For NEVER TOO LATE

Lighting, Stage Crews Prepare For Opening

NEVER TOO LATE is in full swing and crews are busy with final touches. Ms. Jeanne Kobuszewski, technical and stage director for the comedy, and Ms. Kyle Wilson, Ms. K's right-hand person, are working to put nails, lumber, canvas, and actors into a superb production.

Ms. Wilson has most recently portrayed Skunk in Winnie the Pooh, and has been involved with previous plays concerning acting, lighting, properties, and stage managing. Active in Ohningohow Players, and Alpha Psi Omega, she is the daughter of Dessie Mullenix of Pennsboro.

Heading the properties crew for the production are Mary Lou Farnsworth and Delbert Conley.

Ms. Farnsworth has done T.V. commercials in Baltimore, Md. for a local theatre group. While attending Essex Community College, she worked with props, costumes, and was Stage Manager for 27 Wagonloads of Cotton. Ms. Farnsworth is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cas Falkenhan, Jr., from Baltimore, Md.

Delbert Conley is currently serving as Head Resident Assistant and corresponding secretary of Pickens Hall. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Conley of Spencer.

Working under Ms. Farnsworth and Mr. Conley are Kent Lowther, Bonnie Wright, Becky Villers, Steve Deem, and Jimmy Steele.

Masters of make-up will be Brenda Miller and Joe Boyd.

Ms. Miller portrayed Rhoda, the maid, in You Can't Take It With You. She is the wife of Robert D. Miller, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Maylee of Weirton.

Mr. Boyd most recently portrayed Ed in You Can't Take It With You, and has been involved in the technical aspects of other productions. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd of Vienna. Assistants with make-up will be Carol Hilleary, Gil Valdez, Janet Erikson and Joyce Feldman.

For an actor to become a believable character on stage, he must look the part. Mary Morton and Barb Stemple head the costume crew to get the outfits needed for Never Too Late.

Ms. Morton hails from Harrisville and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Morton. At GSC, Ms. Morton has worked on lighting for "Brecht on Brecht" and All My Sons, and played the lovable Roo in Winnie the Pooh.

Ms. Stemple has worked on many aspects of the theatre in both the technical and acting segments on the stage. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Stemple of Belpre, Ohio.

Working under them are Bonnie Wright, Becky Villers, Bob Hays and Kent Lowther.

The aspect of the play that sets the mood before, during, and after with music and sound affects will be headed by Joyce Feldman. From Canton, Ohio, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Feldman.

Mary Lou Farnsworth will be coordinating the sound for the performance.

Ms. Feldman and Ms. Wilson will be the co-heads of the publicity for the play.

Helping out will be Mark Smith, Sherri Mills, Barb Stemple, Laura Cochran, Steve Deem, Joe Boggs, Dana Jones, Joanna Icenhower, Amanda Lemley, Cheryl Wise, Brenda Miller, Kent Lowther and Stephanie Davis.

Setting the moods with lights will be Mary Morton, Stephanie Davis and Steve Nichols led by the head of the crew, Joanna Icenhower.

Ms. Icenhower, who has worked with many GSC productions on the stage and behind the scenes is active in Ohningohow Players and Alpha Psi Omega. Ms. Icenhower is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Icenhower of Ravenswood.

House Management will be conducted by Cheryl Wine and Larry Haddix.

Mr. Haddix, a senior speech major, has worked last year on set construction for All My Sons and with the Forensics team. At WVU he was the recipient of a W.Va. Board of Regents Scholarship. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Haddix, Larry hails from Weston.

Cornelius . . . Tonight at 8

Tonight, Friday, September 26, the group "Cornelius" will appear in GSC's auditorium. The concert will begin at 8 pm and end at approximately 10 pm. All students with I.D. cards will be admitted free of charge. Those without I.D.s may pay a dollar at the door.

"Cornelius" has performed at the famous Copacabana, Michigan Palace, Apollo Theatre, Kennedy Center, Disneyland, and other important clubs and theatres throughout the country. They have also performed in Hawaii, Bermuda, Nassau, and Canada. Some of their most popular works are "Too Late to Turn Back Now," "Treat Her Like A Lady," and "Don't Ever Be Lonely."

