Forensics Team Attends Meet

The Glenville State College Forensics team will travel to Weston this weekend to attend and participate in the annual W.Va. State Forensics Association Meeting and workshop to be held at Jackson's Mill. The team, under the direction of Katherine Leisering of the Speech Dept., consists of ten members this year: Dave Brown, Brenda Maylee, Vicki McGraner, Arthur Wilt, Skip Kincaid, Brenda Steele, Rogalinda Miller, Barb Stemple, Roberta Luikart, and Judy Ditlow.

The major purpose of the annual meeting is to provide examples of last year's winning entries for state team members and coaches. In conjunction with this, Skip Kincaid will perform her winning entries in Prose Interpretation, a cutting from W. Somerset Maugham's Of Human Bondage, in Poetry Interpretation, a reading of Falling by James Dickey and in Persuasion, a problem solution speech on the pet population explosion. Ms. Kincaid holds the distinction of being the top winner in the state and Glenville holds the distinction of having the top team in the state.

Also at the meeting, all of the various Individual Events will be discussed by coaches and opened up for a free discussion by all those present. Ms. Leisering has been asked to critique the Oral Interpretation Programs and speak on Glenville's techniques and views on Persuasion.

The date and location for the W.Va. State tournament held in March last year, will be set at this meeting sometime Saturday morning.

The forensics team, in addition to the upcoming state meeting is busy preparing for its first tournament of the season. The Mad Hatter Invitational to be held Nov. 1-2 at Bloomsburg, Pa. followed on Nov. 8-10 by the Mid-East Invitational at Parkersburg Community College and possible Nov. 15-16 at Bowling Green, Ohio.

This year Glenville will have an unprecedented 21 entries and 3 pentathlon entries (those entering 5 events per tournament). Pentathlon entries are: Dave Brown, Skip Kincaid and Art Wilt. Naturally, Glenville is hoping to better its excellent record of last season - 15th in the nation and first in the state, with Ms. Kincaid finishing 11th in the nation on overall pts. in the National Finals. This year the Nationals will be held at Niagara University, near Buffalo, N.Y., April 24-28.

Membership Drive Conducted By SEA

Glenville's H. Y. Clark chapter of the Student Education Association is undergoing a membership drive. The organization is open to students majoring in education. Only a very small percentage are now members of the SEA and hopes are to increase the membership to at least 200.

Youth Employment Applications Taken

The Gilmer County Community Action Association is now taking applications for Youth Employment. Clearinghouse is a free youth employment referral service.

Any youth interested may obtain an application form from the Gilmer County High School Guidance counselor Miss Williams, or from the Gilmer County Community Action Association office located opposite the Hays City Service Station upstairs in the old Fitzpatrick Store. Feel free to stop by or call 462-8551. We are open 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday.

After applications have been completed and returned, the Clearinghouse will put your name in the file of youth available for work. When job orders are received the Clearinghouse will call a youth who meets the employer's requirements for a particular job. No preference will be made to those who first apply. No guarantee of employment: All the Clearinghouse can do is advertise the availability of youth workers and hope the community response is sufficient enough to provide all youth on file with employment.

The rate of pay will be a matter between the youth employed and the employer-although the Clearinghouse will discourage any use of "cheap labor".

Also it will be up to the employer to know and follow the child labor laws that relate to his particular job. The employer must also know that no insurance or bonding will be provided for the teen or for himself. The Clearinghouse is only to act as a job referral agency.

Although the success of this program is dependent upon the community response, you, through your performance can increase the chances of this success.

You have the right to refuse any job, but once you accept the job, it is your responsibility to complete that job. Usually transportation is also your responsibility but if it is impossible for you to reach the job site the Clearinghouse will try to make other arrangements.

It is not the responsibility of the Clearinghouse to collect your wages for a job: that is an agreement between you and your employer.

Your performance on the job is important. It helps obtain the community trust in the Clearinghouse, but also the trust of the Clearinghouse in you. If you do well on a job you increase the possibilities of being called for other jobs.

