In Market For A Job?

Looking for a job? Then stop by the Placement Office soon and look over the information they have on jobs available not only in this state, but also throughout the world. The "Jobs Worldwide" monthly report is received every month in the Placement Office and tells of employment opportunities currently available in places like London, Australia, Mexico City and Paris. It is compiled from information available through various reliable sources of government and industry and from leading American and foreign newspapers and magazines.

Summer job opportunities with the federal government are also available. Different jobs with different departments within the Federal government are open and the information about each department is contained in a pamphlet in the Placement Office.

They also have two magazines, Equal Opportunity for minority students and the Collegiate Woman's Career.

A recruiter from the West Virginia Civil Service will be on campus and available for interviews on November 30, from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Anyone interested in a pamphlet on the Civil Service test can get one in the Placement Office. They are free and give general information on the test.

December Grad?

Each student who is planning to complete the requirements for a degree in December 1976 or May 1977 must have an official evaluation made by the Office of Academic Affairs. If you have not requested such an evaluation, please come to this office and complete the necessary form requesting that your credits be evaluated. As soon as possible after you have requested an official evaluation, it will be made and a copy mailed to you and one to your adviser.

The Skagg Brothers warmly prepare for Sadie Hawkins Day. Pictured 1-R are the Theta Xi pledges: Jim Dotson, Mark Antrill, and Mark Dorsey.

Convention Bound

Four professors from the Business department at GSC, have been invited to attend the Annual Southern Business Education Association convention in Miami, Florida. James Hinter, Mrs. Virginia Hays, Ernest Smith and John McCreary will be traveling to Miami on November 20 and will return November 28. This is the first time that more than one member of the GSC staff has attended this convention and this is because the president of SBEA, Sara Anderson, Associate Dean of the College of Business at Marshall University, specially invited them.

While there, they plan to check into the different programs in community colleges in Florida. Next to California, Florida has done more in vocational schools and community colleges. Mr. Smith and Mr. Hinter will be visiting Mid-Florida Tech in Orlando and looking at their programs in hotel and motel management and park management. Dr. McCreary will be visiting Ft. Lauderdale Community College and will be looking at their programs in fashion merchandising, travel services, and their retail trade training programs. Mrs. Hays will be going to Pinellas County Center in St. Petersburg and will look into their food management program and banking and auditing of hotels and motels.

Simmons Releases Academic Calendar

The academic calendar for 1977-78, 1978-79 has been approved by the College Council. An attempt has been made to achieve a balanced calendar from semester to semester. Some of the ideas that went into the schedule are outlined in the Campus Prepares For Sadie Hawkins

by Joe Mills

Land o' goshen, time sure duz seem to fly. It seems like it wuz jest yesterday when all the greece wore outta my hair from the last Sadie Hawkins Day an now, a hole yeer later, heer it iz agin. Yes-siree Bob, temarra iz Sadie Hawkins Day. Thats the day what every woman in Dogpatch waits fer, cause thats the only day of the hole yeer when she can go an fetch herself a man by hook, by crook, or by way of a big club if she has to. Why, last yeer a bunch of fellers hid in the briar patch an still got caught. Them wimmen was so mean that the briars didn't skratsh 'em, they just tromped down the briar bushes an carried off the furst man they came to.

The wimmen that catches themselves a man will bring 'em back to the preacher to get hitched. The ceremony dont cost no money, tho the bride jest squishes two henberreys over Marryin' Sams noggin an the couple iz affishally wedlocked (until the man kin sneak away).

But before Marryin' Sam will declare open seeson on the lowly critter known as the husband, theres gonna be a heap o' fun. Theres gonna be races, an tug-o-wars, an more games than Carter has peanuts!

Everybody that wins a game will be given a prize (guaranteed to be good enuff to write home about).

Come rain or shine, the 4-H Grounds will be the hoppinest place in Glimmer County! For those of you too lazy to walk out, then Theta Xi's will be runnin a taxi cab service from Pickens Hall out to the 4-H Grounds from 12 to 12:30. The weather man from Oak Hill, Arnall Church, promises Saturday to "be a warm and dry day" but his promises are worth about as much as surplus "Ford for President" posters. Dress warm but leave your corn licker at home cause there's a chance that the revenurs might come-a-callin at the 4-H grounds.