Yearbook Is Staffed

Mrs. Rhona Gross, a new Art Education instructor, has been appointed by Dr. Wilburn as advisor of the Kanawhachen. Mrs. Gross, who teaches Art Education three days a week at Parkersburg Community College did her undergraduate studies at the Philadelphia College of Arts, and her graduate studies at the University of Wisconsin, in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Gross, a professional artist, has several suggestions for improving the yearbook and enthusiastically looks forward to working with the new staff. She feels that students should be portrayed naturally, rather than in formal settings.

The cover of the yearbook will be designed by Mrs. Gross, using an original woodcarving of the Glenville State College campus. This carving will then be donated to the college. Mrs. Gross feels that the quality and beauty of the GSC campus and surrounding areas should be the focal point of the annual.

Assisting Mrs. Gross will be the new Kanawhachen staff members, who were chosen by the Publications Committee last Thursday. The new editor is Lisa Smith, a second semester freshman. Ms. Smith is from St. Marys and is a Language Arts major. Assisting Ms. Smith is layout editor Carla Rector, a Social Studies major from Belpre, O., and Christy Nida, a Business Administration major from Looneyville. Typists for the staff are speech major Barbara Stemple, also from Belpre, and Dorothy Valdez from Buckhannon, who is majoring in Special Education and Library Science.

Any suggestions for the yearbook will be readily accepted by any of the staff members.

Participants Requested For 'Messiah' Practice

On Tuesday nights at 7:30 in the First Baptist Church, practice is being conducted for a "Messiah" presentation. All Glenville State College students and faculty are invited to participate and are asked to attend the practice sessions if interested.

Dr. Raymond Jones of Glenville State College will be directing the "Messiah," while Mr. Paul Dworak will serve as the accompanist.

This celebration of Christ will be presented on December 14th, in the GSC auditorium.

Becky Watson Named Queen

Becky Watson has been elected Homecoming Queen by the GSC student body. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Watson of Elizabeth W.Va., and a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority.

Vickie McCracken, a member of Delta Zeta Sorority, was voted Senior Princess. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCracken of Marietta, Ohio.

Jane Stump and Beth Steidl tied for Junior Princess, necessitating a re-vote by the Junior Class. Jane was sponsored by her Sigma sisters and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Stump, Glenville. Beth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Steidl of Elizabeth, ran on the MENC ticket.

Kim Casto, an Independent, was elected as Sophomore Princess. She is from Ripley, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Casto.

Tish Cummings, the Freshman Princess, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy H. Cummings of Hurricane, W.Va. She is also an Independent.

Students' Cards To Be Picked Up

According to the Office of Student Affairs, the following students have yet to pick up their I.D. cards:

Roy Alltop, Lawrence B. Atkins, Martha E. Barker, Johnny Barnette, French Beane, Jeffrey Blake, Rodney Blake, Sue E. Blake, David D. Brewer, Anna M. Brugnoli, Deanna M. Bush, George M. School Systems Change Policies

An increasing number of school systems are deciding against placing applications for employment in college placement offices. They are requiring the prospective employee to contact them directly for job applications. In the event that any prospective teacher wants an application form from one of these counties, and the placement office no longer has such applications, he should contact the placement office for the address and names of personnel directors.

Track & Tennis

On Tuesday, September 23, Dr. D. Banks Wilburn met in Charleston with Mr. Charles W. Stewart, architectural engineer, to go over the final specifications for the all weather track and tennis courts.

Mr. Stewart was the engineer for a track completed at Marshall University. Attempts are being made to complete the final specifications before cold weather. In about six weeks bids for completion of the track should be accepted.

More Destruction?

Another election of Homecoming royalty has come and gone thus ending the flurry of campaigning which swept the GSC campus for the past two weeks. Groups sponsoring candidates displayed hand bills, campaign badges, and glittering picture posters of the worthy competitors in an attempt to spread the excitement of the campaigning to the apathetic non-voters of the campus.

