Elderhostel To See Increase

"The Elderhostel program that is held at Glenville State College every year is expected to be the largest in West Virginia this coming summer," says Dr. Irvin Talbott, Director of Resource Development. He says it may be the largest Elderhostel program in the United States. The program is designed for people over 60 from all over the United States who want to take courses in a college atmosphere and get to know college students. A variety of courses are offered including courses in golf and swimming instruction, Appalachian folk culture, computers, poetry, literature, writing, and video taping. College instructors donate their time to teach these classes.

This year, the Elderhostel program will run for 11 weeks instead of the usual eight. Talbott says that this year, they hope to begin a scholarship for students to award to their parents or grandparents. He is very enthusiastic about the program this year and anticipates that it will be the "finest" in the United States.

Any student who has received a National Direct Student Loan from GSC, who is NOT planning to return next semester needs to report to the Financial Aid Office to see Connie Roberts for an exit interview. This meeting is very important!

Band To Present Concert

The Glenville State College Band will present a Christmas Concert on Sunday, December 11th, at 3 p.m. in the Glenville State College Auditorium. The program consists of favorite Christmas carols presented by the full band and various small instrumental groups. "Sleigh Ride," "White Christmas," and "The Christmas Song" are among the numbers by the full band as well as "Angels We Have Heard on High," "Jolly Old St. Nick," and "Jingle Bells" by the small ensembles. We invite everyone for an hour of enjoyable seasonal music. Admission is free.

Members performing include: Ronnie Hall, Pam Brown, Mike Shartiger, Steve White, Carol Wilson, Tammy Crane, Mark Aldridge, Terry Phillips, Vickie Teter, Tom Miller, Twilene Stump, and Sherry Drake, trumpets; Robin Foreman, Debbie Faust, April Love, Jamie Martin, Cathy Sears and Melisa Lowther, French horns; Lacy Bryant, Bill Weed, Aaron Eubanks, J.R. Aliff, Ed Messenger, David Ingram, Marty Lemon, and Pete Brown, trombones; Letha Butcher and Kim Gerwig, baritones; Carl Watson, Neal Benson, Tim Miller, Eric Mellen, and Tim Richards, tubas.

Sam Unger, Gary Mullenax, Jenny Lewis, Robert Burns, Melanie Dutt, Frank Mitchell, and Mark McFadden, saxes; Darla Keenan and Yvonne Youngblood, oboes; Sarah Wood, Renee Oldham, Robin Rhodes, Robin Crist, Leanne Oldham, Bobbie Gonzalez, Ramona Smith, Judy Robinson, Tracey Daugherty and Mary Kay Jones, clarinets; Betty Wagner, Leesa Holder, J. D. The band is under the direction of Mr. John McKinney.

The band "Message" will perform at the Christmas dance Saturday.

'Message' To Play At Christmas Dance

The GSC Student Congress is sponsoring a semi-formal Christmas dance this Saturday, Dec. 10 from 10 p.m. - 1 a.m. in the ballroom. Admission is $1. Punch and finger foods will be served.

Providing the music for the evening will be the band

"Message." Composed of four men and one woman, "Message" performs music by the likes of Michael Jackson, Irene Cara, Diana Ross, Men at Work and Kool and the Gang, as well as some original tunes.

During the course of the evening, a Snow Princess and a Snow Prince will be elected by those in attendance to reign over the remainder of the dance. Balloons will be cast at the door.

Come on out after the ball games and enjoy the dance. It should provide a good night of dancing and celebration.

