Miss Kanawhachen Voting Started

Voting for Miss Kanawhachen is underway with three women competing for the crown.

Bev Gregg is being sponsored by Delta Zeta Sorority. She is a senior Social Work major. Bev hails from

Harrisville

Marilyn King, a sophomore English major, is being sponsored by the Mercury. She is also a journalism minor.

The third woman is Cathy Kidd.

Cathy is from Charleston and is a freshman Business major.

Voting for Miss Kanawhachen took place throughout GSC week in the amphitheatre. Votes were a penny each.

Field Day Events Underway

"It goes, rain or shine," stated Dean John Vaughn when questioned on the possibility of rain for Field Day. It should also be stressed that all events and food are free to GSC students, faculty, and administration. The GSC Field Day mugs will be given only to students, faculty and administration that are present.

DJ Tom Wheeler will be on hand for a dance tonight, the dance will be held from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Beer and other beverages and munchies will be served free of charge. It should be noted that this is the first scheduled Friday event of the year.

Field Day, the grand finale of "GSC Week" will begin at 10:30 at the football field. The decision of the judges will be final, in all events. Also, the top five winners in each event will receive a ribbon.

A regular brunch will be served at the college cafeteria, however, hot dogs, chips, and cokes will be served at the field from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. All dorm residents should be aware of the fact that no evening meal will be served at the college cafeteria Saturday evening. An outside barbecue will be held from 4:30 to 6:30. The menu will include barbecue chicken, barbecue spare ribs, baked beans, potato salad, rolls, watermelon and ice cream.

Immediately following the meal will be an awards ceremony where all ribbons will be given to the top five winners in each event. Also following the meal will be the distribution of the Field Day mugs. At 7:30 a square dance will be held, and will last as long as the dancers.

Everyone should remember Field Day and all ensuing activities are free, and rain or shine Field Day will be held. As Dean Vaughn stated, if it is nice weather, if students only come to sun bathe, be there!

Movies Planned

"Wow," was Debbie Moore's reaction to the spectacular array of movies planned for the 1980-81 school term. Debbie's reaction was similar to many other students and faculty alike when told of the coming movies.

Student Congress President, Kim Bickel has released the schedule of movies. To begin the year on August 27 is "Animal House" (R); September 3—"The Rose" (R); September 10—"North Dallas Forty" (R); September 17—"The Seduction of Joe Tynan" (R); and September 24—"Love at First Bite" (PG).

Movies slated for the following three months include "Ten" (R)-Oct. 8; "The Deer Hunter" (R)-Oct. 15; "The Electric Horseman" (R)-Oct. 22; and "Norma Rae" (R) on Oct. 29. "Breaking Away" (PG)-Nov. 5; "Life of Brian" (R) Nov. 12; and "Meatballs" (PG) Nov. 19. Dec. will include "Kramer vs. Kramer" (PG) on Dec. 3, and Dec. 10 the "Silver Streak" (PG). Pre-registration Scheduled

Pre-registration for the Fall 1980 semester will be conducted during the week of May 5-9 for the benefit of continuing students.

Those students who are currently enrolled and who want to pre-register should meet with their advisor, get their registration form signed, and bring it to the Registrar's Office between the hours of 9-12 a.m. during that week.

Student data sheets (profiles) will not be processed during pre-registration. They will be updated during the fee-paying process at the beginning of the fall semester.

Those who do not register during pre-registration week may register between July 17 and August 15; or they may register on August 22, regular registration day.

Freshmen may register during the special freshman summer registration July 15 and 16, or on August 25. Those who are entering GSC for the first time may not register at any other time.

Students Visit Longwood

Eleven students from the ornamental Horticulture classes at GSC will depart Thursday, May 1 to Longwood Gardens, Pennsylvania for a three-day field trip.

Longwood Gardens, which was featured in this month's issue of Reader's Digest, is about 30 miles southwest of Philadelphia. Included in the 350 acres of these gardens is almost countless different flowers, exotic plants from around the world, beautiful fountains, and four acres of conservatories which house dazzling ornamental foliage.