In many person's opinions, this was the best homecoming race Glenville has had in recent years with a number of groups taking interest and sponsoring candidates. These dedicated sponsors spent considerable time and money in their campaigns. But no matter how much money was spent for posters and photographs there remained to be those who lurked in the dark corners of the old cafeteria to rip down posters, those who hid under stairwells in the Administration building to slither out and draw a mustache on a photograph, and those who branded the campaign photos with disrespectful captions and titles. No doubt these "villains" (to put it mildly) had nothing to do with the campaigns and probably, themselves, did not even cast a ballot, but get their kicks by embarrassing others. (Too bad there couldn't have been an on-the-spot photographer in the stairwells, in the old cafe, etc. Talk about embarrassment!)

Hopefully next year things will be different—the graffiti writers will have graduated to bus stop restrooms.

Mrs. Fern Rollyson

Mrs. Fern Rollyson Selected Marshall

Parade Marshall for this year's Homecoming parade will be Mrs. Fern Rollyson, a long time resident of Glenville. Mrs. Rollyson is well-known in the Glenville area among both residents and students due to her active interest in the community. A 1923 graduate of GSC herself, Mrs. Rollyson still supports the school as a member of the Alumni Association. She is also active in the Glenville Women's Club and a member of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Rollyson is currently serving as President of the W.Va. State Folk Festivals, Inc., an office she has held for several years. She serves as the director of the Folk Festival held here in Glenville and is manager of the Country Store.

Through her interesting hobby of collecting and displaying antiques, Mrs. Rollyson represents the Pioneer Spirit.

The City of Glenville recently bestowed the honor of naming a street after her and her late husband, Mr. E.G. Rollyson, in appreciation for their contribution to the community.

A Senior Art Show will be open to the public in the Multi-Purpose room on October 2-3, from 9:00 am to 9:00 pm. Works by Carol Hilleary and Debbie Erwin will be presented.

Dr.'s Point Of View

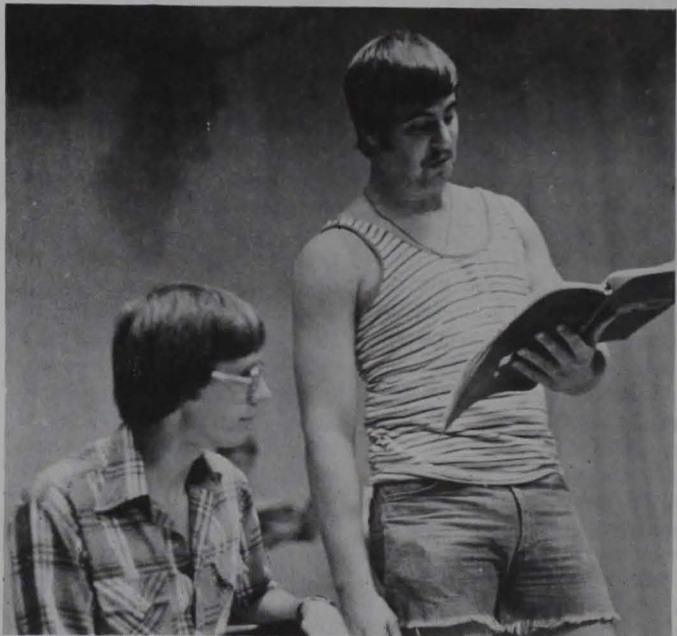

Dear Editor,

This is in response to an editorial on page two of the September 19, 1975 edition of The Glenville Mercury. Mr. Boilon painted a false and misleading picture of the course policy in the Department of Forest Technology. There are two conditions in which we restrict classes to majors in courses offered in forestry, land surveying and ornamental horticulture. These are: 1. When field labs become too large to effectively teach, and 2. New classes where it is highly desirable to have a smaller class to best cover the highly technical material.

Over the past few years several non-major students have taken courses designed specifically for forestry students. The forestry and land surveying programs are well established and we permit anyone to take these classes as long as field lab classes do not become excessively large. The same policy will prevail in the ornamental horticulture program. Many non-major students have taken forestry classes as electives during the past few years. I know of none that were dismissed from class in these established programs under circumstances outlined by Mr. Boilon. Furthermore, I know of no attempt by Mr. Boilon to contact me relative to policies he outlined in his editorial. Perhaps a journalist should attempt to get his facts in order prior to press time.

