

The Glenville Mercury

Number 13

Glenville State College, Glenville, West Virginia

Wednesday, November 17, 1982

Mercury History Reviewed

On November 25, 1929 the first issue of the Glenville Mercury appeared on the Glenville State College campus. Miss Carmen Rinehart Moss of Harman, alumnus of Glenville, won a year's subscription as a prize offered by the new publication for a name. She suggested only Mercury, but "Glenville" was added to avoid confusion with other Mercuries.

Some other names suggested were Pioneer Post, Mountain Sun, General Remark, Glenville Galaxy, The Weekly Wash-out, The Damburst, and Sympathetic Insight Into Contemporary Student Life. The last three entries were not considered too seriously. A sub-title, "News out of the Normal," was suggested. "Normal" referring to the school's former name.

The Mercury was first published at the offices of the Glenville Democrat and was delivered to subscribers every Monday of the school year for fifty cents. In its first publication year the Mercury acquired a deficit of $300. The completion of the second year (1930-31) brought a deficit with it of $100.

In 1931-32, the Mercury began a policy of publishing twice monthly, which remained in effect until 1935. In 1967 the paper was again published weekly and has continued on that schedule since.

One member of the Mercury staff of the thirties achieved a rather distinct honor. Earl MacDonald, sports editor of the 1939 Mercury, was elected president of the West Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association.

Subscription price of the newspaper has varied somewhat throughout the years. In its first year of publication the price was 50 cents; in 1930-31, 75 cents; from 1931-1943 it was 50 cents; it was then increased to $1.00. Again in 1944-45 the price was 50 cents; in 1946-47 it was raised to $1.00, and remained so until 1950-51 when the price was $1.50. The price, just like in the present Mercury, was included in the payment of tuition.

Betty Wells, Editor, looks over past Mercurys to see changes as the Mercury celebrates its 53rd birthday.

Department Offers Processing Class

Work Processing is a way to transform ideas into written communications quickly and accurately through the use of automated equipment with skilled people operating it using revised office procedures.

There are two classes in Work Processing offered on the GSC campus. Word Processing I is a regular text-book course and Word Processing II is a "Hands-on" course where students learn how to operate the equipment we have.

"The course is invaluable," said Mrs. Gillespie, an instructor in the Division of Business. "This course may give you the edge that you need for that job. As the economy is now, any edge you can have is worth pursuing."

There are three career paths in Word Processing: Correspondance Secretary who does typing, filing, shorthand and utilizes the Word Processing equipment;

Administrative Secretary which is a non-typing position that will use the Word Processing machine; and, Management because for the first time by utilizing the WP equipment

(Continued on p. 4)

(Continued on p. 4)

83 TO RECEIVE DEGREES

December Graduates Listed

J. Lowell Peterson, Dean of Academic Affairs, has released the list of prospective graduates for December 21, 1982. Those eighty-three Glenville State College students who are nearing completion of their degrees are as follows:

Bachelor of Arts in Education: Debra Robinson Adams, Elementary Early Education Endorsement N-K-6; Language Art 4-8; Ann Frances Bailey, Elementary 1-6, Specific Learning Disabilities K-12; Robbin Christine Barr, Art 7-12, Language Arts 7-9; Tamra Jean Burkhammer, Elementary 1-6, Specific Learning Disabilities K-12, Physical Education 4-8; Debra K. Butcher, Elementary/Early Education Endorsement, N-K-6, Mathematics 4-8; Judith R. Carson, Elementary 1-6, Language Arts 4-8; Patricia Ann Chapman, Elementary 1-6, Language Arts 4-8; Donita Rae Cox, Art 7-12, Physical Education K-12; Carla Diana Dugar, Elementary 1-6; Jacqueline J. Gum, Elementary/Early Education Endorsement N-K-6, Frederick H. Hannah Physical Education K-12, Safety Education 7-12; Sam Lee Hartman, Physical Education K-12, Safety Education 7-12; Donna Jean Haveron, Physical Education K-12, Safety Education 7-12; Martha Kay James, Art Comprehensive K-12; John David Kocher, Physical Education K-12, Safety Education 7-12; Pamela Sheppard Leggett, Elementary 1-6, Mental Retardation K-12, Specific Learning Disabilities K-12; Cindy L. Carder

