Congress Election To Up Student Fees

A quorum was established at the special Student Congress meeting held Wednesday, Jan. 26. At this meeting the congress voted to bring the issue of raising the activity fee before the student body. The Student Congress has proposed the referendum, but only the student body can determine whether it passes or fails. The activity fee is paid by all full time students. If passed, the total increase would be $7.00 per semester, which is broken down into: a $2.00 per semester increase for the yearbook, and, a $5.00 per semester increase in the athletic fee.

The ballot will be set up in the following manner: Issue A: Do you favor the continuation of the yearbook with a $2.00 increase in fees per semester?

A No vote means the yearbook will be discontinued. Issue B: Are you in favor of raising the athletic fee $5.00 per semester?

To be a valid election 40% of the total student body must vote. This is your opportunity as students of GSC to become active in campus politics and policy decisions. Regardless of whether you favor or oppose the fee increase, the important thing is to get out and voice your opinion.

Voting booths will be set up in front of the old cafeteria: Monday, January 31 from 9am until 4pm, Tuesday, February 1 from 9am until 4pm.

Voting booths will be set up in both dorms on: Monday, January 31 from 7pm until 11 pm.

Interviews for teaching positions will be held in the Placement Office next week. Calhoun County interviews will be Monday, January 31; Pocahontas County on Wednesday, February 2; Webster County, Friday, February 4.

Congratulations to all!

GSC Perseveres

Last week an article appeared in the Mercury that said "Classes will continue rain, hail, sleet, or snow!" Schools can continue through these natural catastrophes, but what about the serious shortages of natural gas on top of them? Many people directly involved with the GSC campus are beginning to wonder if we should risk severe frostbite in order to further our education because there is no fuel to sufficiently heat the classrooms. Governor Rockefeller, as stated Tuesday, he feels that the shortage has not yet caused a state of emergency so GSC is safe for another few days.

Most GSC students seem to think that they would prefer going home to the nearest ski resort to be cold instead of suffering frozen fingers from taking notes for a few hours here in classes. I don't quite understand why people don't realize that no matter where they go they are going to be cold.

The situation here is not so bad when it is compared with that on other campuses around the state. Morris Harvey has dropped back to a four day week in order to conserve energy. This means that the students are in classes from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. every day. West Virginia State & Davis & Elkins will begin a month vacation tomorrow. Their graduation date has been set back two weeks and they won't have a spring break.

I realize that the idea of a months vacation sounds enticing now but what about four months from now when the sun is shining? Everyone needs to stop and think of the consequences of the efforts made now to save energy.

At least 41% of our students can walk to classes, even if they might get lost in a snowdrift or two along the way. The 25% who live in town can walk too, at least part of them. Instructors have been asked to give special consideration to those students who commute.

The road conditions gas curtailments, and icy sidewalks are a problem. Actually, that is a great understatement. But people have survived worse winters than this and I'm sure that they'll do it again. We're all sick of snow, and we're all cold. Maybe if we suffer through it together, our education at Glenville this winter will be a memorable experience!

If At First You Don't Succeed

The recent cold weather has brought with it a lot of colds and sniffles. This brings with it the unsolvable question of how to take a pill on campus.

If you try a water fountain, I wish you luck. There are two ways to try it, and neither one is very efficient. If you try putting the pill in first, then get a drink of water, the pill falls out and goes down the drain. If the water goes in first, it comes back out, like the tide, when the pill goes in and you get your chin and/or chest washed.

After you fail at this, either go to the dorms and get a drink, carry a glass around, or go to the Union for a drink.

One way to avoid this problem is to not get sick, but since this is unavoidable, we all wish you a speedy recovery!

Problems Answered

Q- Why do we not have a wrestling team?

A- The wrestling program was dropped in 1975 due to lack of coach.

Q- Is it legal to practice 'campus' on campus?

A- This is an undecided situation which, according to a local attorney, must be settled in federal court.

Q- Why are the basketball girls called Lady Pioneers, since ladies don't engage in athletic events?

A- The mere participation in any athletic event does not make a woman any less a lady, just ask Lady Chris Evert. (Sports Ed.)

Any person who graduates in May and who plans to go on to graduate school should get an application from the Placement Office to take the G. R. E.

The GMAT, GRE, and LSAC bulletins are available now in the Placement Office.

