2 Classes Are Added

Dean Clarence Maze has announced the addition of two new classes which will be taught this summer. Mrs. Roma Adkins will teach Home Economics 399, this new class deals in the special topics of food preservation. The second class being offered is Biology 399 which is taught by Mr. Byrl Law and this class involves the introduction to agriculture and home gardening.

Home Economics 399 will begin on July 9 and last to August 8. The three hour credit class will meet daily from 10:00 p.m. - 11:50 p.m. The three objectives of this class are to understand the principles of food preservation, to exhibit skills in various food preservation techniques and to develop an understanding of terminology related to food preservation. For further information on this new class contact Mrs. Roma Adkins at 462-7361.

The second class being offered is Biology 399 and it is a three hour credit course. This class begins on May 12 and lasts to May 30. It will meet daily from 8:00 to 11:00 am.

The course will cover such fundamentals as soil management, plant propagation, basic gardening, pests and disease problems, the production and preservation of home meat supply and it will also include how to improve your home and farm.

For further information on the course, Biology 399, contact Mr. Byrl Law at 462-7361.

It will cost a West Virginia resident $29.00 to enroll in one of these classes.

Choir To Sing Bach to Rock

From Bach to Rock is the theme of the GSC Choir's spring program this Sunday, April 27, at 8:00 in the evening.

The master of Baroque music, J. S. Bach, is represented on the program by the famous "Crucifixus" from the great Mass in B-minor. The Mass is considered by most musicologists as the greatest setting of this text ever made (Beethoven's might be the exception).

The choir's program (except the Bach work) is entirely secular. Included in the evening's program is an Italian madrigal, three 20th century Swedish songs, and a Suabian folk song harmonized by Brahms. One rag-time piece is on the program. Besides a "speaking chorus" the Choir will present a set of three works which might be regarded as "avant garde." This set is called "Down a Different Road" and presents choral sounds without text. To sing this set, it is necessary for the Choir to read a new notation-one that goes beyond traditional musical calligraphy.

The "rock" portion of the program includes pieces by John Lennon, Paul McCartney, Elton John, and Seals and Crofts.

Four Tots Win Prizes

Four out of over 1500 children attending one of the seven performances of WINNIE-THE-POOH were the lucky winners of the Drama Department sponsored Pooh Coloring Contest.

The prizes consisting of a cast autographed Pooh story book were awarded in four categories. These divisions were ages 3-5, 6-7, 8-9, and 10-11.

Selected out of the 3-5 age bracket was Randy Hurst of the Gilmer County Head Start. He is the four old son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hurst of Glenville.

A Jane Lew Elementary first grader, Michelle Jamison colored the winning entry for the 6-7 year olds. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Jamison of Jane Lew.

A new arrival from Michigan and entered at Alum Bridge Elementary is Todd Shanesy. He captured the award in the 8-9 year old category. This fourth grader is the son of Mrs. Steve Richard of Alum Bridge.

Kellie McCormick, an excellerated program student at Harrisville Elementary, is the 10-11 year old winner. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arden McCormick of Washburn.

Selection of the winning colorings were based upon the individual child's creativity and imagination.

"The Winners Are!"

On May 1, the GSC Ballroom will be the setting for the Drama Department's version of Broadway's coveted Tony Awards-the Opies.

Hosted by Ohningohow Players, this occasion is designated to recognize superior performances by individuals in technical and/or acting positions in major productions of the current theatrical season.

This year's nominees will be taken from the following shows: Moss Hart and George Kaufman's Pulitzer-Prize Winning comedy You Can't Take It With You, Arthur Miller's Drama Critics Award Winning Drama All My Sons, and A. A. Milne's childhood classic Winnie-the-Pooh. All of these were directed by Ms. Jeanne Kobuszewski of the Speech Department.

In early October, Ohningohow Players selected the following judges from the college community: Dr. Clarence Maze, Jr., Mrs. Yvonne King, Dr. Espy Miller, Ms. Jeanne Kobuszewski, Dr. Byron Turner, Ms. Katherine Leisner, Dr. Frank Jenio, Mrs. Vickie Mathes, Ms. Mary Kennedy, Dr. Bill Simmons, Mr. Jeff Garton, and Mr. Chuck White. Each of the seven judges were requested to view at least one performance of each major production.

