Test Dates For NTE Announced

Students completing teacher preparation programs and advanced degree candidates in specific fields may take the National Teacher Examinations on any of three different test dates in 1981-82. Educational Testing Service that administers this testing program, announced that the tests will be given November 14, 1981, February 20, 1982, and April 17, 1982, at test centers throughout the United States.

Results of the National Teacher Examinations are considered by many large school districts as one of several factors in the selection of new teachers and used by several states for the credentialing of teachers or licensing of advanced candidates. West Virginia has a licensing program for candidates holding a bachelor's degree. All West Virginia colleges require all seniors preparing to teach to take the examination.

On each full day of testing, registrants may take the Common Examinations, which measure their professional preparation and general educational background, and/or an Area Examination that measures their mastery of the subject they expect to teach.

Prospective registrants should contact the school districts in which they seek employment, state agencies in which they seek certification or licensing, their colleges, or the appropriate educational association for advice about which examinations to take and when to take them.

The NTE Bulletin of Information contains a list of test centers and general information about the examinations, as well as a registration form. Copies may be obtained from Kermit L. Kinder, Counselor, Glenville State College, Glenville, WV 26351, or directly from National Teacher Examinations, Box 911, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey 08541.

There will be a meeting of Trillium, the literary magazine, on Tuesday, September 15, at 3:00 in room 305AB. Officers will be chosen. Anyone interested in being an officer should see Mrs. Keating.

The Magazine also is seeking poems, stories, and art work for the spring issue. The deadline for submission is November 1. Please give submissions to Mrs. Keating.

Student Teachers must see Debbie Reed in the Bookstore this week before leaving campus to order announcements for Dec. graduation. This is for those who will not be back on campus during bookstore hours.

There will be no CLEP (College Student Employment Program) this semester, due to government cut backs.

The program will be active next semester, unless otherwise announced.

Traditions To Remember

Let's hear it for the traditions at GSC - those events and happenings that leave memories in our hearts for many years after our college days are over.

The tradition coming up, of course, is Homecoming. The hard work done by Student Congress proves to make the week's activities entertaining for everyone who participates in them. The parade, coronation, football game, and dance on Saturday have been a part of the college's history for many years.

Not only do the current students enjoy homecoming, but alumni from earlier years return to visit their alma mater and become involved in the events. It is always exciting to hear someone introduced as a past homecoming queen, pioneer, or Montrose winner who once represented GSC.

Homecoming is not the only tradition, however. The Com-mode Bowl, GSC Week, Muscular Dystrophy Week, and the basketball dribble to the state tournaments may sound unfamiliar to the newer students, but those who have participated in these traditions have experienced an important part of Glenville State College.

Just as students leave from year to year, so do traditions. I can remember as a freshman hearing the upperclassmen reminiscing about how their freshman class led the homecoming parade in their beanies and how much they enjoyed the Sadie Hawkins Day events. These traditions can only be seen in old yearbooks now. Wouldn't it be nice to experience them again?

In a few weeks, the alumni will be returning for the homecoming festivities and will expect to see the events run just as well as when they were in school. Someday we will be in their shoes, so let's all help to make this tradition, and others during the year, as successful as in the past.

Letter To Editor

This letter is pertaining to the intervisitation privileges that we are supposedly to have.

Just having intervisitation on the weekends isn't enough. What about the days in between? Really what is there to do in Glenville in the afternoons or especially the evenings other than go to town or watch T.V.?

Many people need or like to study together and how can they when they can't get together. We feel that since we pay $400 - 500 for a room we should be able to have more privileges than we have now.

Most of us are twenty or twenty-one years old and by this time we should be able to take care of ourselves. Since we are expected to act like adults, why not treat us like adults instead of little kids? Signing people in and out is also ridiculous!

Every other college has intervisitation every day and they don't have any problems with it, so what's the BIG problem here?

The fraters of Iota Omega Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon have successfully completed their sponsorship for the fall edition of their bi-annual softball tournament. Four kegs of beer, seven cases of coke, and 250 hot dogs later, Fuzzy and Company waltzed to the championship. This championship team was composed of GSC college students and deserve credit for beating some excellent teams from Parkersburg, Sutton and the surrounding area. Our hats are off not only to those winners but also those to who participated, volunteered their services, or just came out as spectators. The fraters and OD's can be proud that their hard work paid off with an enjoyable weekend for all.

