Office Being Redecorated

President Wilburn's office is taking on a new look. The office is being redecorated with new paneling, furniture, carpeting, and draperies.

The deep piled wall-to-wall burnt orange carpet is accented with draperies of orange and white design. They are of a traditional form with a matching valance and white sheers are to be added. They were furnished by Podes to Draperies in Clarksburg.

The president's desk, matching the cherry paneling, is custom made by Myrtle Desk in North Carolina. An oval-shaped conference desk and matching chairs with green padded seats have also been added. A bookcase is expected to be arriving soon.

With the exception of the drapes, the new furnishings were supplied by Kyle and Co. of Clarksburg.

Miss Paulette Jackson

Miss Marcia Huffman

Miss Teresa Boso

Policy Exceptions, Procedures Stated

After the withdrawal period from classes with a "W" ends, students may withdraw from a class with a "WP" or "WF" only for the following reasons:

1. Medical Reasons. Must be substantiated by a written statement from a medical doctor stating that continuation in a class or carrying a certain number of hours is likely to be detrimental to the mental or physical health of the student.

2. Circumstances Beyond Control of Student. Must be investigated and substantiated by a written statement from the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs describing some most unusual circumstances that have developed that make it advisable that the student reduce his class load by one or more courses for the remainder of the semester.

The procedural steps for withdrawing from a class with a "WP" or "WF" are:

1. Student presents written statement from medical doctor or Dean of Student Affairs to his adviser.
2. Adviser assists the student in deciding what course or courses to drop and issues drop slip.
3. Student takes drop slip and substantiating statement to Dean of Academic Affairs for approval.

Press Conf. Reveals Plan

In a press conference held November 9, at Glenville State College, campus facilities planning was revealed for the next eight years, to 1980. The study was prepared by Wood and Tower of Princeton, N.J. for the West Virginia Board of Regents.

Recommendations for renovation involves a three-year time period to include the preparation of Verona Maple Hall (residence hall) for classrooms and academic facilities including kindergarten and early childhood education, division of business, data processing and faculty offices.

'A' Wing of Women's Hall will be sealed off to be used for a men's residence hall on all six floors.

An athletic complex will be constructed at College Park, Mineral Road, to include a football field, tennis courts, outdoor playing fields, an all-weather track, parking facilities and a locker building house.

Plans for parking at Rohrbough Field and renovation of the Administration Building ground floor are a part of the facilities proposed.

Reader's Theatre Production will present its last performance Friday night at 8:15 p.m. in the Little Theatre. The Production is directed by Mr. Jay Fields and Russee Garrett, student director.

An invitation is being extended to all students who wish to visit their hometown high schools during Christmas vacation and talk to students interested in GSC. A training session will be held Thursday, November 30 at 9:30 a.m. in the auditorium. At this time procedures to be used will be discussed.

Circle K, Largest Club, Meets On Wednesdays

Circle K International is the largest collegiate organization in North America, with nearly 800 clubs throughout the United States and Canada.

Circle K is a service organization through which college students can find a means of responsible student action in their communities and a more active involvement in the life of their campus. It is a means of forming friendship, working in a common cause with other students, and simply having fun.

If you are interested in Circle K, then come to a meeting. We meet every Wednesday night at 6:30 p.m. in the W.Va. section on the third floor of the Library. Bring a friend.

Motion Picture Slated For Fri., November 17

THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY, a new and very different motion picture, will be shown at the First Baptist Church (basement) at 7:30 p.m., on Friday, November 17. The presentation is sponsored by the Baptist Student Fellowship and is free to the public.

Tony Brown, had terminal cancer. Unexpectedly he and his family faced new questions, new fears as death confronts life and is the loser. Filmed to show the warm tenderness a Christian father has for the family he must leave behind, it also displays the love and courage of his wife and daughters as they learn to "walk through the valley of the shadow of death."

THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY is not the typical death story, nor is it aimed at the tear ducts. It simply illustrates how a man can live his life so that when death comes he can meet it as a friend tenderly and gently in Christian hope.

THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY was produced by Mel White and is being released through Gospel Films, Inc. of Muskegon, Michigan.

Three Girls Enter Glamour 'Top Ten'

The all-campus election for GSC's representative in Glamour Magazine's Top ten College girls of 1973 contest revealed three coeds as top contenders.

Give Thanks Thurs.

With the thought of a four day break coming up, the majority of us forget the real meaning of Thanksgiving day. In its original meaning, it was a day set aside to give thanks for the crops the frontiersmen were able to raise.

On November 11, 1621, the ship "Fortune" arrived from England. Governor Bradford thereupon declared the day celebrated next week as Thanksgiving Day.

Times were hard for the settlers who arrived late in the year but by autumn they had worked hard to salvage what little corn and barley, beans and other vegetables they could.

In this era of $50,000 homes, remote control, atomic power and snap decisions we consciously or unconsciously forget the true meaning of being thankful.

Many of us today are thankful for the enormous amount of turkey and food set before us because everyone usually manages to stuff themselves.

Although as Americans we think of ourselves as well-off but also in this thought we must remember those fellow human beings in other parts of the world and most certainly those who live around us that have rags for clothes, garbage to eat, and filth to live in.

Take the time to say thanks for what you have, instead of asking for things you don't need. Take the time to speak to your neighbors and lend a helping hand to the needy.

No, this isn't a four day break for a time off from studying or breaking the routine. It should be a four day vacation that is spent giving thanks for what you and your family have.

WV-SPiRG Requests Interest

Students of Glenville,

Tomorrow has been cancelled due to lack of interest. Don't laugh. Unless we all start working now, we may all choke on our own affluence (or somebody else's for that matter).

O how about --- Freedom has been suspended due to nobody noticed it was gone. It could happen. The phone they tap may be your own.

Or maybe --- Democracy breathed one last sigh, rolled over and died. Democracy means people. And people means individuals. And that takes in just about everyone, doesn't it?

WV-SPiRG is about people - grass roots - you and me - and it needs our help to survive.

Are you just a bit concerned about the environment? Well, stop wringing your hands over the Alaskan pipeline and consider for a minute a recycling center for Glenville.

Does justice sound like a great idea to you? Well, stop throwing darts at your picture of Adolph Hitler for a second and think about the weird way they list the delegates to the national conventions on the W.Va. ballot (it might be nice to know which candidate they represent, huh?).

How about tenants' rights - or black lung disease - or chauvinist piggies, ladies, or --- get the idea? Terrific!

See? Now don't you feel better already? No? Good. Come to the next WV-SPiRG meeting and see what a shot of good old American democracy can do for you.

Student Public Interest Research Group needs your support, enthusiasm, and bring along your body, too.

How about -- Apathy has been cancelled due to lack of disinterest. Think about it.

Theatre Cited As 'Success'

The literature read to the audience in the Little Theater Wednesday evening might call up images of the manner used by the ancient Greeks to declaim the stories of their great heroes, or the mood of the troubadours and minstrel as they wove together the melodies and romances of the Middle Ages, or even the humor of the Commedia players joking their way over Renaissance stages. This treatment of literature is old but effective, and, hopefully, Glenville State College audiences will be treated to more of the same.

The presentation was not traditional theatre but rather a method for presenting contemporary audiences with a specific genre of literature. For the viewer this was a new experience, and like all new experiences, "A Readers Theater Production" met with mixed reactions. Everyone received a printing of an explanation of the readers theatre which stated important aspects of the performance: the literature, the readers, and the imagination of the audience. On the basis of two statements, the performance carried out this manifesto to the letter.