Monday, each judge received a ballott containing the nominees for Best Actor and Actress, Best Supporting Actor and Actress, and Best Performances in a Children's Theatre Production.

After marking their decisions, the ballots will be returned for counting. The results will be sealed in an envelope as in the Tonys, and the winners will be announced at the banquet.

Nominees in the category of Best Actor are: Mr. David L. Brown as Martin Vanderhof of You Can't Take It With You, Mr. Steve Buffington as Chris Keller of All My Sons, and Mr. Steve Deem as Joe Keller of All My Sons.

Nominated as Best Actress in a major production are: Mrs. Anne Isenhardt as Penny Sycamore, Ms. Kyle Wilson as Essie Sycamore, and Ms. Jill Cummings as Alice Sycamore of You Can't Take It With You, Ms. Wanda Wilson as Kate Keller, and Ms. Lisa Smith as Ann Deever of All My Sons.

Pioneers & Alumni To Compete On Sat.

Plans for the annual Alumni Day have been finalized with several events scheduled honoring various persons associated with GSC. The day is centered around many events held in honor of classes and is highlighted by the annual banquet, which will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the ballroom.

Starting the day's festivities will be a football game between the 1974 Pioneer squad and a team of alumni footballers. The game, which starts at 2:00 p.m., will be the final appearance of Coach Bill Hanlin, who is leaving the coaching ranks to become the Executive Assistant Secretary of the West Virginia Secondary Schools Activities Commission.

Also during the afternoon, an art show will be available for the viewing pleasure of those interested in the multi-purpose room. The show will be held between the times of 3:00 and 5:30 p.m.

A reception for the Class of 1925 will be held from 4 to 5:30 in the faculty lounge of the Pioneer Center. Mrs. Hazel Fisher Gerwig will be assisted by Mrs. Patricia Pinnell and Mr. Dennis Myers at this function. During the same hours, will be reception for the Class of 1955 and the Class of 1965. Both receptions will held in the Wesley Foundation, with Mrs. Marilyn Peterson and Mrs. Mary White serving as hostesses for the class of '55.

The Art of Computer Designs And Drawings

On Tuesday, April 29, at 3 pm, Dr. Charles K. Williams, associate professor of computer science at Virginia Polytechnical Institute, will speak on the topic of "Computer Art."

Dr. Williams, a pioneer in this new field has done a great deal of research in computer graphics and is currently working under a research grant from Broomall Industries, Inc.

Through the use of digital drawings and what he refers to as "modulation" he can give his productions the appearance of charcoal sketching, wood carving or cross hatching. This type of computer creativity has been used in the fields of art and textile design.

His lecture is designed for the "laymen" and all are invited to attend.

Group's Retreat To 'Come Alive'

"Come Alive!" 3rd annual GSC Christain Fellowship Retreat, will be held in the Wesley Foundation beginning this evening, April 25, at 6:00 p.m. Highlights of Friday evening include a movie entitled "Blood on the Mountain", an hour long adventure with two escaped convicts in the (cont. on page 4)

Following these receptions, a social hour for all alumni will be held in the ballroom from 5:30 to 6:30. Serving punch and refreshments will be Mrs. Marlene Maze and Mrs. Eve Shimer. They will be assisted by Miss Mary Ellen Kennedy, Mrs. Yvonne King, Mrs. Sherri Nell Ferrell, and Mrs. Susan B. Fulton.

The highlight of the evening the annual banquet, will begin at 6:30, also in the ballroom. According to Mrs. Judy Meads, GSC Alumni Director, there is anticipated a crowd of 150 or more.

Dr. Kenneth W. Hylbert, 1975 Alumnus of the Year, will be the principal speaker at the banquet. A native of Reedy, Dr. Hylbert first graduated from GSC in 1936. Since 1955 he has served on the faculty at Penn State University. Presently, he heads the graduate program in Rehabilitation Education at that institution.

