1973-74 Semester Fees Released By Dr. Wilburn

President D. Banks Wilburn has announced the new fees for the first semester 1973-74. The tuition and fees for resident students will be $116.00 and non-resident fees $491.00 per semester. These prices reflect a $2.50 increase in activity fee which will be used to help bring more entertainment to the GSC campus.

Next year there will be two dorms—Women's Hall and Louis Bennett. A-Wing Women's Hall will be used to accommodate men. The dorms will be operated on a 'no hours' policy. There will be security at one entrance in each area for men and women. The switchboard will be operated 24 hours a day.

Room and board rates for women living in B-Wing Women's Hall are: private room, $549.00; semi-private room, $495.00; and three per room, $486.00. Room and board for living in C-Wing Women's Hall are: private room, $558.00; semi-private room, $504.00 and three per room $495.00.

Four Are Named Outstanding In Ed.

Four members of the GSC faculty have been named Outstanding Educators of America for 1973. Nominated earlier this year for this national recognition, they were selected on the basis of their professional and civic achievements. The four were Charles C. Scott, Lillian Chaddock, Carl A. Kerr, and Mason Gene Bailey.

Professor of Art, Charles Scott has received degrees from Concord College and Ohio University and is presently chairman of the Art Department.

Mrs. Chaddock is a graduate of West Virginia University and an Associate Professor in home economics. Carl A. Kerr is an Associate Professor of English and French and a graduate of Ohio State University. Mason Gene Bailey holds degrees from Rutgers and the University of Minnesota in math.

Outstanding Educators of America is an annual awards program honoring distinguished men and women for their exceptional service, achievements, and leadership in the field of education.

Nominations for this program are made by the officials of colleges and universities including presidents, deans, and department heads. Their selection guidelines include an educator's talents in the classroom, contributions to research, administrative abilities, civic service and professional recognition.

To rent a room in Women's Hall with a private bath and boarding the cost is: $558.00 for a private room and $549.00 for a semi-private room.

Room and board for men living in A-Wing will be: $549.00 for a private room, $495.00 for a semi-private room, and $487.00 for three in a room. The room and board for men living in Louis Bennett Hall for a private room is $531.00 and $477.00 for a semi-private room.

A sales tax, ranging from $14.31 to $16.74, will be added to the room and board fee. The increase in board cost is due entirely to the rising cost of food and labor.

Dr. Wilburn has also released the schedule of costs for part-time resident student's tuition and fees. They are: 1 hour, $11.00; 2 hours, $18.00; 3 hours, $24.00; 4 hours, $35.00; 5 hours, $42.00; 6 hours, $49.00; 7 hours, $56.00; 8 hours, $98.00; 9 hours, $102.00; 10 hours, $106.00; 11 hours, $110.00; and 12 hours, $116.00.

The cost for part-time non-resident student tuition and fees are: 1 hour, $40.25; 2 hours, $78.50; 3 hours, $116.73; 4 hours, $159.00; 5 hours, $197.25; 6 hours, $235.50; 7 hours, $273.75; 8 hours, $347.00; 9 hours, $385.25; 10 hours, $423.50; 11 hours, $461.25; and 12 hours, $491.00.

Tuition and fees are payable in full at the opening of each semester. Board for one-half semester is due

Apr. 2, 3, Dates For Drive For Red Cross Donations

GSC's Blood Donor Days will be held on Monday and Tuesday, April 2 and 3 in the ballroom of the Pioneer Center. The Red Cross team will process donors between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Tuesday and between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Wednesday. Last fall, the Red Cross sent only one-half of their team for one day and that team had to work hard to handle everyone who came to donate. This time the waiting and the crowd will not be an obstacle. A full team will be on campus for two complete days.

The fraternities and sororities of GSC are sponsoring this Bloodmobile visit with the assistance of the Calhoun County Chapter of the American Red Cross. The Greek-letter social organizations are also providing volunteer help for the Red Cross team.

Our goal at GSC is to have 20 per cent of the entire college community

Brennan Visits Campus On U.S. Lecturing Tour

Mr. Edward J. T. Brennan will be visiting the Glenville State campus as a guest lecturer in various classes April 23 and 24. He is the 1973 British holder of the A. W. Mellon Lecture-Fellowship and currently is a Tutor in Secondary Education at the Cambridge Institute of Education. He is lecturing in the U.S. under the sponsorship of the Regional Council for International Education.

