

The Glenville Mercury

Number 4

Glenville State College, Glenville, West Virginia

Wednesday, September 21, 1983

Cheryl Curry has replaced Ty Beadle as 1983 freshman president.

Students are reminded that voting for the Homecoming court will take place on Wednesday and Thursday from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. in the Pioneer Center and on Wednesday from 7 - 11 p.m. in the residence halls. All students are urged to vote.

There will be an American Red Cross Blood Drive at the Wesley Foundation on Wednesday, September 21 from 12-5 p.m.

Special Committee To Meet On GSC Campus Next Week

The Legislative Sub-Committee on Higher Education will hold a routine meeting on the Glenville State College campus on Friday, September 30, 1983. The sub-committee will meet with the various campus constituencies--administration, classified staff, faculty, and students--and tour the campus facilities.

"The sub-committee on Higher Education has not met on the Glenville campus in about four years," said President William K. Simmons. "In the past, we have had excellent meetings and expect another fine meeting to take place."

In addition to the members of the sub-committee, Legislative members from Gilmer, Calhoun, Doddridge, Braxton, and Lewis counties have been invited to attend.

The itinerary for the sub-committee's visit will be as follows:

10:00 a.m. Meet with Administration
10:45 a.m. Meet with Classified Staff
12:30 p.m. Meet with Faculty
1:15 p.m. Meet with Students
2:00 p.m. Meet with Administration
2:30 p.m. Campus Tour

WVSGA Event Held

The West Virginia Student Government Association (WVSGA) held its monthly meeting at Glenville last weekend. Registration was held on Friday, and a continental breakfast and meetings occurred on Saturday.

Schools represented were West Virginia University, Marshall University, Shepherd College, West Virginia Wesleyan, Parkersburg Community College, and Glenville State College.

Among the institutional issues discussed at the meeting were the new drinking bill, which the WVSGA opposes, and the parking bill.

Penny Clutter, GSC student body president, remarked concerning the meeting, "This association is still in its organizational stages, and, although the turnout of members was disappointing, we feel that we were successful in our plans to deal with the various problems which students encounter."

Homecoming Activities Scheduled

A full week of activities for Homecoming week will begin on Monday, September 26. Among the activities early in the week are an ice cream social, a pool party, the Las Vegas Games Casino, a Gong Show/Mystery Auction, and a D.J. Mix with an air band contest.

The ice cream social will be held from 7-8:30 p.m. along the amphitheatre walkway on Monday. All GSC students, faculty and staff and their families are welcome. Also, on Monday, the swimming pool party will be held in the GSC pool from 7-10 p.m.

On Tuesday the Las Vegas Casino will run from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. along the amphitheatre walkway. In this event, participants use their skill on the gaming tables in an attempt to stockpile large amounts of play money. The money, no matter what amount it is, may be used to bid on gifts at the Mystery Auction immediately following the Gong Show that night. The gifts to be bid upon number approximately 50 and range from gag gifts to nice gifts. But the big money winner will not necessarily win the nicest gift so all participants should take their money and bid on a gift. Also, several gifts will be held back for a random drawing among the Gong Show audience.

The Gong Show will begin at 7 p.m. in the ballroom. Various acts will be given a chance to make it past "the gong" and be judged.

Finally, a D.J. mix will be held in the ballroom on Wednesday from 8-11 p.m. An air band contest will be held. First prize is $35. Tom Wheeler will provide the music for the dance, and Student Congress will provide free pizza, soft drinks, and chips.

MERIT PAY FOR TEACHERS...

WHO'LL GET THE APPLE?
WHO'LL GET THE CORE?

Fee Raise Is Questioned

If your wallet took a wallop at registration, don't feel like the Lone Ranger. After I overdraw my check-book considerably, I went in search of an answer to the fee increase.

I found it in Senate Bill 301 which raises student fees $15 for in-state students and $50 for out-of-state students. The bill was introduced and passed by the Senate in an effort to raise teachers' salaries. The funds raised will be used for merit pay raises. And that is where the controversy begins.

Glenville teachers are opposed to this method of raises. They are not opposed to an increase but the way the Senate is going about it. Feelings are that the Legislature is not facing up to their obligations in finding alternate ways to raise the salaries. The staff is also upset that the students must shoulder the burden of the merit raises.

Glenville will implement the funds and grant the merit raises based on an annual review of each teacher. This same review is used for granting promotions. The raises will be only for teachers, and no administrative staff or auxiliary staff will receive raises.

