Pictured above are the members of Mrs. Sandra Piercy's physical education 331 class. The class recently attended a drive-in physical education workshop at Lewis County High School in Weston.

Workshop Attended By Phys Ed Class

Mrs. Sandra Piercy's physical education 331 class attended a drive-in physical education workshop at Lewis County High School, Weston on October 19. The workshop was conducted by the School of Physical Education, West Virginia University, in conjunction with the Lewis Co. Board of Education.

The workshop was primarily designed to develop teaching competencies in the areas of dance (ballroom and folk), elementary physical education, golf, gymnastics (tumbling), and tennis. In addition, there were sessions devoted to public relations in physical education and writing behavioral objectives in physical education.

Elementary and secondary physical educators, classroom teachers, and administrators were invited to attend. In addition, college physical education departments were invited to be represented and to bring interested prospective teachers.

Members of the P. E. 331 class who attended the workshop were: Barbara Bailes, Benjamin Campbell, Roger Caudill, Randy DeBastiano, Linda DeLuca, Roger Gregg, Dennis Hunt, Randy Hunt, Michael Kerns, Debbie Legge, Mitchell Mace, Eric Makle, Gerald Matheny, Charles Maynard, Alpheus Morrison, John Peters, Mark Reger, David Sapp, Mark Toney, Mary Dianne Watkins, Rosanna Weaver, Bobby Werry and Kim Wilson.

Among the speakers at the workshop was Dr. J. William Douglas, an Associate Professor and Chairperson, Department of Professional Physical Education, West Virginia University. Dr. Douglas had formerly taught at Glenville State College, Ohio State University and Kentucky Wesleyan College.

GILMER FIRE DEPT. NEEDS MEMBERSHIP

We need you. How would you like to help to save someone's life or property? The Gilmer Co. Vol. Fire Dept. is in the middle of a membership drive as well as a fund drive. We are in need of young men 18 yrs. and older who would be willing to give a few hours of their time for a quite worthwhile cause. Anyone interested in joining may contact Greg Nicholson or Garry Kight or come to the next meeting Nov. 6 at 8 p.m. in the new fire house.

S. C. To Spend $550 For Homecoming Cost

The Student Congress in its last meeting accounted for Homecoming expenses totaling approximately $1500. However, this figure was reduced by some $600 which was received from the gate at the dance. It was decided by the Glenville State College Alumni Association to contribute $350 to the Student Congress to be applied to Homecoming expenses. Therefore, Student Congress will expend approximately $550.

Final arrangements for new cheerleader uniforms have been made at this time. Winners in the float activity competition from Homecoming have been awarded their cash prizes. Winners were: Ohningohow Players-$20; G.S.C. Kindergarten-$15; and Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity-$10. An agreement with the Lyceum-Convocation committee in relation to sharing funds for entertainment with the Student Congress is being finalized.

Playing the part of Buddy in the upcoming production Come Blow Your Horn, is Dean Stout. He is a freshman Land Surveying major from Fairmont, W.Va.

The 1973-74 Kanawhachen staff would like to take this opportunity to extend an invitation to any interested Student who would like to volunteer their services on the yearbook to do so. If interested contact Mr. Nichols or Bruce Brumage.

SORORITY SPONSORS "BABY BEAUTY" SHOW

The Delta Zeta Sorority will sponsor a "Baby Beauty" contest. Each participating organization will sponsor one person who will have a "baby photo" taken of himself, complete with diaper, bib, bottle or other accessories. The baby will then collect money and the one with the largest amount at the end of the contest will win a prize and the title "Baby Beautiful." All proceeds will go to the Gallaudet College for the Deaf in Washington, D.C.

TEACHER EDUCATION ADMISSION REQUIRED

All students in teacher education must have been admitted to a Teacher Education Program before enrolling in Education 301.

The requirements for admission to a Teacher Education Program may be found on page 108 of the Glenville State College Bulletin of 1971-72-73.

