Orators Vie; Up Nat'l Rank

Once again the Glenville State College Forensics team scored an impressive victory as it won the third place Individual Events Sweepstakes trophy at the Ohio University Debate and Individual Events Tourney held this past weekend at Athens, Ohio. The team, coached by Katherine Leisnering of the Speech Dept., scored a total of 158.5 points to beat such other schools as Marshall University, Oberlin, Georgetown, Fairmont, Otterbein, Ohio State University, Heidelberg, Ohio Northern University, Sinclair Community College and Parkersburg Community College. Only Clarion St. and Bowling Green topped Glenville again with many more entries.

In addition to this honor, Glenville finished fifth in overall sweepstakes which included debate. Glenville finished fifth with no debate team—an amazing feat, considering school size. For this honor, Glenville beat all of the above schools plus Texas Southern, Ohio U.—Lancaster, O.U.-Portsmouth, John Carroll University, Slippery Rock State College, Marietta College and Concord College, W.Va.

Glenville walked off with seven more trophies and five more certificates of achievement, to make its grand trophy total up to 75 in just three years. Also added were four new qualifiers for the national finals, to bring that total to 15 in just three tournaments.

Judy Ditlow, in her second tournament of the year finished in all three events she was entered in, finishing first, out of thirty two entered in Sales, fifth out of 85 entered in prose and sixth out of 51 entered in Drama Duo. Dorothy Wright in only her second tournament of the year semi-finaled in all three of her events and finished in two of those,

Rotary Club To Sponsor Student

The local Glenville Rotary Club, in cooperation with The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International, would like to sponsor three West Virginia graduate or undergraduate students in the 1977-78 school year. Education awards will be offered through programs such as: Graduate Fellowships, Undergraduate Scholarships, Technical Training Awards, and Teachers of the Handicapped.

The local club may recommend two persons for awards, while the West Virginia district may recommend a total of three. Dr. D. Banks Wilburn of Glenville, as Chairman of the local Rotary screening committee, has applications for those interested. Deadline for the receipt of completed applications is March 15, 1976.

Students Live Abroad

Since the objective of these awards is to increase international understanding, the awardee is required to study in a country other than his own. There he is expected to be both an outstanding student and an ambassador of good will. He will, upon his return, discuss his experiences and share his understanding with his sponsoring group.

The four educational awards, available to both men and women, are: Graduate Fellowships, for those (ages 20-28) who have received a bachelor degree or equivalent; Undergraduate Scholarships, for those (age 18-14) who are studying at the university level but have not completed a bachelor's degree; Technical Training Awards for those (ages 21-35) who are high school graduates or equivalent and who have been engaged in a technical field for at least two years at time of application; and Teachers Awards for (ages 25-50) who have been employed as full-time teachers of the physically, mentally or educationally handicapped for at least two years at the time of application.

The basic period of an educational award is one academic year. The award covers the cost of round-trip transportation between the awardee's home and place of study, registration, tuition, laboratory and other school fees, necessary books and educational supplies, room and board, incidental living costs, limited educational travel, and where necessary, intensive language training. Study must be undertaken in a country where there are Rotary Clubs.

Those interested in securing applications or in obtaining more information may contact Dr. Wilburn, Presidents Office, Glenville State College, Glenville, WV 26351 or call 462-7361, extension 204.

Tryouts Announced For 'Mice and Men'

On Monday, January 12 and Tuesday, January 13 Glenville State College introduces more substance for productivity. The Speech department continues her theatrical season with tryouts for John Steinbeck's New York Drama Critic Circle's award winning play, OF MICE AND MEN. Written in 1937, the book was selected by the Book-of-the-Month Club and remains today as one of Steinbeck's masterpieces.

OF MICE AND MEN, this year's chosen drama, will perform on the GSC stage on February 18, 19, and 20. It will be introduced by 10 students of Glenville State College. The Speech department invites you to be among them. A cast of nine (9) males and one (1) female, OF MICE AND MEN perpetrates two diametrically opposed farmhands, George and Lennie.

George, (major role) is a farmhand who accepts day labor and who has assumed the responsibility of

We Wish You - Merry Days

With intermittent snow flurrying in this region of West Virginia, many of us are overwhelmed by the holiday spirit. Adults in their late teens and early twenties are momentarily transformed into small children again as the sound of "It's snowing outside!" echoes through the dormitories and across the campus. But the burden of final exams hangs heavy over the heads of many.

