GSC Week Events Told For April 23-26

"Everybody who leaves the campus that weekend doesn't need to come back," was Dean John Vaughn's statement concerning the first ever Glenville State College Week. The four day event will begin Wednesday, April 23, and will conclude April 26. This event is being sponsored by Student Congress.

There will be various events taking place each day. On Wednesday, the Department of Natural Resources will have a wildlife exhibit, and a banner contest will be held. The contest is open to all sororities, fraternities, clubs, and individual residence hall floors.

Bluegrass music lovers can listen to their heart's content Thursday in the amphitheatre as a music festival is held. The forestry club will hold an exhibition and demonstration also on Thursday. Another feature of Thursday will be a craft show. All persons interested in placing an exhibit in the show should get their reservations in as soon as possible. Dean Vaughn stated that only 40 exhibits will be allowed, due to limited space. Reservations are on a first-come, first-serve basis.

Joe Drahnak, Food Service Director, is planning a family style dinner Thursday evening. The menu is not completed, but Mr. Drahnak hopes to serve ramps and other foods that are typical to West Virginia. The supper will be in the ballroom and will be served buffet-style.

A. James Manchin and "Mr. Doughnut" will be on campus Friday. "Mr. Doughnut" will be supplying the doughnuts for a doughnut eating contest. Mr. Manchin will present Coach Jesse Lilly with a plaque commending him as a coach and on winning over 200 conference games. A D.J. dance will be held on Friday evening. Dean Vaughn would like to bring to student's attention that this is the first Friday evening activity planned for the entire year.

The grand finale of the week will occur Saturday, as GSC holds their first Track and Field Day. The day will begin at 10 a.m. at the football field. Food and cokes will be provided by Food Service. Also, at the close of the day, a chicken barbeque and square dance will be held.

A wide variety of games, both serious and fun, are to be played. Ribbons will be given to the top five winners. But, even more important is the Field Day mugs which will be given to all participants. Dean Vaughn urges all students, faculty, and administration to help make Glenville State College Week and Field Day a huge success.

"The Marcells"

Spring Semiformal Features "Marcells"

"The Marcells" will be performing in the GSC Ballroom for the annual spring semiformal. The dance is scheduled for Thursday, April 10, from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. The Pittsburgh based group is currently on a smashing five-state college tour.

The group's music consists of popular music of the fifties, sixties, seventies and today. The show is fast-paced and full of high energy, as well as mellow and nostalgic. A partial song list includes "More Than a Woman," "Three Times a Lady," "Copa Cabana," "My Girl," and "Blue Moon."

Admission is free. The group is sponsored by Student Congress and is managed by Entertainment Unlimited.

Children's Play Cast Chosen

"Who Can Fix the Dragon's Wagon?" has been chosen as the production for "Children's Theatre 1980." The play centers around two twin brothers, one good and one evil, and their King father who is planning to retire and must decide who to choose as the next King.

Louis Kent will portray the King, with Kathy Sullivan as his Queen. The two twins, Mallory (the good boy) and Thompson (the evil boy) will be played by Dan DePugh and Randy Gibson, respectively.

Mike Holley will serve as the "strictly by the book" Captain, with Phil Minigh as his scatter-brained Sergeant. The Daughter of Mother Goose, known as Daughter Goose or Julie, will be portrayed by Debbie Dean. The pogo stick jumping, roller skating Dragon will be Phil Thomas.

Special crews for the play are as follows. Hospitality: Kathy West, Ann Woody, Gene White, Eddie Harbert, and Gary Hammerstone. House: Lisa Taylor, Kathy West, Susan Pyles, and Debbie Mays. Scheduling: Jennifer Morton, Ann Woody, Eddie Harbert, Gene White, Gary Hammerstone, and Marilyn King. Set: Mike Holley, Jackie Romeyn, Shelia Moran, Ann Woody, Gene White, Gary Hammerstone, Eddie Harbert, Melody Wilt, and Debbie Mays. Props: Jo Cooper, Shelia Moran, and Lois Miller. Make up: Ann Woody, Betty Wells, Rayleen McMillion, and Debbie Mays. Publicity: Melody Wilt and Debbie Moore. Costumes: Melody Wilt, Kathy West, and Lois Miller. Lights: Mike Holley.