Students applying for admission to a Teacher Education Program are to confer with their advisers where application forms may be obtained. Further, application forms may be obtained in the Office of the Dean of Academic Affairs and the Office of the Chairman of the Division of Education.

Representatives Elected For Student Congress

Dorm representatives for the Student Congress were elected this past week. This was the second election held due to an invalid first balloting. Here are the results: Louis Bennett Hall-Gary Dobson, a sophomore business adm. major from Camden-Gauley; David Jaffre, a sophomore social studies major from Dayville, Conn.; Ralph James Westbrook, a social studies major from New Martinsville.

Exams To Be Held Nov. 10

As of Oct. 25, those Directed Teaching students wanting to take the National Teachers Examination must have submitted their registration to the Princeton Office, Princeton, New Jersey. Mr. Kinder, Director of Guidance and Counseling, has stated that National Teachers Exams at GSC will be given on Nov. 10, 1973 and that Bulletins of Information describing registration procedures and containing registration forms may be obtained from the GSC education department.

At the one-day test session a candidate may take the Common Examinations which include tests in Professional and General Education and they must take the area examinations in their major field at GSC.

Mr. Kinder stated that each candidate will receive an Admission Ticket advising him of the exact location of the center to which he should report. Candidates for the Common Examinations will report at 8:30 a.m. on November 10, and should finish at approximately 12:30 p.m., and those candidates taking the Area Examinations will report at 1:30 p.m. and should finish at approximately 4:15 p.m., according to the time schedule for these examinations which has been set up by the Educational Testing Service.

Any student who is late for his test will not be given the test because of the set schedule of the Educational Testing Service. These tests are important because each student must take them to receive a diploma.

Last year approximately 110,000 candidates took the examinations which are designed to assess cognitive knowledge and understanding in professional education, general education, and subject-field specialization. The examinations, which are prepared and administered by Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey, are limited to assessment of those aspects of teacher education that are validly and reliably measured by well constructed paper-and-pencil tests.

Advance reserve seats are now on sale for 50 cents plus I.D. to GSC administration, faculty, staff, and students through campus information center and drama department (Ext. 318) now through November 2. General Admission is $2 - Adults, $1 - Students and children under 12 - 50 cents.

Workstudy and workshop student paychecks will be distributed by department heads and/or supervisors in the future, according to Mr. James Beeghly, Payroll Clerk. If checks are not in the hands of the supervisors, they are not in the business office since they are sent to respective offices as soon as they are received.

Comedy Presented; McCartney Stars

Come Blow Your Horn showing October 31, November 1 and 2 is a lively, contemporary comedy by Neil Simon, directed by Jeanne Kobuszewski, that provides an attractive evening of entertainment for the entire family.

Thirty-three year old playboy, Alan Baker, is found getting the most out of life by working two days a week and taking a five day week-end with wine, women and more women. Alan takes brother Buddy under his wing and teaches him the ropes of his exciting life as a Playboy. He also finds himself in the middle of a revolution, having to choose between two sexy females who desire his company, one "fly by night"—the other "for life."

Mr. Baker, portrayed by GSC's own Col. McCartney attempts to keep his waxed fruit business thriving despite the antics of his two carefree, "Bums." It's all Mother can do to try to keep the peace before her husband moves to China or gets into bed to die. Judy Dittlow stars as Mother, Celia McCoy as Connie, Patsy Sjostrom as Peggy and Vicki McGraner portrays Aunt Gussie. The production is sure to be a hit so get your tickets while they last.

ADE Will Initiate Thirty Fall Pledges

The business fraternity on campus, Alpha Delta Epsilon, has announced its pledges for the fall semester. The only requirement to be a member of the fraternity is that you are in the field of business. Alpha Delta Epsilon fraternity has thirty new pledges. Their names are as follows: Terry A. Pleasant; Marcia Monneyppenny, a freshman sec. science major from Weston; Roberta Fisher, a freshman sec. science major from Weston; Keith Paris, a sophomore business adm. major from Ohio.

