

The Glenville Mercury

Number 5

Glenville State College, Glenville, WV 26351

October 3 1984

Micro-Computer Center Available

The project started in the summer of 1983, and after numerous hours of work and appropriated funds from the administration of approximately $75,000, the micro-computer center is now opened.

The micro-computer center is available to all students taking courses in computer science. The center houses 13 TRS-80 Radio Shack and 11 IBM PC computers.

The IBM computers are networked together within the room, and are tied to a phone line which connects them to the Cedar Lakes Educational Center.

The Cedar Lakes Centers is an outgrowth of legislation which allocated money to equip every high school in West Virginia with 20 IBM computers for instructional purposes. Further appropriation of money was to be used to establish a center where all this equipment would be operated and software would be fed out. This center is the center at Cedar Lakes. This facility will have two full time staff members from the State Dept. of Education. The software available will be for all educational purposes including: Business, English, Social Studies, Music, Art, Physical Education, Math, and Science.

By putting in the IBM's, GSC will be hooked into the state-wide educational access to the software and tied into all high schools in the state. Glenville is the only college in the state making use of this system.

Legislation also made available funds to train eight people in the state for maintenance of the equipment. Mr. Edsel DeWeese, from GSC maintenance dept., recently went to school to learn the maintenance of the network and equipment. Mr. DeWeese will service the Glenville area.

It takes many people to accomplish any task, and the installation of the micro-computer center was no different. It was the GSC maintenance dept., and the faculty in the computer science dept., that have worked in designing, arranging, and equipping the lab now existing at GSC. The work could not have been executed without the financing from the administration. Also involved in the successful project were supportive members from the WV Vocational Dept. including Mr. Louis Loudermilk, Mrs. Nancy Raynes, State Supervisor of Business, and Mrs. Brenda Williams. Not to be forgotten is Mr. Ernie Smith, chairman of the Business Dept. who organized and headed the project. These people have brought further technology and possible learning through computers to our fingertips, to them we owe a debt of gratitude.

ATTENTION: All members, associate members, and other interested persons of Pi Gamma Mu are encouraged to attend a program meeting this Wednesday evening. The meeting will be held at 5:15 and last until 6:00 at the Wesley Foundation. Also, remember to pay your dues to Dr. Eaton.

The criteria for admission to the School of Nursing will be discussed by Dr. Jacqueline Stemple from WVU School of Nursing on Thursday, Oct. 11, 1984.

Students should arrange to attend either the 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 or the 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 session in Room 107 of Science Hall.

Melody Hopkins and Lisa McHenry will be the leading ladies in 'THE ODD COUPLE'.

'The Odd Couple' Slated Oct. 11, 12

Lisa McHenry and Melody Hopkins are the female members of the upcoming production of The Odd Couple. They play the "Pigeon sisters" from England who get involved with Oscar and Felix who live in the same apartment building.

Lisa McHenry is a secretarial science major of Sand Fork and has been in previous productions "Strange Road" and "You Can't Take It With You," for which she was selected "Best Actress". She is currently Secretary/

Treasurer of the Ohnimgohow Players.

Melody Hopkins, a freshman from Parkersburg, will make her first appearance on the GSC stage. She is majoring in oral communications and business. She had extensive experience in speech at Parkersburg South High and received several honors in the State Tournament. She is currently President of the General Assembly of the WV Mock-UN.

The show will run October 11 and 12. Tickets will go on sale Thursday, October 4.

Ceremony Planned

On Wednesday, October 10, 1984, Glenville State College will dedicate its Gas Well No. 1. The formal ceremony will take place on the well site, located on the college farm, at 2:00 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend the dedication. Dr. John Saunders, President of the West Virginia Board of Regents will officiate the ribbon cutting ceremony. Mr. I.L. Morris, Owner and Operator of Waco Oil and Gas Co., Inc., will be present to open the valve on the well to officially begin feeding gas into Hope Gas line, if all connections have been made at that time.