This is the GSC Forensics team that will be in Marietta Ohio, on Feb. 5-6. They are L to R: Kathy Sullivan, Trish Lothes, Jeff Gainer, Jim Workman, and Rick Curtis. They are under the direction of Ms. Catherine Kalous.

Halftime Talk

BY DOUG MARTIN

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following comments are excerpts from an article written by Jim Riffle, Sports Information Director at Glenville State College concerning the recent success of the Pioneer basketball team.

People in West Virginia and especially people in Salem, Fairmont, Wheeling, Philippi, Institute and Bluefield are curious. People in Beckley, Buckhannon, Charleston, Elkins, Montgomery, and Shepherdstown are talking. But the people in Glenville are shouting. The reason for all of these emotions, well, it has to be the surging Glenville State College Pioneer basketball team.

Since the beginning of the second semester, the Glenville State team has not lost a game in 7 starts and those 7 wins include an 84-82 overtime win against Morris Harvey in Glenville; a 76-73 win over Davis and Elkins in Elkins; a 63-58 win over West Virginia Tech at Glenville; an 89-88 win over Concord at Glenville; an 88-55 win over Beckley at Glenville; a 92-73 win over Shepherd at Glenville; and an 86-80 win over West Virginia Wesleyan in Buckhannon.

What could cause such an abrupt about-face? For the Glenville State College basketball team, many things can be cited. Probably the most important ingredient is a 6'6", 210 pound center named Ralph Ledbetter. A transfer student from St. Francis College in Pennsylvania, Ledbetter has been outstanding for the Pioneers.

Ledbetter has scored 144 points and averaged 20.6 points per game for the seven games he has played with a field goal percentage of 55.3. He has gathered in 66 rebounds for an average of 9.4 rebounds per game. Ralph has also recorded 23 assists in 7 games.

Ledbetter has added a new dimension of leadership to the Glenville State team. He is respected by his teammates and opposing players and coaches. His presence and importance is immediately noted in a game. Ralph's brother, Kenny, was a basketball player at Glenville State and graduated in 1972.

The other members of the team are playing different roles since Ledbetter became eligible. Tom Coates, a senior co-captain and leading scorer has become more valuable to the team because he does not have the same responsibilities of scoring and rebounding as he once did. Coates has more lee-way for ball-handling and getting free for shots rebounding with the addition of Ledbetter. Coach Gary Hess of West Virginia Wesleyan commented after the Glenville win over the Bobcats, that his team might have won despite the play of Ledbetter if it had not been for some determined play by Coates.

The players are aware that each game must be played at full speed and each is as important as the next. They will not be able to by-pass one opponent to get to a contending team. Every win is important and Coaches Jesse Lilly and Tim Carney are preparing for the Salem game on January 27. The Coaches have reminded the team of the 82-63 win Salem gained over the Pioneers on December 13.

People all over the state of West Virginia will be checking the scores and, perhaps, taking the opportunity to see the Glenville State College Pioneers in their remaining regular season games of in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tournament, February 22-26.

BEAT FAIRMONT!!!

"Lillymen" Roll On!

The Pioneers keep plugging right along with win after win as they continue to put down opponents as easily as Rockefeller defeated Underwood. The G-Men were at it again last weekend playing two games and coming away with two victories, one at home and one on the road.

Friday night the Pioneers hosted the Shepherd Rams who turned out to be an easy victim. The passive Rams could not seem to muster much of an attack without their leading scorer, Rod Sewell, who is out with an injury. Glenville never trailed in winning their sixth game of the season, to put their record at 7-7, winning 92-73. The Pioneers held a 14-6 lead at the twelve minute mark as both teams struggled with cold shooting hands. Glenville opened up to a 10 point lead at the 10 minute mark, but Shepherd using a sticky man-to-man defense cut the lead to four with just over 5 minutes to go in the half. But this proved to be as close as they could get as the Pioneers took a nine point lead into the dressing room at halftime.

Glenville continued to steadily increase their lead throughout the second half. Wayne Washington hit 5 straight points to put us up by 12 at 55-43, and our lead was never less than 10 after that. We got our first 20 point lead with 4:40 to go in the game at 77-57. Coach Lilly substituted freely with everyone seeing action. Gary Nottingham hit a 15 foot jumper at the buzzer to give the Pioneers their final margin of victory, 92-73.

