

Budget Cuts Have "Serious Impact" On GSC

According to President William Simmons, the 10 percent budget cuts proposed as of January 14, 1982, have taken a "serious impact" on Glenville State College's current budget. The budget cuts, accompanied by a spending freeze, have limited funds for the remainder of the 1981-82 fiscal year by $188,198.

According to Simmons, four accounts were considered following Governor Rockefeller's reduction to determine how GSC's budget was to be limited. A large slash was taken from the current expense account, totalling a cut of $25,000. This will limit the funds set aside for utilities, printing, and supplies.

A second account, that of Repairs and Alterations, received a slash of $16,000. This account covers such expenses as vehicle repairs for buses and state cars and alterations around campus.

A cut of $15,000 was taken from the Equipment account. This covers all educational and office equipment that need replaced, repaired, etc.

A reduction of $132,98 was taken from the Personal Services account dealing with the salaries of faculty and staff. Under this account, part-time and over-time salaries were reduced by $2,000; domestic services (concerning the upkeep of the college president's home) was reduced by $1,500, and a slash of $5,478 was taken from the Board of Regents and El-dorhostel budgets.

Also, from the Personal Services account, $26,415 was taken from part-time salaries of faculty teaching extension classes. Because of this reduction, all off-campus classes, except for some at Parkersburg Community College and in Summersville, have been cancelled. Simmons said this will have a definite serious impact on our off-campus enrollment.

From this account, there may possibly be a need for further reductions totaling around $38,000. Simmons sees no further threat to salaries or to the possibility of lay-offs or furloughs and said the possibility of these further reductions can only be determined later in the semester.

Summer School Offered For Second Term Only

Due to recent budget cuts, summer school will not be offered during the first term this year but will be planned for second term beginning July 1.

Because of the budget reductions that took effect January 14, the total budget for first term summer school was cut, thus limiting any possibility for first term classes. According to President Simmons, as new money is allotted to begin the new fiscal year on July 1, a second term will be offered.

Simmons said other colleges across the state limiting their first term include Bluefield, Concord, Fairmont, Shepherd, West Liberty and Southern Community. Those that will hold summer school the first term will not be operating on state funds, thus limiting what can be offered.

The outlook for the second term at GSC looks "promising" Simmons said and added, "Because a first term must be omitted, we will try our hardest to offer the most for our students that is possible during the second term."

Tucker Produces Special Art Mosaic

An advanced art class last summer at Glenville State has produced a masterpiece!

Mrs. Joyce Samples Tucker, a student of Charles C. Scott, who was assigned a paper mosaic as a project, chose Abraham Lincoln as her subject. Using bits of colored pages from an issue of U.S. News and World Report, she produced a striking likeness to the sixteenth president.

Marvin Stone, editor-in-chief of the magazine was Commencement speaker in 1981; therefore, President Simmons and Professor Scott consulted US News to explore their interest in the portrait. The result was that although they cannot use it as a cover Mr. Stone would like to have the portrait framed and hung in the executive offices. He has offered to pay for the privilege.

Mrs. Tucker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Samples of Prociuous, is presently living in West Palm Beach, Fla. where she studies portraiture. She holds a Bachelor degree in Fine Arts from the University of Florida and has taught for 11 years. She recently decided to become a freelance artist since she can work in any medium.

SC Nominations Due

Nominations for Student Congress officers are due to the Office of Student Affairs by 12:00 noon January 29. All students who are interested in the betterment of the GSC campus should seriously consider submitting their name.

Requirements for president, vice-president, and parliamentarian include an overall 2.5 average or higher, and full-time student rank at the time of their election.

Requirements for treasurer, secretary, and senator-at-large are to have a 2.0 or higher overall average and freshman status at the time of their election.

Forensics Team Starting Season

The Glenville State College Forensics team will begin the spring 1982 semester with the Ruth A. Wilcox Invitational Tournament at Marietta College on January 30-31. The team, under the supervision of Bobbi Nicholson, consists of Danny Bayer, Tim Brown, Jo Cooper, Fran Davis, Kim Evans, Randy Harper, Tammi Igo, Cara Keenan, Cheryl Keenan, Raeleen McMillion, Mark Norman, and Tim Webb.