A good time is guaranteed to all but 'specially to the lucky cuss who will fetch the $10 from the top of the greased pole. Come on out an enjoy yerself the Dogpatch way. Then to top off the evening you can warm up to the sound of Disco Music in the Scoreboard and help polish off five kegs of refreshments. Sadie Hawkins Day promises to be more fun than tormentin' your sister.

Jenio's Point Of View: Through A Glass Lens

See the scenes of West Virginia through the camera of Dr. Frank Jenio. Dr. Jenio will be exhibiting and selling photos from Tuesday, Nov. 30 to Thursday December 2 in the Multi-purpose room.

This is the third year that Dr. Jenio has held this Photo Exhibit and sale. The prints are both color and black and white and are mounted on barn wood from West Virginia. He has specialized in nature photography, West Virginia wild flowers, and ocean-sea scapes for this exhibit.

ginning the fall semester. Another change that can be noted is a one-week fall vacation which covers the week of Thanksgiving. In Appalachia, Thanksgiving is traditionally a time of close family relationships. A one-week vacation at this time seems appropriate. Between first and second semesters there is approximately a three-week period of time. The College Administration is taking all possible steps to conserve energy and cut utility costs. During the time between semesters, energy consumptions will be held to an absolute minimum.

In past years, and in the current year, there were two breaks in the Spring Semester: Easter vacation and and spring vacation. In the next two years there will be one vacation which will occur during the Easter holiday. One long vacation seems appropriate instead of having two short vacations. This will preserve continuity in the semester.

Commencement will occur one week later in 1978 than in 1977. Summer school 1978 will begin on June 12 and end on August 11, 1978. There will be two weeks between the end of summer school and the beginning of fall semester. As stated previously, an attempt has been made to establish a reasonable balance between work and vacation.

Happy Thanksgiving

Take Time to Care . . .

On November 25, we will begin the holiday season by celebrating Thanksgiving, yet how many of us will really take time to give thanks? As students, it is especially easy for us to forget how many blessings we have.

Each morning, we get out of bed, go to class, eat, sleep, etc. We seldom have time or take time to think about what we have to be grateful for. Day after day we complain about this test or that professor, the cafeteria food, and the "strict" rules we must abide by. We gossip about this person, or that person, we drink (some do at least), we waste time, but do we ever think how or by whose sacrifice we are here?

We GSC students are very, very lucky. We have a beautiful campus, instructors who honestly care, and we also have a lot of very beautiful people. The most gratifying part of living is people. All of us have our own select group of friends. We should all remember to take time to show our friends we appreciate them. We cannot continue to take things for granted; they are easily lost.

Let's make the coming holiday season an extra special one. Take time to care. I wish you all a safe trip home and God's blessing for a truly thankful Thanksgiving.

DELTA ZETA

On Thursday of last week Ms. K. was initiated into Delta Zeta sorority. Welcome, Jeanne!

Remember the Baby Beauty Contest this week sponsored by the DZ Pledges. Vote for your favorite baby.

A bake sale was held Wed. 10-2.

The weekly meeting was held Tues., Nov. 16 in the Chapter Room.

The Pledges take the National Nov. 18. Good luck girls!

A pepperoni roll sale will be held Nov. 29.

The sisters would like to thank everyone who supported us at our rummage sale Saturday.

Good luck wishes are extended to the choir and bowling team.

LAMBDA CHI

The brothers would like to congratulate Athletic Director Jeff Wiles for his punctuality in turning in the volleyball roster in spite of his participation in the Baby Beautiful Contest and Li'l Abner.

We salute brother "Dingle" Newberry on his perseverance and patience. He has finally passed one of Doc Dollgener's tests with a smashing D-.

Randy Gillis, associate member, has cornered the POW award, and brother Elder and his wife Deb have received the much prized KCUF award.

Advisor Vance Weekley wins this week's TURKEY award for hosting a pre-Thanksgiving dinner this coming Saturday. "Well done Vance."

SIGMA

The weekly meeting of Sigma Sigma Sigma was held on November 15, 1976 on the wing. Topics discussed were as follows:

(1) An alumni banquet will be held on December 12, at 3:30 p.m. in the Wesley Foundation.

(2) The Delta Zeta Sorority invited us to their house on November 17, for a Thanksgiving Dinner. We had a delicious menu and refreshing hospitality. We wish to thank them for the wonderful dinner.

(3) The Sigma pledges will be sponsoring a Christmas party for all actives on December 12, 1976 directly after the Alumni banquet at Wesley Foundation.