It is expected that several members of the Board of Regents, members of the West Virginia Legislature, and members of the oil and gas industry will be present. President William K. Simmons noted that "the presence of these people is significant in that it was through their efforts that this project was able to be completed. Also in attendance will be Ron Maxey, director of the GSC Petroleum Engineering program and the students in that program.

Following the formal dedication ceremony, a

Mr. Ernest Smith and Mr. Tim Loudin are shown with students in the computer center.

Montrose Award Questions Answered

"Winning isn't everything." "It's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game."

Sound familiar? The Athletic Committee has recently been criticized for its selection of Jeff Metheny as the Montrose Award winner. The critics have suggested that the selection process is narrow in its view and that changes should be made. They have also suggested a winner: Larry Taylor.

I would like to address specific comments in last week's Letters to the Editor using information that I received from Mrs. Virginia Hays, Chairperson of the Athletic Committee.

1. "The Administration" does not select winners of the Montrose Award. The Athletic Committee is made up of faculty and students and votes by secret ballot. The president of the college is notified of the final choice and then he notifies the winner's family. The president is not on the Athletic Committee nor does he have voting rights.

2. "A far more deserving recipient..." It is my understanding that the coaches of the various sports make their nominations to the committee based on outstanding performance in that sport. The committee then reviews the qualifications of the athletes and does take into consideration GPA and multiple sport participation.

3. "Minor sports" have not always been "slighted" by the Montrose Award. Past winners have been involved in such sports as bowling and golf. Neither are women excluded from the selection process.

4. Why is it "laughable" that Jeff Metheny was selected? His list of accomplishments and activities is equally impressive. The choice was made following guidelines and Jeff better fulfilled those requirements.

Although Larry Taylor did not win the award, that decision does not remove his accomplishments from the record - It's not whether you win or lose, but how you play the game!"

Organizational News

TKE

The Iota Omega Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon held its weekly meeting Thursday, Sept. 27. Fund raising activities were discussed for the rest of the semester. Congratulations go to Jeff Cicci on the fine job he did at the meeting. Congratulations this week go to Jamie Minney, Chris Harnett and the rest of the Pioneer football team on their victory Saturday. Congratulations also go to new Associate members Jamie Bartley and Steve Morris, good luck. We would like to also thank the OD's on their help and support at the party last Wednesday, we couldn't have done it without you. A big thank you also goes to frater Jerry Burkhammer on setting up the party. The quantity and quality of food provided was outstanding. There was also a wide assortment of beverages available at the party. A reminder to check the TKE board.

Trivia: Jerry, Where's the Beer?

Delta Zeta

The Theta Xi Chapter of the Delta Zeta Sorority held an informal meeting on Monday at the house. Thanks to everyone who attended our 50's party and we welcome all girls to attend the Olympics party on Wednesday at 5:00. The sisters visited their adopted Grandparents last Thursday which was a rewarding experience for those who attended. Congratulations to Lorie Jimison and Ann Miller who won the Trivial Pursuit Tournament! Good job to the football team for their victory over West Liberty. Last weeks awards were: Clean Room - Brenda K, Pig Pen - everyone else!, Study Turtle - Becky, Wilted Rose - Shelly.

To Robin - What really happened to the trash? Kristi - What was under the sheet at the nursing home?

Kappa Delta Pi will hold a regularly scheduled business meeting on Oct. 4 at 4:30 p.m. in CH 1. All members are urged to attend.

LAMBDA CHI ALPHA

The brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha met Sunday, September 30th in the Wesley Foundation. Plans were discussed for a spaghetti dinner. More details will be posted later. There were also plans discussed for a haunted house on October 29th and 31st. The brothers also talked about helping with the special olympics. The commode bowl practice was set for tonight at 6:00, at Van Horn Drive.