Assistants to the Director, Mrs. McKown, will be Jennifer Morton and the Speech 331 class. The play is scheduled for April 28, 29, 30, and May 1.

Penfield Collection Exhibited at GSC

A delightful and informative show, presenting Edward Penfield's Harpers posters, will be shown April 12 through May 11 in the Vandalia Room. This group of 24 turn-of-the-century posters by Edward Penfield were assembled from the Harpers Magazine collection, and it is thought to be the largest single group of Penfield posters in existence today.

These posters were designed to promote the magazine, and were printed on a zinc plate rather than a lithographic stone. Penfield went on to produce a total of 75 Harpers posters before leaving the magazine in 1901.

Penfield's posters style shows much Japanese influence, in the use of composition, broad areas of color, and flat images outlined with heavy lines. The exhibit is being circulated nationally by Van Arsdale Association.

David Huddle Appears at GSC

Mr. David Huddle, writer and teacher at University of Vermont, was a guest of Mrs. Martha Keating and the Language Division on GSC campus March 26 and 27. He addressed the Narration and Description class and had a lecture for combined English classes on Wednesday. Thursday, Mr. Huddle was scheduled to do a public reading of his writings.

Mr. Huddle gives a quiet, unhurried appearance in his collegiate-type corduroy jacket over cotton pants and shirt. "I enjoy writing poetry and fiction." When he made this statement, his eyes brightened, his mouth curved in a smile, and he looked entirely happy. In a deep, low pitched voice, Mr. Huddle started to read one of his poems. He gave a calm content, and almost reverent appearance in reading aloud his poetry. Paper Boy is a collection of poems written about his boyhood, his family, his rural life, his summers, and true experiences. After reading aloud his poem "Threshing Wheat", he admitted "that is pretty much what it was like threshing wheat." From this same theme, he wrote the short story "Threshing Wheat." In his reading of the short story, whenever he revealed the feelings of the young boy helping with the wheat threshing, one could see the author doing it. It was real!!

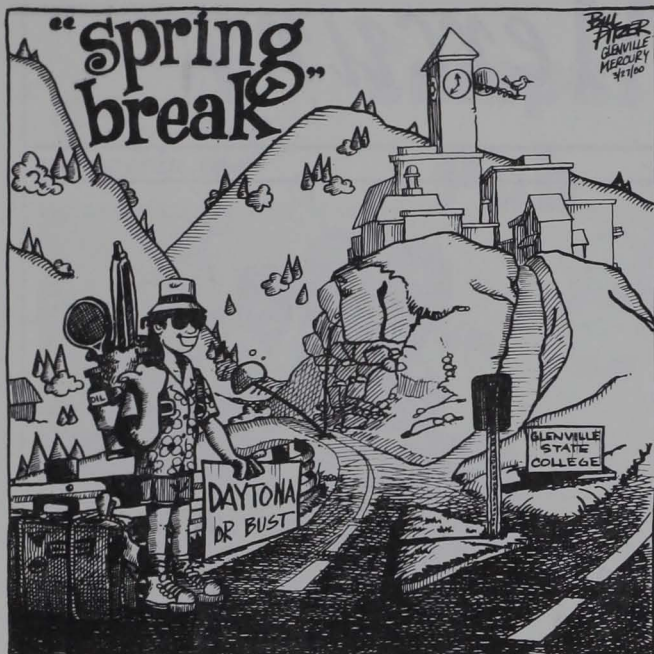

Talking more about his poetry writing, he said he revised every poem four or five times. "Pleasure for me is to get it down on paper, and then meddle around with it. Sometimes I do not finish completely, just so I can go over it again and again to get what I wanted."

"The Interrogation of the Prisoner Bung by Mister Hawkins and Sergeant Tree", started as a poem and he worked on it for two weeks. Then, he changed it to prose. He sent it to the editors of Esquire to consider for publication. They were

Brady Sleeps Through Break

That lovely time in the college calendar year is once again upon us. The timing could not have been better. Spring break has quietly crept up behind us and gently tapped our sagging shoulders; shoulders laden with elusive research papers, heavy with puzzling projects, and burdened with study for upcoming tests. We need to recharge our depressed batteries, students and instructors alike.