Test Dates Chosen For Nat'l Teachers

College seniors preparing to teach school may take the National Teacher Examinations on any of the four different test dates announced today by Educational Testing Service, a nonprofit, educational organization which prepares and administers this testing program.

New dates for the testing of prospective teachers are: November 9, 1974, and January 25, April 5, and July 19, 1975. The tests will be given at nearly 500 locations throughout the United States, ETS said.

Results of the National Teacher Examinations are used by many large school districts as one of several factors in the selection of new teachers and by several states for certification or licensing of teachers. Some colleges also require all seniors preparing to teach to take the examinations.

On each full day of testing, prospective teachers may take the Common Examinations which measure their professional preparation and general educational background and an Area Examination which measures their mastery of the subject they expect to teach.

Prospective teachers should contact the school systems in which they seek employment, or their colleges, for specific advice on which examinations to take and on which dates they should be taken.

The Bulletin of Information for Candidates contains a list of test centers, and information about the examinations, as well as a Registration Form. Copies may be obtained from college placement officers, school personnel departments, or

The Good Old Days?

I was rather intrigued with this year's selection of the homecoming theme, The Roaring Twenties. It appealed to one of my major hobbies, that of finding out the real stories behind the "Gatsbys" that weren't so great.

Nostalgia in this country has reached epidemic proportions. Anyone with any kind of "Good Ole Days" has an outlet through which he can discuss the problems of today.

An English group, Paper Lace, currently released a song entitled "The Night Chicago Died". It told of the final shoot out with Al Capone and the police. The group wrote to Mayor Richard Daly for a hero's welcome. To this request he responded: "We might persuade Paper Lace and the author of, "The Night Chicago Died" to come to Chicago and jump in the Chicago River, placing their heads underwater three times and surfacing twice." A more accurate musical account of this time period would have been "Hail to the Thief" by the Cryin' Shames.

Capone's men did try to rescue three men from a police station once with 35-40 machine gunners, but the police relenquished them without a fight.

During the late twenties and early depression period when Chicago was producing around 12 million dollars worth of "goods", the Capone was taking in 200 million. Of course, most of this went to pay off the police and politicians from which he got regular favors.

There was a magic about this era. Even the little man could feel the excitement of the bootleg-wars. Crooks fighting crooks, police fight police, police fight crooks. And if that didn't phase him, he could play Russian Roulette with the "hootch" he drank.

Thousands went blind or died during the depression from bathtub gin; even more alarming was the number of stomach disorders. One report of a police chemist that accidentally spilled some confiscated liquor in his sink said, "I couldn't believe it ate the paint off."

The police really weren't much better than the crooks. One mayor authorized a squad of policemen armed with machine guns to roam the streets as a group and shoot down any known criminal they might see. Another mayor's political platform was to open the town up to more "business."

Brewery buster, Eliott Ness, famed Catcher of Capone (also false) in reality was an egomaniac to the extent that he would invite the papers to cover a raid that he might be having. His show, "The Untouchables" dropped more names than facts and finally, ironically, certain Italian groups pressured the sponsors into dropping it.

Who knows maybe someday our kids will have "seventies" parties. The American people have always enhanced the personalities of those that made fun of the authorities.

But by then they will want to play the part of the authorities that made fun of the American people.

SC Raffle Parking Space

Jeff Garton, GSC Student Congress President, has announced that a free raffle of a campus parking space will be held for all GSC students regardless of class status. A space in the Science Hall parking area, adjacent to the Pioneer Center, will be the prize. To be eligible students must register at the table to be maintained in front of the old cafeteria. Registration will be held from today until next Friday at noon at which time the drawing will be held and a winner determined. The winner will "own" this space for one full week. Security police will strictly limit the use of this space to the week's winner. Violators will receive a wheel-lock with no warning. To discourage absent-minded parking the space will be clearly marked as a restricted area.

The Student Congress has designated Monday and Tuesday for the polling of GSC students for their views on our Athletic User Fee. The question at hand is whether GSC students would rather pay admission to the basketball and football games (athletic user fee) and to allow the minor sports such as golf, baseball, wrestling, track, and bowling to be scrubbed or to pay no admission and have an increase in the Student Activity Fee and allow these sports to continue as well as increase funds to programs such as the Lyceum, drama department, music department and many others.

