"Miracle Worker" Crew To Begin Set Construction

If you are passing by the auditorium during the next few weeks and hear thuds and buzzes and other strange sounds — come in. The Miracle Worker set has begun its steady climb toward completion by the Oral Communication Department. The drama, written by William Gibson, exemplifies the true story of Helen Keller. Born in June of 1880, Helen Keller soon developed acute congestion which caused her to become blind, deaf and mute. The scene is set during the 1880's in the Keller homestead in Tuscumbia, Alabama; in the Perkins Institution for the Blind, Boston, Mass., and the Tuscumbia depot. This moving, spine-tingling story shows Helen Keller for what she was at age 5 — an animal. Gibson has given us the story of Annie Sullivan's first week with Helen Keller. Annie Sullivan was herself an abandoned child, illiterate, once blind. She was hired at age 20 by the agonized parents to teach the raging tattered, pathetic Helen knowledge and self-reliance.

Like any play the set must nobly serve its actors. In selecting a set design, one must consider the basic purpose of the play. The Miracle Worker is a character play, a dialog play. Therefore the play demands that the settings suggest and briefly comment on locale. The set design chosen by stage director, Jeanne Kobuszewski is formalism. Formalism utilizes platforms and step units rather than realistic walls hosting wallpaper or stone and other paraphernalia. Furniture will accompany each room of the Keller household only to the extent that it is used in the action of the script. The Miracle Worker also demands a simultaneous setting. In definition and execution of this stage design type, all areas of action are seen by the audience at once. However, varied lighting effects and colors are utilized at different times to designate action in different locations.

According to Miss K. the technical aspects of the play are challenging (cont. on page 4)

Despite Snow & Cold GSC Remains Open

There are no immediate plans to close Glenville State College, according to President D. Banks Wilburn. Inquiries concerning cancellation of classes due to the extremely cold weather and snow have plagued the College since this week's announcement of the closing of other state colleges.

Dr. Wilburn cites the fact of Glenville's location and the situation as the primary factors for keeping classes open. He mentions that about 41% of the students live either in residence halls or fraternity/sorority houses, with another 25% in downtown Glenville; food service is available and students could not easily get home if we did close school. He adds, further, that "most of the commuters are getting here, too, so we need to offer classes."

A Hope Natural Gas Company representative called the president Tuesday to plead the college's conservation of heat. After meeting with concerned members of the administration, the consensus was that we are being as conservative as possible.

Meanwhile, classes will continue — rain, hail, sleet or snow!

Chamber Orchestra Schedules Concert

The West Virginia Symphonette, a 30-piece chamber orchestra, will present a concert Tuesday, January 25 at 8 pm in the Glenville State College Auditorium. The public is invited to attend this program, the second of the year arranged by the Cultural Affairs Committee of the College.

The concert program includes Rossini's "Italians in Algiers" Overture, Haydn's Symphony No. 98 in B-flat Major, Wagner's Siegfried Idyll, Highlights from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," and Khatchaturian's Masquerade Suite.

In addition to presenting the evening concert, the Symphonette will conduct two workshops for students in the afternoon. Public school children have been invited to attend the one at 1:00, and college music students will attend the one at 3:00, according to Dr. Christopher Orr, chairman of the Cultural Affairs Committee.

The West Virginia Symphonette, organized in 1969, is directed by Dr. Donald Portnoy, of the West Virginia University music faculty. He is a graduate of Juilliard School of Music and received his Doctor of Musical Arts Degree from the Peabody Conservatory of Music. He is the major violin teacher and conductor of the West Virginia University-Community Symphon Orchestra and the founder and director of the University's Fine Arts Music Camp. He is also on the Board of Directors for the American Symphony Orchestra League.

Since its organization, the Symphonette has given performances in nearly every city in the state. Its repertoire ranges from pops to classical music and chamber music to full symphonic works. It has also appeared in conjunction with local soloists and choirs.

Members of the Symphonette come from various musical backgrounds, including the National Symphony Orchestra, Marlboro Music Festival, West Berlin Opera, San Antonio Symphony, Wolf Trap Performing Arts Festival and Casals Festival Orchestra.

The Symphonette's Glenville appearance is a cooperative effort of the College, The Woman's Club of Glenville, and Alpha Zeta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma. It is also made possible by a grant from the West Virginia Arts and Humanities Council.

