MD Week Scheduled

Muscular Dystrophy Week has been scheduled this year for March 13-20. We hope that all organizations, students and faculty will show support by not planning any events during this time so that you can participate in muscular dystrophy week, especially in the Super Dance.

A new event that has been planned to raise funds for Muscular Dystrophy this year is a film with shots that represent life at GSC. This film will be shown during MD Week for a small admission fee. This film will be possible because of the time and effort of Don Phillips and Tom Hamilton at the media center and Mark Norman and Brad Riffle who will be going through the campus using their creativity to film representative details at GSC.

The campus can support this trial event in several ways. First, because it is impossible for us to know all that is happening on campus, we would appreciate your help in informing us of any of your upcoming events that might represent life at GSC. Our camera men will use their discretion to decide if the event is appropriate and representative.

The second way in which you can support this event is by being yourself. Put away your camera-shy attitude and make this a movie that you will enjoy.

You can also help this film be a success by "spreading the word," and by coming to view the film during Muscular Dystrophy Week.

Over Thanksgiving break the dorms will be closed. They will close on Friday, Nov. 19 at 5 p.m. and will re-open on Sunday, November 28 at 12:00 noon, according to A.T. Billips, Dean of Student Affairs.

The last meal served in the cafeteria Friday the 19th will be lunch; dinner will be the first meal served Sunday the 28th.

Students are urged to lock their doors as they leave; the College is not responsible for anything stolen.

Regents Approve Revision

Recently the administrative structure of Glenville State College has undergone a few changes. These changes become effective January 1, 1983. President Simmons has announced the Board of Regents' approved the reorganization at the October meeting.

The new administration will consist of three vice-presidents, who will report directly to President Simmons. These vice-presidents are Vice-President of Academic Affairs - Dr. Lowell J. Peterson; Vice-President of Administration - Mr. Robert Gainer; and Vice-President Student Services - Dr. A. T. Billips.

A shift in academic affairs has replaced student financial aid, food service, the Pioneer Center and the Bookstore under the supervision of student service.

Along with the reorganization comes a shift in personnel. Dr. Pam Brown, the director of the Parkersburg Center for GSC, will return to the Glenville campus and become the Dean of Teacher Education.

Mr. Bill Roberts, Associate Professor of Social Work, will take over the reins in Parkersburg. Dr. Brown and Mr. Roberts will report to the Vice-President of Academic Affairs in their position, effective January 1, 1983.

Golden Wins Contest

On November 1, 2 and 3 from 11-2, students voted by penny-votes for either Lisa Huffman, sponsored by the Sigma Sigma Sigma Sorority; Nila Golden, sponsored by the Delta Zeta Sorority; Eddie Mazella, sponsored by the TKEs or Leisa Samples, sponsored by Order of Diana to be Baby Beautiful for 1982. The contest was sponsored by the Delta Zeta Sorority pledges, which are Shelley Morris, Karen Scott, and Carolyn Hannaman.

All of the penny-votes were counted up, and the baby was chosen. This year's baby beautiful is Nila Golden. Nila is the daughter of Mrs. Barbara Lee Golden, Nila is from Charmco, W. Va., and she is attending Glenville State College as a sophomore majoring in art. Nila is a member of the Delta Zeta Sorority and she was sponsored by them.

Nila won the contest by receiving the most penny-votes over a period of three days. The total amount of money made from the contest according to Delta Zeta pledge Shelley Morris was around $66. Congratulations goes to Nila for being chosen as the Baby Beautiful for 1982.

Nila Golden was chosen the 1982 Baby Beautiful. She was sponsored by the Delta Zeta Sorority.

Telephone repairman (Joe Stephens) just climbed six flights of stairs to install Corie Bratter's telephone.

Is Your Attitude Showing?

They come to class dressed in faded, patched jeans, a stained sweatshirt and dirty tennis shoes. They will come to class the next day dressed well enough to be listed in the Top Ten Dressed Women's listings. Teachers may often wonder what is wrong with these students. Others, who are in the same situations, know. They are in a bad mood. This can be caused by an overload of classwork, problems at home or illness. The worst dressed people will have all three of these problems.