During the banquet, there will be two additional events which are new to the Alumni Day activities. Coach Hanlin will present four trophies honoring members of the 1974 football team. Also, the awards given annually by the Alumni Association to outstanding students and faculty will be presented during the banquet. These awards have usually been presented to the recipients before the Alumni Day festivities.

The awards given are the Willa Brand award for English, the Whiting award or writing, two Arbuckle awards in library science and the Carlos Radcliff and Wilburn awards in physical education.

This year the alumni will be served steamboat round of beef, Caribbean chicken, salads from the salad bar, twice-baked potatoes, gingered carrots, green bean almondine, rolls, butter, jelly, ice tea, and dessert.

Welcome alumni! Have a very enjoyable day!

Mr. Vineyard Conducts Pleasureable Ensemble

Last night the GSC Wind Ensemble was featured in concert at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium. The band, under the direction of Mr. Edward M. Vineyard, played various suites, hymns, marches, and overtures in a repertoire designed for the listening pleasure of all ages.

Included in the program was the following: "An Original Suite," composed by Gordon Jacob; "First Suite in E<sup>b</sup> for Military Band," Gustav Holst; "Variations on a Shaker Melody," Aaron Copland; "March for Tomorrow," Bill Holcombe and Jerry Nowak; "Valdres," Johannes Hanssen; "Symphony No. 1 in E<sup>b</sup>," Camille Saint-Saens; "A Folk Legend Overture," Jim Andy.

Also, selected numbers by the Minnesingers were sung, under the direction of Kay J. Strosnider.

Memories Are Made Of This

Each year the alumni of Glenville State College congregate to rekindle old friendships and strike the spark of new. This year shall be no exception for when the returning classes of 1925, 1955, and 1965 meet in reunion each individual will be provided a setting which will "bring back the memories" of college life.

Whether alumni choose to discuss this institution as it was in 1925 or as it is some fifty years hence, certainly each can recollect instances which initiate a guttural chuckle or perhaps a "chessie cat grin." I feel positive that each who has undergone higher education at Glenville also obtained education from instances other than the normal school book style. Regardless of time periods, college students are reputed to be notoriously mischievous. Reports of resetting the tower clock by sneaking into building after hours are still rumored. Meanwhile, the tank-hill crew was busy contracting poison ivy in the "you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours" game.

Reminiscing good times will be one of the highlights of this weekend along with the Spring Alumni game, art exhibit, and banquet.

Tomorrow has the potential for being a most memorable occasion. Most importantly each returning alumni has our warmest welcome and best wishes.

Assistant Editor

DZ's Collect Money

On Sunday, April 27th at 1 p.m., the Delta Zeta Sorority will be collecting door to door for donations to the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation. Mrs. David Gillespie is the county chairman. There will also be donation boxes in downtown Glenville and on campus.

Of illnesses treated by pediatricians, 75% involve respiratory problems. Of illnesses which strike children, lung disease is the second major cause of death. It is a health problem of frightening proportions. The most serious lung-damaging disease is cystic fibrosis. It can affect not only the lungs but also the the gastrointestinal system. It is the most serious inherited lung-damaging disease. Diseases include: bronchitis, persistent pneumonia and a condition resembling adult emphysema.

NCFRF cooperates in a worldwide effort toward better understanding of genetic problems and pediatric pulmonary illnesses. Your support could save lives. Please give.

A pottery exhibition will be held on May 2-3 from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. in the amphitheater. Also tomorrow, AAUW will hold a flea market from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the old Welfare Building on Main Street.

Chuck Crookshanks and Jack Rogers will hold an exhibition of their work in the multi-purpose room, April 28-30 from 11 am to 6 pm.

The multi-media presentation "A Time to Look" will range from ceramics to photography.

'Winnie' Equals Spring Tonic

The perfect spring tonic was served in ample dosage April 16 and 17 in the Glenville State College Auditorium. It was a concoction of classic fantasy served up by Winnie-the-Pooh and friends.