There will be an admission charge of $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students other than Glenville College students, who are admitted free with identification cards.

The West Virginia Symphonette will present a concert Tuesday night here at the GSC campus, sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee.

Rush By-Laws Explained

Sunday night, January 16, 1977 at 7:00 p.m., the Spring Formal Rush period began with a Joint Rush Party organized by the Panhellenic Council on GSC campus. The purpose of this activity was to provide an evening of sorority orientation for all interested girls and/or potential rushees. The two national sororities represented at the activity were Delta Zeta and Sigma Sigma Sigma.

Ann Hamric, President of Panhellenic, announced some of the essential by-laws concerning formal and open rush:

1. There will be two formal rush periods: Fall and Spring, each lasting approximately two weeks. Fall rush will begin the fourth week of the first semester. Spring rush will begin the first Sunday following registration for the second semester.

Three formal parties (with a theme and favors) are to be used only during the two formal rush periods.

2. Open rush will be in effect at all times except for each two week period of formal rush.

3. To be rushed and/or pledged a girl must have an accumulative of 12 hours credit, not including CLEP hours, and a 2.0 minimum accumulative grade point average.

4. During regularly scheduled rush periods women desiring to pledge a sorority must sign and indicate their preference in the office of the Dean of Women on the second Thursday evening (January 27th) of the rush period from 9:00 to 10:00 p.m.

5. Each sorority will prepare and submit the bids for its prospective pledges to the Dean of Women on January 28th at 9:00 a.m.

6. The Dean of Women will notify each prospective pledge who has been given a bid by a sorority, and the prospective pledge may accept a bid in the Dean's office on Friday, January 28th between 1:00 p.m. and 4:00 p.m.

7. A silence period (a period of time during which no communication between sorority members and rushees) will be observed by all sororities from 5:00 p.m. the day of preference parties until 4:00 the following day.

8. To assist the sororities, all invitations to all rush parties are to be RSVP at the Dean of Women's office.

9. Only those women who attend the Joint Rush Party are eligible to pledge a sorority during the formal two week period.

Alas! Spring Sports Skate On Thin Ice . . .

In the past two weeks there have been many rumors spreading throughout the campus about the present situation of the spring sports (golf, bowling, and baseball.)

Although the sports will not be college funded they will continue as planned. The team members are working to finance themselves and the Student Congress voted to given them $3,000 which will be financed through the business office.

The sports were jeopardized by continuous deficit spending since the NAIA football championship five years ago. Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, president of Glenville State College, stated that the present situation "should not be blamed on a 5 year old debt," and if the Athletic Committee could budget the money used for sports the problem could easily be curtailed.

Because Dr. Wilburn felt that this constant over-spending should be stopped, he wrote a letter to the Director of Athletics including several stipulations concerning finances. Dr. Wilburn's letter stated that all college vehicles may be used providing all expenses for gasoline and oil, emergency maintenance, or repairs are cared for without the use of college funds.

Dr. Wilburn added that any proposals made would have to give basketball and football top priorities. This, he goes on to explain, is because these are spectator sports and bring in more gate receipts than others. He also feels that with the new track and four tennis courts on Mineral Road it would be ridiculous not to begin programs for these two sports. These have budgets of track - $1,000 and tennis - $200. These budgets have been cancelled this year.

The athletics on campus have 3 main sources of income. These are: student activity fees, gate receipts, and donations. The student activity fee is the main source of money.

The athletic committee has asked for a $10 raise in activity fees. The Year Book has also asked for $4. Next Wednesday night the Student Congress will hold a special meeting to decide whether or not to hold a student election on this issue.

At this time the activity fee is $48. This includes: $10 for athletics; $4 for yearbook; $4 for cultural affairs; $7.50 for Student Congress programs; $1.00 for miscellaneous; $2.00 for direct fee for Student Congress operation; $2.50 for health fee; $1 for Radio Station; $2 for Music; $1 for speech and drama, $4 for Mercury and $1 for I.D. card.

To continue the sports program as it stands, there has to be more money and it has to be carefully budgeted. Because of the special interest placed on this issue we are sure that it can be drastically reduced or completely taken care of.

This problem should be a concern of every student who pays the full activity fee. If you are opposed to paying ten dollars more for sports that many of you may not even see, go to the Student Congress meeting next Wednesday at 4:00 and express your views.

