Arts Center Plans

A new Music/Art Building is going to sit on the corner of High and Court Streets, across from the Robert F. Kidd Library, on the GSC campus.

The architectural firm of Hoblitzell, Daley and McIntyre of Charleston with the consultation expertise of H2L2 Architects/Planners of Philadelphia is in the final drawing phase of the project. These architectural firms have been meeting frequently for the past two years with a campus committee composed of faculty from the Music, Art and Theatre departments, maintenance, media and administration. This committee has been charged with the responsibility of advising the architects of GSC's Music, Art and Theatre needs. This committee has approved the final drawings.

The Board of Regents, in its July meeting, approved purchase of the Engelke property on which the building will sit.

"The architects should proceed with contract drawings in order to have the job bid in December," states Robert D. Wilson, Director of Facilities for the West Virginia Board of Regents. At an August 19 meeting

Dean's List

Dr. Bruce C. Flack, Vice-President for Academic Affairs, has released the spring 1986 Dean's Honor List. One hundred and sixty-four students earned the right to be placed on the list by earning a 3.5 or higher grade point average for 12 or more semester hours. Sixty-nine of these students made straight A's.

Those students who earned a 4.0 grade point average were: Melissa A. Abbott, Parkersburg; Jean M. Alvarez, Morgantown; Katrina

Board of Regents members viewed the presentation of design development drawings for the art and music center of the GSC campus.

The original plan of the building has been revised somewhat to more realistically accomodate the financial situation of the State Board of Regents.

The building will contain a 500 seat theatre with a stage of 40' X 30' that can accomodate full symphonies and professional dance companies as well as any size theatre production. The stage will have full wing space and orchestra pit.

The theatre section of the complex will house a scene workshop with storage space, a costume workshop, a greenroom (gathering place for actors), office space, and men's and women's dressing rooms with showers.

The Art wing will feature a gallery off the main lobby, office space, a drawing/painting studio, and a print making studio.

The Music wing (two stories) will have six office/studios, piano lab, piano studio, twelve practice rooms, and instrumental rehearsal room, a choir/recital hall, a percussion room, a library and a large classroom.

Ground breaking could occur as early as this fall, with construction to commence early in 1987.

Participation Is Greater

by Mahala Strauss

In past years many editorials were written decrying the apathy and lack of participation on the GSC campus. Few have been written about the excessive drinking by students but it has been a problem as well. This year, however, there seems to be a slight turnaround in these problems.

At the dances held so far, attendance was heavy and thinned out only slightly after "happy hours" started. Attendance at Saturday night's football game was phenomenal; even after people began to get discouraged and left the game, there was still a bigger crowd than at most home games.

I have also noticed that student drinking is declining. The echoes in the courtyard have been fewer and quieter on Thursday nights and there are fewer drunks making fools of themselves in the lounges.

Representatives of Sears from the Huntington Mall will be in the Pioneer Center Lobby Wednesday, September 17, from 8:00 a.m. until 4:00 p.m. to offer

I'm sure that this turnaround is due to the higher drinking age passed this summer by the West Virginia legislature. Raising the drinking age cuts the number of students who can legally consume alcohol almost by half. If that almost half can't go downtown and drink, they have to find something else to do. It's a shame that in order to get people involved, you have to take away their beer. I'm not complaining though, any legal way to generate participation is alright with me.

Letters to the Editor should be delivered to the Mercury Office in a sealed envelope to insure confidentiality. All letters will be printed exactly as received. Spelling, punctuation, and grammatical errors will not be corrected. Please proofread your letter to avoid embarrassment.

A gift will be given each applicant regardless of whether or not credit is established.

Lambda Chi Alpha

The Beta Beta chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity wants to welcome the freshmen to GSC and to welcome back upperclassmen! We hope you had a great summer!

The Homecoming game is coming up soon, so we decided to sponsor a Homecoming court. The girls we are sponsoring are as follows: Queen-Leanne Oldham, Senior Princess-Cathy Earl, Junior Princess-Kim Ashley, Sophomore Princess-Cindy Stalnaker, and Freshman Princess-Ramonda Hoover. Best of luck gals!

Frat members are reminded that meetings are on Sundays at 8 pm in the Wesley Foundation.

If you want to join a fraternity then come to our informal rush on Wednesday night. The purpose of the rush is to inform you about our fraternity. Freshmen are welcome to come too, although they can't join a frat until their second semester as a student.

Phi Beta Lambda

PBL, Future Business leaders, wishes to thank everyone who helped to organize and who attended the PBL reception held in the Ballroom on August 28 for the Business 100 class and other interested students.

Gina Moore was elected as our new reporter at the last meeting. Upcoming activities being planned are a banner and float for Homecoming and a social gathering at Cedar Creek for business majors. Our next meeting will be Thursday, Sept. 11 at 12:15 p.m. in AB 100. All business majors are welcome.