Three short pieces of the literature were delightfully funny. Thurber's "The Little Girl and the Wolf," "Uncorn in the Garden" and Leacock's "Behind the Beyond" kept the audience laughing. Jean Kerr's "Ten Worst Things About Men" was humorous but at times dated. The second half of the program was Bradbury's "Dandelion Wine," which is like Our Town reduced to a telegraph in mood. The plot is about an impressionable young boy's summer in 1928 beginning one bright June morning and ending one peaceful August evening. Within that interval love, loss, death, sorrow, all of life is telescoped. In treatment, there are vague similarities between this production and "Spoon River Anthology." The constant dimming of the lights for the players to shift from one platform to another got wearisome and took too much time--wasn't the audience invited to use its imagination?

The new faces among the readers were refreshing. Andy Harper and Barbara Stemple have exceptional talents, and for those of us who ordinarily see Ruth Swatzyna everyday--what a surprise! Her French maid was a jewel. The more experienced players, Bob Dye, Marqueta Stephens, Susan Smith, and Woody Wilson, seem particularly suited to the techniques called for in a readers theatre. The cast and crew appear to have retained the same spirit of enthusiasms with which the season began.

Due to Thanksgiving vacation there will be no issue of the paper on Friday, November 24. Normal production will resume on December 1.

Greek News

This year's Sadie Hawkins was one of the most successful in many years. The activities started at 12 noon and lasted to 5:00 p.m. on the Verona Maple Lawn. Around 12 noon most of the people did the gator in all of the mud. Although it was messy, everybody joined in with the fun. Lots of activities were held and the winners are as follows. Kay Bunton won the women's sack race while Ron Little won the Men's division. Two students from WVU, Debbie Freed and Connie Larew, won the women's three-legged race and the men's three-legged race was won by Mike Wilt, Gary Ross, and Ken Vannoy.

The careful egg toss was won by Bucky Thomas and Mike Smith. Debbie Legg and Howie Hoetzel won the women's and men's bob for apples, respectively. Paulette Cowley and Mary Fisher won the women's wheel barrow race while Dennis Dillon and Steve Lewis won the men's race. For the third year in a row, Kay Bunton won the cigar smoking contest. Scotty Hamilton spit the farthest in the tobacco spitting contest, Kim Wilson showed his muscles as he won the log toss, and the luckiest guy at the morning activities was Keith Sayre, who got the five dollar bill that was placed on the top of the greased pole.

A dance was held Saturday night from 9-12 p.m. with free refreshments and "Judas" providing the music. It was one of the largest crowds at a Sadie Hawkins dance. All the activities were enjoyed by all students attending.

The regular meeting of Sigma Sigma, Sigma was held on Tuesday, Nov. 14, in the ballroom.

New officers for 1972-73 were elected. They are as follows: President-Pam Sumpter, Vice-President-Kim Jones, Recording Secretary-Bobbi Shomo, Corresponding Secretary-Susie Cottrill, Scholastic Secretary-Cathy Reveal, Treasurer-Terry Smith.

Plans are being made to have a Thanksgiving Dinner for the Senior Citizens of Glenville.

The Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority is expecting a visit from their Field Representative, Miss Debbie Bukas, one day this week.

Miss Bukas, a resident of Chicago Heights, Illinois, received her B.A. in English from Loyola University in Chicago, Ill., in June, 1972. As a member of Gamma Lambda Chapter on that campus, she served as chapter Chaplain, Philanthropic Chairman and Vice-President. On campus she was active in club football, serving as secretary; and Circumference, Loyola's women's honor society. She also served as chairman for Freshman Orientation Week, spring and winter festivals, as well as tutor for students on Educational Opportunity Grants. After serving as a resident assistant for two years, she received the Powell Merit Award for outstanding service to the resident community. She has also been active as a volunteer worker for Angel Guardian Orphanage and as a CCD teacher.

Delta Zeta sorority is making plans to go to Spencer State Hospital next Tuesday, Nov. 21. They plan to visit the patients as a Philanthropic project.

