Inauguration Is Reviewed

Dr. William Kyle Simmons was formally inaugurated as President of Glenville State College in ceremonies on Friday, April 28.

Activities began at 9:30 a.m. with registration in the Pioneer Center. At approximately 12:15 a.m., the Inaugural Luncheon was held in the Ballroom with Governor John D. Rockefeller IV as special guest. Governor Rockefeller flew into Glenville by helicopter for the luncheon, landing on the football field. He left shortly after lunch to coordinate and investigate operations at the site of the Willow Island power plant tragedy.

Following the invocation by Father Michael Rooney of the Good Shepherd Catholic Church in Glenville, the luncheon was enjoyed by a crowd of approximately 500.

Dr. D. Banks Wilburn, immediate Past President of GSC, brought greetings to his successor and then the Governor delivered greetings from the State of West Virginia. Among other things, the Governor expressed confidence in Dr. Simmons and his ability to administer the affairs of GSC. "I have heard great things about this man," the Governor said, adding that he invites President Simmons to call upon him at any time. Governor Rockefeller also pointed out that the signs on Interstate 79 near Burnsville pointing to Glenville State had been officially unveiled that morning.

President Simmons, in response, thanked the Governor for attending the luncheon and for being cooperative with projects involving the college.

Dean of Academic Affairs Dr. James L. Peterson, who served as Master of Ceremonies for the luncheon, introduced special guests in the audience.

Following benediction by Father Rooney, activities moved to the

Ten to Vie for Title

Five of the ten girls running for Miss GSC are Sheila Drennon, Sie Woo, Beth Meredith, Barbara Farley, and June Nohe.

Sheila Drennon, is the twenty-year-old-daughter of James and Gennie Drennon of Oak Hill. She is majoring in Elementary-Early Childhood with a Math Minor. She graduated from Collins High School in 1976. Her hobbies include crafts, sewing, and music.

Sie Chong Woo is the twenty-three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Yoon Suk Woo of Alexandria, Virginia. Ms. Woo is majoring in Accounting and graduated from Montgomery Blair High School in 1974. Her hobbies include writing poems, sewing, and reading.

Beth Meredith is the eighteen-year-old-daughter of Geneva I. Meredith of Vienna. Miss Meredith is majoring in Early Childhood Education and graduated from Parkersburg High School in 1977. Her hobbies include music, swimming, dance, and camping.

Barbara Farley is the nineteen year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Farley of Frametown. Ms. Farley is majoring in Secretarial Science and graduated from Braxton County High School in 1977. Her hobbies include all types of art, horseback riding, biking, hiking, and swimming.

Miss June Nohe is the twenty-one year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Nohe from Parkersburg. Miss Nohe is majoring in English Education and graduated from Parkersburg High School in 1975. Her hobbies include swimming, sewing, and writing.

Profiles of other contestants in the Miss GSC pageant will be run in next week's paper.

Production to Open

Close the windows, bolt the doors, hide the kids, and bring out guns! On May 8, 10, 11, and 12, the Glenville State Campus will be run over by a menagerie of wild and woolly animals. Bears, Racoons, Rabbits, and other citizens of the forest are going to inhabit the campus, at least for a week.

On Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the Drama Department will present a children's play entitled "Livin' De Life." For 13 performances, Brer Rabbit and his friends will entertain us with tales from Uncle Remus.

Under the direction of Ms. Rubin the cast has worked long and hard in preparation for their performances. So all you kids should come and see your favorite Uncle Remus characters but don't be too scared, it is only make believe.

The cast of characters includes: Brer Tarrypin played by Mike Swann, Brer Coon played by Lynn Gough, Jim Dotson as Brer Rabbit, Randy Gilles portraying Brer Fox, Ken Anderson as Brer Bear, Gina Yancey plays Miss Meadows, Aunt Mammy Bammy is portrayed by Kathy Sullivan, Sis Buzzard played by Deb Wildman and Miss Goose as portrayed by Marsha Scarbro.

The production will be given in morning and in evening shows in the GSC auditorium. Tickets are available in advance at the Little Red School House and will also be available at the door. The cost of tickets are $.50 for children and students and $1.00 for faculty.

The cast and crew are prepared for this special type of production. Children from surrounding schools will attend the morning shows.

Celebration Is A Success

Editorials are not intended for reflection - but for reform. So perhaps this should be classified as a 'letter - to - the - editor' instead.