On a closing note, Senate Bill 301 will be before the Legislature for re-evaluation this spring. The possibilities of what may happen are endless--the bill may be defeated or the fee may again be increased. Unless students want an increase, I urge each to write to the Legislators and urge Bill 301 to be repealed!

Letter to the Editor

This past weekend the Glenville State College Cross Country hosted its sixth annual Invitational. The event was viewed by the coaches and runners alike as very successful. It is at this time that I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to all those who assisted me on the golf course. Without your help the meet could have not been the success it was.

Gratefully,

Organizational News

Lambda Chi Alpha
The Brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha held their weekly meeting to discuss business for the upcoming week. We will be having a busy week so everyone take part and find out when everything is going on.

First of all, there will be a Kappa meeting Wednesday at 7:30. Everyone should be there! A reminder to all brothers to be at the blood drive. Check to see when you signed up to work and wear your shirts. Also, the gameroom will be rented for all Chi's and invited guests Wednesday at 9:00-11:00.

There is a Pinning Thursday at 5:30 at the Wesley Foundation; dress appropriately. Thursday evening at 6:30 we will be having a whiffle ball game at the nursing home; everyone try to attend. Ladies are welcome to play also.

Volleyball teams check to see when you play this week.

The Chi's will be having a car wash Friday from 1:00-6:00.

A special thank you goes out to Pudgy Simms for doing a great job of recruiting last week. Way to go Pudgy!

Anyone interested in finding out what Lambda Chi Alpha is about should contact any brother.

Sigma Sigma Sigma
The weekly meeting of Sigma Sigma Sorority sisters was held September 19 in Scott Wing Lounge.

Diane Bach was the guest speaker. She talked about the Panhellenic Council.

New business was opened with an announcement that there will be a salad party on Wednesday at 7 p.m. in Sigma lounge. All girls on campus are invited. There will be a blood drive on Wednesday also, from 12-5. Students are asked to come and support it.

Our NCC will be here on Friday to meet with the chapter.

Sisters of the Week are the Alumnae Chapter. Stinkers of the Week are the Derrick crew. Sigma Sweetheart is Doug Payne for taking pictures for our Homecoming candidates.

Tau Kappa Epsilon
The Iota Omega Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon would like to thank the cafeteria staff for the fine meal they prepared and also all of the guys who came to the TKE dinner Wednesday.

All students and fraters are reminded that there will be a blood drive held Sept. 21 from 1-5 at the Wesley Foundation.

Congratulations go out to the Cherrybombers TKE team I for their victories. The Redbarons TKE team II are still looking for a win but are playing heads up ball.

Congratulations also go out to fraters Roddie Brown, Jim Kirby, Everett Sparr for making it safely to WVU and back without being arrested Saturday night. Good job guys!

Finally, good luck to Frater Byron Brooks and the rest of the Pioneer Football Team as they take on WV State College this week.

Ohningohow Players

The Players held a regularly scheduled meeting last week in the Underground. The main order of business was the discussion of plans for Homecoming. All Players are reminded to meet Tuesday, September 27 at 6 p.m. in the Underground to work on the float. We will also be working on our Gong Show skit beginning Friday, September 23. See Mrs. McKown for times.

The Ohningohow Players would like to thank the following people who have agreed to be theatre judges for the 1983-84 GSC theatre season: Jo Cleek, Dr. Mildred Disko, James Eaton, Dr. Joe Evans, Dr. Bruce Flack, George Harper, Cheryl McKinney, Dr. Mary Jo Pribble, and Elma Jean Woofter. We would also like to thank Diane Bach for agreeing to serve as "counting chairman" or Glenville's own Price-Waterhouse. Our most sincere thanks for all her help and congratulations go to Virginia West for being chosen as Glenville State College theatre's first judge emeritus.

Ladies

We would like to remind the Ladies of the Whiffle ball game the guys are having at the Nursing home Thursday afternoon and the car wash Friday at 1 p.m. at Foodland. Any and all help will be appreciated.

Education students who will graduate in December of this year and wish to attend Fall Interview Day on November 15 should register with the Office of Career Planning and Placement by Sept. 28.

DZ's Win Awards

The most recent National Convention of the Delta Zeta Sorority was held this past summer in Dallas, Texas. The delegate to the convention from the local Theta Xi Chapter of the sorority was Lora Park. Aside from attending business meetings in the day and meeting sisters from all over the country, she brought home two most respected prestigious awards.

