S Congress Approaching Officer Elections

Want to have an active part in helping to shape Glenville State College's policies? Are you tired of not being involved? Would you like to see how a government is run? If you answered yes to any of these questions, you just might be the type of person to become involved in Student Congress, GSC's own student governing body.

Nominations are currently being taken for Student Congress 1982-83. A candidate must submit their name and the office for which they are running to the Office of Student Affairs before 12 noon Jan. 29. Positions available include: President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Parliamentarian, Senators-at-Large, and Class Representatives. Dorm representatives will be chosen at a later date by the dorms.

Current Student Congress President, Dean Dunlap, urges many people to submit their names for the election. A candidate need not be nominated by a group; if someone feels they are well qualified for the job, they may nominate themselves.

The requirements for the President, Vice-President, and Parliamentarian include an overall grade point average of 2.5 or higher, and to be a full-time student. The President and Vice-President should be members of the Junior or Sophomore class at the time of their election.

The powers and duties of the President include presiding over all regular Student Congress meetings, presiding over all regular student body meetings, to call special meetings of Student Congress and the Student Body, to act as an intermediary between students and the administration, to appoint special committees with the approval of Student Congress, to be a member, ex officio, of all committees and to serve on the publications committees.

The Vice-President must assume the duties of the President at his request or absence, and be chairman of the Activities Committee. The Secretary must hold all official documents and deliver them to their successor, keep the minutes of all meetings and read them at the next meeting, to keep all records in permanent form and to prepare these minutes for distribution to Congress members and other interested persons.

The Treasurer must handle all the financial affairs of Congress. At the end of each year the Treasurer must present an itemized statement of all funds handled and to perform an audit on the books. The Parliamentarian shall preserve order and act at the discretion of the President, to interpret rules and constitutionality of all actions taken by Congress.

The Senators-at-Large, representatives and dorm representatives will be the nucleus of the Congress. These people will chair committees, make recommendations, and be the voice of the students. The people of Student Congress represent the students, and many of the responsibilities of all the members are not mentioned. A member, or anyone planning to run for an office, should be a responsible person, have initiative and be willing to work for the betterment of the College.

Calendar Changes-

Two Spring Vacations Scheduled

A major change has been made in the GSC College Calendar for the Spring semester of 1982.

Originally in the Spring College Calendar and in the College Handbook, only one break was scheduled for students. The break was to have been from April 2 to April 13.

Now, a new format is being used. Students will have a Spring break, beginning on March 12 and ending on March 22, and there will also be an Easter recess, running from April 8 to April 13.

This change in the college schedule is the only major one announced. Following is the remainder of the calendar for the Spring term: Friday, January 22 - last day for changing classes and late registration; Friday, February 19 - last day for making application for May graduation; Wednesday, March 10 - Mid-semester; Friday, March 12, 4:00 p.m. - classes end for Spring vacation; Monday, March 22, 8:00 a.m. - classes begin following Spring vacation; Wednesday, March 24 - last day to withdraw with a "W"; Thursday, April 8, 4:00 p.m. - classes end for Easter recess; Tuesday, April 13, 8:00 a.m. - classes begin following Easter recess; Friday, May 14 - end of semester, Sunday, May 16 - Commencement.

LOOKS LIKE JOHN
CAME TO BUY HIS BOOKS

The Price Isn't Right

Welcome back to GSC!

Upon returning to snow-covered sidewalks and sub-zero degree weather, many students have been faced with the ever-rising costs of attending college. Take, for instance, the cost of text books. The price paid for school books today seems to be a tuition in itself.

Through bartering, many students have managed to obtain used texts for their classes. That was my case. After hearing static from so many students concerning the high costs of texts, however, I decided to visit the bookstore and make a price estimate on all new books for my class. For five classes, the total came to $93.65.

