

The Glenville Mercury

Number 7

Glenville State College, Glenville, West Virginia

Friday, October 10, 1980

Governor and Mrs. J. D. Rockefeller IV were among honored guests at the recent Democrat rally on campus. At the podium is Phil Reale, GSC alumnus and master of ceremonies for the evening.

Political Rally Held

"Democrats together again" was the theme of the rally held in the GSC gymnasium Monday evening, Oct. 6, at 7:00.

Approximately 400 Gilmer and Calhoun County Democrats joined Governor and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller IV. Governor Rockefeller stated about his campaign, "you have to work for it, fight for it, scrap for it. My campaign is a positive campaign. Our sacred public trust is to work for the future."

He continued with, "for so long, West Virginia has needed America. America now needs us - and I say it's about time. I believe in West Virginia."

Other dignitaries at the rally were

State Attorney General Chauncey Browning and State Treasurer Larry Bailey.

Among the candidates seated on stage were: Mrs. Marge Burke and Robert Kidd, candidates for the House of Delegates in the 23rd district; Danny O. Cline, unopposed candidate for Circuit Judge of the 13th District; Calhoun candidates Bob Morgan, Dick Stalnaker, Philip Reale and Tony Morgan. Also present were Gilmer County candidates Vic Kirkpatrick, Clark James, Lane Smith, Richard Stalnaker, R. Terry Butcher, Carol Wolfe and Robert Minigh.

All in all the old fashioned Democratic Rally was like a donkey chasing an elephant through high grass.

Class Begins Project

Overheard in the student union:
1st Student: "I spent $100,000 on corporate stock. What did you do with your money?"
2nd Student: "I put all $100,000 in a savings account."

Do we have some very wealthy students here, or is there something strange going on?

Neither answer is correct. The $100,000 is a hypothetical amount given to students of Mr. Jim Eaton's Money and Banking class. Students may receive up to 12 points on their final grade by investing $100,000 and outperforming, on a percentage basis, the Dow Jones Industrial Average.

The investments may be in corporate stocks, bonds, treasury bills, municipal bonds, savings accounts or any other security or any combination of the above. The game began September 24 and will conclude December 8. On the final day, the percentage change in investment values will be calculated and compared with the percentage change in the Dow Jones Industrial Average. For each 2 percentage points above the Dow Jones percentage, the investor will receive 1 point on his class grade.

To make the experience as realistic as possible, Mr. Eaton added rules that simulate actual stock market characteristics. Students are charged a transaction fee of 1% on the total of each separate transaction they execute. They are allowed to collect dividend payments which may be used to purchase more stock, bonds, etc. Interest payments are made on savings accounts which can be used in the same way. Penalties are charged for incorrect reporting of transactions.

The purpose of this investment game is to motivate students to read investment related articles, to acquire skills in analyzing security tables and reports, and to illustrate the relationship between investment performances and economic conditions. It seems to have done all that and more, according to participating students. As one student put it, "My stocks have dropped in value steadily since I bought them. I can now sympathize with those investors who jumped out of top floor windows when the stock market crashed."

Training Sessions Offered

Glenville State College and West Virginia University's Center for Extension and Continuing Education are providing four training sessions for officials and administrators from rural counties and municipalities. These sessions will begin on Saturday, October 11, on the Glenville State College campus.

Due to popular demand, the Mercury will be published on Mondays, beginning October 20. Deadlines will remain Wednesday noon. This is a trial period only. Because of the time element, sports and sorority and fraternity news will be dated. A current calendar of the week's events will be available through the Mercury each Monday.

Funds Available

The Humanities Foundation of West Virginia, a state program of the National Endowment for the Humanities, is making funds available for fellowship awards.

The fellowships are intended to give West Virginia Humanities scholars the opportunity to undertake original research in the Humanities and to present the results to the out-of-school public.

Individual fellowships for up to $1,500 are available. The deadline for applications to be considered in March, 1981, is January 1, 1981. Should all available funds not be granted in March, a second round of competition will be held with an application deadline of March 1, 1981 for consideration in June.

Funds may be used for any normal expenses of a researcher, including books and other pertinent publications. They may not be used for the purchase of equipment or for construction.

Applications for Fellowships will be judged on:

1. The degree to which the proposed study will further the purpose of the Humanities Foundation of West Virginia, which is to promote public humanities programs for out-of-school adults.
2. The relevance of the research to a non-academic representative public.
3. The adequacy of the plan for presentation to the adult out-of-school public of the results of the research.
4. The applicant's scholarly ability and the ability to communicate with the public.
5. The conception, definition, and organization of the proposal.
6. The likelihood that the undertaking will be completed as proposed.
7. The importance of the applicants proposals to their specific fields or the humanities in general.