Mr. Brennan will lecture and lead discussions in the following subject areas: Young Britons in a Changing Society, The Changing Curriculum in British Schools in the Seventies, Tradition and Changing Values in the Political Field, and Britain and the Common Market.

to donate one pint of blood. This will provide protection for students, faculty, and staff. We need as many donors as last fall - and more. The Red Cross has given us protection this year with confidence that we would complete our quota. Two members of the college community have already needed this protection. None of us plan to need blood, but when we need it, we want it to be available. If we can meet our quota at GSC, it will be available for us. Even if we don't make our quota, those donating will provide protection for themselves and their immediate families.

Anyone in good health, weighing over 115 pounds, and between the ages of 18 and 66 is eligible to be a blood donor. The nurses will give you a brief medical exam to make sure it is safe for you to give. Those who donated last fall are eligible to donate again.

Under normal circumstances donating blood is good "tonic" for your own system. Studies show that the giving of blood stimulates the bone marrow as physical exercise stimulates the muscular system. Your body soon replaces the donated blood volume. Do yourself and others a favor. Donate a pint of blood on April 2 or 3.

The Red Cross was overwhelmed by our response last fall. They did not expect so many donors. Let's surprise them again, when they've sent their full team.

Josten Co. representatives will be on campus Wednesday, April 4 from 9-11 for 'Ring Day.'

If weather permits, rings will be displayed on the bookstore porch; if not, in the Student Union.

Congress Sponsors Miss GSC Pageant

The Miss GSC Pageant sponsored by the Student Congress will be held April 12 at 8:00 p.m. in the college auditorium. Miss West Virginia, Lynn Koper, will be Mistress of Ceremonies and will stay at the Pioneer Motel during her visit to Glenville.

She has blonde hair, blue eyes, weighs 130 lbs. and stands 5'5" tall. Her favorite hobbies are sewing and dancing and her favorite sport is basketball. Patti has had two years of piano and plans to sing in the pageant. After graduating from GSC she plans to teach kindergarten or nursery school. Patti is a member of Delta Zeta sorority. ## No. II Production Class Shows One Act Plays

The Play Production II class will be presenting six one-act plays on three consecutive Wednesday nights, April 4, 11, and 18. The plays will be directed by members of the class as a class project. These productions will be the replacement for the fourth major production of the year, You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown.

The plays to be presented on April 4 are Next to be directed by Celia McCoy and A Cup of Tea directed by Woody Wilson. Next, written by Terence McNally, is a comedy about a 40-year-old draftee who arrives for his physical examination to find that the officer in charge is a female sergeant. A Cup of Tea, written by Florence Ryerson, is a farce about a poet who writes love sonnets to a woman and gets caught by her husband.

These plays will be presented in the Little Theatre at 8 p.m. Admission is by ID.

AAUW Sponsors Sec. Recycling Project

Mike Brown, sophomore physical education major from Aquasco, Md., was appointed by Dr. Billips and the WGSC Staff as the new manager of the radio station. Formerly Lee Harbert was station manager.

Some of Brown's plans are to improve the listening, become more professional and help the disc jockeys improve their broadcasting.

He also has an executive committee which does a fine job. This committee consists of Mark Caldwell, program director; Jackie Morton, secretary; Toney Floyd, music director; Judy Shreve, advertising manager; and rounding out the committee Dink Marini, business manager.

The radio station also has many disc jockeys who do a fine job. They are: Jack Rogers, Mike Irving, Gene Chancey, Gary Dobson, Vicki McGraner, Rick Hickman, Roger Allen, Roberta Lockhart, Dink Marini, Judy Shreve, Mark Caldwell, Toney Floyd and Bill Sparkman.

Freedom Of Press Is Your Right

"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercises thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

Thus states the first amendment of the United States Constitution, the first of the Bill of Rights. This makes freedom of the press a right, not a lethal weapon as Justice Rehnquist would have it. It is a right, not of the press to write, but of the people to read, to learn, and to be aware. It is not a weapon of journalists to aggravate the federal government. It is my-or-belief that the people have a right to know what is happening in their world, and if what is happening is right or wrong, well then, so be it, the people must know.

I think the federal government is running scared of the media. In the past few years, we have played up anti-war protests and played a large part in ending an unjust war, we brought out the Pentagon Papers and showed many iniquities, and we manage to keep such "unsolved" puzzles as Watergate and the Yablonski murders in front of the public eye.