Summer Trip To Nova Scotia Is Outlined

Students who would like to photograph and paint on location in the varied landscape of Nova Scotia during the second term of summer school should contact Charles C. Scott in the art department or Tammy Stalnaker, a sophomore art major. As on previous trips, the students will be housed at Acadia University in Wolfville, Nova Scotia. The group will meet to plan routes so that places of greatest interest can be visited, such as Niagara Falls, the Ontario Science Center, Frederick Remington Museum and Studio, West Point Military Academy, Falling Water House designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, as well as various museums in Philadelphia and New York City. The return trip will be a day crossing on the M/S Scotia Prince to Portland, Maine. The enrollment is limited to eight students. If interested, please contact one of the above by December 20 so reservations can be made and plans finalized. The trip will prove to be interesting as well as educational. Anyone may sign up to participate and six to nine hours of college credit may be earned.

The President's Christmas Carnival for the faculty, staff and their children will be held Sunday, December 18 at 2 p.m. in the ballroom. Generous prizes will be awarded for the children plus refreshments and a visit from Santa Claus.

Banquet Held

A Neoclassicism banquet for neoclassicism and Shakespeare students was held on Thursday, December 1, at the home of Dr. Barbara Tedford, professor of English. Students were encouraged to dress according to Eighteenth Century fashion and all the food and refreshments served came from an Eighteenth Century cookbook. Food items in-

DECEMBER 4-9... RECOVERING FROM

Keenan's Comments

Instead of discussing a single topic this week, I plan to touch on several subjects (ala the dearly-departed Mark Kozlowski of "Random Thoughts" fame).

First of all, I'd like to briefly discuss the Mercury's policy concerning letters to the editor, since we have had a few come our way. We use our discretion in printing letters but try to print as many as possible, as long as they are timely and signed (we will withhold your name upon request).

Next, I'd like to recognize a few people on campus who are doing a good job of what they do (if I named everyone, we could be here a while). Bill Stackman, the director of the Pioneer Center, is an extremely hard worker who has offered the entire college a wide variety of activities in which to participate. The intramural athletic program is a better, more organized one, thanks mainly to Jeff Propps and Jesse Skiles. The music and theatre departments continue to put out one good show after another, exhibiting our dire need for a better fine arts facility.

Finally, thanks to all those who are displaying Christmas decorations of any kind. There are many around, and these make it much easier to get in the Christmas spirit.

The American Red Cross will have their last blood drive of the year on Tuesday, Dec. 13 at the Wesley Foundation from 12 noon until 5 p.m.

Chi Beta Phi will meet at 6 p.m., Thursday, December 8, in room 302 Science Hall to make Christmas decorations.

Lambda Chi Alpha

The Brothers of the Beta Beta Zeta chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha, held their weekly meeting, Monday at 5:00. Elections were held for new officers and plans were finalized for several upcoming events. New officers are:

Pres.: Pudgy Simms
Vice-Pres.: Tim Brown
Sec.: Cecil Chapman
Treas.: Sheldon Sturm
Rush Chair.: Steve Gregori
Rit.: Mark Phillips
Frat. Ed.: Dave Nowell
Fund Rais.: Earl 'Boomer' Bell
Alumni Ad.: Jack Kalmar
Social Chair.: Tom Meadows
Advisor: Ric Carder

Congratulations to all our new brothers, Tom Meadows, Dave Nowell, Steve Gregori, Jesse Skiles, Earl 'Boomer' Bell, Frenchy Williams, Aaron Ewbanks.

Brothers are reminded to find out when to meet to go carolling Thursday night.

Brothers are also reminded to bring a covered dish to Snowball, Friday; also BYOB. Snowball starts at 7:00 p.m. All brothers and ladies are invited.

Congratulations goes out to the AXA I for placing second in Volleyball and taking first overall in intramurals. Way to go team I.

Ohnimgohow Players

The Ohnimgohow Players are proud to announce this semester's pledge class. The members of the fall class are as follows: Gina Bailes, J. D. Benson, Jack Kalmar, Steve Keenan, Scott Kitchen, Mark Kozlowski, Tim Mace, Mark Martin, Mitch Moore, Delton Sigley, Lisa Stuchell, Betty Wagner, and Mitzi Whited. Class officers are president-Tim Mace, secretary-J. D. Benson and treasurer-Scott Kitchen.