Melanie Hess Explains Absence

Dear Editor:

I feel that as Miss GSC I should comment on the anonymously written editorial concerning my absence in the Homecoming parade. First, I would like to comment on the validity of the editorial. I was not in a parade some 75 miles away on Homecoming Saturday. In fact, I was watching the Forest Festival parade with my family. I was asked by a member of Student Congress if I would like to be in the Homecoming parade. Despite the fact that the Forest Festival is my one big hometown event of the year and that our house is always full of my relatives, my answer was yes, I would be in the parade. Two days before the event that same member of Student Congress came to me and told me that they couldn't find a convertible for me to ride in but if I still wanted to be in the parade I would have to ride inside a car. I then answered that I would go home and I must admit I didn't feel too important at that moment. I apologize to those who noticed my absence and were dismayed by my negligence.

I am going to take this opportunity to explain to the student body what the Miss GSC Pageant is. The Miss GSC Pageant is a preliminary Miss America Pageant and its local preliminaries are not "beauty" pageants. They form a scholarship program with the contestants being judged on talent, personality, poise, and intelligence as well as beauty. These pageants are part of the world's largest scholarship program for women, the Miss America Pageant family, which awards approximately $1,000,000 each year at the national, state, and local levels. When I won the local pageant I then went on to compete in the state pageant at Parkersburg from June 11-16. I realize that June 16th did not end either my reign or my responsibilities as Miss GSC. However, if the pageant were just for the selection of a Miss Glenville State College to reign on her college campus then one could be selected by popular vote and the whole scholarship pageant could be done away with. My point is, that it seems to me the most important objective of the Miss GSC Pageant is for scholarships and a chance to reign as Miss West Virginia. During my week in Parkersburg I received no support from my sponsor: Glenville State College Student Congress. I did not receive one card, one flower or one kind word of appreciation. My Local Director and a few of my friends from Glenville remembered me that week. I thank them again. There are few persons that will ever know the disappointment I felt that week as each day passed with no moral support from my school. Where was the public interest when I was trying to win the title of Miss West Virginia? After all, it would not just have been myself that would have benefitted from the title.

I am not trying to avoid the issue brought to your attention last week. I will not call the writer any derogatory names even though he didn't have the courage or strength to write his name. I will not cause an uprise among the students for his lack of validity. Although I will ask three simple questions of the writer: first, why didn't you come and ask me what I was doing Homecoming weekend? Really, I would have gladly offered an honest explanation. Secondly, why was my sorority brought to (should I call it) "shame" for something I did or didn't do? I am an individual and I respect everyone else's right to be an individual outside of their family, sorority, fraternity, church, etc. Thirdly, can't you respect mine?

Student Expresses Disagreement

Dear Editor,

After reading the letter in last week's paper by Jeff Jackson, my curiosity was definitely aroused as to why Mr. Jackson felt the entire campus should be informed of the situation in the first place. Was he perhaps trying to make a martyr out of Mr. X, or was he really only trying to find out why Mr. X was not accepted?

It seems to me that Mr. Jackson answered his own question as to why Mr. X was not accepted. He also pointed out that many whites never received answers to their letters sent under the same conditions as Mr. X. My question is why does Mr. X think he should have a special answer to his letter simply because he is black? Mr. Jackson pointed out that all the letters could not possibly be answered, so that should put an end to the issue. Mr. X, however, appears to be obsessed with the idea of becoming the first black instructor here at GSC. It seems that he feels he should be awarded this position simply because he is black. If he, or Mr. Jackson truly believed in the equality of the races, then they should accept the fact that a black cannot have everything he strives for. Defeat is experienced by whites as well as blacks, and is should not be taken as a slam against their entire race. What of the white men who never received answers to their letters? Did Glenville receive an outcry from them such as they did from Mr. X?