This whole thing started in November of 1969 when Spiro Agnew said that the press should differentiate between straight news and editorial comment, because the American people could not tell them apart. Just because he can't, doesn't mean you can't, and we don't underestimate the American public's intelligence.

Here is what the Supreme Court, in a 5-4 decision, wants. Those newspapers and broadcast representatives covering the Executive Department are to be accredited, including, possibly, a license. All this will be preceded by a written examination, a loyalty oath, and a physical and mental examination.

By the time a reporter rises to the rank of the level of reporting national news, he is intelligent enough to know not only all about his media, but what is and what has happened on the national level. The mental examination, I could see, because sometimes mental instability is difficult to detect. But I really do not see what a physical examination would benefit. A person's health does not keep him from seeing and hearing things and then writing them down.

The loyalty oath is what is the most ridiculous thing in the whole plan. It will mean that we will swear to side with our Chief Executive, whether right or wrong. The government claiming infallibility is why Thomas Paine wrote Common Sense and crystallized the opinion of colonists in favor of revolution, and why Henry David Thoreau did time in jail for breaking a law he thought was wrong. This loyalty oath, and the whole program, will mean that if a journalist writes something that goes against the administration, then he risks losing his job and his future. The Federal government will keep him from working—and that, my friends, is censorship in the extreme. In this land that proclaims liberty as an "inalienable right" and protects free speech and free press in the first amendment, we will have censorship. At least, in Russia, they do not tell the media that they have a free press with one mouth, and what not to say with the other mouth.

John Milton, in a wordy manner (much wonder that I could ever be, wordy thing that I am), once said that a person's writing were an extension of his personality, part of him. To censor his works are to cut off a piece of the man, such as an arm or a leg, only worse. Our federal government will be cutting off pieces of men who would ordinarily be in a position to tell the public what is going right or wrong with the government.

With the Supreme Court ruling comes licensing, and censorship, and a blissfully ignorant public. If the American journalist wants it that way, he can have it. If he doesn't want to keep people from the truths of life, and I know he doesn't, then I think he should ignore this ridiculous Supreme Court ruling now, before it is too late and the whole country dies in ignorance of life.

U.S. Marine Band Accepts Graduate

Jack Riddle, a 1972 GSC graduate and music major, auditioned for the U.S. Marine Corps Band Jan. 10. He was accepted as one of the eight French horn players from auditions throughout the 50 states.

While at GSC, Sgt. Riddle studied the French horn under Mr. Edward M. Vineyard and as a graduate student at Marshall University he studied under Mr. Stacey.

The Marine band is usually known as the President's band, playing for state dinners, presidential parties and all musical entertainment for the presidential family. The Marine band, directed by Lt. Col. Harpham, has a total membership of 140.

Before attending GSC Sergeant Riddle studied with Helen Kotis, former principal hornist of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

During his studies at GSC Sergeant Riddle attended several international horn clinics and at that time studied with the internationally known horn instructor Phillip Farkas. Mr. Farkas was formerly the solo hornist for the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. He also held this position with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, the Cleveland Orchestra and the Kansas City Philharmonic.

Famous Birthplace Restoration Sought

The membership committee of the Pearl S. Buck Birthplace Foundation recently held a special meeting at the Ramada Inn in Beckley, West Virginia. Mrs. Paul Yates, the Foundation's membership chairman, presided and 19 people from throughout Southern West Virginia attended.

The purpose of this meeting was to create more public interest in the notable project to restore the birthplace of Pearl S. Buck. Miss Buck, the famous West Virginia author who died on March 6th, referred to her birthplace when she wrote "From that home has come so much life that it ought never to die or fall into ruin."

To insure future financing for the project, a membership drive was announced. Since the federal restoration grant will expire at the end of this year, it will be necessary to solicit contributions from throughout the state. The drive will begin in Southern West Virginia, then move to the central and northern regions of the state.

Mrs. Howard Meadows of Bluefield will be a co-chairman for the membership drive. The other chairman will be named later. With great pride, Mrs. Meadows recalled raising money as a child to help complete the construction of the Washington Monument. She feels that the Pearl Buck birthplace is equally important, especially for West Virginians.