We are very proud of these prospective members. Players are reminded that pledging will continue until December 16. Informal initiation will be held on December 16 at 5:00 p.m. and formal initiation will be held on December 18 at 6:00 p.m.

The Organization for Exceptional Children will sponsor an organizational meeting about Special Olympics to be held on Thursday, December 8 in Clark Hall Room 101 from 4-5 p.m. A party will be held following the meeting from 5:30 until ? at the Fireplace.

Inter-Fraternity Council

The main topics of discussion at last month's IFC meeting were the Gilmer County food pantry and Fraternity rushing for next semester.

The food pantry project, which was held the week of Nov. 6-14, was termed by IFC president Eddie Mazzella "A huge success." The stock of the food pantry, which is to be opened for the use of needy Gilmer County families, was collected around town by members of GSC fraternities and sororities in conjunction with the Wesley Foundation, where the pantry is being kept. Any family who is in need of food may call the Wesley Foundation at any time for help.

The schedule adopted by IFC for next semester's fraternity rush parties is as follows: joint rush, Jan. 19; Tau Kappa Epsilon, Jan. 24; Lambda Chi Alpha, Jan. 25; and Theta Xi, Jan. 26. All rush parties will be held from 7-10:30 in the Ballroom.

The December IFC meeting is scheduled for Monday, Dec. 12 at 4:30 p.m.

Phi Beta Lambda

Phi Beta Lambda will have its Christmas party Tuesday, December 13 at 6:30 in the Verona Mapel Room. We will be going Christmas carolling at the nursing home after the party. All members come out and have a good time.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

The Delta Alpha Chapter of the Tri Sigma Sorority held a school dress meeting on Monday, Dec. 5 at 4:30 p.m.

Katie Crickenberger was introduced as our Field Secretary and we hope her stay with us this week is a pleasant one.

Initiation for our pledges will be Thursday evening. We can't wait to call you sisters! There will also be a Panhellenic meeting Thursday at 12:30 in the Little Theatre. Thanks to all who planned the Panhellenic Banquet Monday evening. We all had a good time.

The annual fall formal will be Friday evening. All sisters are urged to come and enjoy a good time.

Our Christmas Party has been planned for Dec. 12 on Sigma floor. We will exchange gifts and reveal our Secret Sister notes this week!

Our pledges have planned reverse rush party for us Tuesday, Dec. 13th at 8:00. All actives are invited.

Panhellenic is sponsoring a blood drive Dec. 13th and all sorority sisters who can help are asked to sign up.

Sister of the week is Jenny Wood for the Alumnae Party! Great Job, Jenny! The Cultured Pearl award goes to Cyndi Crowder, Tina Bennett, and Leanne Butler this week.

Play Review Questioned

Dear Editor,

In last week's edition of the Glenville Mercury, I read a very disturbing letter that talked about a few of the plays which were shown a few weeks ago. The letter was written by Mitchell Moore.

The title of the article was "Suite Ends Fall Season." Mr. Moore talked about a few of the actor's performances. This letter I am writing is not to deal with what happened in these plays, but to discuss the way in which people talk about others. Mr. Moore said that some people were good in their parts, but he downgraded others such as Kris Bush and Mike Dotson. Also, "Mr. Moore", Miss GSC is Pam McVey. When I read the article I thought you forgot her name.

It seems that we always want to criticize others for something they are doing, especially when someone does something for the enjoyment of others such as Kris and Mike. Kris Bush and Mike Dotson were in a play because they wanted to to entertain others and what do they get - stabbed in the back! (not literally)

This was Kris Bush's first play; now after her reading Mr. Moore's letter it will probably be her last. She probably feels that there is no use in trying anymore. In Mike Dotson's case it's not the same because he has been in other plays that were successful.

Most of the people I talked to said that they liked the play, but we still have people who criticize others' actions.