(4) Thursday evening a party for the benefit of pledges was held at the Tosh. It was a fun evening.

(5) Congratulations to the pledges for passing their National test. We knew they could do it and keep up the good work.

Remember the Shrine Tournaments and be ready for a fun day this Saturday, "Sadie Hawkins."

THETA XI

The Brothers of Theta Xi are proud to invite the entire campus of GSC to the annual Sadie Hawkins Day activities tomorrow at the 4-H Grounds. Much work and many hours of planning were consumed by "Sadie."

The AAHPER has named Rusty Pauley as the recipient of the Neuro Muscular Skills Award for the month of October. Pauley could not be reached for comment on the award as he was scheduled for knee surgery at Charleston General Hospital.

All 301 students please see Mr. Hickman in the Placement Office prior to registering for second semester.

'Tommy' Assessed As 'Far-Out'

If you were one of the many to go see the fantastic Tommy, then "your senses will never be the same!"

Some say they didn't understand one thing in the movie, but since I've seen it 3 times, I know everything that will happen and exactly when Roger Daltrey, Eric Clapton, Tina Turner, Elton John and The Who (minus Daltrey) will make their entries!

Contrary to popular belief, I thought the whole afore-mentioned rock cast was very professional and convincing in its roles. Especially Roger Daltrey! (Didn't you hear me screaming in the front row?!)

Ann-Margaret was a very beautiful perfectionist, as usual, better than Oliver Reed (tho he can't sing) and Jack Nicholson. Robert Powell was very good as Tommy's real father, in spite of his small part.

Keith Moon was particularly insane (which is nothing new) and Paul Nicholas did a very credible job as the sadistic Cousin Kevin.

Ken Russell is one controversial director, but he outdid himself on Tommy (That can be taken either way.)

I thought Tommy was a really 'far-out' rock movie, and if it returns, I'll watch it three more times . . .

A Teenage Viewer

Wishes Tommy 'Far-Out'

Through a Conservative's Eyes . . .

What's going on? This seemed to be the popular view of "the over-the-hill" viewing audience concerning the rock movie Tommy.

Since I can't speak for everyone I'll address myself as one of the "What's going on" crowd. I could barely control my excitement after hearing so much about the movie. In fact, I eagerly awaited the day when the movie was to be shown on campus, and then BINGO! I found myself seated tensely as the screen flashed the beginning of . . . disaster! Roger Daltrey (Tommy) met with disaster in the film as part of the script, but I met with disaster as part of the viewing audience. You see, I consented to watch it.

Granted, the acting was superb considering the movie had to have movement, and the photography was excellent (for those who were on something other than their seats.) The theme, if there was one, was obscure, although many of the "cool" understood it. Of course the "cool" are able to perceive the not expressively evident. I thought the movie bordered on sacrilege (e.g. The Pork 'n' Bean affair of Ann-Margaret, the child abuse, the Acid-Queen's involvement, and the exploitation of religious ideals at the expense of pin-ball mania.)

I, too, thought the movie was "far out", and I think it should have stayed out of Glenville. Those who screamed during the movie will be glad to know that I also screamed. I screamed "What's going on?" I must confess that I've seen the movie only once but if it ever returns, I'll be glad to give you my seat so that you can see it four times.

Halftime Talk

Football

For you football freaks who have not gotten burnt out on the sport yet, this weekend will afford you one last chance to get your fill of flying pigskins and bodies. The play-offs start in all three classes of high school football to decide who the champions will be. Concord and Shepherd will meet in the Coal Bowl Saturday night to determine the football king of the WVIAC . . . And Marshall and WVU will finish their campaigns and they will probably look back on this season with somewhat different attitudes. Marshall will look at this season as the year that they turned it all around while WVU will look at it as a disappointing rebuilding year . . . Marshall faces Southern Illinois at home while WVU plays Syracuse in New York.

I shall scatter my tea leaves one last time in trying to come up with three high school champs. In Triple A I see Dupont coming out on top; in Double A Winfield should win hands down. (This is just wishful thinking since this reporter is a distinguished alumnus from this school.); and in Single A I see Gauley Bridge coming out smelling like roses.

