Play Cast Announced

Mr. Jay E. Fields, the new drama director of Glenville State College, has announced the cast for "Butterflies Are Free," the first production of the season. The cast includes Douglas Smith as "Don Baker," Kathy Fluharty as "Jill Tanner," Miss Kathy Leisering as "Mrs. Baker" and David Grapes as "Ralph."

Currently on Broadway, the production has been released for presentation at Glenville by special permission. The theme of the play is essentially about a blind boy who is struggling against the unwanted sympathies of his nagging mother and those around him who can not understand his need for independence. Contrary to the theme, the play is actually a hilarious comedy.

For this production, Douglas Morrison has been appointed as Technical Director with Kathy Carpenter as Assistant Director. Also appointed is Woody Wilson as Stage Manager, Fran Spiker as Script Girl, and Russee Ann Garrett as House Manager. The crew members are Nancy Taylor, Bob Dye, Greg Plants, Vicki McGraner, Jeanne Moore, Audrey Mowrey, Karen Froendt, Ed Williams, and Jack Rodgers.

The Costume Department is headed by Celia McCoy who is assisted by Phyllis Barnhart, Diana Freeman, and Peggy Simmons. Kim Johnson is in charge of properties and is to be helped by Karen Case, Debbie Swimm, Melanie Hess, Vickie Ratliff, Judy Shreve, and Jenny Bills.

Sherri Catalano will head the Make-up Department serving with Jeanne Stephens, Gay Kincaid, Judy Dilton, and Barbara Lawson. Other appointments include Odessa Geary and Vickie Ratliff for Publicity, and Marqueta Stephens and Andrew Harper on the Light and Sound Crew.

"Butterflies Are Free" will open on October 18 and continue through October 20. The play will begin at 8:15 each evening and admission is by I.D. card.

The Veteran's club has announced that they will be showing the movie "Little Big Man," starring Dustin Hoffman in the Ballroom, Thursday, Sept. 28 at 7 p.m. Admission will be $1.00.

Cossack Dancers Present Program

Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers will appear in the Glenville State College Auditorium, Tuesday, Sept. 26 at 8 p.m.

The chorus has traveled on a total of 107 ocean liners and visited 65 countries. The Eiffel Tower, Parliament Buildings in London, Pyramids of Egypt, tea plantations of Ceylon, wild beasts of South Africa, elephants of India, rice-paddies of Indo-China, earthquakes of Jerusalem, bananas of Singapore and Java, tidy streets of towns of Holland, the Tunnel of St. Gothard in Switzerland, the minarets of Turkey, the caves of Madeira, the thrills of the Hawaiian Islands, a revolution in Brazil are all common sights to these Nomadic singers.

The Gen. Platoff Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers consists of twenty-five men under the direction of Nicholas Kostukoff.

The program will consist of folk songs, battle songs, popular melodies and special dances.

Admission to Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers is by ID and is a presentation of the Lyceum committee.

Kathy Fluharty, Douglas Smith and Kathy Leisering practice their roles in "Butterflies Are Free."

ERIC Depository Housed In Library

ERIC, Educational Research Information Center, is now ready for operation at the Robert F. Kidd Library. ERIC is a system of clearinghouses on information dealing with the field of education and all aspects of this field, including Early Childhood, Elementary, Secondary and Higher Education; instructional curriculum (lesson plans); vocational and technical curriculum. The collection is on 3 x 5 microfiche cards and the readers are in the library for use by students and faculty. Copies can be printed from the microfiche at the usual rate of $.10 for students.

Besides Glenville, there are only three other complete depositories in West Virginia and of these only one, the one at WVU, is open to the public.

The index and abstracts to the system are called Research in Education located in the index area of the library.

Also, in connection with the University of North Carolina and the Research Center at Triangle Park the Library has a computer print-out of subject areas including Early Childhood, Teaching Teachers to Use Media, Student Teaching Programs, Home Management Teaching, Library Services, Curriculum Development for Pre-school and Elementary Education, Reading Skills Instruction, and Special Education. If students are interested in using this information they should contact one of the librarians.

The volume and title content of the ERIC collection is roughly equal to the entire collection held in the RFL library. Mr. Gillespie, head librarian, will shortly have a piece of his own entitled Bibliography on Prison Libraries represented in the ERIC collection.

For the first time in the history of Glenville State College, two retired members of the faculty and administration have been honored as professors emeriti according to Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, President.