It seems that there is always a discolored stripe in every rainbow and in this case there's a run in everyone's Christmas stocking who has left exam studying or paper writing until the last possible minute. However, it has been proven many of us seem to function better under pressure. But after it is all over, the last exam is completed and having finally arrived home for the holidays, the college-weary student goes through a kind of withdrawal period. The surrounding scene has changed somewhat from an atmosphere of worrying and cramming to a scene of the cozy tranquility of his own home (at last), the nerves of every college exam veteran are still back on campus ready to breakdown if that "B" he was counting on surprisingly came out in the shape of a "D". After about a day and a half, an overwhelming amount of watching TV and afternoon naps and plenty of someone's good home cooking, the student returns to normal and the holiday spirit which sparked in his heart upon the first flake of snow he witnessed emits a warm glow of good will to all, maybe even to the kind heart who gave him the "D".

May we at the Mercury wish you good luck in your finals, a safe journey home, and plenty of happy Christmas memories to help you start a New Year out with an optimistic attitude and to keep you warm on a cold winter's night thirty years from now.

SC Referendum Successful

Recently Student Congress held a referendum to determine student sentiment toward a recent S.C. proposal. This proposal, if passed, would increase student fees by eleven dollars per semester while in turn abolishing admission to all home athletic contests.

The votes were counted December 8 and an overwhelming 96% of the votes were "yes." This vote determined that student fees will increase beginning August, 1976. The fact that the referendum passed by such an enormous margin reflects the thoughts of GSC students.

For the fall semester of '76, Glenville State will have approximately $26,000 above the present budget to revitalize several deserving areas. This increase was a vote of confidence by the students in Glenville State College.

I would like to express my appreciation to the voters for taking a moment to care. The act of voting may possibly be a momentary delay but the effects are well worth the slight inconvenience.

An Abduction Of Santa

by Joyce Aldridge and Laura Mueller

*Twas the weekend of finals
And all through the school,
All the students were studying,
Playing it cool.*

*Some answers were written
On cheat-cards with care,
In readiness for
The distasteful affair.*

*Instructors were nestled,
All snug in their beds,
While visions of failing marks
Danced in their heads.*

*And all the R.A.'s,
Upon setting their traps,
Had just settled down
For a long winter's nap.*

*When out in the front
There arose such a clatter,
They sprang from their beds
To see what was the matter.*

*Away to the windows
They flew like a flash,
Tore open the curtains
And peered through the glass.*

*When what to their wondering
Eyes should appear,
But eight drunken frat boys,
All full of good cheer.*

*With a little old pale guy
Whose speech was so thick,
They thought in a moment
That he might be sick.*

*More rapid than eagles, the Brave R.A.'s came,
And muttered and mumbled
And called them by name:*

*Now ----, now ----,
Now ---- and ----;
Now ----, now ----,
Now ---- and ----,*

*Get up to your rooms!
Get out of this hall!
Now hurry up, shut up!
Get moving, you all!*

*As dry leaves that before
The wild hurricane fly,
When they meet with an obstacle,
Mount to the sky,*

*So up to their rooms
The frat boys, they flew,
With a case full of beer
And a full fifth or two.*

*And then in a twinkling
Twas heard up above
Lots of shouting and laughing
And one little shove.*

*As they drew in their heads
And were turning around,
Down the staircase the little guy
Came with a bound.*

*He was dressed all in fur
From his head to his shoes,
And his clothes were all covered
With ashes and booze.*

*A bundle of toys
He was dragging behind,
And he looked like a toddler,
The feverish kind.*

*His eyes, how they squinted,
His movements, how wary,,
His cheeks were like hotplates,
His nose, like a cherry;*

*His slack little mouth,
Like his eyelids, hung low,
And the gait of his walk
Grew increasingly slow.*

*He had a broad face
And a little beer belly
That shook when he lurched
Like a bowl full of jelly.*

*He was messy and drunk--
A right sloppy old elf,
And they laughed when they saw him
In spite of themselves.*

*A blink of his eye and
A twist of his head
Soon gave them to know that
He should be in bed.*

*He spoke not a word, but
They all knew the cause:
Those boys had abducted
The great Santa Claus.*

*For a kindly old Santa
Just couldn't say no
To those little boy faces
With eyes all aglow.*

*He neglected his duties
To go catch a buzz,
And that was the reason
He was as he wuzz.*

*He reeled to his sleigh,
On which hung a ticket,
And steered toward the street,
But ran into a thicket.*

*But they heard him exclaim,
Once his sled was aight,
"Merry Christmas, GSC, Oh, boy! What a night!"*

Mr. Dave McCombs is the new campus Veteran's representative. He will be available to counsel veterans each Thursday from 10 a.m.- 3 p.m. in the Office of Student Affairs. McCombs is from the Huntington Regional Office, Huntington, WV.

