Beth McVey Hosts Miss G.S.C. Pageant

The Miss GSC Pageant, sponsored by the Student Congress was held last night in the college auditorium. Miss West Virginia, Beth McVey, was mistress of ceremonies and also sang three songs: "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows," "I Know a Place," and "Alfie."

The theme of this year's pageant was "Parade." The opening song, "Don't Rain on My Parade," was sung by the outgoing Miss GSC, Melanie Hess. She also sang "The Way We Were" in the second half of the pageant.

Interviews with the judges and swim suit competition were held in the Wesley Foundation Sunday, March 17. Since the contestants had been pre-judged in swimsuits, they appeared for only a short time on stage in their swimsuits.

The contestants and their talent competitions were: Karen Froendt, who did an original creative interpretive dance of a ragdoll coming to life; Sherry Helvy, who did a jazz dance to "Love Train;" Sherry Horne, who presented a flute solo, "Scherzino" by Joachim Andersin, accompanied by Jackie Stricker; and Marty Harmon who sang.

The results of the pageant were not available at press time.

Miss GSC will go to Parkersburg for the Miss West Virginia Pageant June 14-15. She will be in Parkersburg for one week and will be staying at the Chancellor Hotel. Sixteen contestants are expected in the state pageant this year.

Bruce Brumage was in charge of the set for "Parade" and Kim Johnson was in charge of lighting.

Miss West Virginia, Beth McVey, has been selected for another honor.

For the first time in the state's history, a Miss West Virginia has been selected to participate in the prestigious Miss America Pageant USO tour. Following two weeks of intense rehearsals in Atlantic City, Beth will depart on August 4 for such distant bases as Thailand, Korea, and Alaska to entertain American troops stationed there.

Only six of the most outstanding performers of the previous year's Miss America Pageant are chosen for this event. This means that the name of West Virginia will be carried not only nationwide, but worldwide to the thousands of United States servicemen, many of them West Virginians. This is a great honor not only for Beth, but for the entire state since she will also appear on the national telecast of the Miss America Pageant this coming September with more than 70 million people watching her perform.

Also selected for this year's tour besides Miss West Virginia are Miss Illinois; Miss Iowa; Miss Kentucky; Miss Minnesota; and Miss Texas. The reigning Miss America, Becky King, will also be part of the tour. Of those on the tour, Beth is expected to be one of the featured vocalists.

The Miss West Virginia Scholarship Pageant, Inc., to be conducted in Parkersburg on June 14 and 15, will feature Beth in one of the numbers she will be performing on the tour.

Forensics Tourney Sees G.S.C. Second

The Glenville State College Forensics Team placed second in the state in over-all sweepstakes with 31 points behind only Marshall University with 45 points in the W.Va. Intercollegiate Forensics Association Tourney held at Parkersburg Community College, March 8-9. Under the direction of Ms. Leisering of the Speech Dept., Glenville entered six people, comprising thirteen entries. Ten of those thirteen entries made it to the finals and every team member was a finalist in some area. Skip Kincaid, entered in five categories, was a finalist in four. Ms. Kincaid won first place in Prose Interpretation, second place in Persuasion, third place in After-Dinner Speaking and fourth place in Dramatic Duo with Nancy Meads. Ms. Kincaid contributed fourteen points to the 31 sweepstakes points Glenville received. Dave Brown placed second in Expository Speaking and Impromptu Speaking and contributed four points to the Sweepstakes total: Bob Dye placed third in Prose Interpretation and contributed three points to the Sweepstakes total. Woody Wilson placed sixth in Prose Interpretation and fifth in Impromptu and contributed the remaining points in the 31 point Sweepstakes total.

All of the above people have qualified for the National Forensics finals in their respective categories to be held April 19-21 at the N.Y.U. branch in Plattsburgh, N.Y. Skip Kincaid is qualified in four events in the Nationals and needs only one more qualification in poetry to be a Pentathlon entry in Plattsburgh. She is also qualified in her persuasion speech to be one of two representatives from W. Va. to attend the National Oratory Contest to be held May 3 and 4 in Pueblo, Colorado.

Glenville's last tournament before the National Finals will be at Marshall University on April 5-6. Ms. Leisering would like to extend her deepest appreciation to all the team members for their forensic efforts all of which contributed to Glenville's first Sweepstakes Award.

Food Management Is Offered In Aug.

The West Virginia Board of Regents has approved a new two-year program in Food Service Management for Glenville State College. Students are now being accepted for the program which begins in August, 1974.

Combining formal course work and internship experiences, the program is designed to prepare competent food service managers for large restaurants and cafeterias in both the public and private sector.