I am certainly not a prejudiced person, and I feel blacks should be treated with the same considerations as a white man, but Mr. Jackson and Mr. X do not seem satisfied with equal treatment—they want superior treatment.

I am not directing this letter at the blacks at GSC, few of them express the same attitudes as Jeff Jackson. I am directing this letter to Mr. Jackson and asking him why he doesn't concern himself more with what is wrong with Mr. X rather than what is wrong with Glenville for not accepting him.

I also fail to see how Mr. Jackson can say that those in high positions here at Glenville are prejudiced since there are numerous scholarships awarded to blacks and blacks have no trouble attaining admission here.

If Mr. X were truly qualified and not so concerned with being the first black instructor then he might well have been considered for this position.

Alpha Sigma Alphas are planning to attend a Founder's Day luncheon in Charleston and are planning their own 'Founder's Day program Nov. 15. They are also planning a Halloween party Nov. 1. On Oct. 18, the Alpha Sigs held a bowling and pizza party.

GSC Wins 14-12, Defense Outstanding

The Glenville Pioneers survived a scare last Saturday as they overcame fumblyitis and pass interceptions to pin a 14-12 defeat on the West Liberty Hilltoppers. After receiving the opening kickoff, the G-men made their first mistake of the day when an attempted pass was intercepted by West Liberty and returned to the Glenville 33 yd. line. The Pioneers held and forced West Liberty to attempt a field goal that was barely short. Midway in the quarter, Glen began a 96 yd. scoring drive. Jim Carter got a first down for the Pioneers on their own 15 yd. line. Then Chris Anderson hit Carter with an 18 yd. pass to the Pioneer 40 yd. line. On 3 and 8, Anderson found fullback John Pratt at mid-field, and with good blocks by Ken Morrison and Carter, Pratt raced the remaining 50 yds. for a TD. Jay Chambers then added the extra point and Glenville led 7-0.

The next time Glenville had the ball, the Pioneers again gave the Hilltoppers good field position when they fumbled the ball on their own 20 yd. line. West Liberty drove to the Glenville 5 yd. line but the Hilltoppers fumbled and Jerome Fruit recovered for Glenville. Neither team generated much offense for the rest of the first half but the Pioneers again gave West Liberty good field position when they fumbled a punt on their own 11 yd. line. West Liberty then scored on a 9 yd. pass but their try for the extra point was wide and Glenville led 7-6 at the half.

West Liberty made a very costly mistake when they elected to kick-off to the Pioneers and try to hold them deep in their territory. This plan backfired when Glenville marched down the field in six plays. Jim Carter gained 36 yds. on an end sweep, then Pratt gained 15 yds. After three running plays moved the ball to the West Liberty 2 yd. line, Carter burst over left tackle and with Chambers adding the extra pt., Glenville led 14-6.

Early in the fourth quarter West Liberty scored when they recovered a fumble on Glenville 8 yd. line and took it into the end zone for a score. However, the Hilltoppers 2 point conversion try was unsuccessful and Glenville still led 14-12.

Muckraking

"Can the Pioneers do it?" That's the big question circulating on the Glenville State campus this week as the G-men prepare to battle the as Va. State Yellow Jackets this weekend.

W. Va. State has a strong defense, with the Yellow Jackets' tacklers ranked 24th nationally against the rush. In the offensive categories State is ranked 8th in rushing with an average of 289 yards a game. The game tomorrow should be a good match-up with the Pioneer defense receiving a strong test from States' rushing attack. The Pioneers need for their offense to control the ball not give the Yellow Jackets good field positions. Jay Chambers has been very consistent with his kicking; he has only missed one extra point and is 6 for 9 in field goal department. Rick Lemley is fast becoming one of the most exciting ball carriers Glenville has had in some time. Twice last Saturday,

Reale Defends Parade, Congress

To whom it may concern:

As President of the Student Congress I find it necessary to reply to an open letter that appeared in last week's Mercury. The letter to which I am referring is the one that dealt with the Homecoming parade in general and the absence of Miss G.S.C. in the parade line-up.