LAMBDA CHI

The Brothers of Beta Beta Zeta initiated nine men last Friday night. The new brothers include Scott Barkwill, Scott Clendenin, Tim Coffmann, Jeff Efaw, Mike McClung, Frank McCreery, Gil Valdez, Roger Young, and advisor Vance Weekley. A celebration in their honor was held Saturday night at "the Jungle."

A formal installation of officers was held Monday evening at the Wesley Foundation. President Don Chapman later presided over the weekly meeting in which 40 brothers were in attendance. Topics for discussion included a Christmas party, Spring rush, and Closed Ball which is tentatively set for April 3.

TKE

Greg Arnette lays an easy two points in against St. Mary's last Saturday night. Arnette poured in 23 points.

On The Bench

by John Lilly

The GSC Pioneer basketball team won a breather last Saturday night when they clobbered visiting St. Mary's College 106-70. In that win, the G-Men broke in their new home uniforms with a convincing 36 point win.

St. Mary's came into Glenville with an impressive 4-1 record, their only loss coming from the Shepherd Rams in their opening game of the season. The night before they played the Pioneers, they beat a team over 20 points, but they were just outclassed by the G-Men. Their coach summed it up by saying, "We play in a weaker league."

And this sportswriter, after watching St. Mary's play, must agree with him.

Even Scoring

In Glenville's lopsided win, all thirteen players saw considerable playing time with everyone scoring four points or more. It was pointed out by coach Jesse Lilly that the five starters scored 53 points between them and the reserves came off the bench to score 53 points, also.

All of the eight players sitting on the bench are freshmen and those 53 points they scored coming in as reserves show that the G-Men could be tough by tournament time when these "rookies" gain more experience.

New Threads for G-Men

The Pioneer cagers broke out new home uniforms in the game against St. Mary's College. Coach Lilly describes the white with blue and red trim outfits as "our bicentennial uniforms."

This sportswriter must say they aren't lacking for color.

Kegler's Travel

The GSC men's and women's bowling team traveled up to Penn State last weekend and had dual matches with the Nittany Lions' men and women keggers.

Although the Pioneers lost to one of the most powerful bowling schools in America, Dr. Robert Dollinger felt that his teams gained quite a bit of experience just from participating against the Nittany Lions.

Hotshooting Pioneers

Archie Talley and Company came to town last Tuesday and were belted badly by the hotshooting Pioneers. It was the second straight game the G-Men have scored over 100 points in one game.

These 100 point games aren't that familiar to the Pioneers and their fans. Glenville is usually noted for their low scoring defensive battles, but so far this year the G-Men haven't had that much trouble scoring.

Speaking of scoring, Salem's Talley hasn't lost any of his shooting touch as he proved the other night. After scoring only 12 points the first half, he came back out the second 20 minutes and ripped the nets for 30 points in that half alone.

Busy Vacation

The Pioneer basketball team won't have any rest over Christmas vacation as they will play in two holiday tournaments.

Their first tourney, on December 28 and 29, will be played in Williamson where they take on nationally-ranked Pikeville College in the first round.

Then on January 2 and 3 they travel to Marietta, Ohio where they play in the Marietta Shrine Tournament.

These two tourneys ought to get the G-Men ready for the Fairmont Falcons who invade Glenville on January 7.

A Final Quote

From the Sportsdesk

Jon Weber: "Jimmy Brown was the finest all-around athlete I ever saw—he was a jock of all trades."

G-Men Blast Salem Tigers

The Glenville Pioneer basketball team won their second straight game last Tuesday night when they blasted the Salem Tigers 104-72. It was the second straight contest in which the Pioneers have scored over 100 points.

The G-Men jumped on the Tigers early as they scored the first ten points of the game and held a commanding 17-2 lead with 14 minutes left in the first half. Guard Randy Hess sparkplugged Glenville early in the game hitting 6 of 7 shots from the floor.

Glenville led Archie Talley and Company at halftime by a comfortable score of 56-33. The G-Men shot a torrid 55.5% from the floor in those twenty minutes. Talley, the hotshooting Tiger, was held to only twelve points in that half.