Bowling

The bowlers of GSC will travel to Marshall University this weekend for another 28 team roll-off like the one

THE EIGER SANCTION will make its GSC campus debut on December 1, 1976. This thriller stars Clint Eastwood as a government assassin. Admission by I. D. The movie will be shown from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and again from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.

they faced at Morgantown earlier this year. Gary Kight's keggers will hope for a little better luck in this tournament than what they encountered in the earlier one in which they finished near the bottom.

Basketball

With the opening of the basketball season just around the calendar corner, our minds must drift to who the conference champions will be. And of course when you do, the first name that must come to the surface is Fairmont State, the perennial basketball powers of this region. The Falcons have everyone back from last year's team that went undefeated through the regular season and the WVIAC tournament. But according to a release sent out by the W. Va. Wesleyan Sports department they will be challenged strongly by Bluefield, Concord, W.Va. Tech and Glenville. This reporter tends to agree with that consensus although I feel that Tech will probably come through with their usual "choke" routine.

Final Note

With the Thanksgiving holidays coming up next week most of you will probably be traveling on the busy highways. This is just a reminder to drive carefully and soberly and return to the GSC campus in one piece, ready to face the last three weeks of the semester . . . And have a happy Turkey Day!!

Attention! Students interested in forming a 12 team bowling league next spring contact Mark Rohrbough anytime in the union before the end of this semester for more information.

Wizards On Review

The Harlem Wizards brought their show to town last Friday night and performed in front of an appreciative audience at the GSC gymnasium. They gave us no more than a mediocre evening of entertainment. Despite their claims to be original and fresh, the Wizards proved to be nothing more than a smaller rendition of the more famous Harlem Globetrotters who are currently on tour in West Virginia.

The Wizards defeated the Glenville All-stars but this was of secondary importance as emphasis was put on humor and gags. Many of their antics went over well, such as the strip basketball skit with Coach Carney. Personal assault of opposing players also seemed to be a highlight as the Wizards used Dave Henderson and Rushon Colin's misfortunes for their own delight. The most refreshing actor of the show may have been the referee who travels with the team. He received hearty laughs and applause from the crowd with his drawn out voice qualities that he used in making his calls.

All in all, I would say that the Harlem Wizard show was one that I would recommend to anyone that was stuck in Glenville for the weekend without anything to do. It is also a good treat for younger kids (There were quite a few in attendance.) who may never get the opportunity to see the more talented Globetrotters. But I as a fan would not go out of my way to see another of their performances.

Mario Valentino, the Meadowlark Lemon of the Harlem Wizards, goes through his act with "rehearsed" referee during last Friday night's exhibition.

GSC Basketball Squad Makes Its Debut

Glenville State College will unveil its 1976-77 basketball team tonight when it participates in the 19th annual Shrine Tournament at Weston. Glenville will face Alderson-Broadus in the second game of the tournament at 9 p.m. Salem will face W. Va. Wesleyan in the first game at 7 p.m. The Pioneers have had much success in this tournament since it was founded in 1958. They have finished either first or second more times than not. They have finished fourth only once in the tourney's 18 year history. This year should be no different as the Pioneers should go into the tourney as one of the favorites. The G-Men finished third last year after losing to A-B in the first round but coming back to defeat Salem in the consolation game.

Coaches Lilly and Carney will take seven lettermen into this campaign after losing only two seniors (Randy Hess and Randy Datcher) off of last year's squad that finished with a 12-16 record. The returning cagers are:

Greg Arnette, a junior and 2 year letterman from Charlottesville, Va., who averaged 9.1 points and 3.7 rebounds a game last year.

Tom Coates, senior guard from Pittsburgh, Pa., who has lettered once while at Glenville. He carried a 16.8 scoring average while pulling down 7.6 rebounds a game. He also led the team in assists with 79.

Robert Hawkins is a senior forward from Brandywine, Md. He has earned 2 letters as a cager, and last year averaged 5.8 points a game while serving as co-captain for the Pioneers.

Joe Knicely, a sophomore from Nitro, who averaged 1 point a game as a freshman.

Gary Nottingham, a soph. guard from Gassaway managed to letter as a freshman while averaging 3.1 points a contest.

Calvin Page, a sophomore guard hailing from Upperville, Va., averaged 2.3 points while nursing a bad ankle for most of the season.

Charles "Stretch" Warner, also from Upperville, Va., won a letter his freshman year while averaging 10.3 markers.

Roger Dingy, a junior forward from New Haven is a one year letterman who averaged 13.1 points a game last year.