The first of these awards was the coveted Caryatides statuettes. Only six of these statuettes are awarded every two years throughout the 168 chapters in the nation. The award goes to the 6 chapters best envisioning and fulfilling a pledge training program that has brought enrichment to the members of the chapter.

The second outstanding award was the Grace Mason Lundy Award which is presented to senior girls who have demonstrated unusually high levels of leadership, dedication, and loyalty in Delta Zeta work. Sheila Martin was one of seven girls in the nation who best met the qualifications in order to receive this award.

Student Involvement Urged

With Homecoming right around the corner, it seems that the time for the rush of editorials and letters to the editor concerning student involvement is now at hand. Every fall we read what seems to be dozens of articles about how we should become more involved in campus activities and how we should show more spirit for good ole' GSC, and every fall we hear the same thing about those articles--"That's stupid. There's nothing to do here," or "Yeh, there are all those activities, but they're always boring."

Maybe the reason that these activities seem boring to many people, and perhaps the reason that the general attitude around campus is one of boredom, is that most of us seem to be more content to be bored than to check out some of what we are offered. Granted, it is much easier to sit around and complain than to go out and do something, but wouldn't there be a lot less to complain about if we would get out and experience a little of what is offered to us? Also, if more of us were to attend some of these shows and exhibitions, perhaps the quality of these could be improved through the feedback from the students. After all, how can the people in charge of arranging these activities know what the students will like if no one shows up for anything at all?

The point is, then, that Glenville can be a fun place to go to college if, and only if, people go out and do things. That doesn't necessarily mean just campus activities, but also the parties and other things that individuals or groups could plan on their own. Homecoming is an excellent time for something like this to start happening. We can all take advantage of this time when the excitement level should be high and start doing things and making things happen. If everyone gets involved now and lets that involvement carry on past Homecoming, we can begin to make GSC a much more fun place to be.

Athlete's Addition

On the previous weekend that has just passed by there were three notable games played in West Virginia college grid action. Marshall University won, WVU won, but... the Pioneers of GSC lost.

The Thundering Herd won 35-0 against hapless Morehead State at Kentucky. So now head coach Sonny Randle feels that all of the monkeys are off his back. Only for seven days, though, I would say, as they will face two time Southern Conference champ Furman.

WVU, on the other hand, won a big nationally-televised game at Maryland. The Mountaineers did play an excellent game beating the Terrapins 31-21. They simply stole the momentum from the Terps and dominated the last three quarters. To be a true critic, though, I have to say, "They have to beat Boston College this weekend before I become a member of Mountaineer mania." I feel Maryland played a poor game and truly disappointed me.

Unfortunately, the Pioneers did not fare as well last weekend. They went up against a vengeful and determined Shepherd. The Pioneers stopped before they ever started rolling with an early turnover and could not catch up.

Jim Weidemoyer

Letter to the Editor

I must take exception with Jim Weidemoyer's "Athlete's Addition" column in last week's MERCURY. Not only does he discuss an irrelevant topic concerning GSC sports, he is in total error on what he does state and finally, most disappointingly, he speaks of our football program in a condescending and insulting tone.

WVU football is of no consequence to our football or other sports programs. In addition, a competent sportswriter would take advantage of a "slow" week to report on injuries, future opponents and such. Since he does choose to discuss WVU football, though, I will address the inaccuracies and slander in his article. Don Nehlen did not schedule the "weak" opponents Weidemoyer speaks of. The games were scheduled by ex-A. D. Leland Byrd more than ten years before Mr. Nehlen was hired as head coach at the university. As for Mr. Nehlen lying about his opponents abilities, I wonder what Richmond University and Oregon University (both losers to these "weak" opponents) would have to say, not to mention Mr. Nehlen if he reads the article.

The most serious error in this article, though, is the implication in the last paragraph that the Pioneer football team does not play "real" games. College football is not merely a revenue generator with 50,000 plus crowds every weekend. Rather, it is an opportunity for student athletes to learn fellowship and competition. Most importantly, though, it is a chance for students, faculty, alumni, and administrators to meet away from the pressures of the classroom environment.

In the future, Mr. Weidemoyer would serve himself and THE MERCURY well to have all his ducks in a row before starting the march. If he does not find GSC stimulating enough, he should go to WVU and report his inaccuracies there.

Mike Barrick

Sports Editor's note:

My column is entitled "Athletes Addition," not "GSC Sports Scene." There are athletes everywhere, not only this campus. It is my job to cover athletes and athletic events everywhere and anywhere.