The Pioneers came out the second half and outscored the Tigers 48-39. All thirteen Pioneers played in the contest but only nine scored.

Leading the G-Men in scoring was 5'10½" jumping sensation Greg Arnette who tossed in 28 points and pulled down 11 rebounds. Arnette was followed by Tom Coates who poured in 17 points, grabbed 10 rebounds and had 8 assists to his credit. Arnette and Coates were followed in scoring by Randy Datcher with 15, Robert Hawkins with 14, Randy Hess with 12, Charles Warner with 10, Calvin Page with 4, and Gary Nottingham and Reggie Carter both added 2 points apiece.

Only one person scored in double figures for Salem and that was Talley, who scored a game high of 42 points, 30 of those points were in the second half.

The Pioneers' record now stands at 3-2 overall and 1-1 in the conference. Their next contest will be Monday night against the Beckley Blue Hawks at Beckley.

Pioneerettes Fall To Salem Tigers

The Glenville State College women's basketball team suffered its first loss of the season last Tuesday night when they were clawed by the Salem College Tigers 71-39.

The powerful Tigers jumped on the Pioneerettes at the start of the contest and were never threatened. Salem led at halftime by a comfortable 46-17 margin.

In the second half, the G-Women were only outscored 25-22 but the Pioneerettes could do no better as the final score ended with 71-39 loss.

Glenville had two players to score in double figures with Janet James leading the way with 15 points and not far behind was Kim West with 14. Other Pioneerettes scoring were: Judy Drake with 3 and Phyllis Taylor, Kathy Wass, and Shirley Murphy all with 2 points apiece.

Salem had three players to score in double figures with Ellen Butcher leading the way with 16 points. Butcher was followed by Donna Baran's 15 points and Gail Jarrol's 11.

The Pioneerettes' record now stands at 1-1.

Everyone from the sports department here on the Mercury would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Randy Datcher tips one in against St. Mary's. The Pioneers won the contest 106-70.

Pioneers Belt St. Marys

The Glenville Pioneers rocked St. Mary's College of Maryland last Saturday night by the score of 106-70. All thirteen of the G-Men who dressed for the game scored.

Glenville jumped on St. Mary's early as they went to an 11-0 lead. The Maryland team fought back to a 13-7 score, but that was as close as they could come.

The Pioneers cruised to a 53-32 lead at halftime as Coach Jesse Lilly substituted freely in that half.

In the second half, the G-Men again scored 53 points in the twenty minute period. Most of these points came from the Glenville reserves.

Five Pioneers scored in double figures as sophomore Greg Arnette led the way with 23 points. Arnette was followed by Robert Hawkins and Charles Warner with 12 each. Gary Nottingham and Reggie Carter both added 10 points for the winners.

Other Pioneers scoring in the contest were Randy Datcher with 8, Tom Coates with 6, Wayne Washington with 5, and Randy Hess, Calvin Page, Gene Pearson, Don Whalen, and Joe Knicely all with 4 points.

Herb Malone led St. Mary's with 18 points and 13 rebounds.

The Pioneers' overall record now stands at 2-2.

Bowling Teams Strike Out

The Glenville State College Women's and Men's bowling teams lost dual matches last Saturday afternoon to the powerful Penn. State Nittany Lions. The matches were held on the Pennsylvania campus.

The GSC women's team lost to Penn State women by a total pinfall of 5451-4986, while the Pioneer men fell to the Nittany Lions by a total pinfall of 5611 to 5153.

The Pioneer women were led by Debbie Curry with a total pinfall of 1065 and a six game average of 177. She was followed closely by Karen Goodall who posted a six game average of 176. These two women were followed by Cindy Gunnoe with a 165 average, Phyllis Taylor with a 160 average and Debbie Bosserman with a 137 average. Gunnoe bowled a 203, the high game for the G-Women.

The Penn State women were led by outstanding Pat McClellan who averaged a 208 for six games.

The Pioneer men's team was led by senior Sam Ferrell with a total pinfall of 1187 and a six game average of 198. Ferrell was followed by Mark Smith with a 177 average. Joe Noble had a 165 average, Mike Hickman a 162 average and Mike Miller an average of 156.

The Pioneer men's bowling team's next match is not until January 17 when they participate in the 1st Regional held in Glendale. The GSC women are idle until January 30 when they travel to Morgantown.

FRUIT, McINTYRE GET ALL-AMERICAN MENTIONS

Two Glenville Pioneers gridders were named to the NAIA Division II college football All-American team honorable mention list.