Applications Accepted

Attention, all interested Juniors and Seniors! The annual Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities applications are now available to all Juniors and Seniors. For more than 45 years, this national "Who's Who" program has annually bestowed honors on upperclassmen. The quota for GSC is 32 people.

Student applicants will be evaluated by a committee of students and faculty. The deadline for turning in applications will be Oct. 24. Applications may be picked up at the Mercury Office in Clark Hall.

All-Time High Is Recorded As GSC Enrollment Peaks

Glenville State College has recorded the highest enrollment in its history!

Fall enrollment figures for Glenville State College reflect an increase of 3.4 percent for full-time students, and a decrease of 3.5 percent in part-time student enrollment.

The enrollment total for full-time students is 1,202 and the part-time total is 687, bringing the final headcount to an all-time high, 1889. The Freshman total is up 13.6 percent with a headcount of 620.

In the state, headcount for men was 742 and for women, it was 1,038. Out of state, the headcount for men was 73 and for women was 36. Unclassified enrollment was 483, bringing the over-all total to 1,889.

The headcount total for the 16 public institutions is 71,556 with West Virginia State experiencing the greatest increase of 11.8 percent, Fairmont State with 8.4 percent and West Virginia Institute of Technology with 6.7 percent. This reflected an over-all increase of 1.6 percent for West Virginia's colleges and universities.

R. Roach Succumbs

He was a renowned Gilmer County traveler, educator and mascot for the Dolly Sods Outdoor Educational Workshops, he was well loved and widely respected in the Foundations Department of Glenville State College. He was Robbie Roach, owned by Mr. James Meads of the Foundations Divisions.

Robbie passed away after a brief illness Oct. 1, at 4:13 p.m. The exoskeleton lay in state in room 300 of the Administration Building and Robbie was buried in the Flower Bed of the Robert F. Kidd Library.

Mr. Roach is survived by his wife, Ladybug, and seven-thousand-two - hundred - forty - three children. Mrs. Roach resides in Glenville and the children reside in the surrounding states of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Pickle Street.

A long time friend and colleague of Robbie's, Mr. Joseph Hickman said of his passing, "Glenville State College has lost a true friend. Millions of students' lives have been dramatically changed and uplifted because he touched the moral fiber of each individual and gave guidance in time of need."

Ode To A Roach

Love thy neighbor as thyself,
Was how he lived each day.
Compassionate and considerate,
As he went along life's way.

He loved the flowers and the fields,
Ore' which he liked to roam,
But the administration building,
Was the place that he called home.

We are born and we will die.
Robbie Roach-like all the rest,
Has joined the many wanderers,

On his last and final quest.

But, when his master called him,
He didn't stop-and say,
Wait awhile - it's early yet,
Can I not live another day?

Instead he smiled his same sweet smile,

Knowing he wasn't alone.
And if there's a cock-roach heaven,
Mr. Roach has found a permanent home. bb

Take 2 Aspirins..

Everyone has experienced the feeling of "stress," that feeling of weakness and dizziness combined with irritability, sweating, the inability to concentrate, insomnia, and trembling. Some of you may say that this is always what happens before the big test or just thinking about college in general. According to a recent study, there seem to be five types of pressures that affect students in college.

Number one is "separation from family." For some, separation is a positive experience; for others it is a shock. There is no one around to tell you what to do, when to do it, and no one to celebrate your triumphs or to help soothe your miseries. The student must establish a new support system to replace the ones left at home.

Number two is "freedom" (some of you may be skeptical of this one at first). The student is responsible for making his or her own decisions and examining or readjusting their values.

Number three is "competition." Students compete for grades, jobs, and sport position, etc. This competition may bring about the feeling of loneliness, which increases the pressure.

"Peer pressure" is number four. Everyone wants to be accepted by their friends, classmates, teachers, etc. This may mean conforming to ideas and concepts that you may not completely agree with.

Number five is "choosing a career." You may want to go into one field while your parents may want you to go into another. The uncertain job market may also force you into a field that is in demand.

Below is a list of events and the amount of stress they cause: entering college rates a 50, trouble with school administration rates 45, changing course of study is 40, the beginning or end of school is 26, and working while attending school is 42. This small scale may depress some while others may find it amusing.

Some people deal with stress differently; some students go on a food binge, and some rely on tobacco, alcohol, or drugs. However, these things can eventually add to more problems because they can be hard to control. Other safer ways to control stress include exercise, meditation, biofeedback, a weekend getaway, and relaxation.