A Word About Campus Greeks

DELTA ZETA

A formal meeting of Theta Xi chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority was held Tues. Jan. 18. Future activities were discussed.

All the sisters are really excited about rush. Our coke party was held Wednesday.

A very special lady was at the coke party. She is our National Vice President. She will be here during our theme and preference parties. She is a very wonderful person.

Congratulations to Stephanie Davis and Charlotte Eary on being selected for Minnesingers and to Charlotte on being selected as a member of the cast for The Miracle Worker.

SIGMA

The sisters of the Delta Alpha chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority held a school dress meeting January 17, 1977. Many important issues were discussed including:

Activity Fee Is Discussed

The Student Congress will hold a special meeting on January 26, 1977. The subject of this meeting will be the discussion of a possible referendum to raise GSC's tuition (activity fee). As are all Student Congress meetings, this meeting is open to the general student body. All elected representatives should be present so as to establish a quorum for voting on the possible proposal. As elected representatives of the student body it is your responsibility to attend all meetings, but especially those of a special nature. This meeting will begin at 4:00 p.m. rather than 5:00 p.m. and will be in the Student Congress Room.

PLACEMENT OFFICE OFFERS JOB HINTS

Interested in a summer job? Then stop in at the Placement Office. They have information on all kinds of different summer employment availabilities in different areas. There are also jobs pertaining to forestry and surveying majors.

Pocahontas County will be on campus and available for interviewing on February 2, 1977. Webster County will be available for interviewing on February 4, 1977. Wood County and Calhoun County cancelled their interviews but will reschedule before February 18.

Also available in the Placement joint rush, closed ball and current events.

The sorority nominated Jane Stump for the Mabel Lee Walton Award.

Amanda Lemley was selected to serve on the pledge review board.

The sisters would like to thank those girls who attended the coke party and the hot chocolate party and hope they enjoyed themselves.

A count was taken by Lynn Bartges to see how many girls skipped class last week. This was an effort to encourage the girls to attend classes.

The sisters wish to remind all G.S.C. women going through joint rush of the theme party to be held Wednesday between 9:30 and 11:00.

THETA XI

The Kappa Eta Chapter of Theta Xi Fraternity held its weekly meeting last Sunday. Plans were discussed for money making projects for our closed ball. The Brothers are elated to have new furniture for our house which arrived Tuesday. The Brothers would also like to thank everyone who attended our house party last weekend. You can be sure that there will be more of them. Awards this week are as follows: SLOTH award goes to Tom Antill. And this week's winners of the Ditch award are Mike Offutt and Tim Sneed for their Richard Petty style of driving this past week. Congratulations!

Blood Bank Coming Back

The Gilmer County Red Cross will be holding the first blood collection of the new year, Tuesday, January 25 in the Trinity Methodist Church in Glenville. The Glenville Rotary Club will sponsor the blood collection from 11 am to 5 pm in the church fellowship hall on Main Street. Reverend Martin Berisford will serve as day chairman for the bloodmobile visit.

Students at Glenville State College have been active participants in previous blood drives, and are urged to donate on January 25. Donations of blood provide the donor and his family free blood coverage from the American Red Cross.

Those persons who gave blood December 9, 1976 are, however, not eligible to donate at the January 25 collection as the mandatory 57 days between donation periods have not elapsed. All others are urged to support the blood program on January 25.

New Column Is Devised For Answering Questions

This column will appear weekly in the Mercury and is open to all who wish to submit their questions.

Q - Why do we never get snow days when county schools and other colleges do?

A - See story on p. 1.

Q - How much do student workers earn per hour since Jan. 1?

A - $1.95½ per hour.

Q - Why does the Mercury Office have no decent typewriters?

A - That's a good question! But we've been promised some new ones.

CULTURAL AFFAIRS MOVIE WILL BE SHOWN JAN. 26

If you enjoyed last week's silent comedy films, come to the January 26th presentation of the film classics Nosferatu and The Cabinet of Doctor