Miss Bertha E. Olsen who served the College for 42 years as a member of the music faculty, has been named 'Professor Emerita' by the Board of Regents. She was retired in May, 1972, and currently resides in Glenville.

Dr. Delmer K. Somerville, former Dean of the College, has been honored as 'Professor Emeritus' for 20 years of service to the College. He retired on August 31, 1972 and also resides in Glenville.

Both honorees were cited for their devoted, distinguished service to the institution and were notified and congratulated by letters from President Wilburn.

Attention Freshmen: Temporary I.D. will admit you to football games.

Druscella To Entertain At IFC Dance Tonight

The GSC Interfraternity Council is sponsoring a dance on Friday, Sept. 15. The dance will be held in the Pioneer Center Ballroom from 8 p.m. till 11 p.m. Admission for the event will be two dollars per person.

The refreshments for the dance will be beer, which incidentally is, free of charge, and can be served to any person 18 years of age or older who has paid to enter the dance. The Interfraternity Council has purchased six kegs of beer which they feel should suffice to supply all those who attend.

Everyone entering the concession area at the dance must display positive proof of age identification (e.i. draft card, drivers license, student ID, etc.). Music for the dance will be provided by Druscella, from Parkersburg, W. Va.

Permanent parking permits are to be shipped September 15, 1972 and should arrive for distribution no later than September 20. Anyone who has previously purchased a temporary IBM card will be issued a permit at no additional cost. The permits may be obtained, upon delivery, from the Dean of Student Affairs' office. The delay in delivery of the permits which were ordered January 24, 1972 is due to the demise of the company which produced the previously used Scotch-Lite stickers. Dr. Billips stated that in case of further delay, the temporary stickers will be valid until delivery.

Letters

Dear Editor,

You say . . . the Olympics had been perhaps the hope for a world-wide peace . . . yet how could peace come from a direct competition between (representatives of) nations so ideologically opposed as the United States, the Soviet Union, and say, Greece or Spain, or with religious boundaries so sharply delineated as between Pakistan and India, Greece and Turkey, or Israel and the Arab states?

You imply the Arab raid was "persecution." Was this raid more an act of 'persecution' than the Israeli expulsion of Jordanian-Syrian refugees, the Israeli occupation of Sinai and east Jerusalem, or the 'big powers' removal to Jewish control of Lands Arab for 1200 years? If the U.S., Britain, and Co. wanted a Zionist state so much, why did they not found it in New York (cf. the commercial significance of stripping the Arab states of Gaze and the Mediterranean Sea coast-lands) or Canterbury (remember, Jerusalem is the third holiest city in Islamic tradition)? You say 'World War II is over? Properly viewed, World War I and World War II are but two stages of a continuing conflict; if it takes the 'murder' of a handful of Jews to cause the fall of Willy Brandt's government, and a subsequent repudiation of his "Ost-politik," then the restoration of Prussia and Silesia-lands Tuetic for nearly 1200 years—to the truncated Reich, is well worth the sacrifice of mere games in which amateurs of Western nations compete against the Reds' professionals. What did the Arabs prove? (1) That the will to fight on against the Israeli "grand design" for eventual conquest of the lands held by Solomon 3000 years ago is yet strong enough to fight a la guerilla warfare (which is, after all, how the U.S. won its independence). There has been no treaty made ending the 1967 war—and there must not be concluded such a treaty until Israel gives territorial assurances and restores its illegally-held territories. In the 1930's then-President Hoover declared "The U.S. will never recognize any territorial acquisition made by aggressive conquest." In 1967, the Israeli armed forces attacked, a la "day of infamy" the Arabs, without declaration of war, why does the U.S. not condemn the Israeli as it did Japan? (2) That the Brandt government, incapable of maintaining order at home, is unable to provide security for its guests; and (3) That the roads from Tel Aviv to Damascus or Amman, or from the Suez to Cairo, while geographically short, are "paved in blood." What did the Arabs gain from World War I? A pretty legend of an Englishman with a conscience, and a series of French and English semi-colonies. What did the Arabs gain from World War II? Their independence gained only with less of commercial, ethnic, and cultural prestige. What have the Arabs gained from this tour d'resistance? A cause for which to live, and, if need be, to die. "Dulce et decorum pro patri mori."

Trusting that you will forgive my disagreements (and my typographical errors), I am,

Very sincerely yours,
M. H. Calhoun

Dear Sir,

Your reply is very historical and educational but you are talking about past and present times and my editorial was speaking of the future. These athletes at the Olympics may well be our leaders of tomorrow and the world peace I hope for was clearly illustrated in the closing ceremonies of the Olympics. If only for an hour, all nations can put away bitterness and politics and put on such a touching display of joyfulness, the Olympics may well be a major step of an understanding between all nations, may be not in our lifetime, but sometime in the future.