Nevertheless, Inaugural - Alumni Week is past. This week has been a far distant hurdle to be gleaned since early January. It seemed safely in the future, not something we needed to contend with at the moment, especially during snows and ice storms. But that date arrived as all eventually do - and from all accounts, it was an enjoyable endeavor.

Visiting officials have declared ours the best Inaugural they have attended - compliments have been effusive. Our food service has been hailed; our art department has been hailed; our publications have been hailed. Nothing could have been accomplished without the help and cooperation of so many. Committees worked long, hard hours - even coping with last - minute emergencies and crises. Most events went off without a hitch - and for this we are grateful.

The governor enjoyed his brief stay and left hesitantly.

Convocation days were so well received that they may become annual events! Luncheon was delicious, well attended. The reception was well - attended, the dance was very nice with about 150 in attendance; Alumni Day was probably the most successful in years and all in all, the whole week was exciting.

We look back with pride as we receive compliments from other colleges that our 'low key' celebration was perhaps better planned and executed than others attended. Our 'Cordon blue' lunch was posh, so they say.

The things that cannot be planned - like attendance - were the major problems. We had invited delegates, guests, family members, faculty and the president's party all in the right place at the right time and in the right order - but there were no students, the integral part of all colleges! It was embarrassing to see that apathy had reached so far that students did not feel an important part of GSC's history.

True, classes were dismissed all day Friday - and that did make a three-day weekend, but surely there should have been students who wanted to be a part of the Inauguration besides those who served, ushered, stapled/folded programs 'til 1 a.m. Friday, and gave so willingly and efficiently of their time and talents.

This was a 'once - in - a - lifetime' event - a proud day for Dr. Simmons and Glenville State College. There were so many events, so many friends, so much celebration.

For those who attended (your editor was one), I'm sure you were glad you did. To those who helped, in any way, the Committee - on - the Inauguration wishes to extend their appreciation. We were able to succeed only because you helped.

Through our fatigue we smile wearily and say to all, 'A job well done.' Wake up, there, you hear?

Luanna Smith, Yvonne King

Director of Alumni Affairs Expresses Appreciation

On behalf of all alumni, thank you to students, faculty, staff, and community members who participated in the Inaugural and alumni activities during the past week.

We appreciate the efforts of those of you who ushered, served as guides, helped to decorate, provided entertainment, served meals, put up displays and exhibits. Your help was invaluable.

A very special thank you to our two student secretaries in the Alumni Office - Jill Crutchfield and Ken Skinner. They performed with proficiency and with responsibility the many and varied jobs assigned to them. They graciously greeted returning alumni and Inaugural guests. During the past few weeks, they have given much more than would ordinarily be required of students in campus positions because they were very aware of meeting deadlines and of wanting to do the best job possible. In short, they have been key people in all of the events that were handled through the Alumni Office.

We appreciate your support of the Alumni Auction both as donors of items and as buyers. You may be interested to know that the auction cleared $425.

Students, faculty, staff, alumni, and community members joined together for an enjoyable evening at the Inaugural Ball. We were pleased to see such a congenial mixing of those who attended. Proceeds amounted to $350 for the Alumni Association.

Profits from the Auction and the Ball will be used to continue and to expand the services that the Alumni Association offers to students, to alumni, and to the College.

The spirit of the entire week was grand. It is gratifying to see people get involved and excited. Those of you who chose not to become involved missed something.

Sincerely,

Judy Meads,

Director of Alumni Affairs

Mr. Norwood Bentley III gave greetings from the State of West Virginia at the inauguration, representing the Honorable Governor John D. Rockefeller, IV.

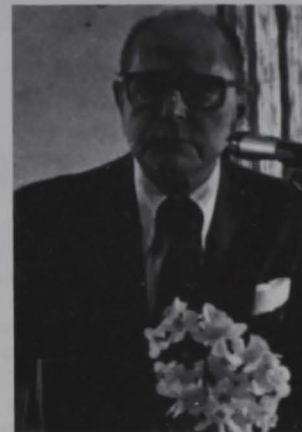

Inaugural Activities

A strong affirmation of our "native son" president was given by Glenville Mayor Ronald J. Gregory in extending the city's greetings.

The Honorable Governor John D. Rockefeller IV displayed some wit as he shook President Simmon's hand following Inaugural Luncheon.