Yours truly,

A. Edwin Grafton
Chairman

Joe Boggs and Steve Deem rehearse their lines for the upcoming production of NEVER TOO LATE.

A Word About Campus Greeks....

Lambda Chi
Last Wednesday the Brothers of Beta Beta Zeta held a very successful smoker for the new prospectives. The theme was "Hillbillies."

Monday the second smoker was held and the brothers were formally dressed. Gordon Allen and his committee were responsible for these two successful rush functions.

At the weekly meeting, plans were discussed on future money making projects. This Saturday there will be a dance for the school sponsored by Lambda Chi Alpha. The dance will be from 9-12 with free refreshments. The band playing will be "Jessica" from Point Pleasant.

The brothers are also selling basketball schedules to merchants in the area, as well as Weston.

All the members of the chapter will be participating in the upcoming Greek Night which will be held at the Scoreboard. We would like to encourage all Greeks on campus to participate in this event. "Greek Night" is to help in improving the relationship between the sororities and fraternities and could prove very successful.

With the upcoming Commode Bowl, the brothers would like to wish the other competitors good luck.

Theta Xi
The Brothers of the Kappa Eta chapter of Theta Xi Fraternity would like to congratulate Joe Mills for his part in the Monday Forestry expedition. After his active part of last Monday evening Mills has volunteered his experience to Brother Kenneth Wilson.

The Brothers are proud to announce Jeff Castin as the first recipient of the Randello Scarlotto Memorial Award. This award will be presented to a deserving brother in memory of Randello Scarlotto, KH 238, who was lost in Heaven.

Chances for the upcoming Black Oak Arkansas concert will be distributed by the brothers for a donation of fifty cents per chance. Those interested in purchasing chances should contact any Theta Xi.

Teke
Fraters of the Iota Omega chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon would like to congratulate those members of the football team for a fine job. The fraters are in the process of preparing for the Commode Bowl. The TKE house has been greatly improved by means of paint and brush. There will be a pre-game warm-up at Joe's on Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m.

Sigma
Delta Alpha chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma met Monday in Clark Hall to talk about money making projects to enable the group to go to Walton House, Tri Sigma's national headquarters, in early spring. Various suggestions were discussed.

The sisters held their theme party, "The Wizard of Oz," Wednesday night and preference was Thursday night.

Congratulations to sisters Becky Watson, and new pledge Tish Cummings for their victories in the Homecoming Elections.

Delta Zeta
Theta Xi chapter of Delta Zeta held a short informal meeting on Tuesday, September 23.

With formal rush coming to a halt today, the sisters are all looking forward to welcoming our new pledges at the house this evening. A slumber party will be held for the girls later tonight.

Excitement reigned in the house as the girls heard their new Delta Zeta shirts were in.

The sisters would like to congratulate the Pioneers on a great game Saturday night at Tech. Many sisters were present to cheer you on to victory. Good Luck tomorrow afternoon.

GSC Beats Tech On Casto's Kick

The Glenville Pioneers won their first ballgame of the season last Saturday night at Montgomery when they eased by the WV Tech Golden Bears, 3-0.

The Pioneers, who have yet to yield a point to an opponent or have yet to score a touchdown themselves, scored all they needed when sophomore kicker Bob Casto connected on a 27 yard field goal with eight minutes left in the third quarter to give the G-Men a 3-0 lead and the win.

Casto's kick came after a 48 yard drive which was keyed by a 30 yard pass completion from Chris Anderson to Bob Shaffer.

The G-Men came close to scoring again in the fourth quarter when Glenville's quarterback Tom Cowan guided the Pioneers inside Tech's 10 yard line. But the G-Men were stopped when they were called for offensive holding and Casto's 34 yard field goal attempt was blocked.

Tech's only scoring threat came in the second quarter when they tried a 35 yard field goal but the holder fumbled the ball on the snap and the Golden Bears were stopped.