McCallister, Elementary/Early Education Endorsement N-K-6; Deborah Lynn McClain, Elementary/Early Education Endorsement N-K-6; Brenda Jo Metz, Elementary/Early Education Endorsement N-K-6; Ann Lynn Minnich, Elementary/Early Education Endorsement N-K-6; Terry Lee Mullen, Physical Education K-12, Safety Education 7-12; Ricky Francis Murray, Elementary 1-6, Mental Retardation K-12, Specific Learning Disabilities K-12; Vera Lyn Nowery, Elementary 1-6; Larry Brent Reed, English 7-12, Social Studies 7-9; Lurene Annette Scott, Biological Science 7-12, Art 7-12; Alberta M. Shindlecker, Elementary 1-6; Gary A. Sigman, Jr., Business Principles 7-12, Physical Education 7-12; Ridglae VanDall Stephens, Elementary 1-6; Florence Irene Tenney, Elementary Early Education Endorsement N-K-6; Tracey Lynn Tuell, Elementary 1-6, Language Arts 4-8; Jeanine Lynn Weese, Art Comprehensive K-12; Joseph Michael Westfall, Elementary 1-6, Mathematics 4-8; Victor G. Whitt, Biological Science 7-12, Physical Education K-12; Rebecca Jane Wilson, Social Studies Comprehensive 7-12, Mathematics 7-9; Joyce Dee Wright, Elementary/Early Education Endorsement N-K-6.

Bachelor of Arts: Patrick Brian Godfrey, English - Major, Business - Minor; David Paul Jarvis, Chemistry - Major, Biology - Minor, Psychology - Minor.

(continued on Page 4)

Christmas Light Fund Established

Christmas is a festive time of year when cities and towns throughout the United States glimmer in the flickering of Christmas lights.

The steering committee for "Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas" weekend sponsored by Glenville Business Organization and Glenville State College want to add to and spruce up the Christmas decorations used by the city of Glenville. In an effort to be community minded, the two organizations have established the Christmas City Light Fund.

The organizations are appealing to all individuals and businesses to contribute to the fund. It is hoped that everyone concerned would want to see Glenville be on a par with its sister cities in West Virginia.

Although it may take several years to amass enough money to purchase decorations, the two groups will be sponsoring the City Light Fund annually until enough funds are available for the purchase.

Donations may be sent to the Mayor's office, 13 Court Street, Glenville. Checks should be made payable to the Glenville Business Organization for the City Christmas Light Fund.

The Glenville Business Organization and Glenville State College will be placing donation canisters in businesses throughout Glenville. Your generosity and support for Glenville will be greatly appreciated by the steering committee for the "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas" weekend.

Starkey Schedules Concert

A varied program of arias, art songs and lighter contemporary pieces will be presented by soprano Deborah Starkey at 8 p.m., November 30, in the auditorium of Glenville State College. The concert is free and open to the public.

Starkey is a music education graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College and North Texas State University, where she received a master's degree in vocal performance. At North Texas State University, she studied with Laurel Miller, Harold Heiberg, John Large, and Arthur Schoep.

Starkey has been a featured soloist with the Larry Parsons Chorale and the Marietta Symphonette. She teaches applied voice at Glenville State College and is instructor of voice at Marietta College.

Her opera workshop performances have included 'Adalgisa in Norma,' 'Cherubino in Le nozzi di Fegaro,' the 'Mother in Amahl and the Night Visitors,' 'Tisbe in La Cenerentola,'

'Prince

New members of the Kappa Delta Pi Education Honorary were initiated November 11, in the Wesley Foundation at 7 p.m.

Observe Smoke Out Day

November 18, 1982 could be a new beginning for the chronic users of tobacco products. This day will dawn as any other would, however, it will bear the title National Smoke Out Day. For those of you who are non-smokers, Thursday will be a day without smoke-filled air and the smoker will have the opportunity to rid himself of his harmful habit.

Every day people die with lung cancer which was prompted by the use of cigarettes. Is your life worth that last puff of cigarette? Smoking is not only harmful for the smoker but for the non-smoker, also. Often the smoke of the cigarettes irritates the eyes of the non-smokers, along with the congestion of the breathing passages. The non-smoker suffers for the deeds of the smoker.