Very few formal programs are offered in food service management across the country, and yet some estimates go as high as 60,000 persons needed with backgrounds such as those to be developed in this program over the next five years. The Marriott Chain estimates that this company alone will need approximately 5,000 food service managers in the next five years.

A food service manager is not a cook or a chef. He is the person responsible for maintaining the quality of food and service appropriate for the clientele served by the restaurant. He has complete responsibility for the management of the food service establishment.

Enrollment will be limited to approximately twenty students per year. Students must meet the requirements for entrance into the College, which means that they must be high school graduates or equivalent.

Pre-Registration Is Set For April 10

April 10, 1974 has been established as pre-registration day here at the campus. All students currently enrolled will have the opportunity to register for the autumn semester and by so doing assure themselves of a schedule for the fall.

During the week of April 1-5, those students who want to pre-register for the fall, 1974 semester should arrange to meet with their advisors. Students who will be entering the Professional Semester next fall may not pre-register, and students who will be taking Education 301 must see Mr. Hickman before completing their schedule. Once a schedule is agreed upon, the student should complete both a yellow and blue registration card. These cards should be kept by the student until April 10. On April 10, 1974 all classes will be cancelled from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. The regular registration procedure will be set up in the ballroom. Students should go to the ballroom in accordance with the following schedule: 8:30 - U, V, W; 9:00 - M, N; 9:30 - O, P; 10:00 - Q, R; 10:30 - S, T; 11:00 - E, F; 11:30 - G, H; 12:00 - A, B; 12:30 - C, D; 1:00 - I, J; 1:30 - K, L; 2:00 - X, Y, Z; 2:30 - Stragglers.

The registration time table should be strictly adhered to prevent lines. There should be little or no problem with closing classes and there is no reason to deviate from the time table.

Those who do pre-register must pay their fees on or before August 20, 1974, in order to retain their schedule. Those who choose not to pre-register will register on August 21, 1974.

Former Mercury advisor, Mrs. Opal V. Starcher, passed away Saturday, March 9 at her home in Glenville at the age of 71.

She was a retired teacher and served as journalism instructor and publications advisor from 1945-46.

Mrs. Starcher is survived by one daughter, Ann, former editor of the Mercury and now a graduate assistant at West Virginia University.

It's Accreditation Time . . .

Although we all participated in some way in preparation for the following week, e.g., filling out teacher evaluation forms, few students realize that Glenville State College will be visited by an NCATE team March 25-27, and that this team will evaluate the college for accreditation. Moreover, if this fact were known, a small minority would be aware of the significance of accreditation to us as students of GSC.

The faculty and staff of this college prepared and published a 300 page Institutional Report on Teacher Education at Glenville State College and presented it to the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education. In this report the following information is found in the introductory pages:

"Glenville State College has been accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education since it assumed accrediting responsibilities from the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education. In the fall of 1964, the College was visited by a team for the purpose of reaccreditation. In the following May 1965, the Council received reports of the College, together with the recommendations made by the Committee on Visitation and Appraisal. A letter from the Director of the Council set forth problem areas which the Council felt should result in a recommendation for provisional accreditation. Instead, the Council deferred action for one year, thus enabling the College to seek a review of the recommendation if it was considered desirable. However, the College elected to not seek a reappraisal, but to accept the decision of the Council.

In the fall of 1966, the Council reviewed its previous recommendation and voted to make its action official at that time. The result was to grant Glenville State College provisional reaccreditation to programs for elementary and secondary teachers at the bachelor-degree level. The provisional accreditation became effective as of September 1, 1966, with the three-year period beginning at that time. The College was granted the opportunity of seeking to remove the provisional status during the fall of 1967, 1968, or at the latest, the fall of 1969.

In the fall of 1969, the College was revisited by a team selected from the group making the review in the fall of 1964. Full accreditation was recommended by the team in its report to the Council. This recommendation was reviewed by the Council at its meeting, May 25-27, 1970, and provisional status was removed with full accreditation for the remainder of the accreditation period which was to extend through September 1, 1974."

Essentially, the main purpose of accreditation is to improve the accredited institution through the NCATE team which is both expert and objective. The accrediting agencies set high standards, and these standards must be complied with in order to maintain accreditation. There are naturally many advantages in return. The prestige and status of just being an accredited institution is a great advantage in itself. The primary significance of accreditation to the student is that a graduate of such an institution is certified in 20 other states.

While the team is on campus, let's prove our reputation as a friendly campus, by giving them full cooperation and making them feel welcome.

To Streak Or Not?

To streak or not to streak, that is the question! On one hand, streaking is illegal and can be a great hassle if you are caught. On the other hand, streaking is probably the mildest form of illegal behavior and many claim that it's a great rush to do an illegal act and not get caught.