The play was based on a delightful book of humor, Winnie-the-Pooh, written in 1926 by A.A. Milne for his young son, Christopher Robin.

As the play opened, the audience got a face full of welcome, delightfully offered by Barbara Stemple. Until the final curtain, the cast expressed themselves expertly as they portrayed animal characters who spent most of their time getting into, and out of exciting and amusing situations.

Milne's quiet subtle humor, with a gentle touch of whimsy, was made believable by Judy Ditlow as Winnie-the-Pooh, a bear of little brain. Cathy Deem as Piglet, reacted readily to emotional conceptions, ideas and expressions, while maintaining the role of a happy follower and devoted friend of Pooh. There was a kind of secret make-believe indulged in by the audience as they reacted to little Roo, intimately played by Mary Morton. The self-pity of gloomy Eeyore evoked sympathy as skillfully projected by Roger McCauley.

Any person in the audience who ever lived under the threat of "I'll wash your mouth out with soap!" certainly appreciated and thoroughly enjoyed Peggy Collins as Kanga, a mother kangaroo.

The well-constructed plot, suspense, and satisfying ending were immeasurably enhanced by the makeup and costumes.

Contagious chuckles heard throughout the audience indicated that the perfect spring tonic, Winnie-the-Pooh, would have a long-lasting effect.

Dr. Pam Brown

Drama Initiates Four

The Theta Alpha Cast of Alpha Psi Omega, National Dramatic Honorary Fraternity, proudly announces the initiation of four members. Ms. Vicki McGraner, Ms. Peggy Collins, Ms. Carol Hilleary, and Ms. Kyle Wilson.

Membership is extended to those that have made outstanding contributions in either acting or technical aspects of theatre.

Prospective initiates must earn a minimum of 50 points in accordance with the national constitution. After these requirements are successfully met, one may be extended a bid.

These four have been extremely active in theatre at GSC.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Paul McGraner, Ms. Vicki McGraner hails from Elkview. She is a senior majoring in speech and minoring in math.

Her theatrical credits at GSC include: Assistant Director, Tobacco Road; co-head properties, Come Blow Your Horn; stage manager, set construction, costume and makeup crews for Winnie-the-Pooh.

Ms. McGraner serves as Membership Director of Alpha Sigma Alpha and is a member of the GSC Christian Fellowship.

A sophomore elementary education major minoring in math, Ms. Peggy Collins hails from Moorefield.

Ms. Collins is a transfer student from WVU. Active in all areas of theatre, her credits include portraying Mrs. Kirby, the socialite, from You Can't Take It With You and Kanga the motherly kangaroo of Winnie-the-Pooh.

Ms. Collins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Collins of Moorefield.

A senior art comprehensive major

At the invitation of the FAO, Dr. Robert Nielsen, Director of the College Department, American Federation of Teachers will be on campus Monday, April 28, 1975.

Classes will be dismissed from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. on Monday, to permit faculty and interested students to attend his presentation in the Ballroom of the Student Center at 1:00 p.m. His topic will be the role of AFT in today's educational systems.

He will be able to remain in the Ballroom for a period following his talk to continue a discussion with interested faculty and students.

hailing from Charleston is Ms. Carol Hilleary. She is the daughter of Mrs. Mary E. Hilleary.

Her drama credits include assistant and stage manager, All My Sons; set and publicity, Picnic and Great Cross Country Race; set, publicity and running stage crew, You Can't Take It With You; and costumes, set and running stage crew, Winnie-the-Pooh.

Ms. Hilleary serves as treasurer of Ohningohow Players and was selected as the 1975 Kanawhachen Editor.

Hailing from Pennsboro is Ms. Kyle Wilson. A sophomore speech and English major, she is the granddaughter of Mrs. Dessie Mullenix.

Ms. Wilson made her stage debut at GSC as Essie from You Can't Take It With You and recently appeared as a Little Skunk in Winnie-the-Pooh.

Her technical credits include lighting co-ordinator, Brecht On Brecht; stage manager and co-head of lighting for All My Sons; and co-headed props for Winnie-the-Pooh.

