WE CARE ABOUT FRESHMEN!

Let's Play College . . .

Once again it is time to bring out the books and play college and we, the Glenville Mercury staff extend a warm welcome to the freshman class, as well as to the students returning to GSC.

Education is what college is all about. And as freshmen, you will soon find that education is composed of more than books and instructors. The social development of a student is an important factor in his success or failure and this development relies heavily on trial and error. Glenville State College has a wide variety of activities to meet your social needs. Whether you enjoy music, writing, dramatics, or sports, the GSC campus offers something for your interest.

College is an experience and it can only be a success if you work at it. You are embarking on a learning experience that will become the foundation for the remainder of your life. Even though many helping hands will be extended to you during your college career, you must take a stand and hold your own. That's part of the vast education you will get in college.

With these factors in mind, we wish you the best in your years to come at GSC.

Reading Workshop Termed Success

The Division of Education sponsored a workshop this summer for elementary teachers and other interested people in the teaching of critical reading. The workshop was conducted between July 17 and July 29 by Associate Professor of Education John James.

The class members constructed manuals which are guides for teachers in the use of trade books with elementary students. Members also enjoyed a presentation by special guest

Miss Virginia West who spoke on the Caldecott Award books and their use in critical reading. A trip to two bookstores was made to review the availability of juvenile literature.

Members of the class were: Kathy Perrine, Dee Dee Mason, Charles Mills, Carol James, Virginia Eagle, Evelyn Barton, Theresa O'Neal, Samuel Givens and Virginia DeLaurier.

If this kind of program seems to meet a need of teachers, then the Division anticipates offering a similar workshop next summer.

President Greets Students

Welcome to Glenville State College!

Late August gives us warm days, gradually cooling evenings, the sound of crickets, and an air of excitement as we prepare for the opening of a new college year. The faculty and administration of Glenville State College look forward to the 1978-79 academic year with interest and enthusiasm.

The keynote for Glenville State College this year and in years to come will be quality education. Glenville State College has a long history of quality education. The contribution this small college has made to higher education is outstanding. Graduates have excelled in teacher education, business, social work, science, the professions of medicine and law. The qualities that have made the College strong in the past will be maintained as the needs of the future are met. Foremost in the minds of those who mold the future of the College will be quality education, a stable environment, and an atmosphere of professionalism.

Regardless of where one finds himself, happiness and success, satisfaction and achievement come from within the individual. With the help of Glenville State College, you can achieve academically and socially if you have the desire and interest. Others have done so.

I take a great deal of pride in Glenville State College, its rural location, its students, its faculty, administration, and staff. It is my sincere hope that as you live, work and study in this college community, you, too, will experience this sense of pride.

President William K. Simmons

Wise Decision Is Lauded By SC President

Welcome Freshmen Class of 1978,

As President of the Student Congress, I would like to congratulate you on your wise decision to attend this institution. As you know, your future is based upon your college education, therefore I sincerely hope you make your challenge here worthwhile. I hope you will cooperate with the Congress and myself to provide a better atmosphere on this campus.

I have a few suggestion to make college life easier. They are: get involved with campus activities and organizations, be friendly, support campus functions, observe rules and regulations, and take your work seriously.

During this year problems will arise for you. Don't worry. This is not unusual, college life will prepare you for the problems of life after graduation. Campus life can be confusing, misleading, and different from your past years' experience. If you have problems you can not cope with, there are friendly, warm-hearted people who want to help.

I would like to welcome you and remind you that Glenville State College is you.

Sincerely,
Tim James
President, GSC Student Congress

Watercolor Workshop Is Successful

A watercolor workshop was held July 10 - 21. The workshop was the first two-week intensive course of its kind to be offered on campus. The course was designed to familiarize the beginner painter with the experience of going on location and collecting sketches and color renderings for larger more completed paintings done in the studio. The workshop offered the advance painter new "tricks of the trade" and exposure to new meanings in watercolor painting by using the principles of design while composing a painting.