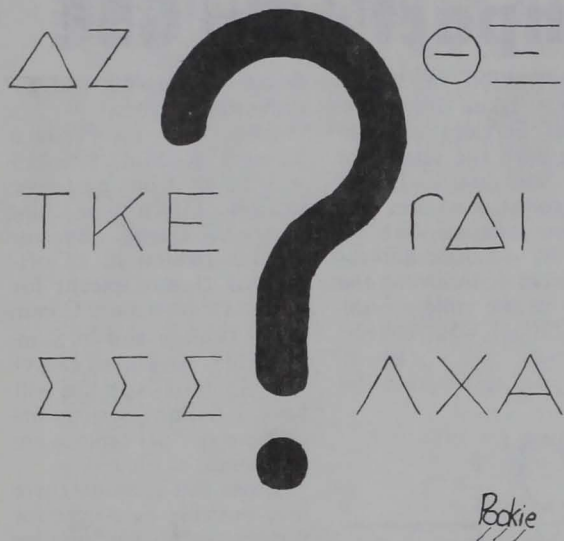

Each team member may compete in any two of the following events: prose, poetry, impromptu, persuasion, informative, or broadcasting. There will also be competition in reader's theatre which GSC team members will enter.

Despite the team's youth, Mrs. Nicholson feels that Glenville State College will be well represented as in the past. Last year, GSC finished second out of 26 teams in the individual events category.

Accompanying the team on the trip as judges will be Mrs. Bobbi Nicholson, Mrs. Linda McKown, and Mr. Joe Evans.

Group picture appointments are now being taken for the yearbook. Please call the Mercury office (ext. 290) and make your appointment.

Greek News

Is It Greek To You?

As the spring semester begins, the opportunity to become a sorority or fraternity member is offered to the freshman class. For the next month, invitations will be presented to many freshmen to attend Joint Rush, parties, smokers, and various other Greek activities.

At this point, many freshmen and upperclassmen who may not have experienced the Greek system will be faced with the decision of whether to look into these organizations or to remain a "GDI."

Perhaps everyone should give the Greek system a chance. Attend some of the parties or confront a Greek member about his or her organization. Nothing will be lost by doing so, and the experience itself, even if the final decision is to not become a member, will be worth the effort.

The Greeks have a lot to offer. Not only is there an opportunity to become involved in activities not otherwise offered to the general student body, but there is a friendship found in each organization - that special bond - that will last even long after our college years.

Not everyone is meant to be a Greek. Some students do not want to be distracted from their studies. Others simply do not like the group relationship. Ask a Greek member what they first thought when approached by a smiling student wearing a ΛΧΑ, ΤΚΕ, ΘΞ, ΔΖ, or ΣΣΣ on their shirts. Most of them will probably answer with a reason similar to these, but once they looked into the organizations a bit, their decision was turned around.

Experience the Greek system, even if it is simply by attending one party. One never knows, it could change your college years by offering an opportunity to become involved in GSC activities.

APPALACHIAN STUDIES MOURNED

It was to my utmost surprise to see a deletion in this year's catalogue of the Appalachian Studies program. Not only does that blow my minor but also my mind! Just when the rest of the world is coming to grips with the virtual necessity of the retainment and understanding of one's culture in order to advance to a wholesome, peaceful future, GSC decides to throw our heritage out the window.

Just when I had dreams of Glenville offering a Women's Studies Program or an African Studies Program (neither of which would take much but a little human interest on the part of faculty and administration), we get rid of the most self-actualizing course going--Appalachian Studies.

At any rate, I hope interest continues in those Appalachian Courses offered such as Oral History, Appalachian Literature, Appalachian Culture, and Heritage Crafts.

Who knows? Maybe Dean Samples has some master plan in the making for an even better, more comprehensive, well co-ordinated format and that's why the program has been "temporarily" removed from the catalogue??

Student Congress Wants You!

The 1982-83 Student Congress elections are quickly coming upon us. Now is the time when we should be considering just who we want to represent our views and opinions, as students. But even more importantly, each one of you should be considering the idea of becoming a Student Congress member or officer. If you are interested in the happenings of GSC and wish to become involved, here is your chance. Student Congress affords an excellent opportunity to better understand the inner workings of the college.

A position on Student Congress is not a job that requires endless hours of time but does call for a certain amount of work. The various officers' positions require specific types of work while those of the class representatives and Senators-at-Large stand as general members.