1975 Pre-registration Is April 28 thru May 2

Pre-registration for the 1975 Fall Semester will be conducted during the week of April 28-May 2, 1975. Students who want to pre-register should see their adviser, complete their blue and yellow cards, then report to the Office of Academic Affairs.

The registration process will be completed at the Office of Academic Affairs except for the updating of your personal profile sheet. Next fall, when you arrive on campus all you will need to do is to report to the Auditorium, update your profile, and pay your fees.

Those students who do not pre-register will register on August 26, 1975 between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. in the Ballroom. Students should see their adviser prior to coming to the Ballroom.

Remember, for those interested, counseling and registration for graduate courses offered at GSC this summer will take place tomorrow from 9:00-12:00 noon. Dr. Michael Caruso of West Virginia University will be in the Student Affairs Office to direct students concerning the off-campus credit program. A master's degree may be attained this way after three summers at GSC, and a winter session at Jackson Mills.

Jerry Hostetler

Bacon? Ham? It's Worth It!

Jerry Hostetler, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mancel Hostetler of Hurdred, now holds the world's record for the highest paid ham. He was awarded this honor at the state Ham and Bacon Show where he entered a ham and two bacons.

The 14½ lb. ham sold for $826 per lb. to Mr. Jack Catalano of the Central District Company.

The hams were judged on size, shape, home-curing, and trimming.

Hostetler has been raising hogs for four years, and has previously won in county shows. His brother won in the state show.

Hostetler, a freshman majoring in forestry here at GSC, plans to use his earnings for his education and savings. By the way, he estimated that he cleared $11,800 on the six-month venture.

Greek News

Theta Xi

Seven Brothers of Theta Xi attended the regional convention held at West Virginia Wesleyan College on Saturday, April 19. Chris Noble, Terry Handschumacher, Randy Scarlas, Joe Campbell, Stan Mechinsky, Jim Selbe, and Joe Mills represented Kappa Eta admirably at this strict fraternal convention.

The Brothers have planned a grape'n grain' house party for tomorrow night at 8:30. Alumni are cordially invited.

Joe Mills has been awarded the S.L.O.T.H. Award for the month of April.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

The Delta Alpha Chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma held its weekly meeting Monday, April 21.

The sisters held initiation Saturday, April 19. We would like to welcome our new sisters into the chapter. April 20 was the date of the parent's day held in the ballroom. Lunch was served and entertainment was provided by the girls. This Sunday the Alumni are planning a picnic for the actives.

Delta Zeta

The Theta Xi Chapter of Delta Zeta held their formal meeting on Monday, April 22.

This week has been full of activities for the sisters and pledges. On Monday evening Lamplighting ceremony was held and everyone chose their secret Rose Buddy. Tuesday evening Dr. and Mrs. Maze, Mr. and Mrs. Adkins, Mr. and Mrs. David Gillespie, Mrs. Samples, Miss Paulette Jackson, and Mrs. Ordill Fisher were guests for dinner. At 9:30 the pledges held their Activities Party. The theme was Raggedy Annie. On Wednesday night the secret Rose Buddy ceremony was held. On Thursday night a slumber party was held at the house. Friday night is a Pizza Party at the house.

On The Bench

by John Lilly

The spring semester here at Glenville State College is rapidly coming to a close and so are the spring sports winding down their spring schedule. The baseball team will be ending its season on May 3 against the Fairmont Falcons. The GSC track team will close its season with the WVIAC Track Meet on May 3 and 4 at Charleston's Laidley Field. And the golf team will close its regular schedule at the WVIAC State Golf Tournament which will be held at Canaan Valley on May 2 and 3. If the Pioneer linksters win this conference tournament they will venture down to Fort Worth, Texas, and compete in the NAIA Tournament.

There's Always Next Year

One of the winter sports here on GSC campus, the Pioneer bowling team, just ended their season out in Kansas City, Missouri, while competing in the NAIA Tournament.

The G-men finished a disappointing seventh place, but the GSC keggers know that there is always next year when they could be even stronger and better.