I hope that in the future people will think before they write something that may damage someone else. My parents' always told me if you can't say something nice about someone, don't say anything at all. We have a great school here, believe it or not, and I hope it continues to get better, but it won't if we keep downgrading everything that someone does. Be proud of GSC, and make things work by helping each other. If someone does not like what someone does, or if they disagree, tell them, but not the whole school. In closing all I would like to say is help someone and some day they may help you. Don't criticize others, help them. If we all do these simple things we will be a lot better off.

Editor's Note: Ironic, isn't it?

Thank you,
Eddie Mazzella

Athlete's Addition

Last weekend was an exciting one for college athletics as Shepherd lost in the playoffs and Marshall dumped WVU.

Shepherd, numero uno in the WVC, was ranked fifth in the nation due to their impressive statistics. They were soundly thrashed 42-21 by the worst rated team in the playoffs. Carson-Newman scored 42 points on one of the nations top scoring defenses (8.4 ppg.).

After seeing how badly Shepherd, who went undefeated in conference play annihilating practically every opponent, was beat, one might be led to question the credibility of the caliber of football played in our conference. WVC football may have a long way to go.

In the impressive new Henderson Center, Marshall University ran by the over publicized Mounties 78-67. During the last of the many Lester Rowe scuffles a member of the West Virginia squad tore off his jersey and quit the team.

Rumor has it that Catlett and this player never got along. This former-cager kept his grade point average above the required average written in the NCAA academic eligibility rule. Catlett knew he would not fit in.

I still can't figure out how WVU basketball is placed under investigation and Catlett writes off the media pressure by asking who turned them in. That is not the point, the point is he is not to be supposedly fixing credits and possibly paying recruits.

Applications will be accepted for Computer Center and Micro/Word Processing Lab assistants from now through December 20, 1983 for second semester work. If interested please drop by the Computer Center Office (AB-102) and fill out an application.

All seniors are reminded that announcements must be ordered and paid for in full by January 20. There will be no extra announcements printed other than what is ordered. Seniors should contact Debbie Nagy in the Bookstore to order announcements.

Pioneers Drop Two Versus WVC Teams

In their second week of regular season action Gary Nottingham's male cagers dropped two highly contested matches versus West Virginia Conference foes to move their record to 1-3.

Two three point field goals by Glenville, six of seven free throws by host West Virginia State, and a missed desperation three point attempt by Rich Moore, all occurring in the game's final two minutes spelled doom for GSC as they were nipped 83-80.

Sophomore guard Steve Morris hit on a three point field goal with two minutes remaining, placing the score at 77-77. State proceeded to connect on five free throws to put it 82-77. Another three pointer, this one by Rich Moore, brought the Pioneers within two points as they fouled State on the inbounds pass. One of the two free throws was made and a last second shot by Moore bounced off of the rim as time expired at Institute last Tuesday.

Captains Clay Young and Moore led in scoring with 16 points as five Pioneer hoopsters reached double figures. Kenny Taylor and Rudy Watts, in a relief role off the bench, netted 14 each, and Morris scored 13 points.

The Hilltoppers of West Liberty were the Pioneers next opponent last Saturday as Glenville State hung tough, only to have the Toppers pull ahead late to win 75-68.

Host Liberty led by eleven at halftime as Glenville began to make their threat. Outscoring the Toppers 17-8 in the beginning of the final half pulled the Pioneers within two points at 44-42. GSC held close for a few minutes until 50-48. At this point Liberty ran off ten unanswered points as the momentum shifted midway through the period.

Four three pointers were made by Glenville in the closing minutes, Morris striking on two of them with freshman Dwayne Davis and Matthew Bullett hitting on the other two.

Pacing Glenville once again were Young and Moore with 21 and 19 points respectively. The Pioneers shot 58% from the floor.

Fouls and turnovers once again were two problems for the cagers. West Liberty went to the charity line 32 times while GSC had only six trips. Glenville also turned the ball over 15 times.