Some signs of moods are as follows: a sweater tied about the neck signifies a nonchalant attitude, with the person wanting to be trendy. Jeans (usually designer), a frilly blouse and high heels are meant to be foxy; the chick wants to be chic. A guy with cords on and an Oxford shirt wishes to be preppie. (This depends on whether or not the guy has on cowboy boots. If he has on boots he would be "macho"). They are prepared for the world and feel fantastic. This contrasts sharply with the man, who, when he feels fantastic wears cut-off sweats, a holey tee-shirt, and high-top tennis shoes, which are never tied.

The clothing may not exactly make the man or women, but it certainly makes the attitude. A student may not ever say anything about his personal attitude, but just analyzing a person's clothing will tell many, many things about likes, dislikes and character. Who knows, maybe someone will analyze the attire of a Valley Girl. It should come out like this: "Totally gnarly" (like 'wow').

Cat Week Celebrated

This week is not just another blah time - its National Cat Week! Why cats, you ask? Well, cats are loveable, furry, and besides, all other pets have weeks given to them. You see, cats come in many sizes and shapes. There are tabby cats, alley cats, Siamese cats, calico cats and Garfield. You can have the pick of the litter.

For those of you who don't like cats, give 'em a break this week. I mean, really now - what has a cat ever done to you? Remember, cats have the right to be recognized too! Have you hugged your cat today?

Art Dept. Receives Volumes

The Art Department here at GSC has been presented with 26 art books, including Section II and Section V of famous artists.

Mrs. Antoinette K. Gainer donated these books that the art department otherwise would have not been able to buy.

Mrs. Gainer was born in Radom, Poland. She retired from working and continued to study painting. Her husband, Dr. Patrick Gainer, retired from teaching at WVU in 1972. He was noted Appalachian Folklore Collector and built their retirement home in Tanner, W. Va. where he had grown up.

There are nine gift volumes available in our library.

Losing Topic of Clinic

Have you tried losing weight by exercising or just cutting down on your calories? If so, you may find that you don't lose all the weight that you want and you may turn to diet pills to help you get rid of those unwanted pounds. This week the Kyle Clinic has given us some facts about diet pills.

Diet pills are medicine which you buy without a prescription, also known as over-the-counter drugs (OTC). Diet pills work in two ways to help us lose weight. One way is that they decrease or suppress the appetite and the second way is that diet pills increase the metabolism.

Diet pills sound safe and easy to use, but it is not like that. According to the Kyle Clinic, unless diet pills are used wisely, they are dangerous or even deadly. Some of the side effects that diet pills cause are dizziness, headaches, thirst, and fatigue.

In addition, people tend to not only under eat, but they usually don't even meet the basic requirements for nutrition, calories, and fluid intake. As a result, one's body chemistry is totally disrupted. Some problems that can occur are ketoacidosis, anemia, infection, and irregularity of the heart beat. Also, research has shown that most people gain an average of ten extra pounds once they stop taking diet pills. So in effect, they add to the weight problem.

However, there is a safe way to use diet pills as a part of a sensible weight loss program. One should consult with a health professional before beginning any weight loss program. This counseling is available at the Kyle Clinic for individuals on Tuesdays and Thursdays, by appointment or for groups in the evening by special arrangement.

Snyders To Perform Piano Duo

Mildred and Gerald Snyder, duo-pianists, will present a concert at 8 p.m., Tuesday evening, November 16, in the Glenville State College Auditorium. The concert is free and open to the public.

Residents of Spencer, West Virginia, the Snyders are graduates of the Cleveland Institute of Music where they studied under Beryl Rubenstein, a pupil of the great Buxton, and Arthur Loesser. Following graduation, the Snyders joined the piano faculty at Cleveland where they remained for five years, each giving solo concerts in recital, radio and television.