Former GSC President, Dr. D. Banks Wilburn gave greetings during the Inaugural Luncheon.

Dr. Ruel E. Foster is seen as he spoke on "Appalachian Literary Renaissance."

Campus host, Dr. Espy Miller, retired chairman of the English Dept. listened avidly to past GSC President, Harry B. Heflin.

Mr. Nelson Wells, retired Professor of Education and a GSC graduate, gave the "History of GSC."

Emphasize New Era

A '74 grad, Mr. Larry Godfrey, gave a talk on "Medicine, Science, Research" on Thursday of Convocation Days.

James H. Mahaney spoke on "A Look at the World of Business" on Thursday, April 27. He is a 1964 graduate of GSC.

"Player, Coach, Teacher" was the topic of Jackie Joe Robinson's talk during Convocation Days. He is a '70 grad and former All-Conference basketball player for GSC.

A '67 graduate of GSC, Jerry Stover spoke on the preservation of Appalachian literature. He is an educator in Clay County.

Multi-talented Jim Bush is seen strummin' a dulcimer as he opened Convocation Days on Wednesday, April 26. He is a 1964 graduate of GSC.

Elderhostel Introduced on Campus

Elderhostel, a Federal program, is coming to West Virginia. Glenville State College will be sponsoring the program along with several other West Virginia institutions. On this campus the program will last four weeks this summer and includes classes and entertainment.

The West Virginia Elderhostel is open to people over 60 years of age and offers an opportunity to travel and make new friends. The Hostellers will live in Pickens Hall with summer students, although some will commute. They will be involved in field trips, picnics, tours and involvement in regular campus activities.

The West Virginia Elderhostel 1978 is a state program directed by Dr. Robert Bauer of Fairmont State College. All personnel working with the program will have been trained in teaching the "non-traditional students."

The 1978 Elderhostel, a first for West Virginia, is a federal program which began in 1974 in New England. Eight West Virginia campuses will host the Elderhostel. These include Bethany College, Fairmont State College, Glenville State College, Marshall University, Shepherd College, West Liberty State College, West Virginia State College, and Wheeling College.

Courses provided at GSC will be offered during the period of June 11 to July 15. These selected courses were based on a survey done in accordance with the college. The courses and instructors are listed below: Appalachian Folk Culture--Mack Samples (June 11-17); Indoor Plants--Mary Ross, Roots: Family History--Dr. Bruce Flack, Wild Flowers--Dr. Robert Deal (June 18-24); Individual and Law - Mr. Hinter, Poetry Writing and Appreciation - Dr. Barbara Tedford, Edible Wild Plants - Dr. Ed Grafton (June 25--July 1); Heritage Crafts -Mack Samples, Consumerism- Miss Susie Sienkiewicz and Indoor Plants--Miss Ross (July 9 - 15).

Dr. Duke Talbott is the director of the program on the GSC campus and Dean Karen Thorpe is the assistant director. Ms. Betty Burgess of the Region 7 Commission on Aging has done a lot to assist with the program.

Commemorative Inaugural glassware is on sale in the bookstore for $1.50 each. Programs and Mercurys celebrating the Inauguration are available as a souvenir in the Mercury office.

Auctioneer Bob Butcher aided Alumni Saturday morning as they profited nearly $500 from their antique auction. David Gillespie looks on.

Musicians Appear

The Overland Express, four musicians who combine their talents to play many different kinds of music, will be appearing in the GSC auditorium on May 19, 1978, at 8 p.m.

This admission-free concert is being sponsored by GSC Student Congress.

The Overland Express was formed in the fall of 1975 as a three piece acoustic group performing mainly in Tennessee. The group's strongest point is the vocal harmony of the three original members - Keith Sherman, Rick Williams, and Randy Clark. David Pierce, drummer, joined the group in 1977.

Keith Sherman sings lead and background vocal. He plays guitar, lap steel guitar, banjo, and harmonica. Sherman has been playing professionally for six years.

Rick Williams sings lead and background vocals. He plays bass guitar and the key boards.

Randy Clark is also a lead and background singer. He plays acoustic, electric, and bass guitars.

David Pierce plays drums and other percussion instruments.

The group plays many types of music such as jazz, bluegrass, country, country rock, and rock and roll.

Rules Changed

The "open house" regulations of Pickens Hall and Louis Bennett Hall have been changed. On a trial basis, intervisitation will be permitted each Friday, Saturday, Sunday, and Monday evenings from 6:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m.