If you are a smoker, take a little bit of time out of your busy day and ponder the thought of kicking the habit. In the long run, it may save your life or possibly someone else's.

To smoke is a privilege, however, when this privilege is harmful to other human beings, then it becomes a nuisance.

I would like to leave you with these final words to ponder. "Puff, Puff. Puff that cigarette!
Puff, Puff, until you puff yourself to death!"

Betty Wells

Thanks For Thanksgiving

Fall break is almost upon us again here at GSC and it really is a Thanksgiving. We at Glenville State have many things to be thankful for. I am thankful that at the end of this week I will no longer have to worry about the test and five papers tht I had due this week. Thanksgiving for me is rest, and I plan on doing some serious sleeping.

Like the original Pilgrims, we should give thanks for food aplenty. I can get very thankful when I see my mother's home-cooked Thanksgiving dinner in front of me instead of a cafeteria tray. I'd love to give thanks for a buck in my sights Monday morning.

Yes, we at Glenville State have many things to be thankful for. And just think, when we come back we will have less than a month until Christmas break. Happy Thanksgiving.

David Spurlock

Freshman Thoughts

As I was walking to class the other day, I noticed many students wearing WVU or "How 'bout the 'eers" shirts. I don't think West Virginia University has a Louis Bennett or Pickens Hall. No, I am sure that this is Glenville State College. But, why then is there WVU written across many jackets, caps, and shirts and why are these WVU's roaming around on Glenville State College's campus? It is probably because WVU is receiving national recognition and all West Virginians are proud and eager to show that they support the "Mounties." Fine, there isn't anything wrong with that. However, on Thursday when WVU played Rutgers on television, the lounge in Pickens Hall was swamped with fans. Students became really involved in the game. Believe it or not some even yelled and cheered. I have never seen spirit like that at a Pioneer football game. Glenville has something to be proud of too!!! We have the state cross-country champs for the second year and the Pioneers in football finished with a 3-6-1 record. Byron Brooks has also received much acclaim. So, come on students take some pride in Glenville and show it with GSC shirts and possibly one day those shirts with "How 'bout them 'eers" could stand for those Glenville State College PIONEERS!!

Jackie Mullens

Organizational News

Tau Kappa Epsilon

The fraters and associate members of Iota-Omega Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon had their "annual" fall pledge trip to Parkersburg this past weekend. Eight actives and five pledges made the trip. Joe Huxley, Ed Mazella, Jeff Chapman, and Brad Riffle took part in many fun activities and contests during the weekend. Congratulations to Ed "Muscle Beach" - Mazella for copping top honors in our body-building contest, and Brad Riffle for his intriguing conversation with the FBI.

O.D. initiations were held Sunday night, Nov. 14. Congratulations to new OD's Donna Bumgardner, Kelly Davis, Candy Fulton, Carolyn Hannaman, Kim McCutcheon, Kristi Moss, Leisa Samples, Margie Sykes, Peggy Spencer, Diana Tomlin, Theresa Legg, Sheila Martin and Tammy Stalnaker. Glad to have you with us girls!

Also Sunday, plans were finalized for our Red Carnation Ball Dec. 17 at the Wagon Wheel. All TKE's and OD's are reminded to get your reservations in by Monday, Dec. 12. We'd like to see everyone (even R.R.) there! Finally, happy Thanksgiving to everyone. Have a good break!

Associate Tau Kappa Epsilon

We would like to thank all the actives who helped make our pledge trip to Parkersburg a big success. Special thanks go out to Count and Ralph for putting us up for the weekend and to Mrs. Huxley for the excellent meal which she provided. A good time was had by all.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

The Delta Alpha Chapter of Sigma Sigma Sigma held their regular meeting Monday, Nov. 15, in the Ground Floor Lounge of Pickens Hall.

Regular business was discussed. All sisters are reminded to see Mary Flaherty about the composite by Wed. evening.

Miss Clarissa Williams, our Sigma Grandmother, came to the meeting and went to Thanksgiving dinner with us in the cafeteria.