They are also planning to have a Chili Dinner on Nov. 24 and 30, to be held at the Delta Zeta sorority house. It will be from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. and tickets will be sold to adults for $1.00 and $0.75 for children. Anyone wishing to buy tickets may contact any Delta Zeta member.

The sorority is presently selling "decorative candles." They are being sold for $1.25 and $1.75 for the candle and base.

What's Up, Doc?

By Dr. Louis J. Manley

Q. What causes bad bruises from just the slightest bump?

A. Bruises are the result of a condition called purpura which signifies a hemorrhage into the skin. There are many causes for this condition. It may be due to a medicine or drug you have been taking in the wrong dosage or you may have been taking it for too long a time. It could be associated with a chronic infection, toxic condition, allergic reaction, vitamin deficiency or blood element deficiency. All of these have many underlying reasons. If this has gone on for any length of time, it should be investigated by a hematologist that has a laboratory at hand to do complicated analyses, because this situation could be difficult to diagnose. As a start, you may try the simplest of treatment yourself--a good balanced diet and a good multiple vitamin in a therapeutic dosage. If there is no improvement within 3-4 weeks seek good professional help.

Q. I have had a bad sore throat, cough, and sinus problem and am taking cold capsules. These do not seem to help me. Do you have any suggestions?

A. With tongue in cheek, I'll say that if you still have this problem, come to the office so that I may try to help you get rid of it. Medically, a chronic program needs professional care and treatment. If allowed to continue for protracted periods of time, other problems, such as chronic bronchitis, pneumonia, bullous emphysema and rheumatic heart disease, could be the result.

Pioneers Post A Winning 6-3 Season, Ranked Fifth In West Va. Conference

With the 1972 football season over let us review for a few minutes and see how the season shaped up.

The Pioneers travelled to Michigan in their seasonal opener to take on the Northmen of Northwood Institute. Glenville started off impressively as they swamped the Northmen 35-24. Chris Anderson completed nine of 13 passes for 214 yards. Carl Alloway and Les Facemyer did the job on the ground as the Blue Wave totaled 186 yards on the ground.

Glenville took on the Golden Bears of W.Va. Tech the next week and made their opening home appearance a good one with a 35-6 victory. Chris Anderson had another great day passing, completing 15 of 25 passes for a total of 238 yards. Anderson threw three touchdown passes. Glenville had 216 yards running with Randy DeBastiani and John Pratt doing most of the work.

The Blue Wave suffered their first defeat of the season against the Salem Tigers in a defensive battle by the score 6-3. Glenville was held to 78 total yards for the whole game. Disaster struck early for the Pioneers when Chris Anderson suffered a shoulder injury.

Glenville was in another defensive contest when they met the Falcons of Fairmont. Chris Anderson and Steve Buffington teamed to give the Pioneers a 13-6 victory. Anderson hit Buffington for an 84 yard scoring bomb to seal the victory.

The tough Pioneer defense led the way for the Blue Wave against West Virginia Wesleyan as Glenville came out on top 19-0. The defense came up with five fumble recoveries plus the tough running of John Pratt sprung the Pioneers to victory.

Glenville suffered its second defeat of the season as they dropped 10-0 decision, before a disappointed Homecoming crowd. Costly interceptions and a tough Bluefield defensive line held the Pioneer offense in check all day.

The Blue Wave suffered its third setback of the season at the hands of the Hilltoppers of West Liberty by the score of 21-6. Glenville had trouble getting their offensive scoring machine going for the second straight week. The Pioneers faced one of the toughest quarterbacks in the conference in Jim Brickman. He completed 13 of 22 passes for 231 yards and scored two touchdowns.

The Pioneers got back on the winning track against the West Virginia State Yellow Jackets. Glenville featuring a rugged defense defeated the Yellow Jackets 10-0. Chris Anderson hit Ken Morrison for a 55 yard scoring play for the Pioneers' only touchdown.

In the final game of the season the Blue Wave defense ran their string of scoreless quarters to eight, as the Pioneers defeated Concord 16-0. Richard Richmond scored two touchdowns and Jay Chambers added a field goal.