The Pioneers won the battle in statistics collecting 240 yards total offense, with 129 on the ground and 111 in the air. Tech, in comparison, gained 192 total offense, with 127 on the ground and 65 yards in the air.

Glenville's Don Brady led the G-Men in rushing with 90 yards in 22 carries.

Anderson led the G-Men in passing, hitting six of twelve passed for 105 yards.

The Pioneers' next game will be tomorrow at Rohrbough Field beginning at 1:30 p.m. against the undefeated Salem Tigers.

Certain Men's Intramural Softball games have been reset for next week, so be sure to look and see when you play.

On The Bench

Coach Whitey Adolfson got his first win as a college coach last Saturday night when the Pioneers squeezed by the Tech Golden Bears 3-0. Coach Adolfson is the only coach in the conference or maybe in the whole country who can say that his team is undefeated and has yet to score a touchdown.

The Pioneer defense so far this season has been super. Anytime you shut out two opponents in eight consecutive quarters of play, your defense is bound to be doing one heck of a job. The defensive unit of the Pioneers held the Golden Bears to only 192 yards total defense. Tech got 42 of their total offense yards when Mike Swartz galloped up the field on the first play in the game.

Productive Wide Receivers

Split end Bob Shaffer of the Pioneers is the top receiver in the conference so far this season. Shaffer has hauled in eight catches for 140 yards. Not far behind him is the G-Men's other wide receiver, Steve Chandler, who has caught six passes for 117 yards.

Madison Wins First

Madison College, the Pioneers' opening game opponent, won their first game of the season last weekend when they downed Washington and Lee University 21-16.

The Pioneers are scheduled to open up against the Dukes next year down at Harrisonburg, Va.

While on the subject of Madison, it appears that their sportswriter,

Jim Morgan, who covered the Pioneer-Madison game, was a little bitter about the officiating of the game. In one edition of the Harrisonburg paper last week, Morgan wrote a whole sports column on how bad the officiating was in the contest and how the Dukes were robbed of a win.

After reading his column a couple of times I came to the conclusion that he and I must not have seen the same Glenville-Madison game, because he made it sound like Glenville got all the calls while Madison was cheated. I guess he had to blame someone for Madison's inability to score.

Mr. Soothsayer

Last week was a very productive one for both the Glenville Pioneers and Mr. Sooth. "Soothie" amazed the world, including himself, by picking correctly on seven of eight games. The eighth game was a tie between West Liberty and Waynesburg.

If Mr. Sooth's record keeps improving like it did last week, he might decide to take over the odds-making job of Jimmy "The Greek" out in Las Vegas.

"Soothie's" record now stands at an astonishing 15-5-2 for a correct guessing percentage of 75%. Not bad! Not bad!

Here goes this week's guessing' WVU 21, Boston College 20. The Mountaineers win a close one.

Marshall 9, Illinois State 7. The Herd wins its first.

West Liberty 17, WV Wesleyan 7. The Hilltoppers top the Bobcats.

Tech 13, Bluefield 7. Golden Bears win their first.

Concord 21, Shepherd 7. The Mountain Lions eat up the Rams.

Fairmont 28, WV State 7. The Falcons tune up for the G-Men.

Glenville 3, Salem 2. The Pioneers win it in the bottom of the ninth.

Some Final Quotes

Alex Karras: "I never graduated from Iowa; I was only there for two terms—Truman's and Eisenhower's."

Chuck Estrada, recalling his days as pitching coach of the Texas Rangers: "We developed a very scientific system for bringing in relief pitchers. We used the first one who answered the phone."

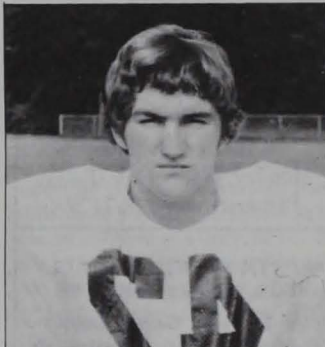

GSC LINKSTERS

The Glenville State College golf team will open its fall season Monday when they travel to Cacapon State Park and participate in a six team match.