The smoker we had on Tuesday was also a success and we'd like to thank those who came out and enjoyed fellowship with the fraters. Anyone interested in what Tau Kappa Epsilon can offer should contact any on the fraters or come down to 11 Brooklyn Drive or call 462-5285.

From The Wesley Foundation

The Wesley Foundation Advisory Council is formed and ready to meet soon. They will represent the concerns and interests of campus life to which the Wesley Foundation can and should address itself. The Council is made up of eight students and one faculty member, Craig McDonald.

The Foundation building is now open from 9 A.M. thru 5 P.M., Monday through Friday. In addition, it will have limited hours on weekends and will be open each evening from 6:30 P.M. to 8:30 P.M. Students may use the building to study, play a game of ping-pong, play the piano, talk with other students, read, watch television.....

The coffee-house will begin October 1st in the lower floor of the building. We hope it will provide a wide variety of possibilities, including music groups from outside and inside the campus, movies, discussions, listening-events, drama, and so on. Please keep an eye out for the listing as the semester goes on.

The worship service is on MONDAY EVENING at 7:30 P.M. Please plan to attend. An informal coffee-hour will follow the service.

Down in the dumps? Need someone to talk to? We'd like you to know that we are available.

Greek Activities Explained

AXA ΣΣΣ ΔΖ ΘΞ, and TKE? If you are a freshman and have been wondering what those funny letters are on T-shirts, caps, or any other imaginable piece of clothing, now is the time to find out. The beginning of the fall semester brings open rush and numerous rush parties and smokers to the Glenville State College campus.

There are two chapters of national social sororities on campus and three chapters of national fraternities. The Greek-letter sororities are Delta Zeta (ΔΖ) and Sigma Sigma Sigma (ΣΣΣ) and the fraternities are Lambda Chi Alpha (ΛΧΑ), Tau Kappa Epsilon (ΤΚΕ), and Theta Xi (ΘΞ).

These fraternities and sororities, while being classfied as social, are involved in such philanthropic pursuits as play therapy for children's hospitals and raising money to help blind children.

If you are interested in the idea of pledging a sorority or fraternity and becoming a Greek, there are posters on campus stating the date and time of various rush parties and smokers. During open rush, one may pledge at any time during the semester rather than right after formal rush during the spring semester. However, in order to pledge, one must have a minimum of 12 credit hours and must have attained a 2.0 cumulative grade point average. Anyone may attend a rush party or smoker, though, so get out and enjoy the fun.

Gilchrist Legislative Fellow

Becky Gilchrist, a social studies and business education senior at Glenville State College, was one of five students from West Virginia colleges to participate in the Judith A. Herndon Legislative Fellows Program for the 1981 Legislative Session. Established as a pilot program in May 1980, the Fellows Program is an internship sponsored by the West Virginia Legislature to instruct fulltime students in the theory and operations of the legislature and its multidimensional aspects and roles.

Becky's first assignment was with the Department of Corrections where she observed the innerworkings of prisons. There she was able to do some eye-opening research with criminal records and backgrounds which enabled her to write a paper on capital punishment. Becky was then assigned to work with Senator Odell Huffman of Mercer County. Becky noted, "It really opened my eyes to the role of the senator in dealing with lobbyists and the people back home. This program has been the greatest learning experience."

Becky will graduate in December following her student teaching this semester at Parkersburg High School. She plans to teach for several years and someday hope to complete a doctorate in political science.

"It's too bad that only the negative attitudes in government get all the publicity. People who are able should get involved and make changes, then more can be done in this state." Becky adds, "...maybe someday I'll run for office."

After all, she's been behind the scenes.

Legislative Program Offered

Dr. Joe Darnall has announced applications may be made by students interested in participating in the Frasure-Singleton Student Legislative Program. The program provides an opportunity for students to observe one week in the West Virginia Legislature during the 1982 regular session.

According to Darnall, students work on a one-to-one basis with legislators and observe committee meetings, floor sessions and hearings. Legislators are available to answer questions, explain strategy, and discuss procedures. The scheduled activities include discussion sessions with members of the executive and judicial branches of state government as well as lobbyists and the press.

The program is open to full-time sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have completed one course in political science. Housing, two meals and transportation while in Charleston are provided by the program. All other expenses must be absorbed by the participants.

D. Woodell Attends Writing Workshops

J. D. Brooks

The summer break for senior English major Dolly Woodell could be the summer that she'll remember as her major break. Dolly attended writer's workshops in Kentucky and West Virginia where she developed her skills as a writer, and had some of her work accepted for publication.