Caligari. Nosferatu is the original Dracula movie. The 1922 silent film was directed by F.W. Murnau and has set the pattern for all subsequent Dracula films. The Cabinet of Doctor Caligari, a 1919 classic directed by Robert Weine, is another film of the "horror" genre. Both films should prove to be fascinating to viewers. The Cultural Affairs Committee will begin showing the films at 8:00 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Halftime Talk

by Doug Martin

How about a quick sports quiz? What was the last sport to win a national championship at GSC? Answer: Bowling. What sport is no longer college funded at GSC? Answer: Bowling. What GSC sport other than bowling last won Glenville a conference championship? Answer: Golf. What sports organization has been working hard to make money for a successful year this year? GOLF. Guess what sport is no longer going to be college funded? Answer: Golf. What sports organization has been working hard to make money for a successful year this year? Answer: Baseball team. And guess who is not going to be sponsored by college funds? You guessed it! Thanks to the nearsightedness of the allocators of Glenville State College athletic funds the budget has been out for all spring sports this year. According to Dr. Wilburn, immediately following the end of the present basketball season no money will be allocated toward sports this semester. This means that golf, bowling and baseball will have to find support from elsewhere . . . and they have. Thanks to the GSC Student Congress these sports will be able to continue. Out of the goodness of the students hearts the Student Congress has given up $3,000 to support the spring sports. Fourteen hundred dollars will go to baseball and $800 each to bowling and golf.

GSC Bowlers Debut

The Glenville State College bowlers have begun their quest for another national championship as they took part in their first regional of the young season last week in Charleston. Coach Kight's Keglers did not win the regional but they showed much promise for a strong season as they tied for third in the 8 team rolloff. Bob Davisson led the way for the Pioneers with an eight game average of 177. He was followed by Mike Hickman with a 172 average; Dave

But what does this mean? It means that the $3,000 the Student Congress gave up cannot be used for other student activities that can help make our short stay at this institution a little more enjoyable. What it all boils down to is this: the students are paying for the administration's mistake. I know this will never happen, but it seems just as reasonable to me to take the money from the people responsible for the deficit instead of punishing the students. After all, whose fault is it? The GSC students, or the people who misappropriated the athletic department funds?

This year's GSC basketball team could easily be labeled the "Cardiac Korps." In the five wins they had registered before Tuesday's game against Beckley the margin of victory had been only 3.8 points, and the biggest winning margin was a meager 8 points against A-B in the first game of the season. Oh well, they say the sign of a good team is to win the close ones.

You'll probably never see a more colorful basketball coach in this conference than Tim Sommerville, the coach of the Concord Mt. Lions. He showed off his famous exploits last Saturday night by throwing his coat and tie into the bleachers and spending more time in front of the scorer's table and playing floor than he did on the bench.

Twyman - 164; Dave Eckhart - 151; and Mark Smith with a 149 average. The team average was 160 for the whole event. West Liberty and W.Va. State tied for first in the regional with a 6-2 record. Concord came in second, followed by Glenville, W.Va. Wesleyan, Alderson - Broaddus, Morris Harvey and Fairmont. The bowlers' next competition will come this weekend when they face another regional contest at the TV lanes in Oak Hill.

Pioneers Continue Rapid Improvement

The Pioneer basketball team has continued in its winning ways over the last week winning two games while being snowed out in another. Last Friday's game at Wheeling was postponed and will be played January 31. Last Saturday night conference leading Concord college came to town boasting only one loss in the conference, but left with their second as the G-Men held on for a well deserved 89-88 win. The game was just as close as it sounded as neither team could muster more than a 6 point lead. Ralph Ledbetter sparked the first half action with a wide open slam dunk that gave the Pioneers a 27-27 lead, but Concord was not to be denied as they fought back to come within one at halftime. The second half was more of the same as Concord took the lead for a short time at the 18 minute mark, 47-46. But Glenville fought back to take a 10 point lead at the midway point in the second half. But after losing Ralph Ledbetter was lost on fouls the Pioneers did well to hold onto the lead as the Mt. Lions from Athens kept cutting on the lead until they had reduced it to 1. But the G-Men were not to be denied as they held on for a 89-88 win and their fourth win in a row. Ralph Ledbetter led Glenville's balanced attack with 22 points while Wayne Washington added 21 and Tom Coates 19. Steve Herndon threw in 30 markers for Concord.

Last Tuesday night the Pioneers turned in their best and easiest performance of the year as they trounced the Beckley Junior College Eagles, 88-55. Glenville scored the first 8 points of the game to start themselves to their fifth straight win, enabling them to raise their record to 6-7. The G-Men open up leads of 15 points at the 12 minute mark.