Some of the more fortunate among us pack suitcases full of essential and nonessential paraphernalia, hop a bus, car, plane, train, ship, or balloon, and proceed to the southern regions of the US where they soak up a wholly disproportionate amount of solar rays, immediately becoming eligible for local lobster competition. Others spread to the four winds hoping eventually to arrive at parents, spouses, or friends houses. Of course, that is not so unusual at GSC, seeing that the same exodus occurs every weekend.

Then there are we off campus people who live at home and see break as not so much a vacation from school, but as a respite from the rigors and expense of driving.

Whatever your destination, intentions, or expectations, spring break is a needed welcome mini-vacation situated somewhere in the middle of the semester. Visions of noon wakeup calls and all night parties no doubt fill the heads of many of you. Whatever your plans, be sure to enjoy the too short free time. But do be careful, we want everyone to return safely.

Editor-in-Chief

Time to Rotate Crops

With the official arrival of Spring on March 20, many of you have started to focus your attention toward a favorite American activity: gardening. Before getting started, however, you should realize that certain atmospheric conditions will present unusual difficulties, this year, in choosing a suitable crop for your particular needs and interests.

To assist you in your selection, I have been researching, analyzing, and interpreting the meteorological data. Out of the goodness of my heart, (or the emptiness of my head) I will reveal my expert findings to you.

Nationally, Georgia Peanuts and California Oranges are your best bet for a strong fall harvest. White Corn (the Illinois type) may prove to be an excellent alternate crop, but the possibility of a bountiful yield seems unlikely. Bush Beans have done well in Iowa, but have shown signs of wilting in other parts of the country. A hybrid Massachusetts sugar cane crop also looked promising, but adverse climatic conditions, combined with an uncontrollable weed problem, led to its apparent failure.

On the local scene, many farmers are considering switching crops and planting Moore this year. This decision will depend on the amount of crop damage inflicted by the migratory Jay-bird.

Regardless of your particular gardening tastes, I suggest you choose your crop carefully. Examine the entire field on a frequent basis. Soil conditions may change from day to day, be aware of these changes and respond cautiously. Finally, don't anticipate more than can be produced. At best, this year's pickins' are gonna be slim.

Greek Activities Planned

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

With Spring Break at our doorstep the Brothers would like to wish everyone a very enjoyable vacation.

Intramural results are in again after basketball and the Chi's are still top seeded. After a very competitive basketball season, the brothers now have their sights on our favorite intramural sport, softball. In the Muscular Dystrophy volleyball tournament the Chi's dominated once again and captured the Championship.

On Sunday April 13, the Brothers will be conducting a Bike-a-thon to benefit St. Jude Children's Hospital. Also, brothers are reminded that the April 8 meeting will require formal attire.

With Spring springing, the bros are looking forward to many parties at Cedar Creek with the Ladies of the White Rose. Some of the best times at college for many brothers are the lazy spring days at Cedar Creek. Also, the Ladies are reminded that any assistance in planning these parties would be greatly appreciated.

All brothers that will be returning next fall, are reminded that Flint Flair is arranging rooms for a Lambda Chi Alpha floor. All brothers interested should see Flint.

Closed ball is finalized and the only obstacle now is time. The Ramada Inn is the place in Marietta, Ohio on April 19. Favors are in and please get your money to Brother Bob Dinkler in time.

Awards for this week are: WINO-Mersing; POW-Mersing; KCUF-Alan "Le' Pep"; A-H-Ray "Barb" Hanks.

TAU KAPPA EPSILON

The Fraters of the Iota Omega chapter of the Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity would like to announce plans for their upcoming basketball dribble. The fraters will be dribbling from Weston to Glenville, on April 9, 1980. The purpose of this dribble is to benefit the TKE House Fund.

We would like to congratulate the TKE I basketball team for taking 3rd place in the intramural basketball tournament. Their final record was 7 wins and 1 defeat. Overall, TKE's are second in the intramural standings.

The fraters would like to wish everyone a happy and safe Easter vacation.

Good luck to Frater Rich Wynn who is getting married on April 5.

ORDER OF DIANA

The Order of Diana held a special meeting on Tuesday, March 25.

We would like to extend our best wishes to advisor, Susan Sienkiewicz, on her upcoming marriage this Saturday. We have enjoyed having her as our OD advisor and wish her the best of luck.

Also best wishes are extended to TKE brother, Rich Wynn on his upcoming marriage April 5.

Thanks to everyone who contributed to the OD bake sale.

We would like to wish everyone a happy Spring break.