A trip to West Virginia Tech for a game on Monday is the only away game scheduled for the Pioneers. Wednesday evening will see the cagers play host to Wheeling with another home game slated for Saturday evening versus Salem.

Senior guard Sonja Bailey (10) passes the ball to postwoman Maria Lothes (54) as Kim Maynard (20) looks on versus Bluefield State.

GSC Ladies Stomp State, Bop Lady Blues At Home

Two impressive victories, one away and one home, boosted the Glenville State College Lady Pioneers' record to 3-1, 2-0 now in conference competition.

Traveling to Institute to oppose the Lady Jackets of West Virginia State, sophomore Jewell Rankin scored 26 points, 22 in the opening half, and nine rebounds to pace Glenville to a sound 77-57 thrashing of their host a week ago.

GSC led from start to finish in this contest as the Ladies led 46-22 at the half. Following Rankin in scoring was Bunny Taylor with 19, and Kim Maynard and Tina Burkhamer next with ten each.

At home the women fought off Lynne Kelly and her Lady Blue teammates to grab a 72-67 victory over visiting Bluefield as all five starters reached double figures.

The Lady Blues dominated early as they jumped out to a 25-18 advantage with six and a half minutes remaining in the opening half. In the remaining minutes of this period Glenville outscored Bluefield 23-8 to take a 41-33 lead into the locker room at intermission. The second half was hard fought as the visitors drew within three points but the Lady Pioneers would not break, finally winning by five points.

Maria Lothes and Maynard paced GSC with 13 points apiece as Taylor and Rankin, along with Sonja Bailey, netted 12. Lynne Kelly, the 6'2" workhorse inside, led Bluefield with 35 points. In the losing effort, Bluefield outbounded the Lady Pioneer squad 51-29. Kelly collected 23 of those rebounds.

The Ladies traveled to West Virginia Tech for a game on Monday with another road trip to Marshall University on Wednesday. This Saturday in an afternoon game, the women play host to Shepherd. Game time is set for 1:30 p.m.

Spiker Champs Crowned

A suspected victory by the undefeated Winkies in the women's division and a mild upset by the Final Edition in the males' section earned each of these teams the championship crown in their respective volleyball divisions.

After defeating the fourth rated Contenders in two straight matches in semi-final action, the number one team faced the second ranked Weiner Whompers for the title.

Led by Judy Niday's six points, the Winkies outlasted their challengers 15-9 in the opening game. In the second and final contest Niday once again led, this time with five points, as the champion Winkies turned away the Whompers 15-11 for the crown.

Members of the championship Winkie squad along with Niday include Kim Maynard, Cathy Starcher, Bunny Taylor, Marsha Strader, Maria Lothes, Sonja

Bailey and Tina "Weiner" Burkhamer.

In the men's competition, the number one Cherry Bombers won the opening game of the semi-finals only to be upset by the fourth-ranked Final Edition squad in the next two games.

Following the Lambda Chi I's victory in two straight games over Loads, the Final Edition was set to meet the Chi's in the title match. Lambda Chi I captured the first contest 15-10 led by Mike Phillips' five scores. The second match was taken by the Final Edition 15-13 as Jeff Wilcox netted seven points. In the last and final game the Chi's were turned back by the Edition 15-11 for the title.

Participating with Wilcox on the title squad were Greg Knopp, Dave Husk, Mike Lilly, Wayne Huffman, Jeff Metheny, Rocky Metheny, Terry Kendall, Jim Bird, and Brian Sigman.

Pribble Attends Meeting

Dr. Mary Jo Pribble, associate professor of chemistry at Glenville State College, attended the Thirty-Fifth Annual Southeast Regional Meeting of the American Chemical Society held at the Civic Center and Radisson Plaza Hotel in Charlotte, North Carolina, on November 9-11. The program which attracted chemists from industry and academic institutions featured symposia on the following topics: Preparation, Structure, and Biological Properties of Hydrophilic Polymers; Lithium Chemistry; Application of Infrared and Raman Spectroscopy to Chemical Problems; Chemistry in Microelectronics; Computer Graphics; Inorganic and Organometallic Photochemistry; Natural Products; Recent Developments in Fiber Forming Polymers; Structure and Transport in Membranes; and Solid State Chemistry.