Think about it. Then turn your nomination into the Student Affairs office by noon on Friday. Everyone has a chance to be elected; I encourage you to take that chance. If you have any questions concerning Student Congress, please feel free to contact me. I will be happy to help you in any way that I can.

See your name on the ballot!

Sincerely,
Dena Jo Dunlap
Student Congress President

White Accepted As Legislative Intern

Patty White has been accepted to do internship with the legislature in Charleston, W. Va. this semester.

GSC has participated in the Legislative Fellows Program for two years, and both years one of our students has been accepted in the spring semester.

In 1981, Rebecca Gilchrist, from Wood County, was selected as one of five interns in statewide competition. In the Spring 1982, Patty White, daughter of Mr. John White, who teaches math here at GSC, was selected as one of ten students to participate in the program.

The Legislature Fellows Program is an internship sponsored by the West Virginia Legislature for full-time undergraduate students of all majors. The Program provides an opportunity for a limited number of students to participate in a 16 week assignment with the Legislature, beginning in January. Fellows will receive $150.00 weekly and earn academic credit.

The purpose and goal of the Fellows Program is to instruct selected students in the theory and operations of legislatures and legislative bodies in their roles. Through the work assignments, students will have a unique opportunity to study in-depth the operation, role, and functions of legislative bodies.

To apply for this honor, one has to pass these requirements: Have 60 completed undergraduate hours, have achieved a grade point average sufficient for admission to your degree program, have completed a course in political science or have had extensive public affairs experience which may substitute, and will be in good social and academic standing during the period in which you would be serving the internship.

For successful completion students are awarded 12 hours of academic credit.

From The Wesley Foundation

The Wesley Foundation reminds everyone that the Discussion Groups will begin next week. There is still time to sign up for Biblical Issues or Meditative Prayer. Anyone interested will find sign up sheets on the main floor of the Wesley Foundation.

The weekly Monday evening informal worship service, will begin at 7:30. These services last approximately one hour and feature guest speakers from regional churches.

For the students that stay in Glenville on weekends, please make every effort to choose a church family locally. The Wesley Foundation was never intended to be a local church. A local church family can share warmth, concern, and daily witness in its concern for its members. You are urged to make every effort to avail yourself of such possibilities.

Pioneer Women Win Three In A Row

Three straight wins last week gave the GSC Lady Pioneer Basketball Team a 7-3 Record for the season.

GSC beat West Virginia Wesleyan and Salem by big margins and edged Alderson Broaddus in a close game.

GSC 106, Wesleyan 72

The Lady Pioneers were in fine form against the Lady Bobcats. In breaking the 100-point barrier, GSC claimed a 106-72 win.

Sonja Bailey had an excellent game to lead GSC. She scored a game-high 19 points, and recorded eight steals and seven assists.

Five other GSC women hit double figures. Bunny Taylor had 14 points and five steals. Judy Niday scored 12 points. Kim Maynard had 11 and a total of 17 rebounds. Also, Pam Linger and Paula Bush put in 11 points each.

GSC didn't have a good shooting night, connecting on only 41.2 percent of its field goals and 50 percent of its foul shots.

GSC 81, Salem 42

Leading 41-26 at half, the Lady Pioneers were victorious by a final margin of 81-42 over Salem.

GSC was paced by Maria Lothes' 14 points. Pam Linger added 11 points and six rebounds, and Pam Minigh scored ten points. Bunny Taylor handed out 12 assists.

The Lady Pioneers shot 52 percent from the field, compared to Salem's 35 percent. GSC led in rebounds, 49-35.

GSC 76, A-B 72

GSC avenged an earlier 81-69 loss to the A-B women by edging them, 76-72, at Phillipi.

A-B held a slim, 34-33 lead at half after erasing a six-point Glenville lead. The Lady Pioneers rallied though, and outscored the Lady Battlers 43-38 for a hard-earned 76-72 win.

Pam Minigh came out of a long shooting slump to hit 11 of 18 field goals on her way to a 23-point night. Minigh was nationally-ranked in foul shooting last week.

Also for GSC, Sonja Bailey had 17 points and five assists. Pam Linger had 15 points, 17 rebounds, and four assists. Bunny Taylor had eight rebounds and eight assists and Maria Lothes and Kim Maynard had ten rebounds each.