Visitors must sign their guests in and out of the dorms. Visitors must be escorted by the host or hostess at all times. Violations of the regulations may result in loss of visiting privileges according to the decision of the Judicial Board of the residence hall.

If the trial period between May 1 and May 31 is successful, the program will also be used next fall.

Inaugural Events Prove Enlightening

Health and Physical Education Building. The Academic Processional began at approximately 2:15. Music was provided by the GSC Band under the direction of Mr. Edward Vineyard. Invocation was offered by Martin A. Berisford, Jr. of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Glenville. The band then performed "American Folk Rhapsody No. 4."

Dr. Roma King, Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Ohio University in Athens, delivered the Keynote Address. His address centered on the development of education in this country and concluded that it is good that many questions are being asked concerning the educational process in America.

Norwood Bentley, Appointment Secretary for the Governor, brought greetings for the Governor in his absence. Vice Chancellor Wright delivered greetings on behalf of the Board of Regents. Fred H. Barnett of the Advisory Board brought greetings on behalf of that organization. Mayor Ronald J. Gregory delivered greetings on behalf of the City of Glenville. Dennis Myers followed with greetings from the Alumni Association. FAO President Joe Evans delivered greetings on behalf of the faculty, and Timothy James, President of the Student Congress, delivered greetings from the students.

Following these greetings, Dr. Simmons was formally inducted as President by Dr. Blair. An anthem, "Open Our Eyes," followed by the GSC Choir.

Dr. Simmons then delivered his Inaugural Address, citing observations he has made since becoming President on July 1 of 1977 and pointing out his visions for the future. He spoke as a strong advocate of GSC's traditional role as a teacher education institution, but added that he is extremely interested in seeing the school branch into other areas of interest. He was particularly pleased, he said with the off-campus programs the college is now offering.

Following Dr. Simmons' address the Alma Mater was sung by the audience. Rev. Berisford led the benediction and the recessional followed. A reception came immediately afterward in the old cafeteria.

Members of the Class of 1928 are shown above as they attended the Alumni Banquet. Front center is Mrs. Bessie Boyd Bell Scott, retired professor of history and the 50-year class sponsor.

Ron's Ramblings

by Ron Gregory

The West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Association's coaches got together Monday, April 24, and voted unanimously - with some abstentions - to quit jumping.

Of course I'm talking about having a jump ball in basketball games next season in the WVAC. It may not make much difference to the world, but it should cause some real change in conference play.

The motion to eliminate the jump was introduced by Morris Harvey Coach Rich Meckfessel and seconded by West Virginia Wesleyan's Gary Hess. Even Fairmont Coach Joe Retton (remember him, WVU?) voted for the motion. That seems a bit unusual in that his teams usually dominate the conference standings of course, to remain virtually the same.

Our Coach Jesse Lilly did not vote for the motion. He was one of the ones who abstained - something I probably would have done under the circumstances.

Under the provisions the jump ball will be totally eliminated. As Harry Caray would say, "Holy cow!"

Even during the game, when the ball is tied up by two opposing players, there would be no jump. Instead, the ball will be alternated. Whoever (Whomever?) got the ball last time will not get it this time. Sounds like fun, huh? Both for the poor scorekeeper—who gets something additional to occupy his time — and the fans.

I was not serious in my last statement, of course, that the fans will have more fun under the new rules. I'm not sure that they will. I doubt that I will.

Of course I don't remember the days when they jumped ball practically all the time — after every possession or basket or something.

Still I think we may be going into a strange little area with this new rule. Of course, who asked my opinion anyway? As you probably guessed, though, I'm going to give it.

There are simply disadvantages to be considered in this new arrangement. I suppose they're situations the coaches took into consideration before they voted as they did. Only time, I guess, will tell how serious some of the problems may be.

An example: The Pioneers are playing the Fairmont Falcons here at Glenville. With 20 seconds on the clock, the G-Men manage to tie up one of the Falcons, who are trying to run the clock out. GSC trails Fairmont by one point - a chance at a possession, a basket, and the game would be ours.

As I said, our man gets his hand on the ball which is in Fairmont's possession. Great, we say, now if only our man can out-jump theirs we have a chance to go down the floor, put the ball in the hoop and win. Right? Wrong. The scorekeeper looks, and lo and behold, it's Fairmont's "turn" to get the ball. Big deal. We might as well foul them then since the chances of getting another jump ball in 20 seconds are slim indeed.