Among the special feature of the meeting was the presentation of the 1983 Southeast Regional Award in High School Chemistry Teaching to Dr. Nicholas D. Tzimopoulos. Dr. Tzimopoulos is a teacher at Bartram School in Jacksonville, Florida.

Rifle Team Formed On-Campus

For the first time in GSC history, a rifle team has been formed. The only problem now is finding someone beside the awesome WVU squad to compete against. College Police Captain Jerry Helmick is in charge of the present eleven member squad.

Anyone on the squad must also be a member of the rifle club which tries to meet every Monday and Wednesday afternoon between 1-3 p.m. President of the first year club is John Fox with John Barton serving as vice-president. Paul Tallman is the elected executive officer as Lanny Crouch serves as the secretary with Ed De Allume handling the treasury department.

Serving faithfully under these people are Mark Fox, Steve Bumgardner, Steve Smith, Walt Marria, Ralph Singleton, and Terry Henger.

The riflers practice four basic shooting stances. They are kneeling, sitting, prone and off hand. They

There will be an organizational meeting for all men interested in joining the 1984 GSC men's track squad on Wednesday, December 7 at 3:30 p.m. in room 209 of the Health Building.

Co-op Available

The GSC Campus Co-op is located right off the student union. The Co-op is a store operated by the Marketing 478 class and it carries inventory ranging from sportswear and personal care items to posters and candy bars.

Students enrolled in the class apply for the positions they prefer and are "hired" by Mrs. Cinda Echard, the instructor of the class.

Positions available each semester are manager, assistant manager, accountant, inventory, display, advertising and merchandise buyer.

The merchandise in the Co-op comes from various sources. Some of the sportswear is purchased from Zides. Bright of America, outside of Summersville, supplies posters and other miscellaneous items.

The Co-op will be glad to order any item not currently in stock. Student cooperation will allow the Co-op to remain open, so the next time a need arises, stop by the Co-op first. It's there for you.

Rosters for intramural basketball may be turned in to the Physical Education Office any time now.

Janice Hensley goes up hard on this layup versus Bluefield.

random thoughts

Hi! Remember me? I'm that tall Pollock who tries to think every once in awhile. I've had a long time to think but thought very little. Here's what I think I thought.

1) Terry Bradshaw will start Saturday or at least play  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the game for the slumping Steelers. (2) Why do women's shirts button on the wrong side? Or is it the men's? In any case, why are they different? (3) Marshall plays an exciting brand of basketball. Huck's Herd will win some games this year and will do it colorfully. (4) The West Virginia Conference is down in talent this year. Glenville's basketball team can still contend in the league with a little confidence booster. Clay Young may be the strongest player physically in the league. (5) Where is the college football Hall of Fame? I figure it's in Alabama, but how many people visit it each year? That many huh? (6) Do you have a term paper due soon? (7) WVU will win the Atlantic ten basketball tournament. (8) The player for WVU had little class when throwing his shirt at his coach during his team's loss to Marshall. He probably made his teammates feel real good. (9) The Redskins should win the Superbowl. They'll play the Raiders. (10) I think the town of Glenville's Christmas decorations are dandy. They sure beat the pine trees they used to hang on the telephone poles.

Ford Donates Rare Book

Christmas has come to the Robert F. Kidd Library through a gift from George E. Ford, industrialist and 1956 graduate of Glenville State College. Ford donated a rare, limited edition of the AUDUBON SOCIETY BABY ELEPHANT FOLIO OF JOHN JAMES AUDUBON'S BIRDS OF AMERICA. There are only 2000 copies in circulation and the book donated is copy number 699. This book is a revision of Audubon's Double Elephant Folio and was revised by Roger Tory Peterson, today's most prominent and popular authority on birds. The edition now in the possession of the library is autographed by Peterson and his wife, Virginia Marie, authors of the Baby Elephant Folio.