The game was closer than it may seem by the score. Shepherd out-rebounded and outgoaled our G-Men but the Pioneers won it at the foul stripe where they shot 30-35 compared to the Rams mediocre 9 of 16. Washington led the Glenville scoring with 27 points, while Ralph Ledbetter added 20, Tom Coates 14 and Charles Warner 10. Ledbetter led in rebounding with 14. Gilbert Allen was high in the scoring department for the Rams with 22.

Last Saturday night the Pioneers travelled to Buckhannon for a duel with the always dangerous Bobcats of WVU. Wesleyan and came back an 86-80 winner. This may have been their best effort of the year for the team, as they beat the highly ranked Bobcats soundly on their own floor. (Wesleyan went into overtime before bowing to Fairmont in Buckhannon earlier this year.)

The first half was a fantastic exhibition of basketball as both teams played well while battling for the lead.

Ralph Ledbetter drops in two points over a helpless Shepherd player, while Joe Knicev (52) and Charles Warner (40) look on.

The game was tied seven times in the last four minutes of the first half before Glenville nudged ahead 48-46 at halftime. Most of our scoring punch was provided by Ralph Ledbetter and Wayne Washington while Wesleyan used the fast break to spearhead their attack.

The G-Men busted things wide open in the early part of the second half as they outscored the Bobcats 12 to 2 to take a 12 point lead. They later opened this up to a 16 point lead. They had the advantage (72-56) on a break break stuff by Ledbetter. But the "Cats" weren't finished as they threw a full court press on the Pioneers that enabled them to cut the lead to 4 points in less than four minutes. (76-72) But the Pioneers were able to hit two quick buckets to build an eight point lead and put the game on ice. The final margin came on a game ending dunk by "Stretch" Warner to make the final score 86-80.

Ledbetter led our scoring with a season high of 27 points. The Pioneers managed to put four other people in double figures. Wayne Washington tallied 18, Warner 15, Tom Coates 14, and Joe Knicev 10. Thomas and Bates both popped in 19 for Wesleyan.

The Pioneers' record now stands at 7-4 in the conference and 8-7 overall not counting last night's game with Salem. Tomorrow night the Pioneers travel to Fairmont for a big game with archrival and conference power Fairmont. The game will be played at Marion County Armory and it will hold a lot of screaming fans so I think it would be nice if we filled it up, and yell the Pioneers to victory.

Women B-Ballers Keep On Streaking

Winning must be contagious! As the men keep running their streak up, the ladies are ripping off quite a record of their own. They had run their streak to four in a row before losing to undefeated Rio Grande on Monday evening. This past week the Pioneerettes played three games, all on the road, winning two and losing one.

Last Friday night the girls traveled to Salem and came back with a hard earned 66-64 win in overtime. Kim Short led the G-Men with 22 points, while Debbie Grogg and Kim West added 14 points apiece. Saturday the Lady Pioneers traveled to Buckhannon and once again returned triumphantly. They defeated the W. Va. Wesleyan girls 68-52. Debbie Grogg once again had 14 points and Kim West threw in 12. The Pioneerettes faced one of the toughest players in the conference in this game, in forward, Libby Bush. She scored 24 points but could not do enough on her own to overcome Glenville's balance. Last Monday night the girls had their winning streak broken when they were defeated by Rio Grande, 82-60. Again it was Kim Short who led the Glenville attack with 18 points. Debbie Grogg contributed 12 points to the cause. The ladies' record now stands at 5-3. Monday they face Marietta (Away), Tuesday they face D&E (Home), and Saturday evening they travel to W. Va. Tech.

Bowlers Finish 2nd

The Glenville bowlers continued their improvement in conference ratings this past weekend with a second place finish in their second regional of the year last Saturday at Oak Hill. The Pioneers finished behind the West Liberty Hilltoppers who had an overall record of 7-1 compared to our 6-2 mark.

Dave Twyman led the Glenville Keglers with an 8 game average of 183. Mark Smith followed with 178, Mike Hickman 177, Dale Sparks 176, and Bob Davison 176. Twyman also had the high individual game for Glenville with a 222 game. The team averaged 174 for the entire tournament.

The G-Men now have a firm hold on second place in the conference with an overall record of 10-6. West Liberty leads the conference with a 13-3 record. The Pioneers next action will be in the Association of College Unions International this weekend on the campus of Maryland University. They will be competing against such schools as Maryland, WVU, Penn State, and other schools in this three state area. Their next conference competition will be February 5, when they travel to Fairmont for a regional match.