Complaints have been heard from all areas of study concerning these high costs. There also seems to be an increase in changing to new books lately. This practice limits the ability to exchange used texts. Some books that were new one year ago are being changed already. Perhaps it is time to use more updated texts, but is a change needed every year?

If these prices continue to rise, perhaps all of us should switch our course of study to English and get a piece of the profit by writing our own texts! Oh well, we'd probably end up buying more books for the research of our writings.

Nothing's Finer Than Home Or Is It?

"Home Sweet Home" - That's what we all thought at the closing of last semester. We thought of how nice it would be to go home and see all our friends that we graduated with. What an illusion! Staying home is nice, but boy, does Glenville look good after three weeks of family life! Staying home, tied to the house, competing for the car - it just is one hassle after another. So now we're back in the swing of things: classes, homework, staying up late. One wonders how long it will take until home will be sweet once more. I'll give it two weeks.

Pioneer Men Play Six Games

GSC's Pioneer Basketball team has played six games in the first two and a half weeks of January. The Pioneers performed at a .500 clip, winning three and losing three. GSC saw its record go to 6-7 overall and 3-5 in the West Virginia Conference.

Pitt-Bradford 80, GSC 67

In a first-round tourney game, Pitt-Bradford pulled away in the second half for the win after leading only 39-34 at half.

GSC was led by the scoring of Scott Ludwig and Clay Young. Ludwig netted 20 and Young 18. Don Bullett scored 12 and pulled down eight rebounds. Randy Anderson was credited with eight assists.

GSC 111, Alice Lloyd 82

The consolation game saw Glenville scorch the nets for 111 points, its highest output of the season, in registering an 111-82 victory.

The high-scoring trio of Scott Ludwig, Clay Young, and Don Bullett combined for 87 of GSC's points. Ludwig, for most of the season one of the NAIA's best shooters, was a phenomenal 16 for 18 for 32 points. Young had 29 points, including 13 for 19 from the floor. Bullett, 10 for 17 from the floor, accounted for 26 points. Ludwig's seven rebounds led GSC, as did Rich Moore's eight assists. Also, Brian Pearis had seven assists and Randy Anderson six as GSC recorded a high team total of 29.

Fairmont 70, GSC 58

The WVC's perennial power, Fairmont, handed GSC a tough loss on Jan. 9 as the Falcons overcame a one-point Pioneer lead at half and gained a 70-58 victory.

Don Bullett and Scott Ludwig each scored 16 points for Glenville. Also, both Rich Moore, a freshman starter, and Clay Young added ten points apiece. Rebounding-wise, Young had nine boards. Randy Anderson led in assists with five.

GSC 81, West Liberty 65

After staying even with a physical West Liberty for a while, the Pioneers gained momentum and claimed a convincing 81-65 win at Glenville.

Scott Ludwig had yet another hot shooting night, hitting on 12 of 16 field goals on his way to a 27-point performance. Don Bullett added 18 and Rich Moore 12. Ludwig and Bullett each collected ten rebounds, Randy Anderson had six assists, and Moore had four steals.

GSC 61, Concord 59

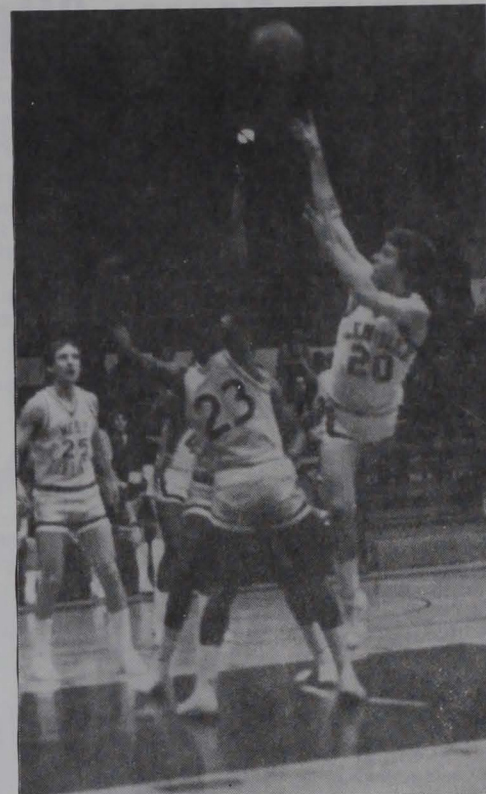

Scott Ludwig hit a jumper with three seconds left as GSC won, 61-59, for its second WVC win in a row. The Pioneers led, 33-29, at half.