You may be thinking, "What a boring topic to write about," but week after week, an editorial must be created and finished. This rates a hot 50 on the stress scale, so please keep this in mind and remember, "Yea, judge not too harshly."

The Delta Alpha Chapter of Sigma Sigma held its regular grub meeting on Monday, October 6 in the Sigma lounge.

The main order of business was money-making ideas. Our annual Chili Dinner will be held on Nov. 5-6 from 4:30-6:30 each evening. Tickets may be purchased from any Sigma or Sigma pledge at a cost of $2.00 for adults and $1.50 for children. The sisters are also sponsoring a Penny Pounce. Ten percent of all money raised will be donated to our national philanthropy project, the Robbie Page Memorial. So, if you want to help a child smile, save your pennies.

Sisters are reminded that there will be a Sisterhood at 9:00 on Sunday, October 12 in the lounge. Attendance is required.

The Sigma Sister of the Week is Becky Carr for standing beside a sister. The Stinker of the Week Award will be shared this week by two pledges, Debby Daff and Jennie Spencer, for being mean pledges and having such sticky fingers.

Good luck to Sisters Melissa, Angel, and Jeannie, the football team and coaches, and the cross country team and Dr. Hilgenberg this week-end and to the volleyball team and Mrs. Chico in action next week.

Our next meeting will be school dress on Oct. 13 in the Vandalia Room.

ΣΣΣ PLEDGES

The Sigma Sigma Sigma fall pledge class held a pledge meeting Thursday, October 2 in the Sigma lounge. A bake sale was held Wednesday, October 8. We would like to thank everyone who supported us. We hope that everyone will get out and support their favorite organization by buying links to the spirit chain we're sponsoring. The longest chain will be displayed at halftime of the October 18 football game by members of the organization.

All pledges are reminded that Phase II will be held Monday, October 13 in the Sigma lounge. We would like to wish the football and cross country teams and coaches good luck this week-end. Also, good luck to the volleyball team in action next week and luck to our future sisters, Angel and Jeannie, the rah-rahs, and head rah-rah, Melissa.

The Tri-Sigas would like to thank everyone who supported our balloon ascension contest. We appreciate the enthusiasm. However, there was one problem. Because of the added weight of the nametags and the string, the balloons would not rise. All nametags were cut off before the balloons were released and a winner's name will be drawn at the next home football game on October 18.

A covered dish dinner will be held October 20th from 4:30 to 5:30 in the Verona Maple Room. This is only for residents of Pickens Hall.

To attend, you must sign up in Scott Wing Office, giving your name and the dish you will bring. You must bring your own drink.

The dinner is being sponsored by Anne Woody, Timmie Lilly, and Becky Gilchrist.

4H Horizons Expand

"Expanding Horizons" is this year's national theme. 4-H helps youth to expand their horizons as they seek new knowledge, acquire life skills and build on personal strengths. It also inspires 4-Hers to learn about self, to reach out, share and learn with others. These assets are learned from projects that involve learning in the areas of individual and family resources, leisure education and cultural arts to animals and poultry, energy, machines and equipment.

Projects are only one part of learn-by-doing. 4-H involves national conferences such as National 4-H Congress in Chicago and Citizenship Short Course in Washington, D.C.; Statewide camps and workshops such as Young Adult Conference, Older Youth Conference, and Alpha Experience; County Activities such as County Camp, Roundup, and Field Day; Local Activities which involve the community such as trash pickups, visiting hospitals and the elderly.

I know that's a lot for you to digest, especially if you do not belong to 4-H. You're probably still wondering what 4-H is. Well, it is an organization divided into national, state, county and local areas that emphasizes learn-by-doing projects and activities that build character and leadership-citizenship skills.

That's summing it up in a sentence, so if you are still wondering about 4-H, you can contact the county extension agent, Pat Nestor, (he can be found in the courthouse annex building) or any one of the 4-Hers on our campus.

Oct. 5-11 denotes a very special week - all across America. It's National 4-H Week! This is a time when more than 5 million 4-H members will rededicate their heads to clearer thinking, their hearts to greater loyalty, their hands to larger service and their health to better living.

Ashley Finds Profit In Shoeing Horses

by Brent Reed

It may be considered a lost art to most, but GSC sophomore Matt Ashley finds that shoeing horses can be a very rewarding occupation.

"Keeping horses well shod is hard work but I like being my own boss and working with horse-owners to keep them satisfied," said Matt. "I make enough for a fellow my age; I am paying my way through college and paying off my truck."