Also we would like to extend a warm welcome and congratulations to our new initiates: Tammi Fields, Georgeann Boggs, Leanne Butler, Lisa Huffman, Ranay Hibbs, Kim McCoy, Charlotte Moore, Kim Lake, Pam Perry, Anita Stevenson, Donna Baker.

We'd like to wish everyone a safe and Happy Thanksgiving.

Ladies of the White Rose

The Ladies of the White Rose would like to give a special thank you to Joe Drahnak and Mindy Phillips for all of their help with the Thanksgiving dinner. Also we would like to thank the brothers who showed up. Big Sis - Little Brother ceremony was held and they are as follows: Lou Ellen Wentz - Mark Phillips; Cheryl Keenan - Andy Weak; Melisa Lowther - Mike Simpson; Carole Norton - Craig Worl; and, Doretta Pugh - Ron Carpenter. Congratulations!!

Phi Beta Lambda

Our next regularly scheduled meeting is this Thursday, Nov. 18 at 4:00 in Room 101 AB. Earl Bennett from the Computer Center will be our guest speaker.

Thanks goes out to all members who helped with the dance last week. Also, we would like to thank all members who presented workshops last week. Everyone did a good job!

Please remember to pick up your Kit-n-Kaboodle kits this week at the Division of Business.

We wish everyone a great Thanksgiving break!

Theta Xi

The weekly meeting of the brothers of the Kappa Eta Chapter of Theta Xi was held Sunday evening at the house. Final preparations were made for our Thanksgiving dinner which will be held Wednesday, Nov. 17 at 5:00. All brothers who have met their financial commitments are urged to attend. Plans were also made for our 50-50 raffle after Thanksgiving break. Brothers are also reminded to bring back an old toy or two for our Christmas Party for needy children which is being sponsored by our Fall Pledge Class. Also, a pat on the back to our six neophytes, Bill, "Morty," Adler, Ron Gutshaw, Joe McCallister, Bernie DeSirio, Ty Tyson, and Guy Boggs, for doing a pretty commendable job through 5 weeks of pledging.

Ohnimgohow Players

The Ohnimgohow Players help formal initiation on Sunday, Nov. 14 for the fall 1982 pledge class. We would like to congratulate all the new initiates on a job well done. The new initiates are listed with the names of their Big People following: Lou Davidson -

Cheryl Keenan; Kelly Davis - Marlene Lewis; Kirk King - Cara Keenan and Mike Schartiger; Dan Langford - Leanne Butler; Mickey McDonald - Neal Benson; Pam Perry - Danny Bayer; and, Gayle Stanley - Lisa Taylor.

Delta Zeta

The formal meeting of the Theta Xi Chapter of Delta Zeta Sorority was held Monday evening.

Again this year as a philanthropy project the DZ's have collected canned foods over the past weeks and will donate the food to a needy family. A reminder to all Big Bro's to be at the house at 5:00 today Nov. 17 for the Big Bro dinner.

We would like to wish the pledges Shelly Morris, Karen Scott and Carolyn Hannaman - good luck on their national test! Congratulations to Lou Davidson for being such a success in the play! The Delta Zeta Sorority would also like to announce the dance which is to be held in the Student Union Nov. 18. The admission is $2. There will be food and kegs of refreshments. Come and share a good time with friends before Thanksgiving break. Have a safe and happy holiday! Hope to see everyone at our chili dinner Nov. 31 and Dec. 1.

Lambda Chi Alpha

The Brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha held their monthly formal-meeting Sunday, Nov. 14 at the library.

The next meeting will be Mon. Nov. 29 at 7:00 in the library.

Upcoming Event: Wed. 5:30 Ladies Initiation.

Special thanks to the Ladies of the White Rose for the great Thanksgiving dinner last week. Everything was delicious.

From The Wesley Foundation

Since there are several conflicting activities scheduled on campus for Thursday, November 18th, the Thanksgiving Dinner will be cancelled.

Instead, a Holiday meal will be held on Wednesday, December 8th, beginning at 6 pm. There will be a sign-up sheet in the main room of the Foundation during the week prior.

All students are invited.

THE GLENVILLE MERCURY
(USPS 220040)
The Student Newspaper
Phone 462-7361, Ext. 290

Published weekly and entered as second class mail at the Post Office at Glenville, West Virginia 26351. Subscriptions $5.00 a year.