IN THE DRAFT TOO LONG

The following is an excerpt from: "Progress in Ending the Draft and Achieving the All-Volunteer Force," released by Herbert S. Klein, Director of Communications for the Executive Branch.

Dianna Moore
Editor-in-Chief

Nixon's Draft Promises Kept

On October 17, 1968, President Nixon stated in one of his speeches that America's draft system was outdated and was in need of revision. To this he announced, "I say it's time we took a new look at the draft -- at the question of permanent conscription in a free society. If we find we can reasonably meet our peacetime manpower needs by other means -- then we should prepare for the day when the draft can be phased out of American life."

With this, Nixon set into pace a draft reform in March, 1969. He selected a commission whose charter was "to develop a comprehensive plan for eliminating conscription and moving toward an all-volunteer force." He then started work on the Selective Service Act and signed into a law a bill which reduced the period of draft vulnerability from seven years to one year following a young man's nineteenth birthday. The bill also stated that the draft selections would be determined by the drawing of sequence numbers at random.

Then in September, 1971 Legislation introduced a reform that eliminated undergraduate student deferments for those entering college in the fall of 1971 and thereafter and established a uniform national call to insure that men throughout the country with the same sequence numbers would be equally liable to induction. Also the reform stated that the substantial increase in military pay was crucial in attracting additional true volunteers.

Due to these bills and reforms, Nixon's signs of progress to date have been: the sharp decline in draft calls which had occurred during the years of this Administration, and the draft calls had been reduced from 299,000 in 1968, to 50,000 in 1972 -- one sixth of the previous level. Also, the number of true volunteers has increased from 59% to 75% in the last year alone.

Next came the President's announcement in June of 1972 that no more draftees would be sent to Vietnam.

President Nixon on August 28, 1972 finally achieved what he had set out to do by ending the draft. President Nixon stated, "The experience of the past three years seems to show that sufficient numbers of volunteers can be attracted to the armed forces to meet peacetime manpower needs, and that ending all dependence on the draft will be consistent with maintaining the force-level and degree of readiness necessary to meet our vital long-term national security needs."

"We will no longer need conscription to fill manpower requirements after July, 1973."

In summary of his past achievements, President Nixon stated, "In reaching this goal, we will finally--28 years after the end of World War II--have done what I said in 1968, that we should do: That we should show our commitment to freedom by preparing to assure our young people theirs."

Greek News

There will be a blood drive on Oct. 5, 1972 from 9:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. in the Pioneer Center Ballroom. It will be sponsored by the fraternities and sororities, and conducted by the American Red Cross. Greek participation in this activity will involve blood donorship and assistance in the processing of donors.

The goal will be to provide protection for all GSC students, faculty, and auxiliary staff (and their families) who might be in need of blood. It has been estimated that 20% of the college community must contribute to this goal. Modern techniques of blood donorship have made this process painless.

Panhellenic has announced that all sororities will meet at the amphitheater at 6:30 today for the pep rally. The sororities will attend the pep rally as a panhellenic group rather than as individual sororities.

A joint rush party has been planned for September 24. It will be held in the ballroom from 7-9 p.m.

Since the Student Congress is sponsoring the Homecoming activities, it has asked Panhellenic and IFC to be in charge of the booths, which will be selling various items such as candy, cookies, and small crafts. These booths are not specifically for Greek organizations. All organizations on campus are invited to take part.

The different types of rushing offenses and the penalties for each were discussed. The registration fee for rush-ees has been abolished.

Pioneers Defeat Northwood In Season's Opening Thriller

By Mike Rust

The Glenville State Pioneers opened their 1972 season on an impressive note as they swamped the Northmen of Northwood Institute 35-24. The victory was a sweet one as the Pioneers avenged a 20-19 loss to Northwood last season.

With Chris Anderson passing for 214 yards in addition to the hard running of Carl Alloway and Les Facemyer the Pioneers were able to dominate the game.

Both teams went to a passing attack early in the game with Anderson hitting Facemyer for a 33 yard gain which set up the Blue Wave's first touchdown. Glenville scored with 9 min. 30 sec. left to go in the first quarter but had the T.D. called back due to an offside penalty.

Carl Alloway scored the first touchdown of the season for the Pioneers with 7 min. 17 sec. left on a two yard run. Jay Chambers kicked the conversion attempt. The series took 14 plays.