Any time a sports writer writes about sports he has a wide field to choose from. There are numerous things one may write about and it is up to the individual to decide for himself what to cover.

As to whether Mr. Byrd did schedule these games ten or more years before Nehlen was hired is unknown. That would be more than 14 years ago. This is a statistic I would like to see proven with documentation. Some games are scheduled as little as two years in advance.

Now of most importance, any degrading or libelous feelings that were brought out in my last paragraph towards the Pioneers are unjust and incorrect. This would be preposterous. As a one-time Pioneer myself, I would not print anything defamatory about my former teammates and present good friends. I know practically all of the gridders personally. If anything degrading was thought to be, I sincerely apologize. I clearly stated I was going to watch WVU play a real team finally.

As far as serving the MERCURY and myself, properly, I would be happy to go to school at Morgantown and report there if Mr. Barrick would pay my tuition and fees expenses.

harriers finish tenth

In the GSC Invitational last weekend the Pioneers finished tenth of the sixteen teams competing. Senior Larry Taylor was the only harrier to finish in the top ten, placing ninth.

Following Taylor's time of 31:21 for the Pioneers were: Steve Keenan in 32nd place, Dave Antonik at 49th, Don Harding in 83rd place, Steve Roberts and Chris Kiester finishing 86 and 92 respectively, and Lloyd Willis placed 104 in the field of 125 runners.

A foot injury to junior Steve Meckfessel forced him to stop running midway through the race.

Coach Jim Hilgenberg was happy with the participation of the teams. He felt the meet ran smoothly due to good help and he appreciates everyone that came down last Saturday morning to help judge. He was a little disappointed in how his team placed in the meet. He felt they could have done better.

Brian Ferrari of California

State of Pennsylvania finished first, setting a course record at 30:04 for the 5.6 mile course. His teammate, Mike Bradley, placed second, one second behind him. Frostburg State won the meet as a team with 41 points.

In the women's category Sue Cavanaugh and Gwen VanDine took first and second places respectively as California State won the women's division with 29 total points.

Pioneers Overpowered by Rams

Last Saturday, the Pioneers ventured to Ram Stadium for a game with the conference champions, Shepherd. The Rams took the lead early in the game and steadily built on until finally defeating the Pioneer gridmen 29-7.

Midway through the first quarter, GSC quarterback Jeff Metheny fumbled a snap and Shepherd recovered at the Glenville 37 yard line. Three plays later Anthony Crenshaw slipped through four Pioneer tacklers to score a touchdown on a 29-yard run for a 7-0 Shepherd lead.

With exactly one minute left in the first half, Ram quarterback Mike Coyle hit Dana Peters on a 10 - yard scoring pass to give Shepherd a 17-0 lead at intermission. The Pioneer's offense had yet to exceed past the Rams 40-yard line.

On Glenville's first possession of the second half, they drove 39 yards on short runs and a 15-yard personal foul penalty against the Rams. The drive was halted at the 22 where freshman Mark Szklennik had his 38-yard field goal attempt blocked.

Following an interception of a Metheny pass at the Glenville 45, the Rams took six plays to score on a one-yard run. The following extra point attempt was wide, leaving the score 29-0.

GSC, finally rolling the offense in gear, drove 92 yards to score their lone touchdown following a Robert Flynt interception. On the drive, tight end John Trew caught two passes in-

random thoughts

After spending an "enjoyable" weekend in Glenville, I've jotted down a few random thoughts. (1) Cross country is Glenville's winningest sport. However, most of the excitement occurs during a small portion of the meet. (2) The Mountaineers are better than I expected. I didn't think you could show your talent playing division III football teams, though. (3) The Lady Pioneers basketball team will sport new home and away uniforms this year. This is the first set of new uniforms the team will wear since the initiation of women's basketball at Glenville. (4) Those people going to the Steelers - New England football game should feel lucky. There is a fifteen-year waiting list for Steelers tickets - honest. (5) The Pioneer football team is better than what they're playing. Statistically, they mauled Waynesburg and against Shepherd they had seventeen first downs. (6) The Baltimore Orioles will win the World Series. (7) Marietta College's team bus smashed my car at the cross country meet this weekend -- I hate that school. (8) The Pioneer basketball team under new head coach Gary Nottingham should improve their 8-20 mark of a year ago. They will not, however, finish much above the .500 mark. Size again is their major internal problem. (9) Larry Taylor is the best-conditioned athlete at Glenville. (10) Hockey is the most exciting spectator sport, followed by college basketball. (11) Penn State needs a quarterback.