In 1955, the Snyders became a piano duo and embarked on the project of mastering the entire two-piano literature. Their debut as duo-pianists was in 1958 with the Fort Lauderdale Symphony Orchestra under Vasilios Priakos. Since then, they have performed numerous recitals and appeared with countless orchestras and conductors throughout the United States.

Study Prints Available in Media Center

The next two, SP 239 and 240, "Black America" and "The Black American Struggle for Equal Rights" give the history of the Black American in the United States and the struggle for freedom and equal rights.

Study print 241 is entitled "Mainland China - Today." Its contents include a section involved with general information about China. It also focuses on industry, agriculture, and transportation; also, there are two sections on daily life and culture.

Next, Study Print 242, "Living Together in America" compares and contrasts the many diverse peoples who inhabit the Americas. It contains twenty teaching pictures.

Study Prints 243 and 244 are entitled "Spanish American - Yesterday and Today," respectively. The

The latter, "American Indians," contains a section on the coming of the Whites; it discusses numerous Indian groups, including the Cherokee, Seminole, Apache, and Navajo. In addition, there is a section on Indian legends, music, and art.

Glenville State Runners Win Second Straight Title

keenan's korner

Little recognition goes to any team except football and men's basketball on this campus, which very seldom or ever receive state honors. However, one team has been bestowed with state honors, not once but twice in its first five years of existence. GSC's cross country team has won the West Virginia Conference Championship in 1980-81 and 1981-82. By winning the state title, they receive the honor of representing West Virginia at the NAIA Cross Country Championship in Kenosha, Wisconsin.

What's so great about cross country? Nothing, if you like running 15 miles a day, everyday, no matter what type of weather God bestows on us.

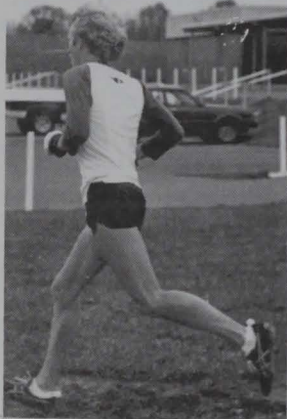

Self-discipline is a way of life for Glenville's eight harriers. Larry Taylor proved this by taking first place in the conference and leading the Pioneers to a well-deserved victory. Bill Belcher also received individual honors by placing in the top five, while Ed Iseli and Steve Keenan placed in the top ten.

Other members of the team include Chris Keister, Pat Godfrey, Mark Price and Steve Roberts, under the able guidance of Coach Jim Hilgenberg.

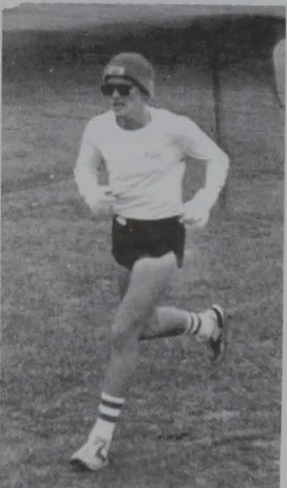

Just to clear up a question about scoring, only the finishing places of the first five runners for each team are counted. The finishing place number for each of the top five is added together to compute a final score. In this sport, the lowest score wins.

The Blue Flex, as the team is known to its few fans and followers, has established a winning reputation among state schools which commands respect from the members of other teams, from state sportswriters, and from running enthusiasts all over the state. So, how about it, GSC . . . how about a few cheers for the West Virginia Conference Cross Country champions?!!!!

The Glenville State College cross country team successfully defended its West Virginia Conference title on Friday, November 5 at Oak Hill. Under the direction of Coach Jim Hilgenberg and led by junior runner, Larry Taylor, the GSC team defeated six other WVC teams to capture the conference crown for the second consecutive year.

Taylor, who won the meet, completed the hilly, five-mile course in a time of 27:17. Second runner for GSC was senior Billy Belcher, who finished fifth overall in a time of 28:28. Two other GSC runners finished in the top ten. Freshman Ed Iseli was sixth in a time of 28:37 and junior Steve Keenan was 10th with a time of 29:19. Junior Chris Keister completed the scoring for Glenville, as he finished 13th with a 29:45 time. Also finishing for Glenville were senior Pat Godfrey, at 18th, and junior Mark

Price, at 31st, with times of 30:20 and 32:00, respectively.