Results of this poll will be published in next week's Mercury.

The Student Congress has appointed two members to select 6-8 students to submit the names of twenty-nine GSC juniors and seniors to be considered and investigated as possible candidates for recognition in Who's Who in America's Colleges and Universities.

A Tech player takes a closer look at where he was going.

On The Bench

by John Lilly

Mr. Soothsayer

Have you ever heard the football expression "running the ball down someone's throat?" If you haven't it literally means an offensive unit running, not passing, completely over a defensive unit while on the field of battle.

And this is what the Glenville Pioneers did against the Tech Golden Bears last Saturday. Although the G-men only scored ten points the entire game and still won it doesn't indicate the awesome running attack led by senior fullback Ed Wilson, sophomore running back Don Brady and senior quarterback Joe Mitchem.

The Pioneers rolled up a total of 316 yards total offense and 305 yards were on the ground. Remember that was a wet, cold, rain drenched field, too!

The defensive unit of the Pioneers played outstandingly, allowing the Golden Bears only 160 total yards offensively. It seemed that when the Bear's offensive began to roll the Pioneer's defensive unit made the big play to stop their drive. Especially, when cornerback Ted Williams intercepted a Golden Bear pass on the Tech goal line to protect Glenville's lead.

Three very important players on the Pioneer team came off the injured list last Saturday to spark the G-men to their first win of the early season. Senior offensive guard and co-captain, Bob Maynard made many key blocks to open up gapping holes for the Pioneer running backs. Senior defensive end and co-captain, Bernie Buttrey stopped the outside running of the Golden Bears and helped intimidate Tech quarterbacks into throwing three intercepted passes. Hard hitting senior cornerback, Roger Bonnette, twice jarred Tech receivers into coughing up the football.

Junior safety, Jerome Fruit, who has started since he was a freshman, may be on his way to some type of interception record with his fourth interception in the first two games of the season. He tied the school record last year with seven.

Last week if you looked closely at my predictions of the conference games, it read "WV State 24 - Bluefield 12." But heck, those two teams don't play until October 5, my crystal ball must have been a little blurry when the typist typed my column. If anyone really wants to know, I guessed correctly at four out of the six conference games last week, for a two week total of seven correct guesses and 5 wrong ones.

This week I'm shootin' for the stars, 100%! WV Tech 14 - Bluefield 10. Tech showed great promise against the Pioneers, they should even their record.

West Liberty 10 - Wesleyan 7. The Bobcats just don't have enough bite. Shepherd 20 - Concord 12. The Mountain Lions pulled off their first conference win in four years last Saturday, but they should go back to their old ways against the Rams.

Fairmont 14 - WV State 13. The Falcons should squeeze another game out. Glenville 14 - Salem 10. On a dry field the Pioneers could win big if their running attack were like last Saturday.

New Athletic Field Complex

Last week it was reported that the grading portion of the athletic complex was finished. This week the contractors are in the process of sodding the football playing area of the new field. The sod was brought into Glenville in bales from Pennsylvania.

Some Final Quotes

Baltimore Colts' quarterback, Marty Domres: "I'd better start serious hunting for a wife and get married before I get ugly."

New York Giant linebacker Jim Files decided against retiring because "God wanted me to play another year." An anonymous teammate quipped, "Obviously God didn't see the game films."

Sod is being laid on the new GSC football field.

Golden Bears Fall To Pioneer Squad

Last Saturday, the Glenville Pioneers on a muddy, rain-soaked Rohr-bough Field literally ran over the Golden Bears of West Virginia Tech by the score of 10-0.

The Pioneers, now 1-0 in the conference play and 1-1 overall, gobbled up 305 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to 160 yards total offense and only 39 yards in the second half.

Quarterback Joe Mitchem put the Pioneers on the scoreboard seconds into the second period on a one foot fourth down quarterback sneak. Larry Wolfe added the point after touchdown which put the Pioneers in the lead 7-0.