Longwood Gardens is a big attraction to tourists. An estimated 650,000 visitors view the many different types of plants as well as the beautiful structures on the property. The Ornamental Horticulture students will be going on a field trip they will probably remember for a long time.

On Tuesday Evening, April 29, at 7:00 p.m. in the media center of the Robert F. Kidd Library, the program by Dr. Milton Friedman entitled, "FROM CRADLE TO GRAVE" will be shown.

The gala event is slated for next

Wednesday, April 30 at 8 p.m. in the ballroom of the Pioneer Center. The theme is "The Main Event" and the girls have been practicing for the pageant. Serving as Mistress of Ceremonies will be Miss West Virginia 1979, Debbie Davis. The talent will include singing, dancing, and dramatic readings.

Krantz's Daisy Reviewed

JUDITH KRANTZ, remember that name, forget about Hemingway and Steinbeck you have probably read a lot of their works, but Krantz's book Princess Daisy is one you can really sink your teeth into. I know, I was a bit skeptical at first too, who wouldn't be, Gene Schalit had warned us on Good Morning America that her two books (Scruples and Princess Daisy) had grossed over seven million dollars already and then we had the 3 days of "Scruples" on TV. With that kind of exposure who needs advertising or enemies. After seeing the format of "Scruples" on the first night I quickly switched channels, mondo TV at its best. When I came across her book on reserve at the library, I became leary. As my curiosity got the best of me I quickly plucked down the book with a move that would have made James Bond proud. Quickly I scanned the summary of the book and knew I was hooked. The cover art could be improved but the glimpse of information that is printed on the front and back is excellent.

Krantz starts you out with the barest of detail but in that first couple of paragraphs you recognize Daisy Valensky as something special like the brightness of spring after a hard winter. Krantz keeps you holding on until the end. Granted that at some parts seem irrelevant (namely around the middle of the book) the first and last parts keep you slobbering until the very end.

Daisy's character has something for everyone especially a helpless romantic because as stated in the book she is very near to a Joan of Arc, she gave so much you wondered when she would ever get her pot of gold. Krantz's dialogue can annoy like a fly, bite like a lion and sting like a bee. Where Garp is "muddley" Krantz's Daisy is as clear as a bell. She brings out the best and the worst sides of human nature by the merest slight of hand. Everyone can find a character in the book to love, hate, and feel sorry for. If you use your mind hard enough you can pick out some of her characters and see who they are really portraying, take for example the photographer and the magazine he works for.

There is so much I could say but I won't for fear of telling the whole story. All I ask is just look at the flyleaf and then you will see, Judith Krantz is here to stay.

P.S. A third novel is on the way. "Chester put the cat out and Ms. Krantz please write fast."

Gilchrist Expresses Thanks

I would like to extend my sincere appreciation to Glenville State College and the Social Science department, for allowing me to attend the Eleventh Annual National Student Symposium on the Presidency. The symposium was held April 11-13 at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Washington, D. C. and there were 579 participants.

The symposium dealt with many different aspects of the presidency such as foreign policy, national security, economic policy, women's roles, education, and the media. Speakers for the event were drawn from the State Department, the military, the president's staff, Congress, labor, business and the media.

It was very impressive to find that Glenville State could hold its own with the larger institutions like Duke, Harvard, West Point, and others. This is a credit not only to Doc Darnall's efforts in the political science classes but to all the programs on campus which provide us with such a well-rounded, balanced curriculum.

I would, again, like to thank all those responsible for giving me the opportunity to attend the symposium and to get a first hand view of our nation's capital. I would hope to see continued participation in this program.

Sincerely,
Becky Gilchrist

Anyone wishing to have free transportation to the Parkersburg High Sports Carnival must get in touch with Linda Collins or Diane Bach, today. The only cost entailed is a $1.00 ticket and your supper.