Gene Pearson, from Somerset, N.J. averaged 1.8 points last year as a freshman while lending much moral support with his actions.

And last but not least, Wayne Washington, a late blooming guard as a freshman last year, who came into his own toward the end of the season to play some excellent ball. He earned a letter while averaging 8.9 points a game. Washington hails from Brandywine, Md.

Combined with these are three transfers. Ralph Ledbetter and Corey Gadson from St. Francis, who will be eligible next semester, and Chuck Lambert from Texas A & I. Coach Lilly has also recruited three freshmen that should help the team a good bit this year and in years to come. They are: Rick Rezzonico, who played his high school ball at Mullens; P.T. Thomas, who played his high school ball in Maryland and Ernest Gilliard from Princeton High School.

The winners of tonight's games will play tomorrow night at 9:00 for the championship with the losers meeting at 7:00 in the consolation game. Tickets for both rounds may be purchased at the door.

History 207-01 (Honors), United States History, will be offered at 9:00 MWF this Spring semester. Students who have an ACT score of 23 or above in the Social Sciences are eligible to enroll. Those receiving the grade of 'A' or 'B' will receive the same grade and credit for the sequential course, History 208.

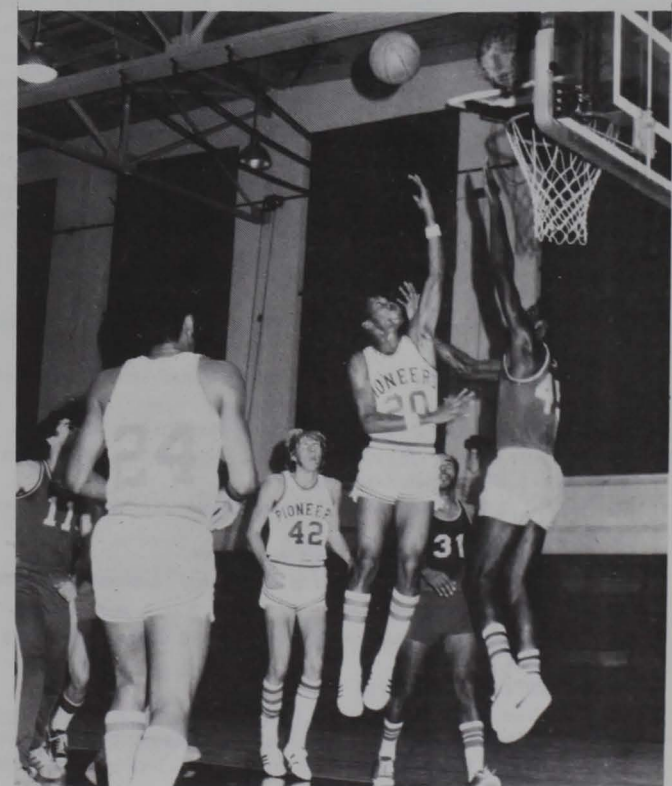

Varsity Wins Scrimmage

The GSC varsity basketball team tuned up for their upcoming cage season with a 86-85 victory over the alumni in the annual scrimmage which was held last weekend. The Pioneers looked sharp considering this was their first outside competition of the year. The game was not really as close as the score made it seem as the Pioneers rolled up big leads only to blow them through substitutions and inexperience.

The teams played an extra half giving Coach Lilly the opportunity to use all of his players so that he could evaluate their play under game conditions. It was apparent that he liked what he saw most of the time, as all players showed periods of outstanding ability. Ralph Ledbetter (You'd better get used to this name because you'll probably be hearing it quite often!) led the G-Men scoring with 15 points. Tom Coates and Roger Dingy finished with 14 tallies each. Coates also had 13 rebounds and Ledbetter 12.

The alumni showed signs of their ages finally catching up with them. Fatigue set in mid-way through the second half, and second winds were more the exception than the rule. There were some memorable names out of Glenville's star-studded past participating in the scrimmage and among them Earl Hawkins (29 pts.), Dave Merchant (17 pts.), and Gene King (16 pts.), were the most effective. King seemed to be in especially good playing shape as he was all over the floor playing rugged defense before fouling out in the second half.

Action is thick in last Saturday's GSC Varsity Alumni game as Tom Coates (20) tries to score over Earl Hawkins. Looking on are Roger Dingey (42), Robert Hawkins (24), Gene King (11), and Steve Datcher (31).