Some big time conferences have experimented with eliminating the jump, I am told, I can find no reports of adverse effects. The model, of course, is the NBA which has played with no jump for a couple of seasons.

Still a big question is, "Why?" Why eliminate the jump ball?

I suppose this is an old-line conservative stand. I just think the elimination of the jump will take something away from the game. Many times I remember sitting glued to the edge of my seat awaiting the toss of a basketball. There was always a chance our man would win the jump — even if he was three inches shorter than the other man. The thrill, to that extent, will be gone.

Next year's play, without the jump, will be just an experiment. The coaches may decide to reinstate jump ball later. Somehow, though, I doubt that they do. The vote to make the change was unanimous. The coaches of the WVAC know a lot more about the game than I. They might as well have taken away my teddy bear.

Last week's inauguration of Dr. Simmons as President of GSC gave most of us the opportunity to get together again with old friends from the college community. There were many former GSC athletic greats and it was a pleasure to see so many people here to honor Dr. Simmons.

Schedule Listed

The 1978-79 GSC basketball schedule has been finalized, according to Head Coach Jesse Lilly.

The season will get underway on November 17 with the Shrine Tournament in Weston. The first home game is planned for November 21 with West Virginia Tech.

On December 1 and 2 the G-Men will be participating in the Wheeling Golden Valley Tournament for the first time. Games with arch-rivals Fairmont and Morris Harvey also highlight the schedule. The Fairmonters will be in Glenville for a game on December 5, while the Pioneers will travel to Fairmont on February 3, 1979. Glenville will go to Charleston to meet the Golden Eagles of Morris Harvey on December 9, with a return match set in Glenville on February 6, 1979.

The schedule also features a swing into Georgia during the January break. The Pioneers will meet Armstrong State in Savannah on January 16, 1979.

Final regular season game is scheduled for February 24, 1979 against Alderson-Broadbent. The game will be played in Glenville.

Martinsburg's Bullet Recruited

Martinsburg High School's Don Bullet, a 6 foot, 4½ inch standout, has agreed to accept a basketball scholarship and will begin play next season for the Pioneers.

Bullet told an interviewer with the Martinsburg Journal that he made his decision April 28 to attend Glenville. According to Head Basketball Coach Jesse Lilly, he will travel to Martinsburg today to sign Bullet.

Bullet reportedly had narrowed his choice of schools to Shepherd and Glenville, and visited both several times. He had been in Glenville week before last.

According to Coach Lilly, "He was the only one we really went after. We were hoping to get him to come to Glenville. He was impressive when we saw him. He's a good jumper with a good touch."

Bullet received Honorable Mention All-State in both his Junior and Senior seasons at Martinsburg. He was voted to The Journal's "All Big Six" as a Junior and was named the paper's "Player of the Year" in his Senior campaign.

Bullet led the Martinsburg area in scoring per game in the 1977-78 season with an average of 18.5. He averaged nine rebounds per contest.

While a starter at MHS, his teams finished 20-5 and were state semi-finalists in the 1976-77 campaign and were 19-4 in 1977-78.

He played on the Tri-State League Championship Team in his Junior year and never played in a losing conference game at home.

He played predominantly as a center during his Junior and most of his Senior year, but toward the end was employed on the wing against zones and proved to be a reliable medium range shooter. Coach Lilly said he expects to use Bullet as a forward.

"He should be a real asset to our team," Coach Lilly said.

Members of the GSC tennis team, under the direction of Coach Bruce Flack, are shown practicing on the new tennis courts on Mineral Road.

Golfers Win Two Tourneys

The Pioneer golf team, champions of two of the three regional tournaments held in West Virginia this season, will be competing in the State Tournament at Canaan Valley on Monday and Tuesday, May 8 and 9.

The Pioneers won the Central and Northern Regional Championships. They lost only the Southern Regional, which was won by West Virginia Wesleyan.

According to Pioneer Coach Tim Carney, "I think we have a good chance of winning this tournament. Things also look awfully good for the future. We have a lot of youth and potential."

Two members of the GSC team are possible All-Conference candidates: Crislip and DelPrince.

Winner of the State Tournament, which has been won by the Pioneers, in five of the ten years Coach Carney has been at Glenville, will compete June 6 through 9 in the National Tourney in Huntsville, Texas.