11 End Career Via Graduation

Eleven seniors ended their college football careers here at Glenville State. However the outlook for next year could be brighter than ever.

On the offense nine starters return plus many others who have seen considerable action. In the offensive backfield all of the starters return. Included in this corp are quarterback Chris Anderson, fullback John Pratt, halfback Richard Richmond, plus Les Facemyer, Jay Chambers, Mike Robison, and Stan Harris, all of whom saw considerable action.

The offensive line lost only one, that being offensive guard Vince Butta. Returning players are center Irvin Braniff, tackles Larry Chapman, Bob Maynard and Jim Selbe, guards Mark Watkins and Tom Harvey, and tight end Ken Morrison.

Also returning on the offense will be Anderson's favorite target, split end Steve Buffington.

The defense will be the hardest hit with five players lost by graduation. Returners on the defensive line are: defensive tackle, Bobby Hardman and defensive guard, Mark Reger.

The linebacking corps will be the worst hit area by graduation with three of the four graduating. Only middle linebacker Brian Taylor returns. Players who hope to step in include Billy Pierce, Jim Carter, Paul Fredrick, and Kim Wilson.

The defensive secondary is the only group which will return intact. Sophomores Roger Bonnette and Gerald Matheny return as defensive halfbacks and freshman Jerome Fruit returns as the safety man.

Datcher, Hawkins, Garnett and Jones To Lead 72-73 GSC Basketball Team

The 1972-73 Glenville State College basketball team has started its drills under the direction of Head Coach Jesse Lilly and Assistant Tim Carney. The Pioneers will be out to defend their title as NAIA District 28 Champs.

Coach Lilly was asked if this would be a banner season and he replied, "That seems to be a stump question. Anyone with four returning lettermen from a team that won the WVIAC tournament, the NAIA playoffs, and participated in the NAIA National Tournament has to have good prospects, however."

That team, which finished with a 26-7 record, appears to be strong again this year. Gone from last year's team are Kenny Ledbetter, Roosevelt Lynch, Jim Spicer, and Dale Tawney. However, Steve Datcher, Earl Hawkins, Jim Garnett, and Ron Jones return to the starting line-up again for the G-men. Datcher, a third team NAIA All-American and All-WVIAC choice last year, will team with Hawkins, another All-WVIAC pick last year, Jones and

Garnett, who is overlooked when time comes to pick All-WVIAC but who is probably the premier guard in the conference. Ralph Cook figures to be the Pioneers' fifth starter. He has been a three year letterman for Coach Lilly.

Gene King and Roger Hess are also returning lettermen for the Lilly men. King will be the third guard and Hess will back up the man playing the post position. Tom Lilly, Eric Makle, Roger Caudill and Jeff Jackson are also returnees. "I'd say the bench strength is adequate," quoted Lilly. "They'll come through when we need them."

"Bluefield Shepherd, Wheeling, Fairmont and Morris Harvey will be strong," stated Lilly when asked how the other conference teams should shape up. "State (W.Va. State) has made a coaching change so I don't know about them. They have everyone back."

"Right now," he continued, "things look pretty bright. But you have things like grades, sickness, and injuries to consider. Right now, Ralph Cook is a question mark. (Cook has what is believed to be a kidney ailment.) But we can move Makle, Datcher (Randy) or John Hudson into that position if it needs to be done."

Coach Carney said some freshmen were kept on the squad. They include: Rushon Colon from Hinton, Wes Denham from Fairmont, Randy Hess from Clendenin, and Harvey Chester from Dunbar. Randy Datcher is a sophomore from Nonjemoy, Md., but has freshman eligibility status. John Hudson is a junior from Ripley with sophomore eligibility status. Mark Elder is a freshman from Vinson, Ohio and he rounds out the newcomers.