A number of membership categories were listed to fit each potential member's financial means. Free admission to the house and a free Pearl Buck book were mentioned as advantages of taking out a new membership now. Also, Mrs. Marie Leist, president of the Foundation, announced the publication of a newsletter, the "Pearl S. Buck Birthplace Report." This high quality publication will bring anyone interested in West Virginia history or literature up-to-date with the project and is available upon request without charge.

For further information or for sending contributions in memory of Miss Buck, the address is: Pearl S. Buck Birthplace Foundation, Box 126, Hillsboro, W. Va., 24946. Contributions are tax deductible.

GSC Tennis Team Starts Season Sat.

The young but talented GSC tennis team, under the guidance leadership of Coach Bruce Flack, will open its season on Saturday at 1 p.m. with a match against Wesleyan on the Bobcat's court.

The seven-man squad that Coach Flack will be taking to Wesleyan will be lacking in overall experience, carrying only two returning lettermen. Junior Ken Pritt and sophomore Don Worden are the only two back from last year's team, which posed an impressive 2 - 3 record, in its first season as a varsity sport at Glenville.

The remaining five members of the squad are seniors, Scotty Hamilton and Dave Wright, sophomores Chris Anderson and Mike Kerns, and freshman Gary Dobson.

With Wesleyan being favored in the coming match, Don Worden has been tapped by the coach as being the probable starter in the first match.

Along with Worden and Pritt, Coach Flack's hopes for a better season lie with newcomers Anderson and Hamilton, who in coach Flack's words, "have looked most impressive in the practice sessions, and are great additions to the squad." Dave Wright will also be looked on to contribute to the team's success.

Coming matches for the Pioneers in the near future, will feature a dual match against Morris Harvey and West Virginia Tech hosted by Morris Harvey on Tuesday. Morris Harvey, who is the contending conference champion, has already dropped two losses this season to out-of-state opponents. Another match will put the Pioneers against the Tigers of Salem College sometime next week.

Team Season Starts Today

The Glenville State College baseball team will open its regular season here today against Marshall University at three.

On Saturday March 31, the Pioneers will also be at home for a double header with Marshall at one p.m.

The probable starting line-up for the Pioneers will be Dallas Wallen, catcher; Rudy King, 1st base; Tom Lilly, 2nd base; Ken Swisher, shortstop; Jay Chambers, 3rd base; with Rob Church, Joe Cunningham, and Roger Bonnette making up the outfield.

Coach Milliken plans to use all of his pitchers this weekend to give the young staff valuable experience before the conference opener against W.Va. Wesleyan.

Marshall should provide good competition for the Pioneers in this weekend series and give fans hopefully a bright outlook for the 1973 campaign.

Have You Heard?

by Mike Rust

Coach Jerry Milliken's baseball team makes its opening debut today against the Bobcats of West Virginia Wesleyan. This year's team will feature a good hitting squad with the pitching being the big question mark. Coach Milliken will have twelve players returning from last year's squad.

Two big questions which may decide the Pioneer's fate will be the weather and the return of All Conference selection Jim Garnett. The weather was very important in last year's campaign with many of the games being rained out forcing the G-Men to play their games all in one big stretch. Garnett played a big part in the Pioneer's success last year; his batting average and overall play in left field would be sorely missed if he is unable to play.

Coach Tim Carney's linksters have already begun to hit the golf ball this season. The Pioneer linksters are the defending conference champions. Returners from last year include Bob Wilson, Rick Sansbury, and John Taylor. The G-Men open up against Morris Harvey Monday and have eleven matches after that. Glenville has been picked by many to be strong contenders to repeat last season's performance.

UCLA and Bill Walton really looked fantastic last Monday night in defeating Memphis State to win their seventh straight NCAA basketball championship and their seventy-fifth consecutive victory. Walton, who converted 21 of 22 shots is in my opinion the greatest college center to ever play the game.

The NBA season has come to a close and with the playoffs coming up I see the Lakers making it two in a row defeating Boston four to one in the finals.

I bet the team happiest to see the NBA season over were the hapless Philadelphia 76ers. The sixers finished the season with a horrible 9-73 mark. It has been reported that Hal Greer has asked to be released and hopes to catch on with an NBA contender.

This season's Charleston High School squad has to be one of the best high school champions in recent years. Let's hope that Coach Lilly might be successful in recruiting a couple of Mountain Lions prospects here to Glenville.