The book will be in the librarian's office until it is catalogued and ready for display.

Glenn Gillespie models a tie bearing the WVU logo he designed.

Gillespie Designs Logo

If one were to visit every college campus in this state, he would probably recognize one familiar thing that seems to be consistent among them all. Someone is going to be wearing a hat or shirt or any number of other accoutrements with a WV on it.

Just where did this logo come from? It seems to have popped in from nowhere and now it's as easily recognized as TWA or JFK.

The creator is none other than Glenn Gillespie, a freshman art major here at GSC. West Virginia University wanted a catchy new logo and asked Glenn to sketch some rough drafts for presentation at the next board meeting. After reviewing his work, they chose the current logo because it was attractive, yet simple and easily recognized.

They were right. The logo has caught on with WVU fans and mass marketing of the insignia has made it possible to purchase the logo on a number of products.

The WVU logo is not the only one Glenn is famous for. The Ladies Auxillary Club of Harrison County sponsored a contest for a logo to represent the county's 200 anniversary. Any Harrison county student from grades seven to twelve was eligible to enter and they chose Glenn's over all of the entries.

Glenn's additional accomplishments include an industrial safety poster contest sponsored by Vocational Industrial Clubs of America (VICA) where his entry has been sent to nationals. Another entry of his that has been sent to nationals is a stamp design for the United States Post Office. The winner hasn't been announced in either contest.

Glenn also won two honorable mentions and a merit award at the GSC annual art exhibit. He also attended the Cedar Lakes Camp for exceptionally talented students in the area of art, and is currently working with other GSC art students on a logo for the college van.

Glenn graduated in May from Harrison County High School and also received a two year commercial art degree from United Career Center.

After graduation from GSC, Glenn plans to attend the Art Institute of Pittsburgh and would like to pursue a career as a freelance artist or a commercial artist.

Wesley Foundation

We would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday season.

This week's Family Entertainment Night movie is Sea Gypsies. It will be shown on Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in the main room. Admission is .75 and free refreshments will be served. Watch THE MERCURY in January for a schedule of next semester's Family Entertainment Night events.

There will be a Blood Drive at the Foundation on Tuesday, Dec. 13 from 12:00 to 5:00 p.m. Also, on the 13th, there will be a panel discussion on Religion entitled, "You Don't Really Believe that do you?" Pastors representing various churches in the area will be available to answer questions regarding their respective churches.

We would like to remind everyone that the plant tree will be available over Christmas break.

Sigma Pledges Sponsor Contest

During the week of Nov. 15, students of Glenville State were allowed to vote for the guy with the prettiest legs on campus. The contest was sponsored by the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority pledges which are Tammy Maynor, Kassie Harsh, Jackie Mullens, Camella Tinney, Allison Johnson, Cyndi Crowder and Jennifer Gaynor. There were five contestants, sponsored by Louis Bennett Hall, Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, Delta Zeta pledges, Order or Diana, and the GSC cheerleaders. Votes were cast by penny-a-vote and when all votes were tallied, Steve Keenan came out the winner.

Steve was sponsored by the Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. He is a senior English liberal arts major from Gauley Bridge, and is active as Vice-President of Student Congress, editor of The Glenville Mercury, member of the cross-country team, president of Louis Bennett Hall and an Ohnimgohow pledge.

Freshman Picked To Cheering Post

Jenny Wilson, a freshman from Korea, will fill the position of alternate cheerleader for the 1983-84 school year. Jenny is a Biology Secondary Education major. She will cheer with the squad until January, due to a shortage of cheerleaders.