The brothers would like to take this opportunity to welcome the following new associate members to Lambda Chi Alpha: Will Atkins, Tim Thompson, Richard Nicklos, Dwayne Boothe, Terry Barb, and Dave Cronon. A reminder to all associate members there will be a Kappa meeting tonight at 8:30.

The brothers wish to thank everyone who worked on the Lambda Chi Alpha and Sigma Sigma Sigma homecoming float.

All brothers are reminded that the formal meeting next week will include picture taking, so dress appropriately.

Awards are given to the following: Darren 'Where's my room' Jackson - A.H.; Mark 'Pyromaniac' Phillips - Honorary A.H.; Everyone who worked on the float - Kcuf; Cecil 'Where's the floor' Chapman - wino; Kevin 'Turn the lights out' Carpenter - POW; Boomer 'We Know Where The Beef Is' Bell - Honorary POW.

OHNINGOHOW PLAYERS

All members are reminded that under the terms of the Ohningohow Constitution, you are required to work at least five hours per week on a given show or project to remain active in the organization.

The set for THE ODD COUPLE was put 'in the air' this past weekend, and work will continue this coming weekend. All members are urged to come and participate.

THE ODD COUPLE is progressing well. Show dates are Oct. 11 & 12. Our meetings are held every other Tuesday at 5:30 p.m. Once again, we need your $5.00 dues.

From The Wesley Foundation

Many thanks to those who helped with the Blood Drive last Wednesday. Whether you were able to donate blood, or help with the volunteer needs, we greatly appreciate it. Eighty-one people donated blood, a real tribute to the campus and community in giving 'the gift of life.'

The family Entertainment Night movie next Tuesday is 'The Dark Star'. The time is the mid twenty-first century, and the place is deep space. The task of the spaceship 'Dark Star' is to seek and destroy 'unstable' planets. Similar to the movie '2001', 'The Dark Star' is a fascinating glimpse into the world ahead.

'Lunch and Last Lecture' series was off to a good start. Sixteen faculty members gathered to enjoy soup, conversation, and a fascinating presentation by Delores Mysliwiec. If you are a faculty member, please plan to join us for the next installment on Friday, October 12th at noon.

Pioneers Edge West Liberty, 23-17

The GSC football squad upped its record to 3-1 overall and 2-1 in conference play with a 23-17 victory over West Liberty Saturday on the Hilltoppers' home field.

Byron Brooks led the Pioneers with 158 yards in 24 carries. His 13-yard touchdown run in the third quarter broke a 3-3 tie and sparked the Glenville offense.

Brooks' performance gave him 3,108 career rushing yards, making him only the fifth player in West Virginia Conference history to rush for over 3,000 yards.

West Liberty went on top late in the third period by a score of 11-9 with a 64 yard run by Bob Robinson and a two point conversion. Glenville struck back with 8:27 remaining in the game as quarterback Forrest Hall scored from one yard out. Mark Szklennik's extra point made it 16-11 in favor of the Pioneers.

Hilltopper quarterback Tom Valentine then connected with Doug McClain for a 44-yard touchdown pass with just 3:15 left, and West Liberty led 17-16.

With just under a minute in the game, Hall linked up with Jim Bird for a 31-yard touchdown pass that put the Pioneers back on top. Szklennik's extra point completed the scoring.

West Liberty presented a final scoring threat by driving to the Glenville 13 with only 12 seconds left on the clock. The Hilltoppers' drive was thwarted, however, when cornerback Eric Mitchell intercepted a Valentine pass at the three yard line.

Pioneer team captains Byron Brooks, Ron Lane, Rodney Abrams, and Mike Payne

The Pioneers will be idle this weekend and will host powerful Salem College on Oct. 13.

The Pioneer Center's list of trips for the month of October include the Oct. 13th WVU - Syracuse game. The price is $10.00 and the bus will leave the maintenance building at 8:30 a.m. On October 28th students may attend the Pittsburgh Steelers and Atlanta Falcons game. The cost will be $10.00 and the bus will leave at 12:00 p.m.