Ed. Clinic Conducted

The Clinic To Improve University Teaching was held in the ballroom and little theatre January 4 and 5. Dr. George Bryniawski and Dr. Michael Melnik of the University of Massachusetts in Amherst, Mass., presided. The January fourth morning session, held in the ballroom, consisted of introductory remarks concerning the clinic. In the afternoon of the fourth and the morning of the fifth, 25 faculty members participated in a training session that covered portions of the Clinic process.

Tom Coates puts one in over a helpless Concord guard in route to the G-Men's upset of the Mt. Lions, 89-88.

(21-6) and 3 minute mark (37-22). They went on to a 18 point halftime lead, 44-26. Charles Warner and Ralph Ledbetter led the first half attack with 14 and 12 points respectively.

The second half was more of the same as Glenville mounted a 59-30 lead with only 4 minutes gone in the second half. This enabled Coach Jesse Lilly to substitute freely during a win for the first time this season as all ten ragers on the Glenville roster got ample playing time. Ralph Ledbetter once again led the balanced attack as Glenville managed to put 6 men in double figures: Ledbetter-17, Charles Warner-16, Joe Knicely-14, P.T. Thomas-12, Tom Coates-11, and Wayne Washington-10. Doug Watts tallied 19 points for Beckley.

The Pioneers will be busy this weekend (weather permitting) playing two games. Friday night we will host the Shepherd Rams at 8:00 in the college gymnasium. Then Saturday night the G-Men will travel to Buckhannon to do battle with the W.Va. Wesleyan Bobcats. Next week's games include a home tilt against Salem next Thursday and then travel to Fairmont next Saturday to face the powerful Falcons.

The GSC Pioneerette basketball squad kept their home court record intact by defeating the Alderson-Broaddus women 72-56 Tuesday for their third straight victory on the GSC floor. They have yet to be beaten on their home floor while running their record to 3-2.

The G-Women had a relatively easy time with the "girl" Battlers in avenging an earlier loss at Phillipi earlier this year. Debbie Grogg led the Glenville attack with 19 points while Kim Short added 16 and Kim West 10.

The Pioneerettes' next two games will be played away; Friday at Salem and Saturday at W.Va. Wesleyan. Both games will be played at 5:30 p.m.

Kim Roten puts up a shot during the ladies' 72-56 victory over A-B last Tuesday night.

Mrs. Adkins Leaves Post

Mrs. Roma Adkins, former Home Economics Professor, has resigned from the teaching staff at GSC. She is currently employed as the Gilmer County 4-H Extension Agent. She is the wife of Mr. Gary Adkins, chairman of the Division of Education at GSC.

Mrs. Adkins hopes to boost enrollment in the County 4-H program. One method proposed is to start a College 4-H Club. Anyone interested in joining this club can contact Mrs. Adkins at the Gilmer County courthouse or Jill Crutchfield.

Any 201 students doing their activity may do it in 4-H by contacting Joe Hickman in the Placement Office. Mrs. Adkins is still a member of the GSC part time staff.

TEACHER ED. APPROVED

In October 1976, the State Board of Education sent an on-sight visiting team to our campus to evaluate the various teaching programs offered here.

Eighteen programs have been recommended full approval under the 1974 state standards and five were recommended for provisional approval. This means that if the programs are revised the programs can be approved. Today, Mrs. Noreita Shamblin, the state's Teacher Education specialist and Dr. Nicholas Hobar, Director of hearing systems for the State Board of Education are here to check over the provisionally approved programs and to answer questions the college staff may have.

The college received provisional approval in physics, biology, chemistry, health and safety education.

Overall, the faculty was pleased with the findings of the team, which was impressed with their commitment to Teacher Education. Dean Simmons stated, "Speaking for those of us who worked long and hard, we are extremely happy with the evaluation."

English Club Formed

The English majors of Glenville State College have originated an English Majors Club sponsored by Dr. Lowell E. Fredin, Chairman of the Language Division.

The members of this newly formed club have decided to create a literary magazine containing the original poems, plays, essays, and short stories of any interested students. All works submitted will be read and screened by the editorial board, which consists of five elected English majors, Dr. Fredin, and Dr. Barbara Tedford, Associate Professor of English.

The selected works will then be published collectively in the magazine which should be printed next month or whenever enough entries are recieved.

If you are interested in submitting any poetry, manuscripts, etc. contact Mary Ashby at extention 313 or leave your works with the secretary at the English Department.

The English majors are really excited about their new endeavors and any co-operation they recieve would be greatly appreciated.