"There is no replacement for experience," said Lilly in his closing remarks. "A team with experience can anticipate, cause a mistake and capitalize on it." The 1972-73 Pioneers have seven lettermen, including six seniors and four returning lettermen who have played two years together. Could this year also be the year of the Pioneer?

Annual P.E. Conference Attended By Local Staff; Chico Named Secretary

This past Friday and Saturday, Nov. 10 and 11, the Physical Education Staff of GSC attended a conference in Charleston. This was the annual conference of the West Virginia Association of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. Along with the staff, the following students attended: Jane Archer, Leah Ball, Connie Cole, Sandy Elmore, Glenna Gainer, Karen Goodall, Vickie McCracken, Draunta Mullens, Donna Newberry, Lynn Osborne, Cathy Perkins, Brenda Riffle, Gary Moore, Kenny Morrison and Greg Nicholson. These people attended many meetings and were introduced to much new material.

Gary Moore made this comment, "I thought it was interesting, the most interesting to me was the Adaptive Physical Education Program." Glenna Gainer commented, "The conference was very worthwhile from the standpoint of new concepts. To me, the Adaptive Program was most interesting."

The GSC Physical Education Department received an honor at the conference. Mrs. Kay Chico was elected as the new secretary of the WVAHPER.

As a follow-up to this conference, there will be an Elementary Physical Education workshop at Gilmer County High School on Saturday, November 18, 1972. This workshop is open to all Physical Education and Elementary majors. This will begin at 9:00 a.m. on Saturday. The principle speaker will be Hap Palmer. Palmer has recently introduced a series of records in the elementary field that correlate various subject matters with Physical Education.

Football Team Duly Honored

On Friday night, there was a dance and banquet for the GSC football squad, given by the merchants of Glenville. At this banquet, individual season awards were presented to some of the ballplayers. There were four defensive awards and four offensive awards presented.

Brian Taylor was chosen as defensive lineman of the year. Taylor figured greatly in the defensive strategy of the Pioneers actually being the hub of the defense from his middle linebacker position.

Scotty Hamilton was chosen as Defensive Back of the Year. Hamilton's biggest asset was his desire to intimidate enemy ballcarriers and pass receivers. The enemy team never failed to realize his presence.

Thief of the Year award went to Jerome Fruit. This award was based on pass interceptions and/or fumbles. All through the season, Fruit had a nose for the ball and seemed to be the right place at the right time.

Chosen as Scout Defensive Player of the Year was Rod Smith. Smith was a big asset to the team in showing our offense what they would be looking at in the next ballgame.

Offensive lineman of the year was Steve Buffington chosen because of his play at split end. Buffington exhibited speed, agility and great hands all year to add some excitement to the ballgames.

Offensive Back of the Year award went to John Pratt. Pratt showed great ability from his fullback slot throughout the season. His hard running tactics never failed to give the Pioneers those extra yards, especially in clutch situations.

Chosen as Best Faking Back was Joe Mitchem. Mitchem exhibited good moves and ball handling ability from his quarterback slot to receive this award.

Scout Offensive Player of the Year was Bob Werry. The scout offensive team is responsible for showing the Pioneer defensive team what they will be facing that particular week. Werry was always present at his quarterback position to mount the attack of the scout offensive unit.

BUT Champs

Intramural Volleyball came to a climatic close last Thursday evening with BUT I and the Theta Xi Animals fighting it out for the championship. BUT I made a runaway of the first game as the whole team put together an all out effort for a 15 to 7 victory. The second game was a complete reversal as the Animals put down the BUT team 15 to 5. The third game started out as a duplicate of the second game with the Animals jumping out to a 6 to 2 advantage. The BUT's caught the Animals with the score 8 to 8. From this point on, Steve Datcher and Earl Hawkins worked together, like always, and went on to a 15 to 10 game and the Volleyball Championship.

Mrs. Kay Chico, instructor of women's physical education was elected to the office of secretary-treasurer at the Physical Education Convention held in Charleston.