EditorBetty Wells
Associate EditorDebbie Moore
Assistant EditorCarron Smith
Sports EditorSteve Keenan
CirculationKim Honaker
IBM OperatorsAngela Boram Tammy Igo
PhotographerDebbie Moore Mike Phillips
CartoonistKent Woolfer
Advertising ManagerJanice Boggs
ReportersCheryl Keenan, Jim Weidemoyer, Jackie Mullens, Tammy Igo, David Spurlock, Beth Bragg, Janice Boggs, Pat Lewis,
AdvisorYvonne King
Copy EditorCheryl Keenan

Following is the Lady Pioneers basketball schedule for the 1982-83 season:

DECEMBER
1	West Virginia State	AWAY 5:00
3-4	Radford Tournament (Va.)	AWAY
7	West Virginia Tech	HOME 5:15
9	West Virginia Wesleyan	AWAY 6:00
11	Shepherd College	AWAY 1:00
13	Alderson-Broaddus College	HOME 7:00
JANUARY
11	Muskingum College	AWAY 5:00
13	Salem College	HOME 7:00
15	West Liberty State College	HOME 1:00
17	West Virginia University	HOME 7:00
20	Fairmont State	HOME 7:00
25	West Virginia State	HOME 7:00
31	Alderson-Broaddus	AWAY 5:15
FEBRUARY
3	Univ. of Charleston	HOME 7:00
5	West Virginia Tech	AWAY 5:00
8	West Virginia Wesleyan	HOME 7:00
11	Bluefield State	AWAY 7:00
12	Concord College	AWAY 3:00
14	Salem College	AWAY 6:00
17	Fairmont State	AWAY 7:00
23-26 Women's Basketball Tournament - Buckhannon

Pictured is the 1982-83 Lady Pioneers basketball team. Front row, L-R; Sharon Hayes, Marion Richards, Mgr., Judy Niday, Cathy Starcher, Bunny Taylor, Sonja Bailey, and Wendy Healy. Second row, L - R; Mark Kozlowski, Student Assistant, Pam Minigh, Tina Burkhamer, Laura Dabney, Maria Lothes, Kim Maynard, Rhonda McComas, Robin Phipps, Coach Tim Carney.

Following is the Pioneers basketball schedule for the 1982-83 season:

Nov. 19-20	Muhlenberg Tip-Off Tournament	AWAY
Dec. 1	West Virginia State	AWAY
3	Wheeling College	AWAY
4	West Liberty State College	AWAY
7	West Virginia Tech	HOME
11	Salem College	HOME
Jan. 5-6	Joe Manchin Tournament	AWAY
8	Fairmont State College	AWAY
11	Davis & Elkins College	AWAY
14	Bluefield College	HOME
15	Shepherd College	HOME
20	West Virginia Wesleyan	AWAY
22	Concord College	HOME
24	Alderson-Broaddus College	HOME
28	West Liberty State College	HOME
Feb. 2	University of Charleston	AWAY
4	Bluefield College	AWAY
5	West Virginia Tech	AWAY
12	Concord College	AWAY
15	Davis & Elkins College	HOME
17	West Virginia Wesleyan	HOME
19	Fairmont State College	HOME
22	West Virginia State	HOME
26	Salem College	AWAY
Mar. 2-5	WVIAC TOURNAMENT	CHARLESTON

All Home Games begin at 7:30 p.m.

Lady Pioneers To Open Season On Dec. 1

GSC women's basketball coach, Tim Carney, is excited about the upcoming season and is anxious to get started. There are several reasons for Carney's feelings.

First of all, he has four starters and five more lettermen returning from last year's squad which was 15-8 and third in the West Virginia Conference.

Secondly, the Lady Pioneers have a tough overall schedule that will make them tougher. Included among the opponents are West Virginia University, Elon (N.C.), and the University of Charleston.

Finally, in-league competition will be the best it's ever been, according to Carney. He pointed out UC, Fairmont, Concord and West Virginia Tech as just a few of the possible contenders for the WVC title. Glenville, who should be in the race, also, "can be better than last year but not necessarily have a better record," says Carney.

