along with Bob Hardman, Mark Reger and Marcus Rice

Scotty Hamilton will be a tremendous plus in the linebacking area along with Bruce Rhodes, Brian Taylor, and Ron Hudson.

The defensive secondary will probably be manned with Howie Hoetzel and Roger Bonnette as defensive halfbacks. Gerald Matheny will be the safe ty

With all this talent coming back plus the addition of one of the finest freshmen teams in Glenville's history coming in, this shapes up as a banner season for Coach Bill Hanlin and his staff

Top Team Picks . .

Picking the top teams in the country is delight for almost every sports writer •and I am no exception. With the major college teams getting ready for action in about a week here are my top twen-

- ty teams. 1) Nebraska 2) Colorado
- 3) Oklahoma
- 4) Georgia 5) Penn State
- 6) Southern California
- 7) Mississippi
 8) Tennessee
- 9) Texas

10) Notre Dame 11) West Virginia 12) Prudue 13) LSU 14) Arkansas 15) Ohio State 16) Michigan 17) UCLA 18) Arizona State 19) Iowa State 20) Florida State

A Sure All American .

Another sports writer delight is to pick a college pre-season All American Every single school in the country is pushing some one for All-American. Often times, it is the players who get the most drum beating that wind up as All-Americans at the end of the season.

Buddy Davidson the Auburn sports information director did a magnificent job of promoting quarterback Pat Sullivan last year. In fact, some say he publicized him right into the Heisman Trophy

This year I feel that Billy Joe Mantooth deserves the honor of All-Amer ican. Mantooth is the type of player that every college coach hopes to get. I went to high school with Bill and I know from experience that he has more desire and has worked harder than any other college football player I know When Bill graduated from Herbert Hoover High School, he weighed 165 pounds and was passed up by many of the big schools. Now after working with weights for the past four years he now stands 6'1" and weighs 225. Mantooth will hold down the position of middle line backer for the West Virginia Mountaineers this season. A true All American.

While talking about the Heisman Trophy look for Oklahoma's Greg Pruitt to win the award. Operating from the Wishbone last year he had a 9.41 per carry and 151.4 yards per game average plus 17 touchdowns. Not doubt that the winner of the Lambert Trophy for the best defensive player will be Rich Glover of Nebraska who else? Glover spearheaded the Cornhusker defense last year covering the field like a vacuum cleaner. Nebraska will have the top sophomore in the land with Dave Humm. A south paw passer, he is called the best Nebraska quarterback prospect ever.

Nebraska quarter Largest Prospect . . . With the addition of Bob Dunfee to this year's squad, Coach Hanim will have one of his biggest prospects ever. Bob stands 6'1' and weighs 270 pounds. In addition to being a good football player, Dunfee is a state champion wrestler. Bet that will make Coach Add(Son)' evere snartle Adolfson's eyes sparkle.

Close race ... It looks like it will be Cincinnati and Pittsburgh in the National League but that American league race is really

Among the course topics to be discussed are: personality development, poise, good nutrition habits, elocution, proper body posture, good grooming characteristics, elements of clothing selection, etiquette and successful personal and business attitudes. The course is being offered to GSC women students as Business 399 for one semester hour credit.

Enrollment for this course will be arranged by Dr. McCreary beginning August 28 in the main office for the Division of Business, located on the first floor of the Administration Building. Because Mrs. Lessig wishes to work with each young woman individually on occasions, enrollment must be limited to 35. The class meetings will be held on September 12, 19, 21, and 28. Ten enrollments are available for the class which meets from 12:30 until 2:00 on those dates. Twenty-five student enrollments will be made possible for the class during the 3:30 until 5:00 time period on the dates scheduled. No charge will be assessed for full-time GSC students. A special high school section is being scheduled

No charge will be assessed for full-time GSC students. A special high school section is being scheduled between 2:00 and 3:30 and a nominal fee will be charged for these students. The normal fee for this course is approximately $13 per student.

Dr. McCreary explained that Mrs. Lessig is perhaps better known by her trade name, "Wendy Ward." "Wendy Ward" is a special service developed by Montgomery Ward, Inc., to aid teenagers and young women in self-improvement, realized on an individual basis. Mrs. Lessig's work with young women in junior high school, senior high school, and girls' clubs in the Parkersburg community has been highly praised by her students and leaders of that area.