THETA XI

We are having a party Thursday, May 1, 9-11 for all girls who would like to be a Theta Girl. Plans for Closed Ball have been finalized for May 10-11 at Glenville. Elections will be Sunday at 8:30. All brothers are asked to be there.

THETA GIRLS

Any girl wishing to become a member of the Theta Girl Auxilliary is invited to attend a get together on Thursday, May 1 at the Theta Xi House beginning at 5:30. All Theta Xi's and Theta Girls urge all interested girls to attend.

ORDER OF DIANA

The Order of Diana Auxilliary will have pictures taken for the yearbook on Tuesday, April 29 at 12:30 in the Union. Please wear a TKE shirt.

We would like to take this time to express our appreciation to Susan Sienkiewicz Hitt for devoting her time as our OD advisor.

DELTA ZETA

The Delta Zeta Sorority would like to thank everyone who supported the Spaghetti Dinner this past Monday and Tuesday and the Meatball Sandwich sale on Wednesday.

The DZ's will be having a picnic on Monday, April 28 for the Welfare Children of the Glenville area.

Plans are being finalized for Closed Ball to be held next weekend.

SIGMA SIGMA SIGMA

The sisters of the Delta Alpha chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma celebrated Founder's Day on Monday, April 21 with a banquet in the old cafeteria. Because of the banquet, there was no regular meeting this week.

After a delicious dinner we shared with our guests, President and Mrs. Simmons, Dr. and Mrs. Billips, Miss Clarissa Williams, Dr. Mildred Disko, Diane Bach, and several of our alumnae, Timmie Lilly presented our new adopted grandmother, Miss Williams, for whom Williams Wing of Pickens Hall was named.

Next, awards were presented. Vice-President Terre Smith presented the pledge awards to the spring pledge class. The awards were as follows: Cheryl Keenan, Model Pledge; Maureen Hite, Best Scrapbook; and Mary Hughes, Sweet Violet. Toastmistress Beth Meredith then presented other chapter awards, which were as follows: Mona Ingram, Loving; Lisa Smith, Sharing; Debbie Godfrey, Giving; Timmie Lilly, Smooth Sailing; Cheryl Cline, Sigmaration; Mary Jo Sergeant, Scholastic; Sue Baisden, Delta Alpha; and Sheila Hamden, Mabel Lee Walter and Outstanding Senior.

Entertainment was provided by Linda Collins, Becky Bennett, and Timmie Lilly. We hope that everyone enjoyed themselves and felt it a worthwhile experience.

Everyone is reminded that Spring Ritual will be Monday, April 28 after the regular meeting.

GSC Week Brings Activities

Time upon time you hear students at Glenville State College complaining about the lack of things to do. On Wednesday, April 23, GSC Week started and finally students did have something to do. They could participate in any number of the fun activities that are planned. These activities included anything from a banner contest to a mountain music festival. Ribbons were awarded to the first five finishers, and on Saturday, field day mugs will be distributed to all students and administration for free.

Almost everyone should have been able to find something that they could participate in. It was a perfect chance for the busily worked student to have a small vacation and to forget about class work for a while. Time and time again students at GSC complain about not having anything to do, but with GSC Week—finally there was something to do.

The highlight of the week will come on Saturday as a field day begins at 10:30 a.m. with the 40 yd. dash and ends with the 7:00 p.m. square dance. Dinner will be served from 4:30 till 6:30 at the field as the college cafeteria will not be open. Prizes will be awarded for each contest at the awards ceremony at 6:30 on Saturday.

The moral of this editorial is that for once, you (the student) have something to do if you chose to, and if you do not chose to, then hold down the complaining.

The Mercury staff is finalizing plans for their annual end-of-the-year banquet. The banquet will be held on May 8 at the Cabaret Supper Club in Charleston. Awards will be presented to the staff for their accomplishments this year. All staff members and a guest are invited to attend.

Pottery Exhibit Set

Mr. Charles Scott, ceramic instructor, announced the 9th pottery exhibition May 5-12, 1980. The work of students enrolled in GSC ceramics classes will be on exhibit at Firestone Lodge that week. Much of the pottery will be available for sale.