The class visited many farms in Gilmer, Lewis, and Doddridge counties. Many places were historical, such as, the Farnsworth Farm on Rt. 47 at Linn which was the sight of a stagecoach tavern, a mid-point on the old Staunton-Parkersburg Turnpike; also the Kenneth Jones log cabin farm at the base of Stewart's Creek hill. This spot is one of the oldest houses in the county that has been lived in continuously. Other locations were the Wayne Sponaugle farm, Cedar Creek, the abandoned Baptist Church on Crane Run, the old log cabin homestead of Mary Conrad at Roanoke, which is now threatened by the Stonewall Jackson Dam. The students also were guests of John Randolph, director of Fort New Salem, a heritage reproduction project of Salem College. According to George Harper, instructor, the class was an overwhelming success and included students from the Northern Panhandle to as far away as Beckley, W.V.

WF Minister Arrives

By Tammy Gunnoe

Those entering the Wesley Foundation this fall will find a few new faces and a warm, homey atmosphere greeting them at the door.

The foundation provides a "home-away-from-home" setting for many students with a large lounging area, a stereo and piano and an informal setting for students to get together. Along with this atmosphere you'll find a little black kitten scampering around the feet of his newly-adopted owner, the Reverend Ronald Scott Hand, the new minister of the Wesley Foundation.

Reverend Hand, his wife Barbara, and three daughters Teresa, Esther, and Edith arrived in Glenville on June 17 from Lafayette, Indiana.

He and his family are residing at 909 Mineral Road and will be attending Trinity United Methodist Church.

Reverend Hand feels that the Glenville scenery makes the motto "Almost Heaven W.V." seem real. To him Glenville is properly named, a glen, with outdoor scenery. He is a person who likes to converse with people of different backgrounds and due to his 6 allergies he only dislikes ragweed.

Some changes that Rev. Hand hopes to see are a new familiarity with campus life and problems. He hopes that things will take on a form of continuity and that avenues will be sought to devise programs that are new. He states, "I brought with me interest in bringing together the issues of the academic world with the proclamation of religious tradition."

Reverend Hand previously was pastor at Hancock Co. at the First United Methodist Church, at Nessley Chapel for three years, Henderson United Methodist in Mason County and at Vaught Memorial. He was ordained a Deacon in June of 1973 and ordained an elder in June 1977. He has received his Master of Divinity from the Methodist Theological School in Delaware, Ohio. He graduated from Morris Harvey in 1972 with an English degree and Frankfort Wesleyan in 1965.

the search of religious understanding. His journey takes him over 500,000 miles, touching people on four continents. Imaginative in its approach, the series explores the beliefs, rituals and ceremonies of religions.

It's Everybody's Business is an overview of the way today's business community provides goods and services. It discusses the latest business theories, as well as historical backgrounds. It's Everybody's Business concentrates on the business firm's accountability to the public, the owner, and the employee, production, and marketing.

Roots of Black Americans is based on the best-selling historical novel, Roots, by Alex Haley and on the 12-hour television series of the same title to be telecast by ABC beginning September 5. The novel and the television series present a narrative account of Haley's ancestors whom he traces back to Gambia of the 1750s. Haley delves into the mind and emotions of his forebear, Kunta Kinte and how he instilled a pride of African origin in his family. Roots relates how this pride of origin was orally transmitted through seven generations.

All programs, with the exception of Roots, are aired over the state's three PBS television stations. The courses permit students to combine home viewing of the program with the use of textual materials. Interested persons may contact Glenville State College (462-7361) for additional information. Registration begins at Glenville on August 30.

Cline's Lines

The opening game of the 1978 football season for the GSC Pioneers will be on September 16 at 7:30 p.m. against Shepherd College in the Pioneer Stadium. Head Coach "Whitey" Adolfsen commented on the upcoming season, "We should be much improved over last year with our young people maturing and with the experience they have gained." Coach Adolfsen along with assistant coaches Jerry Milliken, Ollie Pottmeyer and Jim Riffle drilled the team after they arrived for practice on Aug. 22 and are anxiously waiting for the coming season.