According to Dolly the workshops attracted beginning professionals and amateurs from many genres of literary composition. She stated that participants were divided into groups with a professional assigned to evaluate their writing, and to assist them in marketing their material.

At Cedar Lakes, W. Va., Dolly attended lectures on the writing and marketing of children's books by Dick Harkins, editor of Weekly Review. She also attended lectures on religious writing by Professor Jack Welch, Department of Appalachian Studies, West Virginia University.

Mrs. Woodell gave readings on her children's book Little Old Woman With A

Wart On Her Nose and her poems, "Rebirth" and "Marred Beauty." Her poem "Rebirth" was accepted by the National Poetry Review in California and reprinted in Pegasus. Dolly added that her children's book is scheduled for distribution in the United States, Japan, Argentina and Czechoslovakia.

In addition to lectures on children's book and religious writing, Dolly attended other lectures at Cedar Lakes and the Hindman Settlement School in Hindman, Kentucky. Other lecturer's were: Novelist, Harriet Arnow, Wilma Dykeman, Richard Day and James Still; Poets: Jim Wayne Miller, Richard Hague and George Ella Lyons; Short Story: Barbara Smith, Shirley Williams and Jane Mayhall.

Dolly completed a poem "A Woman, Tied" with the assistance of lecturer and poet Jim Wayne Miller, while attending the workshop.

Mrs. Woodell expressed her gratitude to James

Rogers, Glenville State College, Art Department, for his vivid illustrations in her children's book, and to Chairperson Virginia West, GSC Language Dept. and the GSC Alumni Association for making the workshops a reality.

The 1981 Pioneer Football Team

Harriers Place 12th In Cal State Meet

In its first meet of the new season, the Glenville State College cross country team placed 12th out of 24 teams at the California State (Pa.) Invitational last weekend.

Most of the teams entering the meet were NCAA schools much bigger than GSC. Fairmont State was the lone West Virginia Conference school to defeat the Pioneer harriers.

Finishing first for GSC was sophomore Larry Taylor, last year's WVC "Runner of the Year." Taylor ran the 5.1 mile course in 28:56.

Freshman Lee Haddox was next in 29:39. Third for GSC was Junior captain Billy Belcher in 30:20. Sophomore Steve Keenan was fourth in 30:43. Fifth was freshman Steve Meckfessel in 32:04. Sophomore captain Steve Roberts was sixth in 32:40, senior Craig Bock was seventh in 33:25, freshman man Biddle Williams was eighth in 34:29, and ninth was freshman Chuck McKnight in 34:50.

The Pioneers ran the meet without the services of three of their runners. Senior captain P.K. Coon is sidelined with a foot infection, while freshmen Frank Lewis and Dave Smith are out with knee injuries.

Dr. James F. Hilgenberg, Jr., was pleased with his team's performance in its initial outing. He remarked, "All of our runners did well. We were all still recovering from the Charleston Distance Run of the week before."

This weekend, GSC will host its own invitational. The meet will begin at Pioneer Stadium at 11:00 A.M. Saturday. Any student willing to volunteer to help with the meet should report to Hilgenberg at 10:00 that morning.

The Montrose Award will be presented during homecoming activities on October 3. A student must meet certain requirements in order to be considered for nomination. He must maintain a 3.00 overall grade point average, he must attain all-conference status in a sport, and he must be determined by the Athletic Committee to possess a good moral character.

The Montrose Award was named for the late Glenville State athlete, Frank Montrose. The award is the highest one given to a senior athlete and symbolizes achievement in both athletics and academics.

Women's intramural softball will begin today (Wed., Sept. 16) at the Gilmer County Recreation Center. The first game will begin at 6:00 p.m.

Any student or faculty member willing to donate his time to help at the GSC Invitational on Saturday should contact Dr. Hilgenberg or be at Pioneer Stadium Saturday at 10:00 a.m.

Any team wishing to enter should contact Marvin Taylor at Ext. 253, or Room 205, Wagner Wing, Pickens Hall.

Students who are enrolled as full-time students when they challenge the course will not be assessed an additional fee. Students who are enrolled in less than twelve (12) hours at the time they challenge the course will be assessed the current cost per credit hour in addition to the administrative fee.

2. All challenge examinations must be taken before the end of the fourth week of the semester.

3. Each division shall produce a list of courses that may be challenged and file a copy of this list with the Office of Academic Affairs.

4. A student may not challenge a course in which he has previously earned an "F", "WF", "FIW", or "D".

5. All challenge examinations must be read by at least three instructors within the division before credit for the challenged course is awarded.