Ludwig and Don Bullett put in 16 markers each for Glenville, and Clay Young added ten. Rich Moore had six rebounds and five assists.

Bluefield 86, GSC 74

Bluefield State shot a blistering 70 percent from the floor and capitalized on GSC turnovers for an 86-74 WVC win.

Don Bullett led GSC's effort with 23 points and 12 rebounds. Scott Ludwig added 17, Randy Anderson 12 (six of six from the floor), and Rich Moore ten.

Scott Ludwig attempts an off-balance shot against West Liberty.

Lady Pioneers Have 5-3 Record

After winning four games in a row, the GSC Lady Pioneers lost three straight games before winning another one. Right before the break, GSC lost a decision to WVU. This semester, the Lady Pioneers have lost games to New Mexico and Alderson-Broadus, while beating West Virginia Wesleyan. GSC is now 5-3.

New Mexico 74, GSC 29

The New Mexico Ladies completely manhandled GSC, forcing them into 19 percent shooting for the contest.

For GSC, Pam Minigh scored 12 points, the only player in twin figures. No other player scored more than four points.

Alderson-Broadus 81
GSC 69

A-B turned in an outstanding team effort to turn back the Lady Pioneers and hand them their first WVC loss on Jan. 15 at Glenville.

A-B held a slim, 39-35 margin at intermission. The Lady Battlers dominated in the second half though, and earned an 81-69 win.

For GSC, Sonja Bailey led with 16 points, three assists, and five steals.

Bunny Taylor added ten points and four assists, and Pam Minigh had ten markers.

GSC 106, Wesleyan 72

The Lady Pioneers put an excellent team effort together against the Bobcat women and emerged with their biggest win of the season. GSC used its quickness to a big advantage and recorded numerous steals for easy baskets. Wesleyan was totally confused the entire game.

With about two minutes remaining, Laura Dabney put GSC over the century mark for the first time this season.

Anyone interested in working on this year's edition of the Kanawhachen should contact Ms. Yvonne King, Room 3, Clark Hall, ext. 290, or Carron Smith, Room 208 Williams, ext. 258.

Any student interested in doing layout and design, photography, or writing copy is more than welcome on the staff.

From The Wesley Foundation

The Wesley Foundation has the "latch-key" always out to students, faculty, and staff. Come in for a cup of coffee or tea, a place to sit and read or study, a chance to pick up a game of ping-pong, a quiet place for a few moments of reflection.

Spring semester discussion groups will include A.) Biblical Issues--How is the Bible to be understood as a norm for the word of God? What part does the historical and cultural 'times' play in given biblical episodes? Where do we identify ourselves, personally and socially, in this chronicling of God's intervention within human kind? What are the issues for you?

B.) Meditative Prayer Techniques--An opportunity to explore the rich heritage of meditative prayer, its workings, and some practical, shared experience of its use.

Both groups will utilize a discussion format. The discussion groups will meet once weekly for six weeks, at a mutually decided time. Sign up sheets are located in the main room of the Wesley Foundation.

The Monday evening worship service/discussion will begin Jan. 18. ALL ARE WELCOME.

Information on the Coffee House will be available soon. The first Coffee House will be Feb. 4, beginning at 8:30 pm

The Foundation will be open Monday thru Friday from 9am thru 5pm and from 6:30 pm through 9pm. Please stop by and say hello.