Cheerleaders Find Sponsor

The Cheerleaders are leaderless no more.

Ms. Dolores Mysliwiec, instructor of Sociology at GSC, has agreed to serve as the new cheerleading sponsor.

Ms. Mysliwiec came to Glenville from Northern Michigan University last year. She says she prefers the milder weather here in the Tri-State area and was glad her job allowed her to return to it.

She received her undergraduate degree from Duquesne University in Pittsburgh and completed her Master's degree in Education there. At the Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago she earned a Master of Sociology degree. She is currently working on a Ph.D. in Sociology at Kent State-Akron, Ohio.

The new sponsor is very enthusiastic about helping out the girlson the cheerleading squad. She is replacing Ms. Virginia Hays who has moved to Spencer and no longer has the time to devote to their activities.

Any person planning to graduate in December 1975, who has not as yet gotten a credential packet from the placement office should do so at their earliest possible convenience if they wish to take advantage of the services of the placement office.

Carolyn Beam Accepts Social Studies Position

Dr. Jackson O. Hall, president of Pikeville College, has announced the appointment of a new faculty member in the division of social studies. She is Mrs. Carolyn D. Beam, a native of Glendale, West Virginia. Mrs. Beam is currently working toward a master's degree in business education. She received her bachelor of arts degree from Glenville State College and has attended Morris Harvey College for teacher recertification.

Saturday Nite

Dance-Dance!

Contemplating another long and lonely Saturday night? Well, cheer up and get out your dancing shoes!

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity is sponsoring a dance this Saturday from 9-12 in the ballroom. Admission to the dance is $1.50 and free refreshments will be served. "Jessica", a group from Pt. Pleasant, will provide the entertainment.

So, don't sit in this Saturday! Attend the Lambda Chi dance and beat the blues.

Forestry Majors Journey to Cass

"We are riding on a railroad, singing someone else's song."

This line from one of James Taylor's tunes could be what sixty-eight GSC forestry majors are singing today as they travel the Cass Scenic Railroad.

The forestry students have been visiting the railroad since 1969. It had been owned and used by a logging operation until 1963, when the state of West Virginia took it over and revamped it to accommodate the tourists.

The students will ride to the top of Bald Mountain, the second highest peak in the state. There they will become acquainted with the forest floor at this higher elevation. Various species of trees not found near Glenville will be studied.

The railroad ride is part of a two-day field trip taken to acquaint the future foresters with a variety of woodland habitats. Yesterday morning the group traveled to Hill Creek and then to Cranberry Glades. They spent the night at the Pocahontas County 4-H Camp. They will return to Glenville this evening.

Accompanying the students is Dr. Ed Grafton, Forestry Department Chairman, and his brother.

Attention-This will be the last week to pick your yearbooks up in the Placement Office.

Shown above are Glenville students who participated in last Monday's bloodmobile. Forty-two units were collected.

42 Units Collected In Bloodmobile

The Red Cross Bloodmobile could be seen outside the Pioneer Center last Monday during the first of its two visits to GSC this semester.

Inside, five nurses, two Mobile Unit Assistants, and over 20 Glenville volunteers worked throughout the day, collecting a total of 42 units of blood. Fifty-eight prospective donors came to the ballroom. Sixteen of these were deferred for various reasons. The volunteers and Bloodmobile staff put in at least 162 man-hours of service during the six-hour drive.

The Bloodmobile travels over 3000 miles per month in Ohio, Kentucky, and West Virginia. It is operated by Parkersburg's Keystone sub-center of the Tri-State Red Cross Chapter, located in Huntington. The sub-center serves as the storage and distribution point for blood in the counties north and east of Parkersburg.

Mrs. Ruth M. Bennett, R.N. working with the unit, said there are so many more uses for blood today because of medical advances that there is a constant need, especially here in West Virginia. The blood collected Monday is good for 21 days, but it most likely will be used much sooner. She said one unit may be all that is needed to save someone's life.

The Bloodmobile's next visit to Glenville is tentatively scheduled for late November. It is hoped that more GSC students will donate either their blood or their services at this time.