Before I actually provide a factual reply I shall offer the following personal opinion. It is my feeling that the person who wrote the letter and did not have enough fortitude to sign his or her name certainly must be condemned for concealing their identity. Secondly, and just as important, it is unfortunate that this person did not take the time or opportunity to research the information available concerning the organization of this year's Homecoming, which by the way has been acclaimed as one of the most, if not the most, successful homecomings ever at Glenville State College.

It would appear that whoever wrote the letter did not know what they were writing about. For instance, it was the Student Congress, not Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority, who organized the homecoming parade and named the theme for homecoming. For that matter the entire homecoming weekend (thuse, record hop, parade, coronation, pre-game show, half-time show, and two dances Saturday night) was planned, organized, coordinated, and carried out by the Student Congress. I might also add that this year's Homecoming was substantially earlier than last years', meaning that we (the Student Congress) had less time to prepare for homecoming.

Shunning the generalities and dealing with just the specifics I find it necessary to point out that the parade committee consisted of four gentlemen who I am sure are not sisters of Sigma Sigma Sigma. Also in response to the charge that the parade was the work of Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority I would point out that Bruce Brumage, Lee Harbert, Toney Floyd, Dr. Fredin, Mr. Gunderson, and myself were responsible for nearly every aspect of the parade. This is not to say that every Student Congress member did not contribute in some form or another.

As for the charge that Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority provided Glenville State College with the theme for its recent homecoming I have only one thing to say - that assumption is categorically false. The theme which emphasized the 50's and 60's rock and roll era was offered by myself. I do not feel this was untimely in view of the current rock and roll revival. This theme was offered at the summer meeting of the Student Congress. The slogan "It's Yesterday Once More," stemming from a contemporary song, was offered by a committee designated to provide the congress with more than one theme from which we could choose. As a result the Student Congress, as an entire body, approved the theme for this year's homecoming. As far as I know Sigma Sigma Sigma, or any other group for that matter, did not have anything to do with this function.

In regard to Miss G.S.C. not appearing in the homecoming parade I have no answer. All I can say on this matter is that she initially indicated she would be in the parade so we provided a place in the parade line-up for her. However, what developments changed her mind, I have no idea and at this writing I still do not. However, I must say I share the opinion of many students on campus that feel Miss G.S.C., whoever it might be, whether presently or in the future, should make every effort to be in attendance at homecoming. My reasoning is that this is an occasion to put Glenville State College in view of the public, in view of the alumni and in view of some very distinguished guests vital to our school, and every effort should be made to provide a complete representation of the school, including all of its varied aspects of which Miss G.S.C. would be one.

In conclusion, I would offer an open invitation for anyone who has any doubts regarding the organization of Homecoming to contact me personally and express their views or questions.

Philip A. Reale
Student Congress President

Winning Streak Continues

On Saturday, the Glenville State College Pioneer football team led by Coach Bill Hanlin will travel to Institute to play W.Va. State in a game which could decide the Southern Division Champion.

If the Pioneers win on Saturday it will mark their 10th straight win counting the last two of the 1972-73 year. By winning Saturday, this will be Coach Bill Hanlin's 40th victory since being head football coach at Glenville State College.

Glenville started playing W.Va. State in 1962, playing 11 times and GSC leads the series with 6 wins and 5 losses.

Listed below is a record of previous coaches and their win - loss record while coaching at Glenville State College. This list is based on total win - loss record.

	W	L	T	% of Wins
Nate Rohrbough	68	45	14	54%
Carlos Ratliff	12	35	5	23%
Nick Murin	28	25	3	50%
Jesse Lilly	11	19	0	37%
Bill Hanlin	32	27	2	52%

Counting games of this year Coach Hanlin has a percentage of wins of 57.

Everyone is encouraged to come and cheer the Pioneers on to victories number 8 and number 40 for Coach Bill Hanlin.