Glenville's total scoring effort was a low 35 points, followed by Fairmont with 45, West Virginia State - 101, Davis and Elkins - 108, West Virginia Tech - 136, West Virginia Wesleyan - 141, and West Liberty - 152.

Both Taylor and Belcher received All-Conference honors for finishing in the top five overall.

Coach Hilgenberg was pleased with the team's efforts. He commented, "I've never seen our college team run as well as they did this year. We approached the conference meet in a very professional manner. We knew what we had to do and we did it. It was a totally pleasant experience and a great team effort."

The team, which finished 21-3 in the WVC, will compete in the National Cross Country Meet at Kenosha, Wisconsin on November 20.

Junior Larry Taylor is shown accepting his all-conference plaque, his third in as many years at GSC. He has been "Runner of the Year" twice.

Billy Belcher, senior captain of the victorious Pioneers, receives his all-conference plaque from Bob Brown, meet director.

Cagers To Play In Tournament

A tournament in Pennsylvania next weekend will be the first action of the 1982-83 season for the GSC men's basketball team. Coach Jesse Lilly's squad will play in the Muhlenberg (Pa.) Tip-Off Tournament on Nov. 19-20.

Seniors Randy Anderson and Scott Ludwig, the squad's two captains, head the list of returning starters. Other starters returning are junior Clay Young and sophomore Rich Moore. The other returning letterman is sophomore Bob Bolen.

Five freshmen round out the squad. Kenny Taylor, the fifth starter, Deon Lanier, Steve Linville, Trent King and Steve Morris are the freshmen.

GSC will face Kutztown (Pa.) in the tourney opener at Allentown, while Muhlenberg and Alfred (N.Y.) will play in the other contest. The winners will square off Saturday.

Lilly remarked about his team so far, "We can see progress since the Chinese game. In practice, we've worked mostly on our defense but we are also getting used to our offense." He also noted that the team needed the tourney competition to see where it really stands against other teams.

Netters Complete Season

The Glenville State College women's volleyball team finished its season last Friday by participating in the WVIAC women's volleyball championships at Philippi.

Coach Kay Chico's squad placed third out of the four teams in its pool on the first day of action. The finish was not good enough to qualify the Lady Pioneers for the finals, which were won by Alderson-Broadus.

During the course of the tournament, GSC played West Liberty, Alderson-Broadus and Fairmont. The ladies lost to West Liberty, 9-15 and 4-15, and to A-B, 11-14 and 5-15. GSC defeated Fairmont, 15-0 and 15-6.

No individual scores for Glenville were available at presstime. Further details and comments from Coach Chico will appear in a future issue of the Mercury.

During the WVC tourney, both the all-tournament team and the all-conference team were announced, and Glenville senior Pam Minigh was a member of both teams.

Chico was happy with Pam's selection to the honor teams. She remarked, "To my knowledge, Pam is the first girl ever at GSC to make the all-conference team."

Throughout the season, Minigh, also a basketball standout, was GSC's top scorer and most consistent performer.

Pam Minigh, a senior, was a valuable part of the women's volleyball team this season. She was named to the all-tournament and all-conference teams.

Watch next week's Mercury for complete statistics and a rundown of the 1982 football season.

Tourneys Slated

Various tournaments will be played in the Pioneer Center with the winners advancing to regional tournaments at West Virginia University's Mountainlair.

All expenses are paid on the trip to the Mountainlair, but a $1.00 entry fee is required in order to compete. The various tournaments will be in the games of billiards, backgammon, chess, table tennis, foosball, and darts.

The Billiards tournament will be held November 16, in the Pioneer Center Room at 8 pm. Backgammon will be in the Pioneer Center Verona Mapel Room at 7:30 pm on December 2, 1982. December 9 will be the date of the Chess tournament in the Verona Mapel Room. Table Tennis will be on January 13, 1983 in the Game Room at 8 pm. The Darts and Foosball tournament will be announced at a later date, and the Bowling representatives that will be going have already been selected.