The high school pottery contest will be at GSC May 12, 1980. The contest is sponsored by the ceramic classes. All high school students in the 10th, 11th, and 12th grades who have had previous ceramic instruction or are currently enrolled in ceramic classes are eligible to participate. The school with the best overall test scores will be awarded a Walsh Electric Potter's Wheel. Student with the highest test score will receive a tuition scholarship to pursue studies in art at Glenville State College. Merit awards will be presented to students who have demonstrated outstanding achievement.

Pottery workshop will be held June 18-August 1. Enrollment is for two, three, or six weeks of study. Concentration on wheel-throwing, local clay prospecting and testing, glaze formulation, surface treatment, firing of stoneware, porcelain, and raku.

Sheila Moran and Mrs. Linda McKown are shown readying stage properties for next week's opening of "Who Can Fix the Dragon's Wagon?"

"Dragon" Opens Monday

The children's theatre will present its Spring production, "Who Can Fix the Dragon's Wagon?" Monday, April 28 through Thursday, May 1.

Students from area schools will be on campus to view the play at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. each day.

After semester break, GSC will begin with "The In-Laws" (PG) on Jan. 14; "When a Stranger Calls" (PG)-Jan. 21; "Star Trek" (G)-Jan. 28. Feb. 11-"Ice Castles" (PG); Feb. 25 "And Justice for All" (R); "Marathon Man" (R)-March 4; "House Calls" (PG)-March 11; "The Champ" (PG)-March 18; "Dracula"-March 25.

Winding down the year of top ten movies will be "The Main Event" (PG)-April 8; "Fists of Fury"--April 22; "The Prize Fighter" (PG)-April 29; and "1941" (PG) on May 6.

"Who Can Fix the Dragon's Wagon?"-the children's theatre production with the themes of good, evil, parental preference, sibling rivalry and all's well that ends well."

The play centers around two twin Princes, Mallory (the good one) and Thompson (the evil one), played by Dan Depugh and Randy Gibson. They are vying for the position of King, which is played by Louis Kent. To be King, the princes must find the magic ring which is worn by the daughter of Mother Goose, better known as Julie (Debbie Dean).

'Bouncer' Needed For SC's Movies

Starting with next season's movie schedule, GSC Student Congress will employ a "bouncer" to see that noise levels be held to a minimum so that all students can hear the sound track at the movies. If noise continues after warnings by the staff member, that offender or offenders will be asked to leave the auditorium. Those creating the disturbance and failing to comply with the request of the staff member will be reported to Campus Police with the recommendation of placing charges against the offender/offenders of Disturbance of Schools, Societies, and other Assemblies found in Chapter 61, Article 6, Section 14 of the Code of West Virginia. If adjudged guilty, this misdemeanor results in a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, and, at the discretion of the court, a confinement in jail not more than thirty days in addition to such fine.

The Congress regrets that it must resort to this approach; but, with the investment of nearly $13,000 in quality movies, it feels this step is necessary.

This does not mean that the audience cannot laugh, scream, and react to the movie as it triggers

Students Mix College and Marriage

by Carron Smith

Twenty years ago, women were sent to college primarily to find a suitable husband, settle down, and raise a family. Today, women still attend college, some to find husbands, but a large majority are here for a career. Yet, as you walk along the Glenville campus, I am sure that you see both of these types of women and still another type. This "other type" is the married woman, trying to balance a marriage, raise children and have a college life.

In this article on "Women on Campus," several married women were interviewed and asked their feelings on returning to college, and the many problems that they must overcome.

"Someone must really want something really bad to go through this," stated Manoka McCue, a freshman and mother of three. Manoka, since becoming a student herself, said she "has more sympathy for my own kids."

Mother of four, Illa Jean Boggs, says she gets support from her family. "My husband tries to make time for me to study." Illa Jean stated the most difficult part of swinging marriage and being a college student is "making good grades." Illa Jean has been a student fulltime in 1974 at Penn State, and after moving to West Virginia, she began taking extension courses in '77. Illa Jean became a commuter and fulltime student in 1979.