Northwood came right back moving the ball 74 yards up the field as Bill Smithingale ran the ball in from five yards out. Glenville put a good rush on the kicker and the conversion failed giving the Pioneers a 7-6 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Northmen got a big break at the start of the second quarter as they recovered a Carl Alloway fumble on the 29 yard line. From there it took Northwood six plays to run the ball in the end zone. Smithingale scored his second touchdown of the game as he went over from four yards out. The attempt for two points failed and Northwood led 12-7 with fourteen minutes left in the half.

Glenville erupted at this point scoring three touchdowns in succession.

Jimmy Carter ran the kick-off back to the Glenville 36. Anderson then went to mixing up his plays setting the Northmen up for the bomb. He found Kenny Morrison open in the flat for a 38 yard scoring play. Chambers' extra point try was good giving the Pioneers a 14-12 lead.

Glenville got the ball back with five minutes to play in the half and drove 66 yards in 10 plays to take a 21-12 lead. Alloway scored his second touchdown of the day going up the middle two yards.

The Blue Wave forced the Northmen to punt once again with about a minute to go. The Pioneers put on a heavy rush and the Northwood punter was unable to get a good punt off. Then the Pioneers took over the ball in excellent field position. Les Facemyer scored the final touchdown of the half going five yards around the right end. Chambers' kick was good and the Pioneers went into the dressing room with a 28-12 lead at the half.

Northwood came out the second half a new team and threatened to repeat last year's performance. The Northmen moved the ball 89 yards up the field scoring on an eight pass play from Ben Haller to Sam DeGrate. Northwood failed once again on the extra point try making the score 28-18.

The Michigansers got the ball back on a Glenville punt and again moved the ball easily up the field. DeGrate scored on a 25 yard run up the middle as the Northmen ran the trap play to perfection. Once again the two point conversion try failed and the third quarter ended with the score 28-24 in Glenville's favor.

The biggest play of the game came in the fourth quarter with 12 min. 4 sec. left. Northwood was driving and had the ball deep in the Pioneers' own territory. Then Jimmy Carter came from nowhere to intercept a Northwood pass to end the threat.

Anderson went to work uncranking a 74 yard pass to Steve Buffington who had gotten in back of his defender to insure the victory. Chambers' kick attempt was good making the score 35-24.

Gerald Matheny put the icing on the cake picking off a Northwood pass with four minutes left. From this point the Pioneers stuck to the ground and finally ran out the clock.

Glenville had a total of 400 net yards compared to 306 for Northwood. Carl Alloway was the leading ball carrier for the Pioneers gaining 83 yards on 27 carries. Les Facemyer had 77 yards on 9 carries. And John Pratt gained 54 yards with 10 carries. Bill Smithingale was the leading ball carrier in the game with an 86 yard total.

Chris Anderson had a sharp day passing, completing 9 of 13 passes for 214 yards. He had one intercepted.

Have You Heard?

Last Saturday's opener proved to be one of the most interesting first game contests I have seen in my four years at Glenville State. The game started off like it was going to be a regular season opener with both squads having a fumbling start. But after that start Glenville looked like a team who has played four or five games. The offensive linemen were opening up big holes for Alloway, Pratt, and Facemyer to run through. Perfection was the word in the Glenville huddle.

One of the big plays for Glenville last Saturday was the trap play. This was one of the main problems the Pioneers had last season. Les Facemyer did a good job of finding the holes and picked up 77 yards in 9 carries.

Chris Anderson looked in tip top shape throwing two long passes for touchdowns. Anderson completed 9 of 13 passes for 214 yards.

Northwood's quarterback Ben Haller is one of the toughest small college quarterbacks I have seen in a long time. He is only a freshman and showed his coolness in completing 12 of 21 passes for 127 yards.

Jay Chambers proved the importance of making extra points against Northwood. Jay completed all five attempts he tried. The Northmen failed on all tries.

History almost repeated itself last Saturday. Last year the Blue Wave was up 19-3 at the half only to have Northwood come back and win 20-19. This year the Pioneers had the Northmen 28-12 at the half only to have them come back 28-24, but Jimmy Carter's interception killed Northwood's final drive to insure the victory.

Basketball Prospects

Coaches Lilly and Carney have already begun to start working with basketball prospects. Coach Carney reports that there are about 35 boys working out. More of the drills now are being concentrated on conditioning and getting the boys in shape. Coach Lilly will really have his work cut out in deciding who will make the squad with all the talent around. If one wishes to watch, the practices start around 3:30 in the afternoon.