Anyone wishing to submit short stories, poems, prose, sketches and drawings, or photographs to this year's Trillium, please give them to Martha Keating, in the English department, or to Marshall Robinson, or slide them under the door of Room 306 in the Administration Building. Also, there are still copies of last year's Trillium in the English department, if you'd like one.

ATTENTION: All Social Work Majors! There will be a Student Social Services Organization (SSSO) meeting at 4:45 p.m. in room 307 A.B. All are encouraged to attend.

Top Runners Down, Harriers Finish 7th

The GSC cross country team travelled to West Virginia State College last Saturday, and the bruised and battered squad came away with a 7th place finish.

The Pioneers scored with only five runners due to injuries on the team. Top runner Dave Antonik, first-place winner in the GSC invitational, started the race off well but sprained an ankle and had to drop out. Jay Dawkins, another of Glenville's top men, could not run because of blisters.

Head coach Butch Hays was not disappointed by Saturday's showing. "Our kids ran as well as they could under the circumstances," he said.

Scoring for GSC were Todd Raines, Jim Collins, Jesse Skiles, Shawn Shockey, and Barry Crutchfield. Times and places were unavailable at press time.

The Pioneers were scheduled to run at Rio Grande next Saturday, but Coach Hays has opted to sit out this week to allow his team to recuperate. Their next meet will be at West Virginia University on October 13. WVU is currently ranked eighth in the NCAA.

Glenville's next meet against conference foes will be at West Liberty where the Pioneers will run against Fairmont, State, D & E, and West Liberty.

Volleyball Team Opens, Two Matches Last Week

The Glenville Volleyball team opened its season last week with two conference matches.

On Thursday, the netters lost in three games to Concord and won in two over West Virginia Tech. In action on Saturday, the ladies dropped a triangular to West Liberty and Alderson-Broadus.

More complete information on the team and their schedule will appear in next week's edition of the Mercury.

Letter To The Editor

Track and Cross-Country are not the only sports at Glenville State College that go unrecognized and unsupported.

The football team last year had its best record in 10 years. They were 6 - 2 - 1 and came in second in the WVAC, by winning their last 5 games. Still we did not get anymore recognition then in previous "losing" seasons. Also, fan support was still at a minimum. That wouldn't be so bad but if you go to a girls' basketball game, who sits behind the oppositions bench. If you go to a boys' basketball game who sits at half-court of the student section? The answers to these questions are: football players. Any home sporting event at GSC should be a full house. This is not a plea for just football let's support all of our teams. So come out and support the Pioneers.

Say "Happy Birthday" or "Happy Anniversary" or just say "You're Special" with a Big Chocolate Chip Cookie. The GSC Collegiate 4-H Club will be taking orders for these special occasion cookies throughout the semester. The cost is $4.00 each and orders must be placed at least two weeks in advance. Call Louella at ext. 258 or Leah in Apt. 200C (ext. 251) to place your order now.

Tell someone how much you care.

Orchestra To Perform

The Charleston Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Thomas Conlin, the orchestra's new conductor, will perform in the Pioneer Center Ballroom on the Glenville State College campus, Sunday, Oct. 7, at 3:00 p.m. Mildred and Gerald Snyder are guest duo-pianists with the CSO in a performance of Mozart's Concerto No. 10 for two pianos and orchestra.

This concert provides central West Virginians with an excellent opportunity to attend a live performance of our state orchestra. Glenville State College is extending to the public an invitation entirely free of admission costs to the performance on Sunday, October 7, at 3:00 p.m.

Sorry! The third place of the banner contest went to sixth floor Wagner wing rather than 2nd floor as was printed last week. We apologize for any inconvenience.

A representative from Osmose Wood Preserving Company will be on campus Wednesday, October 24, to interview prospective December graduates in Forestry. Interested students should register for an interview in the Placement Office by October 4.