STUDENT ACADEMIC GRIEVANCE POLICY

The student grievance procedure involving academic matters, such as grades, shall be as follows:

1. The student must first discuss the grievance informally with the instructor(s) in charge of the course.

2. If, after consultation with the instructor(s), the grievance is not resolved, the student may appeal in writing within five days from the discussion with the Instructor(s) to the Chairman of the Division in which the course is offered.

3. If the grievance is not resolved by the Chairman of the Division involved, the student may appeal to the Dean of Academic Affairs. The appeal must be in writing and filed with the Dean within five days of the decision at the Division level.

4. If the problem is not resolved by the Dean of Academic Affairs, the student may present the matter to a Student Academic Grievance Committee in writing within five days of the decision of the Dean of Academic Affairs. The Student Academic Grievance Committee shall consist of six full-time teaching faculty who are randomly selected, and the three student members of the Academic Affairs Committee. The student shall eliminate one member, and the faculty member(s) involved in the review shall eliminate one member from the Student Academic Grievance Committee.

The review by the committee must involve both the student and the instructor(s) concerned. A written or taped recording of the review must be made.

The decision of the Student Academic Grievance Committee shall be final.

5. Within five days after the decision of the Student Academic Grievance Committee, all written and/or taped recordings of the reviews shall be forwarded to the President of the College. The President will examine the recordings to assure that all avenues of the appeal process have been accorded the student.

The six faculty members serving on the Student Academic Grievance Committee will be chosen annually by a random selection process from all faculty members who are teaching nine hours or more during the fall semester of that academic year. The Academic Affairs Committee shall be responsible for carrying out the selection process and organizing the Student Academic Grievance Committee within the first three weeks of the fall semester of each academic year.

The grievance may be withdrawn by the student at any step.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Regular class attendance is necessary for successful academic work. Students are expected to attend the classes in which they are enrolled. Accordingly it is the policy of Glenville State College that:

1. Absences such as those due to health, death in the family, or similar reasons shall be reported to the instructor in writing within two weeks of the absence, and the instructor shall provide an opportunity to make up the work missed.

2. Institutional absences are to be approved by the Dean of Academic Affairs and honored by each instructor. Institutional absences include those which result from participation in an activity sponsored by the College such as athletics, music, or field trips.

3. Each student is responsible for making up all classroom or laboratory material missed by any absence. It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor to obtain the makeup work.

4. When the number of hours of unexcused absence exceeds the number of credit hours of the course the instructor is to inform the student in writing that irregular attendance is endangering the student's classwork. A copy of this warning is to be sent to the instructor's Division Chairman, the Dean of Academic Affairs, and the student's adviser.

5. In the event the instructor recommends suspension from class because of irregular attendance, his recommendation is subject to the approval of the Chairman of the Division and the Dean of Academic Affairs. The student is to be notified in writing of the recommended suspension.

6. The student is to be notified in writing by the Dean of Academic Affairs of the action taken. If the student is suspended from class, he may appeal his suspension in accordance with the Academic Due Process policy which is outlined below in this catalog.

7. Any instructor may choose an alternate attendance policy providing that students are informed in writing of the alternate policy within the first two weeks of the course, and a copy of the alternate attendance policy is filed with the Office of Academic Affairs.

WITHDRAWAL

It is the responsibility of a student desiring to withdraw from College to appear before the Dean of Records and Admissions and announce his intention to withdraw. At that time each student will sign a withdrawal card stating the date of withdrawal and the reason(s) for leaving College. Students who fail to comply with this regulation within 10 school days after leaving the College will be reported as irregularly withdrawn, and all grades on all subjects carried will be recorded as FIW.

POLICY ON WITHDRAWING FROM CLASSES:

Students may withdraw from a course with a grade of "W" until nine (9) weeks from the first class day of the semester.

After the withdrawal period from classes with a "W" ends, students may withdraw from a class with a "WP" or "WF" only for the following reasons:

- (1) Medical reasons. Must be substantiated by a written statement from a physician stating that continuation in a class or classes is likely to be detrimental to the mental or physical health of the student.
- (2) Circumstances beyond the control of the student.

CREDIT — NO CREDIT GRADES

Certain classes may be offered for which a grade of credit (CR) or a grade of no credit (NC) is given. In such cases all students enrolled in that class will be given a grade of either "CR" or "NC". Neither of these grades will be used in the computation of a grade point average. Approval for a class to be offered on a credit-no credit option must be granted by the Committee on Academic Affairs.