But, forget the law and consider the act, or the STREAK. Taking off your clothes and running before an audience doesn't take talent, it doesn't take knowledge, it doesn't take beauty, but it does take guts. Participants of streaking say it's a wonderful experience to do something totally against the social mores and accepted social behavior—just to do something so unabashed and watch the crowd flip-out. Those against streaking claim that it is foolish, degrading, demoralizing, and dangerous. But who is it endangering? If it embarrasses one, why should he watch? Degrading? Demoralizing? I cannot imagine who it is degrading or demoralizing.

The great artists, past and present, have realized the beauty of the human body and rather than covering the body with layers of clothing, have displayed their subjects in the raw. They didn't feel that the sight of the nude human body would corrupt their society. The naked body is real, every human possesses one, and seeing another's naked body shouldn't be such a shock. In fact, streaking may help society get over some of its hang-ups about nudity.

It has also been said that streaking will cause a rise in promiscuity and all the social ills that accompany it. If you have ever witnessed a streak, you will realize that there are no sexual implications, that running like heck rather than bed is on the mind of the streakers. I have never been propositioned nor heard of anyone being propositioned by a streaker. It is rather hard to believe that seeing a nude body flash by is going to cause the audience to break into a wild sexual orgy or increase their desire to do so.

It seems to me that streaking is the most harmless campus fad since stuffing phone booths. Even swallowing goldfish is more dangerous, especially from the goldfish's point of view.

Art Students & Advisor Tour NY Over Break

Spring break may have been a bit boring for some GSC students, but this was certainly not the case for seven GSC art students and their advisor, Mr. Nichols. During the week of spring break, Janet Erwin, Linda Rohr, Linda Prine, Barb Lawson, Roger Bonnett, Bill Lindsay and Tom Martin toured New York City, visiting various historical and famous art attractions. The students visited such places as The Metropolitan Museum of Art, Whitney Art Museum, Guggenheim Art Museum, Metropolitan Museum of Modern Art, O.K. Harris Contemporary Art Museum, The Museum of Natural History, and Frumkin Museum. While in New York, the students' interests were not limited to art attractions. Other sights of interest that were visited included Greenwich Village, China Town, Little Italy, Radio City, The United Nations, The Empire State Building, Wall Street, St. Patrick's Cathedral, and Lincoln Center.

On Saturday, March 23, two movies will be shown in the Student Union. The first movie, which begins at 7 p.m. will be the short film on music of the 50's "Rock, Rock, Rock." The next film will be the award-winning "Lady Sings the Blues," the story of the life of Billie Holiday, starring Diana Ross. The funds for these movies were provided by the Lyceum Committee.

Students are encouraged to attend and participate in the week-end. It has been carefully planned by the Student Congress and is completely free.

Dear Faculty and Students:

You will no doubt be interested to know that, primarily as a result of your action, Senate Bill 321 was removed from the Senate's Special Calendar which would have permitted a vote on this issue.

I have personally opposed raising the tuition in the State's institutions of higher learning and, frankly, wish that we could have just voted the bill down.

However, it is very pleasing to know that your action caused the Senate to hear the public out-cry about increased tuition. You are to be complimented for your exercise in democracy.

Very truly yours,

WARREN R. MCGRAW, Senator

Muckraking

by Dave Bunton

Well, it's one of those weeks when there is nothing to write about, but I have to anyway, so here goes.

The GSC bowling team begins the second leg of its quest to gain a trip to Kansas City when it participates in the conference tournament. Should the men coached by Dr. Robert Dollgener win, they will automatically secure a trip. A loss would produce a roll off to determine the champion. One great thing about the team is that everyone will be back next year since there are no seniors on the team.

The WVIAC basketball hierarchy again close to overlook Dave Merchant when they picked the All-Conference. However, Merchant did make the second team. Earl Hawkins, Lerman Battle and Archie Talley headed the list of performers.

The Varsity vs. Alumni football game was a hard hitting affair with the Varsity clipping the old timer's 23-20. Former stars such as John Pratt, Scott Hamilton, Jim Carter, Irv Braniff and Carl Alloway all made appearances in the game. One highlight of the game was the sterling performance of Bob Reed, as punter for the alumni.

Baseball and golf will be getting underway in about a week. The baseball team opens up with a road trip to Marshall. The golf team has only one returning regular, Bob Wilson, but they have an outstanding bunch of newcomers.

So much for nothing. Remember a squirrel with chestnuts make happy moose-right Rookie?!!

3 Receive Honors

Three Glenville State basketball players received recognition recently in the voting for all WVIAC. These three young men were Earl Hawkins, David Merchant, and Will Stewart.