The installation banquet for the new Student Congress Officers will be held Tuesday, April 8 at 5 p.m. All new officers and their guests, and all present officers and their guests are invited to attend. The banquet will be served in the Verona Maple Room of the Pioneer Center.

DELTA ZETA

A formal meeting of the Theta Xi chapter of the Delta Zeta Sorority was held March 24.

Mrs. Roberta Wilson (Bea Wilson's mother) won the clock radio the sisters raffled.

Congratulations to our new "cutest couple" which was won by Joyce Jarrell and Will Wright.

Pig Pen Award went to Vicki Parrish, Georgetta Massie and Rhonda Anderson.

Clean Room went to Bunny Tyler, Diane Winslow and Michele Bruce.

Active of the week goes to all the DZ's who helped with MD week. Pledge of the week goes to Brenda Gray.

There was a standards meeting March 26. A movie was shown on Parliamentary procedure.

We wish everyone a Happy Easter and hope you enjoy your spring break.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

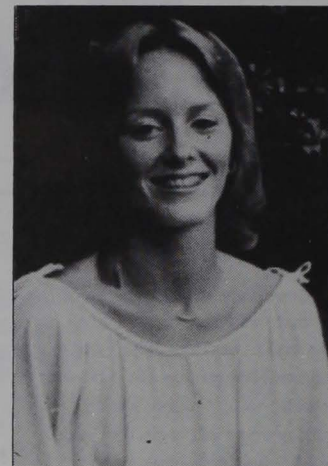

A grub meeting was held on March 23, 1980, in the third floor, Scott Wing, lounge of Pickens Hall by the Delta Alpha chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma. The sisters discussed money-making projects and finalized plans for Closed Ball. The chapter will sponsor a car wash on Saturday, April 19th beside the Western Auto. We would also like to thank everyone who supported our Easter Egg sale and made it a success. Special thanks to Sisters Lisa Smith and Timmie Lilly for all their hard work on the eggs.

We also have planned a picnic with our Big Brothers for Sunday, April 20 at Cedar Creek.

Tri-Sigma's Closed Ball will be held on Friday, May 2, at the Bridgeport-Clarksburg Holiday Inn. Everyone who is planning to attend should sign the list in the lounge as soon as possible.

We are proud to announce that Tri-Sigma's national Honor Pledge to be initiated at the national convention in June at Lafayette, LA. is Della Seaman. Della, a pledge of the Delta Alpha chapter, was chosen from girls from every Tri-Sigma Chapter in the country to receive this great honor. We extend our warmest congratulations and best wishes to Della!

We wish the best of luck to the coaches and team members of the golf, track, tennis, and baseball teams as their seasons begin.

Della Seaman

Della Seaman Elected Sigma Honor Pledge

An announcement was made Monday, March 24, that Miss Della K. Seaman, sophomore elementary education major, has been chosen as Honor Pledge by the Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority. Della was chosen from nationwide competition of all Sigma sororities. Each chapter submitted a nomination which was evaluated by the Executive Officers of the Chairman.

In June, at the national convention, Della will be formally initiated into the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. Also attending the convention will be Cheryl Cline, president, and Lisa Smith, membership rush director. Further details will be published in the Mercury when available.

Forensics Tourney Scheduled at PCC

The Glenville State College Forensic Team will be traveling to Parkersburg Community College, March 29-30 to attend the West Virginia intercollegiate Forensic Tournament.

In the different categories are: Jennifer Chisler, Persuasion; Tim Brady, Eddie Harbert and Fran Davis, Impromptu; Tim Brady, After Dinner; Fran Davis, Tim Brady, Nancy Sutton, Kent Woofert and Melody McHenry, Prose; Tim Brady and Nancy Sutton, Fran Davis and Kathy Sullivan, and Eddie Harbert and Jennifer Chisler, Dramatic Duo; Eddie Harbert, Fran Davis, Cindy Stewart, and Tom Davisson, Informative; and Jennifer Chisler, Eddie Harbert and Lorrie Price, Poetry.

All finalists will qualify for the National Tournament in April.

Gymnastic Class Offered to Public

Two gymnastics classes are being offered at Glenville State College during the spring semester for public school students: one for beginners and one for intermediate and advanced students. Minimal requirements for entry into the intermediate section are the ability to do a front limbre, return to a standing position from a back bend, and execute a good cartwheel.