GSC Players Honored

For their efforts in the GSC Pioneers' heartbreaking loss to Fairmont State last week, two Glenville players swept West Virginia Conference player of the week honors.

Junior Terry Kendall, a linebacker, was picked as the WVC defensive player of the week, and sophomore Byron Brooks, a tailback, earned honors as offensive player of the week.

Kendall, one of the WVC's leaders in defensive efficiency, recorded seven tackles, 11 assists and one quarterback sack against Fairmont.

Brooks, currently the second leading rusher in the nation and the WVC's top scorer, gained 153 yards and scored two touchdowns on 23 carries against Fairmont.

The Co-Op store, run and managed by the Marketing 478 class and under the direction of Mrs. Cinda Echard, has new store hours.

Monday and Wednesday the store is opened from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and on Tuesday and Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Come in and shop Co-Op.

Brooks Gains National Acclaim

It has been several years since an athlete at Glenville State College has gained as much attention and recognition as sophomore tailback Byron Brooks. Brooks is currently ranked first in the West Virginia Conference and second in the National Athletic Intercollegiate Association in individual total offense averaging 143.1 yard a game.

Born in Cleveland, Ohio, he moved to Jeanette, Pennsylvania with his grandmother when he was eight years old. His grandmother put him in a midget football league where he was Most Valuable Player in his league at tailback position.

Brooks passes most of his success to the fine job his offensive line did during the season. The line was one of the smallest in the conference, but he feels that seniors Larry Great-house, Henry Lanham, and Steve Williams played their best seasons while at Glenville. He also wishes to give thanks for the support that the band and the student body gave him, but he hopes more people will get involved with the athletic programs.

His most appreciative thanks go to God and his family. Through the guidance of his church and grandmother, he has become what he is. His greatest inspiration has been his grandmother, who watched every one of his football games from midget league up to his senior year in high school. With his grandmother being his only parent, he considers Head Coach Frank Vincent the man who plays the father role in his life. Coach Vincent has helped him become a better runner, and he also helps him in time of need.

After gaining 1431 yards while only a sophomore, what is his goal for next season? "I will spend this spring and summer working on my blocking, receiving and strength, which I feel are my weakest points," replied Brooks.

Pioneers Finish With Loss

The GSC football team suffered another close loss to a nationally-ranked foe last Saturday to end its season with a 3-6-1 record. Concord College used a field goal with 15 seconds left to edge GSC, 17-14, for another heartbreaking loss for the Pioneers.

Glenville surged to a 14-0 lead in the first period, but the 16th-ranked Mountain Lions came back with seven points in the second stanza and ten in the final frame.

Joe Mullan, on a one-yard pass from Jeff Metheny, and Mark Hash, with a 79-yard interception return, scored GSC's touchdowns.

For the Pioneers' offense, sophomore Byron Brooks gained 124 yards on 30 carries. He pushed his final rushing total to 1,418 yards, a school record.

Passing-wise, Jeff Metheny was 8-19 for 94 yards and one score. Steve Williams caught six of the passes for 79 stripes.

Concord had a 246-228 edge in total yardage.

Jerry Metheny paced GSC's defense. He had five tackles, 11 assists, a blocked pass and an interception. Terry Kendall added six tackles, nine assists and a blocked pass.

Also, Scott Taylor had an interception and Andy Marchal, Dave Darst and Fred Parsons recorded quarterback sacks.

The Pioneers finished 3-6-1 overall and 2-5-1 in WVC. Many of those losses were by close margins.

'How Have Electronic Games Affected Your Studies?

As the evening slowly became night, and darkness was overcoming Glenville State College, the game room was inhabited by the noisy participants engaged in a continual struggle between mind and mechanical wizardry.

Hesitantly she began the game, soon finding herself enveloped in an impregnable maze. Suddenly she found herself surrounded by the monstrous forms. Switching into a defensive position she was backed into a corner and the horrid end was upon her.