The Lady Pioneers are now 7-3. On Monday, 25, GSC was to face Muskingum, Ohio. Today (Wednesday, Jan. 27) they will play Bluefield at home in a make-up game. Finally, on Thursday, Jan. 28, they will host West Virginia State at home.

Coach Tim Carney, remarked, "We are playing well now. Probably our best game this season was the second A-B game. Everything is coming together."

Bowlers Compete

The GSC Bowling team participated in the first competition of the MSIBC Bowling conference last weekend, finishing with a 2-3 record.

Glenville began the two-day tournament by losing to Marshall University, then to James Madison University. The Pioneer Keglers finished the first day of action by defeating Concord.

In the second day's shifts, GSC fell to Eastern Kentucky University before beating Morehead State for a final mark of 2-3.

Dave Lamm had GSC's highest average with 176. John Waldeck was at 174, Keith Hite 172, John Thompson 161, Jeff Stanley 159, and Jerry Kurjian 155.

GSC will compete in another two-day match this weekend. They will bowl in Huntington at Ted and Ed's Pro Bowl.

Don Bullett shoots for two points in the game against West Virginia Wesleyan.

GSC Men Split With Conference Foes

In two games last week, the Glenville Pioneer men's basketball team won one game and lost one. The 1-1 week put GSC at 7-8 overall and 4-6 in the West Virginia Conference.

The Pioneer's two opponents were West Virginia Wesleyan and Alderson-Broaddus.

GSC 71, Wesleyan 63

After a 33-33 tie at intermission, GSC fought a Wesleyan press and a big rebounding deficit for a 38-30 advantage and a 71-63 victory.

Don Bullett and Scott Ludwig combined for 46 points to lead Glenville. Bullett had 24 points, and Ludwig had 22 points and a team-high nine rebounds. Also in double figures for the Pioneers was Randy Anderson with ten markers. He also had four assists.

Team-wise, GSC had a big shooting advantage. The Pioneers shot 59 percent from the floor and 90 percent from the foul line, compared to 43 and 42 percent, respectively for the Bobcats. Wesleyan held a 41-24 rebounding edge.

A-B 100, GSC 85

The Alderson-Broaddus Battlers used their run-and-gun game to defeat GSC in another WVC outing.

GSC managed a 42-42 tie late in the first half, but A-B tallied ten straight points to take a 52-42 lead at half. The Pioneers fought back to within four points with about eight minutes to go but could get no closer. A-B used its explosive attack to put the game out of reach.

Don Bullett poured in 31 points to pace Glenville's effort. Scott Ludwig, who went in the game as the WVC's top field goal shooter, had an off night but still got 17 points. Clay Young added 15 points.

GSC was to face Shepherd on Monday, Jan. 25 in an away game. A home game with West Virginia State is scheduled for Thursday, Jan. 28. On Saturday, Jan. 30, the Pioneers will play at Davis and Elkins.

Men's intramural swimming will be held at the pool on Wed., Jan. 27 from 7-9 p.m. Events include freestyle, backstroke, underwater for distance, butterfly, elementary backstroke, freestyle relay, butterfly relay, and backstroke relay.

The Women's game with Bluefield is at 6 p.m., not 7 p.m. today.

A Physical Education Club meeting will be held on Tuesday, Feb. 2 from 4:30-5:00 pm in room 209 of the Health Building. All PE and Sports Management majors are welcome. Interested persons should contact Mr. Hunt for information.

Pianists To Perform

Mildred and Gerald Snyder, duo pianists, will be in concert on Monday, February 1, 1982 in the auditorium. They will be performing at 8:00 pm, free to the public. The agenda for the performance includes works of Clement, Gershwin, and Rachmaninoff.

Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are graduates of the Cleveland Institute of Music where they studied under Beryl Rubenstein. After graduation, they joined the piano faculty there and remained in Cleveland five years, each giving solo concerts in recital, radio and television.

After becoming a duo in 1958, they performed the Mozart E Flat Concerto and the Poulenc D Minor Concerto. They have appeared at the Brevard, North Carolina Music Festival of Contemporary Music held by Dr. Fabien Sevitsky at the University of Miami. In addition to their performances and private teaching, the Snyders were faculty members in the Music Department of Broward Community College and Florida Atlantic University.

Mildred and Gerald Snyder's concert is assisted with a grant from the West Virginia Arts and Humanities.