Stoppers Tops

The intramural basketball season finally came to a close last Tuesday night when the Stoppers stopped BUT I for the Intramural Basketball Championship.

The Stoppers were led all season long by the southpaw from Pittsburgh, Tom Coates. The 6'1" sensation scored a game high 27 points as he led his Stoppers to a 51-36 win over BUT I in the championship game.

With this win it also gave the Stoppers the Intramural Championship for the year. Congratulations!!

Big Game Tomorrow

A big event will be held tomorrow at Rohrbough Field when the Glenville Pioneer gridgers will close their spring drills with a football game against the GSC Alumni.

It was an exciting contest last year when the Alumni almost pulled off an upset, but the varsity scored in the closing minutes of play to beat the "old" alumni.

The game time is scheduled for 2:00 p.m.

Swingin' Tenney

Not much has been said about the Pioneer baseball team this year, but one individual standout for the G-men is sophomore centerfielder Mike Tenney. The Buckhannon native has swung a mean bat this year hitting over .400 most of the year and has covered the centerfield position well.

If only the other players could be as consistent as him...

Lilly Recruiting

If you see any strange faces on campus this weekend it will probably be some of Coach Jesse Lilly's prospective basketball recruits he is showing around.

The people scheduled to be here this weekend are from New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia.

Already Lilly has had some cagers from Kentucky, Virginia and Maryland come in and look the campus over.

So if you see any strange faces on campus that look like basketball players, be friendly.

Toughie for Linksters

The GSC linksters have a big tournament scheduled at Huntington today. They're competing in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Golf Tournament where eleven West Virginia schools will be participating, including Marshall and WVU.

That will be a toughie for the Pioneers!

Classic Going to be Held

Speaking of golf the Annual GSC Coaches Classic will be held on May 9 at the Glenville Golf Club. Defending champion and tourney favorite, Mr. Nick Murin, will be making another try at the POT-T (Poor Old Teachers Tourney) title.

Last year's classic had to be cancelled because none of the coaches could afford the green fees.

Some Final Quotes

Tug McGraw, Phillies' pitcher, on his $75,000 salary: "Ninety percent I'll spend on good times, women and Irish whiskey. The other 10% I'll probably waste."

Red Averbach, Boston Celtics' general manager, on the ABA's three-point field goal: "I think if you give a guy three points for a long shot, then you should give just one point for a sneakaway layup."

Pete Rose, discussing his relation with the fans: "You know they don't like me much at Shea Station, so last year, I got about a dozen autographed baseballs... and threw them in the stands. Well, they started throwing them back at me. When a New Yorker throws a new baseball back, you know he's mad."

A disgruntled fan returning tickets to Madison Square Garden after the NHL's New York Rangers and the NBA's New York Knicks were out of the first round of their respective playoffs leaving the circus alone at the Garden: "At least the circus don't choke."

Admission to the Alumni football game, which will be held tomorrow at Rohrbough Field starting at 2:00 p.m., will be $2.00 for adults, $1.00 for non-GSC students and the Glenville College students get in free.

Ferrell Is 5th In Tournament

The Glenville State College bowling team placed seventh out of an eight team field in last weekend's NAIA Bowling Tournament out in Kansas City, Missouri. Harding College of Arkansas won their fourth NAIA title with a total pin fall of 13,854.

Oregon College of Education came in a close second with a pin-fall of 13,549. The other finishers were Bryant College of Rhode Island, 13,261; Wisconsin-La Crosse, 13,483; Rockhurst College of Missouri, 13,386; Winona College of Minnesota, 13,283; Glenville State College, 13,062; and Methodist College of North Carolina, 12,689.

The hard lucked Pioneer keggers lost four games by a total of only fifteen pins. The G-Men's only bright spot was junior Sam Ferrell who finished fifth out of forty bowlers in the tourney. Ferrell bowled an average of 190 for fifteen games.

Other individual scores for Glenville were Rick Goodall with an average of 177, Tom Newberry with a 174, Rich McFee with a 170 and Gary Humphreys came in with a 158 average.