A previous education student at GSC, Kay Woody Peters returned to GSC to study Business Administration and Computer Science. Kay feels "more motivated" in school the second time around. "I've been out; supported myself." Kay says being a student is easier for her, since she has no children and doesn't need a heavy social life.

A social life, according to Kay, is important for unmarried students, "necessary for their education." "I have that part behind me."

According to these three women, mixing marriage and college life can work. However, there must be a unified effort on the part of the family. As Illa Jean Boggs said, "if my body would just hold up until I get my brain educated." Kay Woody Peters "recommends marriage and college life if you can swing it financially."

May 1 is the last day to get letters of application in for Mercury and Kanawhachen positions.

Mock Election

The American Presidency class and State and Local Government class are planning to conduct a mock election on Wednesday, May 7.

Nominees for President appearing on the ballot include Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan and John Anderson. The Presidency class is very much aware that there are often "third parties" and will be happy to put them on the ballot if there is sufficient interest.

Nominees for Governor include John D. Rockefeller IV and Arch A. Moore. Other serious nominees are welcome.

The election will be open to the campus community, including students, faculty and staff. There will be one polling place located in the lobby of the Student Union.

Please vote!

The GSC Batmen travelled to Montgomery on April 16 and won both games by scores of 12-1 and 3-0.

The Pioneers collected 9 runs in the first three innings with Terry Spangler and Gerry Myers hitting 3 runs each, with Spangler's coming on a two run homer.

In the second game, Myers recorded his third victory from the mound, striking out 15 batters and walking only 4.

Spangler collected two RBIs on two doubles as the Pioneers lifted their conference record to 3-1.

Fairmont defeated the Pioneers in double header games here on April 19 by 3-1 and 9-5.

In the first game, GSC's Gerry Myers smashed a solo homer in the fourth inning but Fairmont collected 2 more runs to give them a 3-1 win.

In the nightcap, Spangler and Edge gave Glenville homers but Fairmont came back with 7 runs to give them the 9-5 victory which dropped the Pioneers to a 3-3 conference record.

The GSC Pioneers dropped to a 4-8 overall record as they fell to WV State in Tuesday's double-header.

In the first game, the Pioneers were defeated 5-1 and 2-1 in the second. Pat Beebe slugged a solo homer for GSC.

and Bill DelPrince placed first and Mark Stafford and Rick Hall placed second.

The backgammon tournament, held Monday, April 21, saw Steve Garrett as the winner and John Altizer placed second.

PUBLICATION NEARS

The literary magazine, The Trilium, held a meeting on April 23 in the Administration Building. They discussed the upcoming issue which is tentatively planned for distribution around May 12.

The magazine will include 15 poems, 5 stories and several illustrations and artwork. Bill Pitzer will illustrate the cover, and artwork from other students will accompany the stories and poems. Everyone who submitted articles which were published will receive at least two copies of the magazine. The colleges in the surrounding areas will also receive a copy. Students can pick up their copies at the library, the English Department or at the dorm offices.

Their future plans are directed to selecting a staff for next year. Anyone wanting to apply should send a letter of application or resume to Ms. Martha Keating. The two main jobs open are that of editor and art director.

WHAT COULD THE ARMY POSSIBLY OFFER A BRIGHT PERSON LIKE YOU?

Drop your guard for a minute. Even though you're in college right now, there are many aspects of the Army that you might find very attractive.

Maybe even irresistible. See for yourself.

MED SCHOOL, ON US

You read it right.

The Army's Health Professions Scholarship Program provides necessary tuition, books, lab fees, even microscope rental during medical school.

Plus a tax-free monthly stipend that works out to about $6,450 a year. (After July 1, 1980, it'll be even more.)

After you're accepted into medical school, you can be accepted into our program. Then you're commissioned and you go through school as a Second Lieutenant in the Army Reserve.