Dorm Reservation Deadline Released

The procedure for acquiring room reservations at Glenville State College for the academic year 1973-74 is the same as the previous year.

The procedure stands as follows:

1. Students currently enrolled are given until December 1, 1972 to guarantee themselves a space in the residence halls. Specific choice of rooms or roommates may be made at this time. Indicate choice of roommate and room on the line provided.
2. A twenty-five ($25.00) dollar reservation fee shall accompany the formal application for room reservation. These requests for space during the month of November will be made at the separate residence hall offices. The fee will be deposited by the residence hall director with the Business Office and receipts returned to students making application.
3. After December 1, 1972 reservations are open to new students and space shall be allocated in the order of receipt of request in the offices of the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women.
4. If it becomes necessary for you to cancel your reservation please notify the BUSINESS MANAGER GLENVILLE STATE COLLEGE. Such cancellation or failure to enroll for the period for which the reservation is made will result in forfeiture of the entire reservation fee to the College. However, the fee of $25.00 will be refunded about three weeks after the end of the college year to those students who complete their housing contract, less any charges for damage to the room, loss of room key and any other indebtedness having been incurred or owed Glenville State College.

French Individual Study Is Introduced By Instructor, Mr. George Ramsey

By Sandra Foster

The French department, under the supervision of Mr. George Ramsey, has been practicing a new concept of individualized language study this year. The idea is based on the individual study of the student. All class work is done by the use of tapes covering the

Program Is Held For Thanksgiving

The Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship is the sponsor of the all-college Thanksgiving assembly program being held on the GSC campus on Tuesday, Nov. 21, at 9:30 a.m. in the college auditorium.

The Rev. Ronald James, director of religious activities of Alderson-Broadus College, will be the featured speaker. He is a graduate of Alderson-Broadus College and holds his divinity degree from Colgate-Rochester Seminary. He has held pastorates in Pennsylvania and for the last five years has held his present position on the A-B staff.

The concert choir of GSC, under the direction of Mr. James P. Baldwin, will perform two numbers of Johannes Brahms which are selections from Opus No. 29, entitled "Create in Me, O, God," and "Grant Unto Me Thy Joy of Thy Salvation." In both works Brahms used words taken from the 51st Psalm.

The Fellowship meets every Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Wesley Foundation where approximately 30 to 40 members participate in song fests and Bible study. Also the fellowship members hold prayer group every evening for men and women in their respective dorms.

Sunday, Nov. 19, begins National Bible Week, in which the Fellowship, along with other denominations of the college and community will distribute the Luke and Acts portions of the Bible to all households of Glenville.

various units, and each student works at his own rate. After the completion of a unit the student takes an exam. If 90% or better is not made on the exam he goes over the unit again with special emphasis being placed on his weaker points in the unit. French 101 and 102 contain 50 units.

This is one of the first programs of individual language study in W.Va. The idea came about last year while Mr. Ramsey was at Greenbrier College. According to Mr. Ramsey, small colleges such as Glenville need to offer three or four languages but can not afford to pay this many different instructors.

Mr. Ramsey, a native of Fairmont, is a graduate of Malone College, Canton, Ohio, and of WVU. He studied one year at L'Universite Catholique de l'Ouest in Angers, France. He also studied in Germany and Canada and has visited 50 different countries. He does a great deal of slide lecturing.

The program has approximately 30 students and includes French taught on three levels. There are no formal class group meetings. The teacher is more or less a program manager along with his student assistant, Mrs. Barbara Nicholson, senior, who is available along with Mr. Ramsey to help the students. She also helps in preparing tapes, exams and in the evaluation of the students work.

If permissible through the school, a student could start in this program at any time and could even advance a whole year in one semester's work.

The department hopes to carry the program over to include German, Spanish, Russian, and Italian.

The program is really a change in concept. There is no longer a separation of class, lab and homework, just work which equals about six total hours a week of the student's time. The final responsibility of learning is placed on the student.