Returning lettermen include Brad

Batton, Chuck Barker, Bruce Carey, Larry Cundiff, J.D. Fairchild, Mitch Guy, Tom Phillips, Lyn Stalnaker, Terry Spangler, and Billy Walker.

Top recruits for 1978 include Joey Douglas, Brian Ferguson, Steve Gande, Leroy Henshaw, Steve Murray and Terry Markham.

Coach Adolfsen also stated that some people need to be replaced with underclassmen on the offensive team and that the defense will have to rebuild to be stronger this year. * * * Freshmen: You are now a GSC Pioneer. Attend all activities and sporting events and show your loyalty and support. See you Sept. 16!

Bowling Discontinued by NAIA

The NAIA Executive Committee at its meeting on July 12, 1978, confirmed a decision to discontinue bowling as an NAIA championship sport.

The decision relates principally to the discontinuance of financial support ($8,500 per year in recent years to support team travel and other expenses of the National Championship Tournament) by the National Bowling Council and the steady decline in the number of member institutions sponsoring bowling as an intercollegiate sport.

One reason for the decline is the increased participation of the schools in the American College Union-International programs. The ACU-I not only sponsors bowling but also sports such as chess, pool, bridge, and tournament soccer (foosball) to name a few. Hopefully, we can compete in this program if funding can be obtained.

Football Season Anticipated

The Freshman Football Team of Glenville State College is incorporated with the varsity squad and is not a separate unit. They will, however, play two independent games this year, one with the freshmen of Marietta College of Ohio, and the other opponent will be the Salem College freshmen.

Additional freshmen recruits for the 1978 season (not previously listed in the Mercury) are: Steve Stewart, a 6'1, 190 lbs. linebacker and fullback from Ceredo-Kenova High School; Les Ray, a running-back from Buffalo-Wayne, who is 5'7 and weighs 160 lbs.; Pete Ford from Churchill Area High in Pennsylvania. Pete is 5'10, 190 lbs. and will play center and defensive end. Also, from Pennsylvania, Ralph Wivel, a graduate of Langley High. He will play offensive guard and defensive middle guard and is 6', 190 lbs.

These men, along with the remainder of the GSC squad, have the challenge of reversing last year's 1-8 record. This can be accomplished with total team effort, dedication, over 40 years of football coaching experience, and enthusiastic "Big Blue Backers."

Glenville's coaching staff and their prospective assignments are as follows: Head Football Coach, Earl "Whitey" Adolfsen, who has been at GSC for 12 years; Jerry Milliken, in his 11th year at Glenville, will coach the defensive secondary and also serves as defensive coordinator; Jim Riffle, the wide receiver coach, has been at Glenville State for 7 years. A former GSC graduate, Ollie Pottmeyer, will replace Gene Davis as an assistant coach at Glenville. Coach Pottmeyer has 14 years coaching experience.

The Pioneers will kick-off the season on September 16 at home versus the Shepherd Rams. Be sure and mark that date on your calendar and pack the stadium in support of the "Pioneers."

WOMEN'S TENNIS

During the past few years women's tennis has been a touchy subject on campus. Several female tennis players have tried to bring women's tennis to GSC but have repeatedly failed.

It is true that women must have equal opportunity in sports but Dr. Joseph Now noted that, due to financial aspects, a women's tennis team cannot be started.

He did state that he would be willing to help women start a tennis club if enough interest is shown. Having a women's tennis club would consist of a couple of scheduled meets instead of a complete fall schedule.

Anyone interested should contact Dr. Now in the athletic department.

These clinicians aided students in the Island Creek Coal Company Athletic Camp which was on the GSC campus from July 24 - 28.