Both classes will meet on six consecutive Monday evenings commencing on April 14. The beginners will meet from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and the intermediate and advanced students will meet from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. The classes will organize in Room 206, Health Building on the college campus. Barbara Maiocco will conduct the classes.

Class enrollment in each section is limited to twenty (20) students. Fee for this Continuing Education Activity will be $10.00 per participant. For additional information or to make application, contact the Office of Continuing Education (462-7361, Ext. 294). Enrollments at the first meeting will only be permitted if the class is not full.

Nominations Being Taken for Pioneer

GSC needs a Pioneer. Anyone interested must have the following requirements. The Pioneer must attain a 2.0 average and be a senior. He must also attend all football and basketball games in costume. If the Pioneer fulfills all of the requirements, at the end of the year he will be awarded the musket.

Nominations are due by April 11, and can be turned in to the Student Affairs Office. Elections will be held April 21 and 22 in the Pioneer Center from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. in the residence halls.

Carney Comments on Golfers

Glenville State opens its 1980 season with its own Invitational at Oxbow Golf Club in Beverly, Ohio. Sixteen teams will compete with last year's champion California State back, along with Ohio U, Wittenberg, Wooster, Marietta and state schools such as D & E, Fairmont, Concord and WV Wesleyan.

The Pioneers hope to maintain their dominance in the West Virginia Conference by winning their 7th title in the last 9 years. Opposition will come from Davis & Elkins, WV Wesleyan, West Liberty and Bluefield State.

GREG DEL PRINCE (Ashtabula, OH), a senior with exceptional talent. Coach Tim Carney says, "I look for Greg to have a great year. He came in with a bang and I really feel that he will have that same type of year."

PERRY COE (Summersville, WV) a senior with exceptional talent. Coach Tim Carney says, "I look for a senior who has played very steadily the last two years. A very dedicated golfer who wants to end his career with his finest year in college golf."

JOE CRISLIP (Parkersburg, WV) an All-Conference player and strong competition. Joe is an exceptional athlete which comes over into his golf. Says Coach Carney, "Joe has a strong desire to win. This desire along with his skill on the greens makes him tough to beat."

DAVE LAMM (Parkersburg, WV) Dave is a slow starter. He is a long hitter and with last year's competition under his belt will be a great asset this year. He was low man for GSC in last years national tournament in Greensboro, NC.

Dave Eckhart of Parkersburg, WV; Gordon DeLaat of Ashtabula, OH. Tom Davisson of Glenville, WV; Rick Moore of Spencer, WV; Dan Dennis of St. Marys, WV; Dave Powell of St. Marys, WV; Dave Ambrose of Greenbrier East and Gary Harvey of Spencer, WV. Kevin Stout of Harrisville and Norman Craig of Spencer.

"We need to find a replacement for Jim Brady. Based on last fall's qualifying, Gordon DeLaat will be asked to step into those shoes. Four returning lettermen and a solid freshman in DeLaat, will give us an exceptional team," says Tim Carney.

The Lady Pioneers track team traveled to Fairmont for their first meet of the season. The Pioneers had several members to place in 1st and 2nd place. These included Poncho Richards, 1st discus and 2nd shot put; Donita Cox, 1st javelin; Mary Davis, 2nd half-mile; Kim Goodwin, 2nd 100 meter. Complete results will be given next week.

interested in the story, but said it needed cut. Mr. Huddle cut two of the thirty pages of manuscript and sent it back to Esquire. It still was not satisfactory to Esquire, so they asked his permission to cut the story themselves. He did not like what was to be done to the story. Finally, he faced that he would have to accept it their way or not get published. He agreed to get it printed with their editing. Afterwards, when he had a choice on which version to use in a collection of short stories, he chose Esquire's, not his original.

Upon question, Mr. Huddle said he was a writer-first, and a teacher second.

Mr. Huddle lectured on "is it all right to write real stuff in fiction?" He gave both sides to the question. Some authors, he reported, do not do autobiographical writing. They reason that there is only one good book to come from autobiographical material. David Huddle took the position that autobiographical writings are the best for fiction. He writes about his family, his home, and his friends.

At first, Mr. Huddle wrote fiction, and used his imagination and memory. Later, changed to write autobiographically, and was satisfied with his work. He ended the lecture with this observation, "We write for the work itself."