Football Picks . . .

With UCLA's upset of Nebraska last week it goes to prove that anything can happen at any time. In games around the area this Saturday I see: Glenville over Tech by 10, W.Va. State over Concord by 7, WVU over Richmond by 17, Morehead over Marshall by 10, and in pro games I predict Green Bay over Cleveland by 10, and Oakland over Pittsburgh by 7.

Tennis Tournament . . .

Do not forget to enter the second Glenville State College tennis tournament which begins Monday, September 18, 1972. The tournament, which is open to all Glenville State College students and faculty, will include singles and doubles play.

Those planning to enter the tournament should submit their names for singles and/or doubles play to either Ken Pritt (Room 333 LBH) or Bruce Flack, tennis coach (Office 314 Administration Building) by Wednesday, September 13. Trophies will be awarded to winners in the singles and doubles competition. To defray the cost of the trophies, a $1.00 entry fee will be charged.

All matches will be scheduled between 3:30 and 6:30 p.m. Other times can be arranged for those entrants who have any class conflicts during the hours of tournament play.

Eastern Division Race . . .

If one of the managers in the American League East does not have a heart attack during the remainder of the season, it will be a miracle. Baltimore, Detroit, Boston, and New York have been bunched together for the last month and none seems ready to give up yet. I am putting my money on Baltimore.

Olympic Judging . . .

The judging and officiating of these Olympic games has to be the worst I have ever seen. Several of the boxing match decisions were just unbelievable in the way that the judges made their decisions.

The real clincher came when the USA and Russia met in the basketball finals. The call at the end of the game was unreal. If I had been Hank Iba, I would have refused to put my players back on the court.

Final Score . . .

Hope that the Pioneers can raise their record to 2-0 tomorrow. With a big fan turn out I feel that this will be a big help. If the Blue Wave can match last week's first half's performance, I believe that they will not have much trouble in defeating the Techmen. Everyone have that Pioneer spirit tomorrow and watch out for "Boo-Boo" Smith.

C. Alloway, Christianson Are Honored

Carl Alloway and Neil Christianson have been named co-captains of the 1972 Glenville State College Pioneers.

Alloway will head up the offensive unit while Christianson will call the signals for the defensive unit.

Carl is a senior and stands 5'8", weighing 173 pounds. He is a three year letterman and is a resident of Belpre, Ohio. Despite his lack of size, Carl makes up for it with his great speed and determination. Alloway was given a major honor last year when he was named first team halfback on the All WVIAC Conference squad.

Neil has been a starter for the last two seasons at linebacker. However, this year Coach Hanlin felt he needed some experienced personnel on the defensive line and moved Christianson up to defensive end.

Christianson is a senior from Parkersburg and has lettered for the last two seasons.

With the naming of these two players as co-captains, Coach Hanlin feels that both of these players will be able to influence the rest of the squad and establish a winning attitude.

West Va. Tech's Golden Bears Arrive For Saturday Battle With Glenville Team

When Coach Charlie Cobb brings his Golden Bears of West Virginia Tech in tomorrow to do battle with our Pioneers, one can probably look forward to a wild and very high scoring game.

The development of many freshmen and sophomores will probably be the key to Tech's season. The Tech roster includes only six seniors and three juniors, the remaining roster consists of 52 players who are either sophomores or freshmen.

The Golden Bears will have eighteen lettermen back including halfback Wayne Price who gained 506 yards last season. Mike Gibson, a transfer from WVU will be the other halfback.

Three quarterbacks are fighting it out for the starting job. They are Terry Murphy, Lester Tharp, and Jerry Williams. Coach Cobb reports that all three will probably be seeing some playing time.

Other returners to the offensive unit include tackle Don Lucas, tight end Dave Eads, guard Cecil Tominack, flanker Jeff Dragonskie and tackle Dwight Stull.

The defensive unit is where the Golden Bears could have their problems. The defense is headed by returning letterman Chuck Bailey and Rich Higgenbotham at defensive ends, linebacker Reggie Billups and halfback Mark Redden.

The defensive secondary will be very inexperienced with many untried freshmen and sophomores holding jobs.

Coach Cobb feels that the key to the season will be to establish a winning attitude in his players at the start.