Senior Pam Minigh and junior Bunny Taylor, both All-WVC players in the past, will lead GSC this season. Minigh was GSC's top scorer (12.7 PPG) and rebounder (197) last season. Taylor scored 12.2 points per game.

Junior Sonja Bailey and sophomore Maria Lothes are the two other returning starters. Other returnees include senior Judy Niday and sophomores Kim Maynard, Robin Phipps, Cathy Starcher and Laura Dabney.

Four newcomers round out the 13-member squad.

They are as follows: Wendy Healy, a junior college transfer from Potomac State; Tina Burkhamer, a freshman from Gilmer County; Sharon Hayes, a Nicholas County freshman; and Rhonda McComas, a freshman from Independence.

Minigh and Niday will be the Lady Pioneers' co-captains.

Carney points to GSC's quickness and experience as its strengths and the lack of size as its major weakness.

GSC will open at West Virginia State on Dec. 1. Then, the women will compete in a tournament in Radford (Va.) on Dec. 3-4. On Tuesday, Dec. 7, West Virginia Tech will be the first home opponent.

Following are final statistics for the GSC Football Team:

OFFENSE
Rushing
Name	Attempts	Yardage	Average
Byron Brooks	279	1418	5.0
Joe Mullan	48	128	2.6
Scott Pottmeyer	39	117	3.0
Passing
Name	Attempts	Completions	Yardage	Interceptions
Jeff Metheny	143	70	844	8
Steve Grosse	10	2	11	2
Receiving
Name	Passes Caught	Yardage	Average
Steve Williams	32	439	13.7
Joe Mullan	18	169	9.3
Scoring
Name	Points
Byron Brooks	66
Jim Weidemoyer	26
Joe Mullan	18
Steve Williams	12
Jeff Metheny	6
Mark Hash	6
John Wheeler	4
DEFENSE
Tackles
Name	Solo	Assists	Total
Terry Kendall	51	69	120
Rod Abrams	35	61	96
Mike Payne	40	38	78
Andy Marchal	30	46	76
Mark Hash	33	38	71
Dave Darst	27	39	66
Interceptions
Name	Total	Return Yardage
Mark Hash	8	167
Scott Taylor	4	0
Punting
Name	No.	Yardage	Average
Steve Williams	77	2926	38.0

Harriers Travel To Wisconsin

"I feel it is an honor to go. It is a reward for a good season. Also, it is a challenging way to finish our season." These were some of the comments expressed by Dr. James Hilgenberg about the GSC cross country team's upcoming participation in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics cross country meet.

The Pioneer harriers earned the trip to the NAIA championship in Kenosha, Wisconsin by winning the West Virginia Conference title on Nov. 5.

Hilgenberg stressed, "We will meet some very high caliber competition at Kenosha. Realistically, we could finish in the top 20-25 teams. That would mark a tremendous performance by our team members."

Seven runners will compete for Glenville. Conference champion Larry Taylor heads the list. Also running will be Billy Belcher, Ed Iseli, Steve Keenan, Chris Keister, Pat Godfrey and Mark Price. Steve Roberts will be the alternate.

Intramural Program Under Scrutiny

Intramural tournaments are preparing to begin for the 1982-83 school year. A few changes are being made with this year's program.

The basic changes will be no bowling and finding a director for the girls intramural program. There will be no bowling tournaments due to the different bowling leagues occupying the lanes. As for the director of the girl's tournaments, the Student Congress is going to bring up a resolution before Dean Peterson to appoint someone to be the director.

Swimming is preparing to begin now along with a women's challenge racquetball tournament. The challenge racquetball tournament started Monday and will play a round-robin tournament ending on December 3 of this year.

There will be an intramural committee meeting sometime following the fall vacation break. Everyone interested in participating in the intramurals or having any ideas on scheduling is urged to come to the meeting.

The girls basketball team will have a Blue-White scrimmage on Thursday, Nov. 18 at 7 p.m. in the gym. There will be no admission charge.