Ferrell and Goodall finished sixth in the doubles tourney with a score of 1082. Harding College won the event with 1201, while Rockhurst finished second with a 1122 score.

Dr. Robert Dollgener, coach of the Pioneer team, said that the GSC bowlers had trouble adjusting to the lanes and the atmosphere of the national tournament, but added that he and his team are ready to go back next year.

Yellow Jackets Sting Pioneers

The Glenville State Pioneer baseball team got stung by the West Virginia State Yellow Jackets in a twin-bill last Monday afternoon at Rohrbough Field. The Jackets took the G-men in the two contests by the scores of 8-3 and 10-5.

The Pioneers could not do anything right having one of their worst fielding days with nine errors in the first game.

Senior pitcher Ed Wilson was tagged with the loss, losing his fourth game out of five decisions. Wilson struck out one and walked five. Rick Vass came in the seventh inning to relieve Wilson when the senior hurdler had trouble getting the side out.

The only bright spot of the game was the batting of Mike Tenney. Tenney connected for three hits in four times at bat.

The second game was just as miserable for the G-men had allowed seven runs in the fourth inning alone. The Pioneers had five errors in the contest.

Ralph Smith started for Glenville but lasted only 3 2/3 innings, he struck out one and walked six. Vass came and pitched the remaining of game striking out two and not walking anyone.

Tenney was again the top stick for the G-men collecting three of the four Pioneer hits.

The Pioneers' next scheduled game is April 30 against the Salem Tigers at Rohrbough Field. Game time is at 1:00.

OOPS! THE PIONEERS ARE IN TROUBLE.

Jarrell Hits Homerun, But GSC Falls

The Glenville Pioneer baseball team lost two heartbreaking one run games to the Concord Mt. Lions on April 16. The Lions held off the Pioneers in the first game by the score of 4-3 and came back in the second game with a home run in the last inning to trim the G-Men by the score of 7-6.

Senior pitcher Ed Wilson lost another one run decision in the first contest, leaving his record at 1-3. Wilson struck out six and walked only three in that contest.

Sophomore Buddy Jarrell was the top stick for the G-Men with a home-run.

In the second game the G-Men jumped off to an early lead with four runs in the first inning, but could not stop the powerful bats of the Mt. Lions as they scored four runs in the third and two more in the fourth. The Pioneers bounced back with two more runs in the fifth to tie the score but the Lions broke the tie in the seventh with a homerun off losing pitcher Ralph Smith. Junior Rick Vass started for the G-Men but gave to Smith in the fourth inning.

The top sticks for the Pioneers in this game were Jarrell who went 2-2 and Tuffy Rumer who connected for 2-4.

Four Tracksters Place Third

The Glenville State College track team, participating with only four tracksters, finished third in two triangular meets this past week.

In the WV Wesleyan Triangular Meet Steve Buffington won both the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes with times of 10.0 and 22.8. He also placed second in the long jump with a leap of 19'7".

In the pole vaulting Randy White placed second in the event with 13'0 vault. Dan Damron placed third with a 12'6 vault.

Tim Butcher, the fourth G-men trackster, placed second in the 880 yard run with a time of 2:04.

Last Tuesday night the G-men participated in the Fairmont State Triangular Meet with Buffington leading the G-men. The senior speedster won the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes and also won the long jump event. White also placed in the long jump with a third place finish.

Damron placed second in the pole vaulting event with a vault of 12'6. Butcher placed fourth in the 880 yard run.

The Pioneer cindermen are now preparing for the WVIAC State Track Meet on May 3 and 4 at Charleston.

Golf Team Wins Regional

The Glenville State Pioneer golf team won the WVIAC Central Regional last Monday and Tuesday at Canaan Valley by eight strokes over their closest challenger, Concord.

The Pioneers had a team total of 630. Concord followed with a 638. Other finishers in the tourney were West Liberty, 639; Alderson-Broadus, 640; Shepherd, 654; Wesleyan, 659; Davis and Elkins, 683; Fairmont, 686; Morris Harvey, 699; Bluefield, 704; WV State, 715; Salem, 720; and WV Tech, 808.