Tech's record was 2-6-1 last season and Coach Cobb stated that this year was one of the Golden Bears' best years ever for recruiting. Several freshmen have been very impressive and could start Saturday against the Pioneers. They are guard Paul Misch of Brooke County, halfback Eric Ford of East Bank, defensive back Don Money of Ceredo-Kenova, guard Jerry Mobley of Bellaire, Ohio, halfback Marvin Moore of Greenbrier East, linebacker Steve Hess of East Bank, and tackle Mike Zacchini of Bellaire, Ohio.

Tomorrow's game looks like a real exciting contest. Look for the air to be filled with passes and the scoreboard to have a lot of points on it, hopefully in the favor of our Glenville State Pioneers.

'Home To The Hills' Chosen As SC Homecoming Theme

'Home To The Hills' is the theme selected for this year's Homecoming at Glenville State College by the Student Congress. October 13, Glenville will celebrate the traditional event with a new type of observance, a Heritage Weekend. This is all in keeping with the fact that the Student Congress has been placed in charge of the gala instead of the Alumni Association as in previous years.

Plans for this year include a Friday night square dance to be held downtown. The annual Saturday parade calls for trophies to be awarded to the three most original floats selected by a panel of judges. Also to be awarded are cash prizes for organizations with unusual skits or dances following the theme of their individual float. These prizes will be given in addition to, but not in conjunction with, the group's float.

Following the parade, slated to begin at 10:00 a.m., booths will be open on campus to give the student body the opportunity to sample 'Mountain Lore' at its best. Various crafts, homemade candies and ice cream, and general Heritage items will be sold during the afternoon.

All groups, organizations, sororities, and fraternities are invited to participate in this activity. Please contact panhellenic or Inter-Fraternity Council or the Student Congress office for complete details.

Homecoming as such, will include two days this year, instead of the usual Saturday observance. Friday, all students and faculty members are urged to dress in appropriate fashion becoming a Pioneer, and in keeping with the celebration, all students are excused from usual dress codes established by the administration.

For all those interested in becoming expert chess players and who want to become another Bobby Fischer please attend the organizational meeting of the chess club in Mr. David Gillespie's office at 9:30 Thursday, Sept. 21 or at 3:30 on the same day.

"We the Black students of Glenville State College, believe that we, as citizens of the United States of America and members of various communities, have the rights and responsibilities to so govern ourselves within the limits that all groups at Glenville State College are there-by governed. Thus, we do hereby establish and ordain this constitution of the Blacks United Together."

The above is the preamble of Glenville State's newest organization, Blacks United Together. Organized for the purpose of providing unity for all black students on campus, providing experience for all its members in the practice of democracy, promoting the general student activities that will involve the members of BUT, constituting a strong medium for expressing the opinions of all students, and strengthening the relations with the administration, faculty and students, BUT is the realization of organization and unity for the Blacks on the campus of GSC.

The idea for this organization was first formed early last year. Many of BUT organizers first met and formed a constitution first semester of the 1971-72 school year.

But due to technicalities in the membership clause, it was not until Spring and the end of the year that the constitution of BUT was passed and accepted by the Student Congress. Now, an organization with goals, purposes, and ideals that are relevant to the black student has become a reality at Glenville. Under the capable and solid leadership of President Ron Jones and officers, Earl Hawkins, Eric Makle, Zandra Lyle, Jeff Jackson, and Mike Brown, this organization is sure to be a very positive and commendable addition to the social interest and academic climate at GSC.

A concert by the 'Grassroots' is to be presented in the GSC gym on Friday, Oct. 20. The estimated length of the concert is two-three hours. This is a non-profit effort on the part of WGSC Radio to bring good popular entertainment to the Glenville State College campus. The concert cannot be presented unless $5,000 in advance tickets are sold.

Tickets can be bought in advance only. No tickets can be sold at the door. Tickets are for sale at WGSC Radio Station, and can be delivered if necessary. Tickets are also available in Room 308-B Women's Hall, the Office of Student Affairs, Jack Rogers, Louis Bennett Hall, and downtown at Sue's Dairyette. The last day to buy tickets is Friday, Oct. 20. For more information, call WGSC Radio, ext. 266.

The Veterans Club of G.S.C. held its first meeting Tuesday morning in Louis Bennett Hall Lounge.

The officers for this school year are as follows: Brian Taylor, president; George Brumfield, vice-president; Larry Slack, secretary; Dave Hewitt, treasurer; and Joe Parton, sergeant-at-arms.

The club will sponsor a movie "Little Big Man," starring Dustin Hoffman on September 28 in the Ballroom of the Pioneer Center. Admission will be $1.00 and the showing is open to all GSC students and faculty.