Graduation

Continued from p. 1

Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration: Stephen J. Barrett, Management; Jeffrey Alan Borah, Accounting, Management, Economics - Minor; James Dewey Carroll, Management; Jeffrey William Chapman, Marketing and Retailing; Clinton Keith Cooper, Management, Economics - Minor; Carolyn Cox, Marketing and Retailing, Sociology - Minor; James Edward Cunningham, Accounting; Donald Gene Lipps, Computer Science, Management; Thomas John Mlier, Management; Michael Dale Montgomery, Computer Science; Jacky Dale Persinger, Accounting, Management; David Allen Powell, Marketing and Retailing, Economics - Minor; Patricia S. Robinson, Accounting, Management, Marketing and Retailing, Economics - Minor; Sara Jo Farrah Taylor, Accounting.

Bachelor of Science: Edwin Gray Hinson, Jr., Biology-- Major; David Paul Jarvis, Biology - Major, Chemistry- Minor, Psychology - Minor; Kevin Brent Kennedy, Biology - Major, History - Minor; Anita Lou Ray, Biology - Major, Sociology - Minor.

Associate in Arts: Brenda Kay Barbarow, Administrative Science; Carol Louise Bennette, Administrative Science; Melanie Elaine Brown, Secretarial Science; Olen Randolph Kline, Administrative Science; Kimberly Beth Lucas, Secretarial Science; Brenda Cheryl Naye, Administrative Science; Dorothy Elizabeth Newlon, Administrative Science.

Associate in Science: Stephen P. Butler, Timber Harvesting; Jackie Lavern Foster, Social Service Technology; Jack Lee Worstell II., Land Surveying.

Bachelor in Social Work: John A. Beaudry, Sociology - Minor; Craig Luther Parker, Sociology - Minor; Celaine Marie Riddle, Sociology - Minor.

Regents Bachelor of Arts: Victor Paul Antoline, Jr., Alva D. Casto, Richard A. Deem, Jr., Donald William Embleton, Jeanelle G. Hollandesworth, Richard J. Johnson, Lucille B. Lewis, Mildred Carpenter Mourey, Mary Anne Poole, Ronald C. Siegrist, Karen E. Stanley, William John Stemple, Robert E. Villers, and Patricia Helen Dunleavy (posthumous award).

All student worksheets should be turned in to the Business Office by 4pm, Friday, Nov. 19.

American Education Week is from November 14 thru 20. According to The Parkersburg News, this year's theme is "A Strong Nation Needs Strong Schools." American Education Week is a week for education; it isn't just for parents and students, it's for everyone.

Halloween is over. The goblins have disappeared. Thoughts of Turkey are everywhere. Life in the theatre costume room is very sad, however.

The room is a heap, but what is worse - the costumes on the racks are worried about all of their friends (costumes) who have not returned from the Halloween parties.

Please, animals and clowns and fairies, and lovely ladies, please come back to the costume room.

Over Thanksgiving break the dorms will be closed. They will close on Friday, Nov. 19 at 5 p.m. and will re-open on Sunday, November 28 at 12:00 noon, according to A.T. Billips, Dean of Student Affairs.

Continued from p. 1

Orlofsky in Die Fledermaus,' 'Lola in Cavalleria Rusticana,' 'Fortuna in L'Incoronazione di Poppia,' 'Stephano in Romeo et Juliette,' 'Gretal in Hansel and Gretal,' 'Forabella in Cossi fan Tutte,' and 'Lastasse Chinoise in L'Enfant et les Sortilèges.'

Continued from p.

management will be able to measure time profitability.

More and more businesses are using them and use of the machines is filtering down from strictly urban areas to rural areas. There is now limited use of the machines in Gimer County. To these offices the WP equipment is to their office work what computers are to accounting.

So, if you are considering a class during pre-registration, consider Word Processing. It may be that little extra "edge" that will land you that job later on.

'Barefoot' Reviewed

Since my superiors on the newspaper staff requested that I review BAREFOOT IN THE PARK, I left my room and journeyed up to the auditorium Saturday evening, to review the production.

I could comment on the technical aspects of the production, but I know little about such stuff. The set though, did look authentic.

I do have a few comments on the production as a whole, so grab something near you and read on: first, it was very believable that everyone had climbed five flights of stairs, not counting the stoop, to reach the top floor apartment. Next, I'll write to the subject of acting: Lord's and Taylor delivery man, portrayed by Bill Anderson, looked like a reject from the salvation army. Actually, he was only on stage once to deliver wedding gifts, but if Corie's mother was so doting, he could have appeared at least once more.