McClure Chosen

The week before Thanksgiving, the Delta Zeta sorority sponsored a Baby Beautiful contest. This year's winner was Theresa McClure. In second place was Cathy Starcher, sponsored by the Lady Pioneers. In addition to the contest the sorority held a flask raffle. The flask was won by Jennifer Gaynor.

Theresa is from Charleston and was sponsored by the Delta Zeta pledge class.

The contest began in 1974. Among past winners are Steve Pridemore, Rick Laughlin, Anita Keister, Susan Pyles, Meg Groves, Ann Woody, Vickie Parrish, and Nila Golden.

cluded dishes such as patty of mushrooms, mincemeat pie, Shrewsbury cookies and fried celery. Those students who attended the banquet were as follows: Tammi Igo, Mitchell Moore, Jim Bailey, Penny Clutter, Jenny Lewis, Marty Anderson and Jennifer Gaynor.

Students are reminded that Student Congress meetings are open on Tuesdays at 5:30 p.m. in room 103, Pioneer Center.

All students who pre-registered for the spring semester may pay their fees until Dec. 21.

Center Offers Assistance

Stars' positions or geography have you puzzled? How do you get your students involved? College instructors and student teachers, come to the Media Center and let your creative imagination take over with innumerable ways to use the Scan Globes.

The "Terra-Scan Globe Learning System" includes a globe, full-color world wall map, four colored marking pens, and teacher/pupil manual of activities. It's a unique learning system that brings pupils a hands-on experience with their physical world.

Turn off the lights for the "Viking"—a 12-inch physical/political globe with an interior light to brighten interest. Without the interior light, it is a physical globe with topography of the earth's surface and ocean floor. Turn off the ceiling lights and turn on the globe's light and political divisions appear in brilliant color. Solar time can be determined by using the metal time dial mounted at the top of the sphere.

Want to know "what's out there?" Try the "Galaxy." House lights on, students see a dramatic celestial globe naming the stars and their positions. House lights off, globe light on, and a magnificently detailed color representation of the zodiac appears.

Sound great? Looks better! And college instructors and student teachers (exclusively) may check any of these out for one week for use in the classroom.

See the Media Center staff for a demonstration.

Hickman Talks On Graduate Plans

Mr. Joseph Hickman was guest speaker to the Kappa Delta Pi Education society. His topic was planning graduate studies. During his discussion, he made some very constructive suggestions describing how an individual can begin to plan for graduate studies.

One of his comments referred to the fact that being accepted into a master's program can be time-consuming due to long waiting lists and slow applicant processing. Thus, an individual needs to begin contemplating the future no later than the junior year of undergraduate studies. He stated that it was necessary to first contact the institution or institutions preferred, to establish contacts for discussion on program requirements and the approach to use in fulfilling them. If a student can not decide which school to choose, visit the GSC Placement Office. They have information on various institutions that may help. Secondly, after the decision has been made, an individual must apply for the Graduate Record Exam (GRE); a prerequisite for all graduate programs. The results of the GRE are sometimes used as an applicant screener but in most instances, it is just an admittance requirement. Thirdly, if graduate studies is a goal, don't feel inhibited because of financial reasons. Cheer up! There are types of aid available. Mr. Hickman, in the GSC Placement Office, is the person to see to determine one's eligibility for student aid.

In closing, Mr. Hickman stated that he and others in the Placement Office will gladly help you in furthering your education.

However, he did emphasize that choosing an institution to attend was the greatest responsibility of the student. Their job is to help students arrive at identified goals. According to Dr. Cleek, sponsor, questions concerning post graduate work can be answered by the staff at the Placement Office.

All two and four year seniors graduating in May must order a cap and gown by February 15, 1984. Place your orders in the Alumni Office, Pioneer Center.

The Ladies of the White Rose are currently having a fund raiser. It is a 50/50 raffle. Chances are only $1. The winner gets half the pool. The drawing will be held Dec. 14.