Losing control, she violently grasped the life source of the famous PAC-MAN machine, draining all of the electrical power, the life giving source, making it lifeless.

As the video-craze pulls more and more innocent bystanders to their ranks, it seems that only a few are surviving: grade wise, time wise, and money wise. In a poll taken by Mercury reporters, students tell how electronic games have become a part of their lives.

Tom Bever, freshman - "I only play video games when I have time and money to burn."

Dale West, freshman - "I play because the school gives free coupons."

Rodney Abrams, sophomore, "To beat it to submission because it drains me financially."

Steve Grosse, freshman - "I play when I have some spare change and don't want to study."

John Preston, freshman - "Don't worry about it."

Rocky Metheny, sophomore - "I play to release my frustrations on the machine."

Phil Minigh - "Has not affected my grades - spend

$5 a week, an hour and a half - play to relax, blow off steam."

Dan DePugh - "Does not affect my grades - the amount I spend varies - 5-6 hours a week of time - I enjoy the challenge."

Cindy Hart - "Does not affect my grades. I spend $10 a month - 1 1/2 hours. I play for fun."

Juanita Couture - "Does not affect my grades and I play for fun."

Annetta Haddox - "Spend $1 a week - couple of hours. Has not affected my grades. I play to take out frustrations."

Shelley Tharpe - "$2 a week for 4 hours. Does not affect my grades - play for competition and fun."

Dave Spurlock - "I wouldn't waste my money on them, because I never have any."

Shawn Steele - "What a waste."

Jim Weathersbee - "It costs money, but it builds eye-hand coordination; as for my schoolwork, if Pac-Man were on my tests, I'd get much better grades."

Randy Knoll - "When I have the money, that's what I spend it on, but I never have enough money for it to affect my grades."

Scott McElwee - "My roommate, Jim Weathersbee, owns a pinball machine, so it takes up a lot of my time, but not a lot of money."

Nada Strother - "I've never played any games, so it really doesn't affect me."

Trent King - "I don't have the time or money to play video games. I'm too busy."

Patty Woofert - "I've played them and they don't affect my grades."

Wendy Healy - "They don't affect me."

Jill Burkhammer - "They don't affect me because I'm too cheap to play them."

George Stansberry, Jr. - "Yes, I play. Spend $3 a week. Play for 20 min. hasn't hurt my grades."

Jo Cooper, Sr. - "Yes, I play. I spend 2-3 dollars a week and play for 1 hour. Hasn't hurt my grades."

Robert Colebank, sophomore - "Yes, I play - spend $3, one hour a week, hasn't hurt my grades."

Kevin Wall, freshman - "Yes, I play - spend $7 and play for 8 hours per week. It has hurt my grades; I spend more time on games than studying."

Marlene Lewis, senior - "Play some - .25 - 10 min a week. It hasn't hurt my grades."

Janice Boggs, sophomore - "Yes, I play. Spend .25 for 10 minutes every two weeks. It hasn't hurt my grades."

The yearbook staff will hold a regular meeting November 10 at 6 pm in the Mercury Office.

Student Union Enjoys ACU-I Membership

In case you have taken notice of all the tournaments that have been coming up at the Pioneer Center and which will be coming up and have wondered what ACU-I or the Association of College Unions-International was, the following should explain exactly what the ACU-I is and what functions it performs.

The Association of College Unions-International, of which the GSC Pioneer Center is a member, was founded in 1914 and is one of the oldest inter-collegiate educational organizations. Its purpose is to provide an opportunity for unions to join in studying and improving their organizations, services, programs, facilities and personnel, and to assist in the development of new college unions.

The Association membership is more than 950 universities, colleges, and junior colleges in the U.S., Canada, Great Britain, Australia, Hong Kong, New Zealand, and Japan. Any college or university union which presents a general program for the cultural and recreational life of the campus, or which is planning a campus community center whether it be known as a Union, House, Hall, Center or by other names - is eligible for membership. It is not necessary to have a union building to belong to the Association.