The hitch? Very simple. After your residency, you give the Army a year as a doctor for every year the Army gave you as a med student, and under some conditions, with a minimum scholarship obligation being two years' service.

INTERNSHIP, RESIDENCY & CASH BONUSES

Besides scholarships to medical school, the Army also offers AMA-approved first-year post-graduate and residency training programs.

Such training adds no further obligation to the student in the scholarship program. But any Civilian Graduate Medical Education sponsored by the Army gives you a one-year obligation for every year of sponsorship.

But you get a $9,000 annual bonus every year you're paying back medical school or post-graduate training.

So you not only get your medical education paid for, you get extra pay while you're paying it back.

Not a bad deal.

A GREAT PLACE TO BE A NURSE

The rich tradition of Army Nursing is one of excellence, dedication, even heroism. And it's a challenge to live up to.

Today, an Army Nurse is the epitome of professionalism, regarded as a critical member of the Army Medical Team.

A BSN degree is required. And the clinical spectrum is almost impossible to match in civilian practice.

And, since you'll be an Army Officer, you'll enjoy more respect and authority than most of your civilian counterparts. You'll also enjoy travel opportunities, officer's pay and officer's privileges.

Army Nursing offers educational opportunities that are second to none. As an Army Nurse, you could be selected for graduate degree programs at civilian universities.

ADVANCED NURSING COURSE, TUITION-FREE

You get tuition, pay and living allowances.

You can also take Nurse Practitioner courses and courses in many clinical specialties. All on the Army.

While these programs do not cost you any money, most of them do incur an additional service obligation.

A CHANCE TO PRACTICE LAW

If you're about to get your law degree and be admitted to the bar, you should consider a commission in the Judge Advocate General Corps. Because in the Army you get to practice law right from the start.

While your classmates are still doing other lawyers' research and other lawyers' briefs, you could have your own cases, your own clients, in effect, your own practice.

Plus you'll have the pay, prestige and privileges of being an Officer in the United States Army. With a chance to travel and make the most of what you've worked so hard to become. A real, practicing lawyer. Be an Army Lawyer.

ROTC SCHOLARSHIPS

Though you're too late for a 4-year scholarship, there are 3-, 2-, and even 1-year scholarships available.

They include tuition, books, and lab fees. Plus $100 a month living allowance. Naturally they're very competitive. Because besides helping you towards your degree, an ROTC scholarship helps you towards the gold bars of an Army Officer.

Stop by the ROTC office on campus and ask about details.

UP TO $170 A MONTH

You can combine service in the Army Reserve or National Guard with Army ROTC and get up to $6,500 while you're still in school.

It's called the Simultaneous Membership Program. You get $100 a month as an Advanced Army ROTC Cadet and an additional $70 a month (sergeant's pay) as an Army Reservist.

When you graduate, you'll be commissioned as a Second Lieutenant, but not necessarily assigned to active duty. Find out about it.

A BONUS FOR PART-TIME WORK

You can get a $1,500 bonus just for enlisting in some Army Reserve units. Or up to $2,000 in educational benefits.

You also get paid for your Reserve duty. It comes out to about $1,000 a year for about 16 hours a month and two weeks annual training.

And now we have a special program to help you fit the Army Reserve around your school schedule. It's worth a look.

A SECOND CHANCE AT COLLEGE

Some may find college to be the right place at the wrong time for a variety of reasons. The Army can help them, too.

A few years in the Army can help them get money for tuition and the maturity to use it wisely.

The Army has a program in which money saved for college is matched two-for-one by the government. Then, if one qualifies, a generous bonus is added to that.

So 2 years of service can get you up to $7,400 for college, 3 years up to $12,100, and 4 years up to $14,100. In addition, bonuses up to $3,000 are available for 4-year enlistments in selected skills.

Add in the experience and maturity gained, and the Army can send an individual back to college a richer person in more ways than one.

We hope these Army opportunities have intrigued you as well as surprised you. Because there is indeed a lot the Army can offer a bright person like you.