Matt, a Spencer resident, who commutes to Glenville three days a week has been keeping those area horses well shod for the past two years. Growing up on a farm and spending time around horses has helped Ashley to learn his trade. "I was raised around horses and started fooling around with their feet when I was 15 or 16," explained Matt.

He worked with Jack Hopkins, who, until his unexpected death, was the blacksmith in the Roane County area. Since this, horse owners have been calling Ashley to take care of their animals.

Matt's job consists of cleaning and leveling up the horses' feet and then shaping the shoes to fit. He explained that the traditional forge is no longer necessary. Instead of heating the metal shoes he shapes them with hammer and anvil as the metal is of a softer grade than formerly.

He described it as a hot and cold job. "I can do 15 or 20 jobs in one week and then go three weeks without shoeing more than a half a dozen," he said.

Ashley has a full schedule, carrying 15 hours at Glenville but that doesn't stop him from hoping to get back into wrestling. Being a 1979 graduate of Spencer High School he is the only person in West Virginia's history to have won the state championship for four years. "We are thinking about starting a wrestling program at Glenville this year," he said. "It will begin as a club until the college sees if there is enough interest."

Underwood Ranked 4th

by Karin Dix

After suffering a traumatic injury from an automobile accident in April of '79, Vonda Underwood strove to become one of our nation's top ranked black belts in karate. A broken femur did not denote the end of Vonda's talent as a first degree black belt. After falling and breaking her thigh bone again while refereeing a tournament three months later, a bone graft had to be carried out to insure proper healing. Despite this, Vonda competed and placed 2nd in the Buckeye State Championship a day after having been released from the hospital. She showed tremendous courage in coming back from such an injury.

For her form and fighting ability, Vonda is widely respected. She has made a name for herself in the surrounding states and holds numerous first places. Vonda has won close to 100 trophies during her five years in karate, and the past two years she has been the most active, winning a good many of her trophies as a brown belt. Vonda states that she is the most proud of her "Bruce Lee Memorial" trophy, which she received in Feb. of '80 at Springfield, Ohio.

Vonda received her black belt in June of '79. This year she placed 4th in women's fighting at the Canadian Championship in May, and in August she went to Virginia Beach and placed 4th in the AAU Karate Nationals. "I was not totally satisfied with 4th place in the AAU Nationals," admitted Vonda, "but I felt that it was deserved under certain circumstances." According to Vonda, the AAU Karate Nationals is the biggest tournament for amateurs. Vonda is now ranked 4th in women's fighting in the United States.

Vonda's next competition will be the Budweiser Championships in Cincinnati, Ohio on Oct. 19, 1980. She will be fighting for another trophy and the "Grand Championship Female" crown; the "Grand Championship Kata" crown will be vied for also. Vonda adds, "I would like to see more women in karate because the female fighters in our organization end up competing against men."

Vonda, a GSC student majoring in Art Education, is married to Don Underwood, her instructor, who is a second degree black belt. She and her husband reside in Grantsville, WV where they give free karate lessons.

Beginner or advanced. By studying Spanish only, four hours a day, four days a week, for fourteen weeks, you will earn sixteen semester hours of college Spanish credit. (That's four semesters worth of college Spanish credit!) The cost is about the same as one semester in a U.S. college, $2,589.

Whether you are a beginner or an advanced student, your Spanish studies will be greatly enhanced by opportunities not available in a conventional classroom. Standardized test scores of our students show that their Spanish language skills are better overall than those obtained by American students who completed standard two year Spanish programs in United States colleges and universities.

This is a rigorous academic program lasting from Feb. 1 to June 1, 1981. The cost of $2,589 includes round trip jet fare to Seville, Spain, from Toronto, Canada, as well as room, board, and tuition. Government grants and loans apply for eligible students.

You will live with a Spanish family.

Can a football team win if it continually runs the ball on the ground play after play?

GSC quarterback Eddie Huffman's showing in the West Liberty game last Saturday proved to me that we do have a passing quarterback, we do have receivers that catch the ball, and we can have a passing offense!

Huffman threw eighteen times and completed nine for a total of 166 yards against West Liberty. He threw two touchdown passes and suffered no interceptions.

Two weeks ago, in the homecoming game, Huffman threw only eight passes. He completed two; one was a beautiful strike to Reno Gandee for 43 yards. By throwing only eight times, the pressure was tremendous on the running backs: Dave Boggess, Brad Batten, and Grady Lamb. These three backs played excellently under the conditions. But excellent running isn't enough and GSC dropped three straight games.