The telephone repairman, Joe Stephens, seem to be exactly suited to his role. His facial expressions during his visit to repair the phone, added much to the humor of the scene.

Victor Velasco, Danny Bayer, stole the show (as far as I'm concerned). Victor, not quite the dirty old man, just 58 and a very nice man, was delightful. I loved the facial expressions.

Next on my list is Mrs. Banks, portrayed by Raeleen McMillion. What can be said? Raeleen did a terrific job of portraying an insecure, middle aged woman. She walked, talked and sat like an older woman. I especially liked the transformation of Mrs. Bank's after her evening with Victor.

Mike Dotson, as Paul Bratter, the up and rising lawyer was more interested in his first case, than his six day wife. Described by Corie as a stuffed shirt, I thought he handled the role well. I liked the scene where he is frustrated about his win in court, the divorce, and finally the snow - I even felt a twinge of sympathy. Also, just a note, didn't Paul handle the situation of the suitcase not closing well?

Finally Mrs. Corie Bratter, Lou Davidson, can be congratulated on her bubbling enthusiasm. The enthusiasm is the cause of a lot of her problems; the mess her mother's in and her planned divorce from her new husband. It was nice to see this break toward the end of the play as Corie cries and blames herself.

A final comment which may be unjust, but I thought the production lacked enthusiasm by the entire cast, which carried over into the audience. Other than that, I'm quite happy with the production and a hearty congrats, to all those involved.

(I hope my superiors are satisfied.)

Debbie Moore

As the house lights came down for the first GSC Theatre production of the 1982 school year on Saturday night, I prepared to watch a GSC performance of BAREFOOT IN THE PARK by Neil Simon, for about the fifth time. Working with the production, I had also seen different acts rehearsed several other times before. The amazing thing about the Saturday night performance, though, is that I laughed even harder than I had before.

Under the able guidance of director Linda McKown, the six-member cast of BAREFOOT performed, in my opinion, better on each successive night. Saturday night's performance was very high in energy at most points, however, there were some places where the show seemed to drag a bit.

The acting in the show was basically up to par for a GSC Theatre production. A bit about the actors and actresses... Lou Davidson, as Corie Bratter, performed consistently throughout the run of the show. I believe Lou performed especially well in her drunk scene with "Victor Velasco" and she was consistently cute and bubbly throughout the rest of the show. A distinct difference, though, was the fight scene with her husband during which she handled the transition quite smoothly.

Joe Stephens, as the telephone repair man may have stolen the show had he been on stage longer. He portrayed the harried repair man to perfection, with a look of terror whenever he saw Paul Bratter. Joe's added touch of sensitivity and caring added depth to the character.

Portraying a Lord and Taylor's delivery man, Bill Anderson practically had the audience rolling in the aisles during his short time on stage. Although he was on stage for two minutes and had only two lines, Bill performed well as the "probably only 25"-year-old delivery man.

Paul Bratter, Corie's husband of six days, was adequately portrayed by Mike Dotson. Mike portrayed Paul's stuffed-shirt attitudes very well and was impressive in his first college role.

Raeleen McMillion, who portrayed Corie's mother, Ethel Banks, brought uproarious laughter from the audience from the moment she stepped on stage. Raeleen's actions, manner of speech, and overall stage appearance were excellent. She and Danny Bayer, who portrayed the middle-aged Lothario, Victor Velasco, stole the show in my opinion. Danny was hilarious, to put it simply. His melodramatic actions kept me laughing constantly.

A word of praise should be given to the Director, the stage manager, Lois Miller; and all the crews. The set was very believable as a top-floor apartment of an old brownstone and the sky-light was especially effective. Congratulations to everyone involved.

Cheryl Keenan

The 1982-83 GSC men's cheerleading squad is as follows: Front row, L-R; Scott Taylor, Clark Martin, and Biddle Williams. Second row, L-R; Mike Simpson, Rodney Somerville and James Bailous.

SUMMER'S
PHARMACY
PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST
8-8 PM

FIREPLACE
presents:

INN
Mike Morningstar

Cover: $3 single $5 couple
LADIES NIGHT-TUES & THURS. 6:30-8:00
HAPPY HOUR-WEDNESDAY 6:00-7:30