NORTHERN REGIONAL

The GSC Pioneer golf team captured the Northern Regional Golf Tournament held Wednesday, April 26, at Speidel Golf Course at Oglebay Park near Wheeling.

The G-Men turned in a 36-hole total of 657 to win with ease. West Liberty was second with 675 followed by Davis & Elkins 691; West Virginia Wesleyan, 695; Shepherd, 707; Morris Harvey, 713; Bluefield State, 721; West Virginia State, 759; West Virginia Tech, 764; Salem College, 770; Concord College, 774; Wheeling College, 775 and Fairmont State, 779.

Jim Brady of the Pioneers took medalist honors, defeating Tom Cooper of West Liberty in sudden-death playoffs. Both golfers finished with 162, but Brady made par on the extra hole while Cooper took a bogey.

Glenville golfers registered the following scores: Greg DelPrince, 165; Brady, 161; Joe Crislip, 169; Perry Coe, 173; and Bill Hess, 164.

CENTRAL REGIONAL

Joe Crislip fired a one-over par 73 to lead the Pioneer golfers to their second straight Regional Championship, the Central Regional, at the Canaan Valley State Park course at Davis on Tuesday, May 2.

Crislip shot a two-day total of 150 to take medalist honors.

Individual totals for the G-Men on Tuesday were: Greg DelPrince, 81; Bill Hess, 80; Perry Coe, 82; and Crislip, 73.

Cross Country Recruits Landed

GSC cross country Coach James F. Hilgenberg has announced that three students have decided to attend GSC and will participate in cross country next year.

The three recruits are: Russell Craig Bock of Parkersburg High School who will major in business; and Mitch Arbaugh of Lewisburg and Frank Carter of Alderson, both of whom attended Greenbrier East High School.

Coach Hilgenberg, in commenting upon the recruits, said, "GSC is most pleased to have added Craig, Mitch and Frank to our distance running program. They have had two outstanding coaches in high school and all three have outstanding running potential.

"I am very pleased that our program has attracted runners of this calibre, and Craig, Mitch and Frank will contribute greatly to our program at GSC," Coach Hilgenberg concluded.

Doubleheader Dropped

The Pioneer baseball team dropped a doubleheader in Glenville Saturday to the West Liberty Hilltoppers by identical scores of 7-1.

The loss of the twinbill dropped the Pioneer record to 7-7 in the conference and 7-12 overall this season.

Winning pitcher in the first game was Phil McClain, who struck out eight and walked four enroute to the win. Ralph Smith took the loss for GSC. Smith walked nine and struck out five. Mark Schwertfeger had a double for West Liberty.

The Hilltoppers fell behind the Pioneers 1-0 in the first inning, but came back with two runs in each of the second, third and fourth innings to go in front 6-1. A single run in the fifth inning iced the victory.

In the second game, West Liberty jumped on top early with two runs in the second inning. They followed with three in the fourth and two in the sixth. Glenville's lone run came in the sixth.

Krasevec was the winning pitcher for West Liberty, walking seven and striking out four in 6 and one-third innings. Don Channel came in to retire the Pioneers in the seventh with two strike outs.

Dave Sattler had a solo homer for West Liberty in the second inning, the only home run of the afternoon.

Marshall University Graduate School will be represented at GSC in the Placement Office on May 19, 1978, from 1 - 4 p.m. Interested students should stop at the Placement Office for an appointment.

The Placement Office would like to extend a special thanks to all faculty, students, and other participants in the First Interview Day, held on April 24, a huge success.

Unemployed students seeking jobs should see the current jobs available notebooks in the Placement Office.

Eighth Football Camps Planned

Glenville State College will be holding two one-week football camps in June. The purpose of the camps, held for the eighth consecutive year, is to teach junior and senior high school boys who are ambitious to play better football the finer points in mastering the fundamentals and techniques of the game. Individual and group instruction by competent coaches and specialists with ample practice and drills should produce surprise results in future competition, according to an Athletic Department spokesman.

GSC Head Coach Earl "Whitey" Adolfson will direct the camps. He will be assisted by members of the GSC staff and guest instructor coaches.

The first week of camp will be held from June 11 through June 16.

Cost of the camp will be $90. Campers will report Sunday afternoon and camp will conclude Friday after lunch. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Coach Adolfson.