But last Saturday the tempo was changed dramatically. Huffman threw two touchdown passes and another was set up by his passing. Huffman took a snap and dropped back to pass. West Liberty blitzed everyone but the cornerbacks and Huffman handed the ball to fullback Grady Lamb on a draw. Lamb went 26 yards untouched for a touchdown against a completely fooled Hilltopper defense. Coach Vincent showed his experienced football knowledge on that particular play beautifully.

Tomorrow the Pioneers play the Bluefield Big Blues. Will Eddie Huffman get to prove himself as a passing quarterback? Or will Batten, Boggess and Lamb have to play their hearts out in a running game?

Pioneers Conquer Hill in First Victory

Eddie Huffman completed nine of eighteen passes for 166 yards and Dave Boggess rushed for 118 stripes to a 44-20 win over West Liberty last Saturday.

Glenville fell behind in the first period when Bill Cortazzo stormed over from one yard out for the Hilltoppers. The point after touchdown was good and West Liberty led 7-0.

The Pioneers scored shortly thereafter with Huffman tossing a 12-yard strike to Steve Williams. It was the first of two touchdown passes for Huffman on the day. The PAT was no good, though, and the score stood at 7-6.

The Hilltoppers added seven more points in the second period as Tim Ricks scored on a one yard plunge, but GSC came right back with a twenty yard pass play from Huffman to Jim Bingiel. The extra point again failed and the half ended with West Liberty leading 14-12.

But the second half belonged entirely to Glenville State as they exploded for 25 third quarter points and held West Liberty to just seven.

Brad Batten led things off by taking the opening kickoff and going 91 yards for a touchdown. Batten also ran the two point conversion and GSC held a 20-14 lead.

Reno Gandee scored next for the Pioneers with a 20 yard field goal. But the Hilltopper's standout quarterback scored a touchdown of his own on a seven yard keeper. Glenville held a slim 23-20 lead.

But West Liberty's scoring had seen its last as the rest of the game belonged to the Pioneers. Dave Boggess took a handoff and went 65 yards for a touchdown. Gandee kicked the extra point and Glenville was on its way.

The next Pioneer score was credited to fullback Grady Lamb. Lamb went 33 yards and Gandee hit the PAT to give GSC a 37-20 lead.

The last Pioneer touchdown occurred in the fourth period with Huffman sneaking across the goal line from one yard out. Gandee kicked the extra point to ice the cake and the Pioneers had their first win of the season.

Lambda Chi Alpha captured the first round of the Commodore Bowl last Tuesday by defeating Theta Xi 8-6. The Chi's will play TKE this Tuesday for the championship.

Cross Country Finishes Fourth

The distance runners of Glenville State College travelled to West Virginia Wesleyan last Saturday and once again they finished in a strong position as they grabbed fourth place. Only one point separated the Pioneer cross country runners from the third place team.

Larry Taylor was the first Pioneer across the finish line, Taylor ended up tenth overall. P.K. Coon was the next in sixteenth place. Right behind him in seventeenth place was teammate Billy Belcher.

GSC was first among the West Virginia Conference schools. Only the out of state teams defeated the Pioneers.

The GSC runners will see action tomorrow when they will participate in the West Virginia State Invitational at Sandy Brae.

Captain of the squad P.K. Coon commented on the remainder of the season. He stated that "we hope to have a real good showing at Sandy Brae tomorrow. Next week it's Frostburg State in Maryland and then it's Tech. These meets will put us in line for the conference meet on November 7.

Netters In Tourney

Glenville State's women volleyball team travelled to Concord College last Friday and Saturday to take part in the Concord Invitational. The girls from Glenville failed to place in the tournament but they did pick up valuable experience.

Eight teams competed in the tournament and those eight teams were split up in two divisions called pools. Each team had to play every team in their pool. A best of three series decided the winner in each match.

Glenville had to play Salem first. After winning the first game 15-11 the Lady Pioneers dropped the next two 15-11, 15-13.

They then went on to play Milligan College (Tenn). Milligan defeated them 15-5, 15-4.

The Pioneers then took on Mars Hill (NC). Mars Hill edged them 16-14 in the first game and 15-2 in the second.

"We were crushed in the first Match, (with Salem)" coach Kay Chico stated. "We were ahead 11-6 in the third set and lost. That dropped our spirits for the next two matches."

The women will travel to Alderson-Broadbent to take on A-B and University of Charleston this Tuesday.

The winner of Phi Beta Lambda's 50 gallon gas giveaway was Larry Taylor of St. Marys. Larry is currently staying in Louis Bennett Hall.