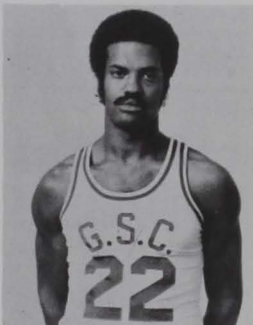

Earl Hawkins was voted as a first team all-star for the third time in four years. Hawkins is one of the all-time performers in the conference. His jump jack leaping ability also makes him one of the top shot blockers in the conference.

Dave Merchant received second team recognition although many felt he was one of the top guards in the WVIAC. Merchant scored over one thousand points in his career.

Will Stewart received honorable mention, even though he is only a freshman. Big 'Stew' was one of Glenville's top rebounders and it looks like he will set a few records at GSC before he is graduated.

Intramurals were the big scene this week. Shown here driving is Dave Bunton as Roger Hess watches.

Tom Newberry

T. Newberry Win "Kingpin" Crown

Tom Newberry, a sophomore from Parkersburg, has emerged as the "kingpin" on the Glenville State College Bowling team. The former Parkersburg South graduate of 1972, has recorded 7,302 pinfall in 41 games for an average of 178.09 pinfall going into the WVIAC tournament at the Ren-Dor Bowling Lanes in Parkersburg, on March 23 and 24.

Newberry upped his average pinfall to 178.09 per game with his season-high 1520 pinfall for 8 games in the 4th regional roll-off at Nitro on March 2nd. Tom averaged 190 pinfall for the eight games he bowled in the final quarter meet at Nitro. The 178.09 average pinfall is the highest on the Glenville State team.

The Glenville Bowling Team won 24 games and lost 8 in the 4 regional rolloffs held for WVIAC teams. Alderson-Broadbent and West Liberty ended the season with 22-10 conference records. Morris Harvey and W.Va. State will be competing in the WVIAC tournament in addition to Glenville, Alderson-Broadbent, West Liberty, Fairmont, W.Va. Wesleyan and Concord.

The Glenville Bowlers recorded 39,263 pinfall in 228 games for an average of 172.20 per game. The other members of the team are Rich McFee, a junior from Elizabeth, W.Va., with an average of 174.21 pinfall per game; Sam Ferrell, a sophomore from Point Pleasant, W.Va., with an average of 173.80 pinfall per game; Mike Simmons, a junior, also from Point Pleasant, W.Va., with an average of 169.12 pinfall per game. Gary Humphries, a junior from Erbacon, W.Va., with an average of 168.51 pinfall per game rounds out the team.

Since Glenville won the regular season Bowling Championship, they are assured of at least a roll-off for the NAIA area 7 tournament to be held on April 6. If Glenville wins the WVIAC tournament they will automatically be in the area 7 tournament. If another conference team wins the WVIAC tournament, Glenville and the team that wins will have a roll-off to determine the WVIAC representative in the NAIA area 7 competition.

Newberry, who will be returning home for the tournament said, "It will be good having this tournament at home in Parkersburg. I have rolled many games at the Ren-Dor Lanes and feel our team should do well. We are all bowling well and we have confidence we can win the tournament."

VARSITY DEFEATS ALUMNI IN GAME

The Glenville State Varsity football team won a hard fought decision over the alumni by the score of 23-20 in a game played over spring break. The game was as close as the score indicated with varsity assuming the lead with only a minute left to play on Rick Lemley's 20 yd. touch-down gallop.

Mr. Ron Roth is presently instructing a new radio class at Glenville in order for students to obtain an FCC license for radio and telephone operating.

Dr. B. C. Flack Selected To Attend Hist. Seminar

Flack, Chairman of the Division of Social Sciences, has been selected as one of twelve participants for the History of Anglo-American Liberties Seminar at the University of Minnesota which will be conducted between July 24-August 16, 1974. The seminar is a part of a program sponsored by the National Endowment for the Humanities. Dr. Flack who is a native of Ohio has been Chairman of the Division of Social Sciences at Glenville State College since the fall of 1969. He holds degrees from Otterbein College, Westerville, Ohio, and The Ohio State University, having been awarded the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in history in 1969.

Shown are three students donating blood at the Blood Drive sponsored by IFC and Panhellenic on Wednesday. Assisting is Nurse Ann Lilly.

Students To Receive Operators License

Twenty-seven students are enrolled in the new radio class instructed by Mr. Ron Roth. Working labs are held in the campus radio station, WGSC. The students are placed in one of the three labs. The first lab is for those students with a great deal of experience, or licensed in radio work. The second lab is for students who have little experience in radio management. The third lab consists of students who have no previous experience in radio. The class teaches the students the elements that one needs to know to obtain his license. At the end of the eight week course, the students that have passed will receive their enforced Federal Communications Commissions license for radio and telephone operators.