Lerman Battle and Henry Dickerson have been named to this year's NAIA All American squad. Battle was named to the second team while Dickerson was placed on the third team. Players named to the first team were James Lister, Sam Houston State; Richard Hanson, Central Washington State; John Laing, Augustana; Pete Harris, Steven F. Austin, Fred De Vaughn, Westmont; Bruce Seals, Xavier; Mike Hogan, Carson Newman, Nate Archibald, Alcorn A & M; M. L. Carr, Guilford State.

The Virginia Tech Norte Dame is one of the most exciting contests I have seen on TV in a long time. The last second shot which gave the Gobblers' the National Invitational title reminded me a lot of what happened in Kansas City when Glenville was defeated by Augustana. John Shumate, who won the Most Valuable Player award is one of the most improved basketball players in the country. Shumate has really worked on his game and will surely be an All American next year.

I feel that the sportswriters made a big mistake when they left Warren Baker off the All-Rookie team.

Sophomore David Thompson of North Carolina State was the only unanimous choice announced by the National Association of Collegiate Basketball Writers.

The writers chose 15 players, combining freshmen and sophomores playing in their first varsity season.

GSC Bowls In Tourney For Conference Champs

Glenville State College bowled in its Fourth Regional at Ren-Dor Lanes in Parkersburg Saturday. This tournament decided the winner of the Conference Championship in bowling.

Winner of the conference title was Alderson Broaddus with 23 wins and 9 losses. Morris Harvey placed second with 22-10 and Glenville, third with 21-11.

Doug Schrefelbien of AB college bowled the high series for eight games with a total of 1575 pinfall. Tom Cooper of Morris Harvey bowled the high series for four games with a total pinfall of 849. Schentelbien also bowled the high game with a 256 score.

In the Regional, Morris Harvey and West Liberty tied with a total of six wins and two losses. However, West Liberty won with the highest pinfall- 7268 - over Morris Harvey's 7150. Glenville placed fifth in the Regional.

Golf Season Starts Monday With A.B.

The 1973 edition of the Glenville State Pioneer golf team will swing into action this Monday against the Golden Eagles of Morris Harvey Coach Carney's linksters are the defending conference champions and hopes are high for a repeat performance. Three lettermen are returning from last year's squad. They are: junior Bob Wilson, and sophomores John Taylor and Rick Sansbury.

Other men competing for a spot on the team are: Guy Perry, Dennis Fitzpatrick, Danny Williams, Steve Wiseman, Dick Werry, Ted Daugherty, and Mike Rust.

Last year the Pioneer golfers went through an undefeated season, winning the conference title at Bel-Meadow Country Club in Clarksburg. Sansbury was awarded All-Conference honors for his performance.

Coach Carney stated that there are twelve matches that have been scheduled so far and that he will take five to seven golfers to each match.

Teams which figure to be tough this year in addition to the Pioneers are: Salem, West Liberty and Fairmont.

Coach Carney also stated that several of the golfers are capable of shooting in the lower 70's and the rest would be in the upper 70's or low 80's.

The 1973 schedule goes like this:

Golf Schedule	Date
Morris Harvey	April 5
Tech	April 4
AB	April 7
Western Regional	April 10
W.Va. Wesleyan	April 12
AB	April 14
Fairmont	April 16
Central Regional	April 18
Northern Regional	April 19

Committee Brings Something Different

The Lyceum Committee, in an attempt to bring students something different, now feel they have an exciting evening to offer. Thursday, Your Father's Mustache will be presented in the College auditorium at 8:00 p.m. Murder, mayhem, and loose morals were trade marks of the 20's. What did the good old days have that we don't have today? Your Father's Mustache pondered this question. Their answer was simple: entertainment for entertainment's sake.

The group is composed of banjos, tuba, trombone and a female singer-dancer. Your Father's Mustache uses any and all means to reach their audience. Signs are held up telling the audience to "sing", "clap", "cheer" and "applaud", and in some cases "boo" and "his". They believe that the audience's inhibitions must be broken down by comedy and humour. This is a musical proficiency.

Your Father's Mustache has appeared on the Ed Sullivan Show, Johnny Carson Show, Mike Douglas, Merv Griffin and many others. The group has three albums out and are in the process of recording a fourth. Colleges across the nation have them return annually and fairs and rodeos use them for grandstand attractions. Now the students of GSC have the opportunity to see, hear, and participate with Your Father's Mustache. Admission is by identification card.