Seniors Joe McIntyre and Jerome Fruit were selected from the 1975 Pioneer squad along with 10 other

WVIAC players.

McIntyre manned the offensive guard position for the G-Men for two years, while Fruit played the defensive safety position for four years.

These two men will be sorely missed by the G-Men next year.

Freshman Reggie Carter lays one up for an easy two points. Carter scored 10 points in a reserve role.

TRYOUTS . . .

taking care of his simpleminded friend, Lennie. The role requests a male 5'4"-5'8", medium build with small, restless, sharp features. He often seems rough and harsh.

Lennie (major role) is a large retarded man who has the mind of a child and who loves to pet soft, pretty things. He has great difficulty remembering anything. The role asks for a male 5'11"-6'3", medium-large build. He desperately clings to the idea of having rabbits and having a place with George. He has complete and utter devotion to George.

Candy, (supporting role) is an old, crippled farmhand who has saved some money and wants to be a part of George and Lennie's plan to buy a place. In his seventies, Candy is slight of build (5'5"-5'8").

Boss, (sub-supporting) is a stocky 55 year old man (5'9"-6') who projects a very arrogant, business-like personality.

Curley, (supporting) is a small, cocky, conceited man who is the 25-year-old son of the boss. The Curley role requests a male 5'5"-5'7", who is capable of projecting a character who delights in hurting people.

Curley's wife (supporting role) is nearly 25 (5'5"-5'7") and conducts herself in a common, vulgar manner. "A tramp," Curley's wife is willing to talk to anyone at any time.

Slim, (sub-supporting) is a sympathetic farmhand who understands George and Lennie's relationship. He gives Lennie a puppy which the retarded man later pets to death. Slim is in his 30's, 5'8"-5'10".

Carlson, (sub-supporting) is in his 40's. The role calls for a man 5'8"-5'10". Carlson is responsible for killing the old, blind dog which belonged to Candy. He is of medium to large build and is persistent with his ideas.

Whit, (Sub-supporting) is another farmhand, medium build, nearing 40. He is easy-going and sympathetic toward Candy and the old dog. He is 5'8"-5'11".

Crooks, (sub-supporting) is a Negro farmhand who keeps to himself and is aloof from the white workers. He is 5'9"-6', nearing 60, and proud. He keeps his distance, demands that other people keep theirs. The distance he maintains is one generated by his refusal to accept a subservient position. Lennie accepts Crooks with perfect naturalness and a marvelous comradeship ensues.

OF MICE AND MEN is a true rarity for the stage. The setting moves from a sandy bank of the Salinas River to the interior of a farm bunkhouse in an agricultural valley in Northern California.

The story hosts George and Lennie in their nomadic struggle as farmhands. Beautifully, Steinbeck has interwoven the opposing personalities of a touching friendship in two men. It is a story of breathtaking dreams and the forced unraveling of them. The ending captivates the audience into food for thought and a gut-level sickness that only comes from an honest recognition of man's inhumanity to man.

The Speech department offers nine male roles and one female role. Come. Tryout. You need no former theatre experience. If you would like to serve on technical crews please attend tryouts, January 12 and 13, 4-9 p.m. in the large auditorium. Scripts are available in the library NOW. Remember to enroll for acting and/or technical credit (1-3 hours) for this academic and extra-curricular college activity. Try it! You'll love it!

Cheerleader tryouts will be held the week after school re-convenes for second semester. Freshmen are eligible. One regular and two alternates will be selected.

Greeks Sponsor Party For Local Children

This year's Christmas Party was held Thursday, Dec. 11th from 1:00 to 3:00 in the ballroom. The party was held for the underprivileged children of Gilmer County. Organizations working together were Theta Xi Fraternity and Delta Zeta and Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority.

A total of 40 children attended and each child received toys and stockings stuffed full of fruit, nuts, and candy. This was done by the sororities. There was also plenty of refreshments donated by Mr. Harkins and the Food Service of Glenville State College.

Santa Claus was portrayed by Steven Deem. Also the Theta Xi's and Delta Zeta pledges dressed up as Santa's helpers. Christmas music was provided. The Christmas tree and decorations were donated by Dr. Wiitburn. All participants of the Fraternity and Sororities involved decorated the tree Wed. night.

This party is a reminder to all Greeks that working together shows positive results. This Christmas party will linger in the minds of the children for a long, long time. For some, this was their only Christmas.