Glenville threatened to score again late in the first half after the first of two Jerome Fruit interceptions. But the Golden Bears held on their own seven yard line, after a fourth down fake field goal attempt that was intercepted. Glenville went in at half time with a 7-0 lead.

With the brilliant running of Ed Wilson the Pioneers racked up 172 yards rushing just in the second half, but they couldn't get the ball over the goal line.

Early in the third period the G-men pushed their way to the Tech 13 yard line, but the Golden Bears held and the Pioneer drive faltered. Larry Wolfe's 23 yard field goal attempt was wide to the left.

The Tech Golden Bears made a serious threat late in the same period when they recovered a Don Brady fumble and moved the ball to the Glenville six yard line. But defensive halfback, Ted Williams, intercepted his first pass of the season on a fourth down play to stop the Golden Bears threat.

With 4:53 left in the game the Pioneers "iced" the contest when Wolfe connected on a 22 yard field goal.

Tech's final chance ended when Fruit intercepted his fourth pass of the early season on the Glenville 37 yard line.

Mitchem went to the air only five times gaining eleven yards, but the difference was on the ground where Wilson rambled for 102 yards, Brady for 81 yards and Mitchem for 75 yards.

The Pioneers will play their first away game next Saturday at Salem, against the undefeated Salem Tigers. Kickoff time will be at 7:30 p.m.

G-Men Face Salem Tigers

This coming Saturday night the Pioneers, who are now 1-1, will travel over to Salem to play the undefeated Salem Tigers. Kickoff time will be at 7:30 p.m.

Salem who played their first two games at home won both of them by beating West Virginia State and the West Liberty Hilltoppers. Last week the Tigers went to Bluefield and won a hard fought 15-6 win over the Big Blues.

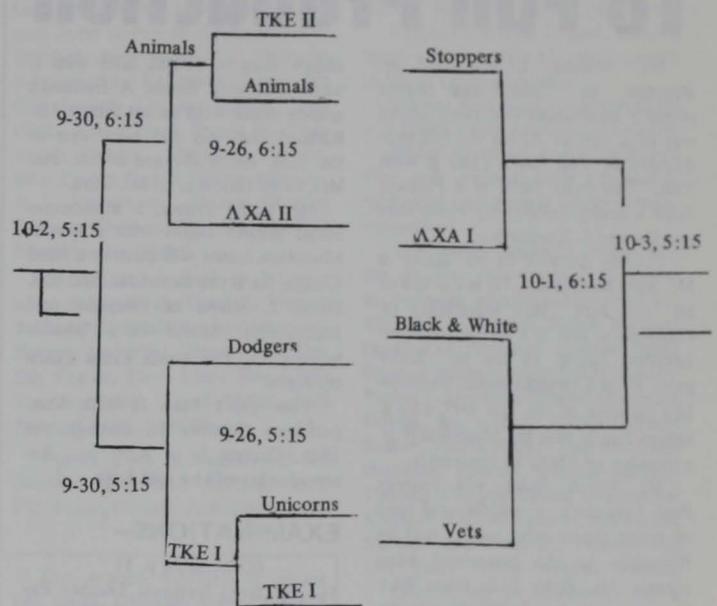

The Tigers are known for their aggressiveness on the field. Running back Jack Deloplane is a good example of this, he was an All-Conference selection last year. The Tigers have an excellent quarterback in Dave Wright, a sophomore, who can either run or throw with very good success.

On defense the Tigers have excellent cornerbacks in Ed Comeforo and Jeff Hoover who have helped limit their last three opponents to less than twenty-five points between them.

So if you are planning to attend this up coming game look for a rockin' sockin' go gettem' kind of contest. Sure hope it doesn't rain!

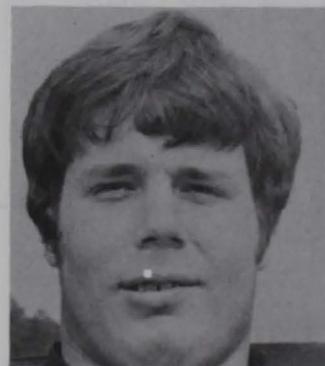

The Bolshoi Ballet couldn't do it any better.