Sophomore Jimmy Scott led the G-men with a 69-76, two day total. Dave Thompson was next with a 78-78, he was followed by Terry Crislip's 78-80, Joe Keener's 82-80 and Rick Simmon's 81-83.

The linksters are competing today in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Golf Tournament in Huntington.

PERRY STOVALL
"Pioneer"

New Pioneer Is P. Stovall

Perry B. Stovall, a junior from MacArthur, W. Va., will be a familiar sight during next year's sports events. In an all campus election last week, Mr. Stovall won the honor of "Pioneer" for the 75-76 academic year.

As Glenville State's buckskinned mascot he will yield the .58 caliber Doug Aims issue muzzleloader that highlights the fan's reaction to a GSC score or triumph.

To be eligible, the Pioneer must be a prospective senior, male, and in good academic standing. Mr. Stovall has already begun the final qualification, that of growing a full beard.

A business major, Mr. Stovall is active in the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Stovall, also of MacArthur. He replaces Rick Pierson, the Pioneer seen at this year's games.

Intolerance of the 20's Subject of Flack's Talk

Bruce C. Flack, chairman of the Social Sciences Division, will present a paper, "Dynamics of Intolerance: The United States during the 1920's," in the eighth annual Bloomsburg College History Conference in Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, May 1 and 2. Flack and a number of other historians from the eastern United States will be participating in sessions relating to the general conference theme, "Discrimination and Intolerance."

Flack's paper is a historiographical study of works dealing with the widespread intolerance during the decade following World War I. In the paper Flack examines conceptual models used by historians in writing about various phenomena such as the Red Scare of 1919-1920, nativism, the revival of the Ku Klux Klan and free speech infringements.

Nationals Are Next

The Glenville State College National Forensics Team, under the direction of Katherine Leisering, travels to Niagara Falls, NY, this week-end to compete in its second National Individual Events Tournament.

Last year, Glenville with only a four man squad and fifteen total entries finished sixteenth in the nation and first among the West Virginia schools entered. Last year 104 colleges and universities competed in the National Finals held at Plattsburg, NY.

This year, Glenville upped its qualifier total to 26 with a seven man team. Two of the team members will not attend the national finals, taking seven entries with them. The GSC Forensics team then will be competing at three-quarters their strength at the Nationals this year with a five man squad and nineteen total entries.

Those entered in the Nationals are: Art Wilt in five events: Extemporaneous Speaking, Impromptu Speaking, Informative Speaking, After Dinner Speaking and Persuasion. Wilt is Glenville's only pentathlon entry; John Leisering in four events: Informative and After Dinner Speaking, Rhetorical Criticism and Drama Duo(with Dorothy Wright); Dorothy Wright in four events: After Dinner Speaking, Prose Interp, Poetry Interp, and Drama Duo; Judy Ditlow is also entered in four events: After Dinner and Informative Speaking, Prose Interp, and Drama Duo(with Larry Haddix); Larry Haddix is also entered in four events: Informative and Impromptu Speaking, Persuasion and Drama Duo.

A brief recap of this forensics year for Glenville shows a massive gain in winnings. This year alone, Glenville has added forty-two trophies to its collection for a grand total of fifty-six in just under three years. In addition to this, Glenville has a total of twenty-five certificates of achievement. The team attended just eight "award giving" tournaments this year for an average of just over five trophies per tournament. Over the three years of its existence, Glenville has managed to average almost four trophies per tournament and has not come away empty handed since its very first tournament in November of 1972.

Glenville State College can be justly proud of this team for its dedication, hard work and competitive spirit in the face of the almost staggering odds against it. Competing against many schools ten times as large as Glenville and with quadruple the entries Glenville has, the GSC team has consistently held its own and has more often than not beaten these larger schools.

Hopefully, even with the small team and depleted number of entries, GSC can gain national recognition once again in the area of forensics and can perhaps better its sixteenth place finish of last year. The National Finals will be the last tournament of the year for the Glenville State College team.