Tau Kappa Epsilon

The Iota Omega chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon welcomes everyone back to GSC and a special welcome to all the new freshmen. Good luck at GSC.

We would like to offer our help to the faculty and staff and any other organization. If we can be of any assistance, contact Jerry Burkhammer.

Finally, anyone interested in joining Tau Kappa Epsilon should get in contact with Greg Knight or any other fraternity member.

Student Congress

Congress officially welcomes our two new dorm representatives from Pickens Hall, Veronica Walker and Kim Dean. Congress has several activities lined up for Homecoming Week but we could use any volunteered services. Once again we are looking for cars that we might be able to use in the parade. Any organization that wants to be a part of Homecoming Activities by being in the parade please remember to send Student Congress a letter of your intentions. Elections for Homecoming Court and Pioneer are Wednesday (today) and Thursday, September 10th and 11th. Please remember to vote! We are having a 10K Road Race on Saturday, September 27th. If you are interested, please pick up an entry form from Student Services. Student Congress is trying to have activities every day during Homecoming Week, so please try to arrange your schedules so you can attend as many as possible. Don't forget our meetings are open, so drop by and see us.

The Mercury staff would like to thank Jim Stalnaker from the Maintenance Department for building our new light tables. You've made our work a lot easier.

Delta Zeta

The Theta Xi chapter of the Delta Zeta Sorority held an informal meeting on Tuesday, September 2, at the Delta Zeta House.

Several girls were elected to new positions; Sherry Burke-Historian, Cheryl Curry-House Manager, Allison Miller-Philanthropy, Rhonda Simmons-Enrichment, Allison Miller-Sorority Education, and Jenny Wilson-Activities. Jenny Wilson was also elected as chairman for the Homecoming activities.

Delta Zetas will sponsor the following girls to run for the 1986 GSC Homecoming Court: Freshman-Connie Sandy, Sophomore-Rhonda Simmons, Junior-Marilyn Sutton, Senior-Tammy Miller, and Queen-Becky Langford.

Delta Zeta held their first rush party for the fall semester on Tuesday night. Thanks to all those girls who attended.

Kappa Delta Pi

A meeting for all members has been scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 11 at 12:30 in room 002 Clark Hall. Officers will be elected and meeting dates set. All members are urged to attend. Advisor for Kappa Delta Pi is still Annette Roberts.

Borthwick Is New Dean of Teacher Ed.

A national search conducted by Glenville State College has resulted in the hiring of Dr. Paul D. Borthwick as Dean of Teacher Education.

Dr. Borthwick heard of the teacher education program at GSC when he worked in Ohio and maintains that the reputation of the teacher education program at GSC was the main reason for applying for the position of Dean of Teacher Education.

Dr. Borthwick was hired in August of 1986 and came to Glenville in the same month. "I was impressed by the friendliness of the faculty, staff, and students here and their willingness to assist in smoothing the rapid transition to the area," stated Dr. Borthwick. He looks upon his new position as a professional advancement and an opportunity to expand his leadership ability in the field of teacher education.

Dr. Borthwick received his B.S. degree from Kent State University majoring in Recreation and Elementary Education. His M.S. degree in Elementary School Administration and his Ph.D. in Elementary Education were earned at the University of Akron. He has been published in numerous state and national educational journals and has conducted workshops in Ohio, Florida, Alabama, and Mississippi. He has also been a speaker at national education conferences in 10 states.

Dr. Borthwick has 24 years of experience working in the education field. He worked from 1962 to 1967 as an elementary school teacher. He moved into school administration as principal of the Charles Herberich Elementary School in Akron, Ohio, from 1967 to 1969. He served as an Assistant Professor of Education at Ashland College in Ashland, Ohio, from 1969 to 1973. He became Director and Associate Professor of the Reading Center in the Department of Curriculum and Instruction at the University of Southern Mississippi in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, in 1973. He served in that position until 1980 when he became Chairperson and Professor of Elementary Education in the Division of Curriculum, Instruction, Leadership, and Research at Delta State University in Cleveland, Mississippi. He held that position until August of this year, when he accepted the position of Dean of Teacher Education at GSC.

Asked what he felt he would like to accomplish at GSC, Dr. Borthwick replied, "I want to maintain the quality program which exists and expand it in whatever areas possible."

"I am excited about the opportunity to provide leadership," he said, "and I am eager to represent Glenville State College locally, state-wide, and nationally in teacher education."

Financial Aid Available

College students in need of financial aid for this academic year were urged to investigate private foundation sources by Steve Danz, Director of The Scholarship Bank.

According to the director, there are over 500 million in private financial aid sources that oft-times go unused. This imbalance is due to the fact that college students until now have not had a reliable method of finding out about the numerous private aid sources. The Scholarship Bank has computerized this information and will send each applicant a personalized print-out of private aid sources that appear just right for each applicant.

College students can find funds based on major, occupational goals, geographic preferences and approximately 30 other

Reverently Speaking

"Since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witness, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us," Hebrews 12:1.

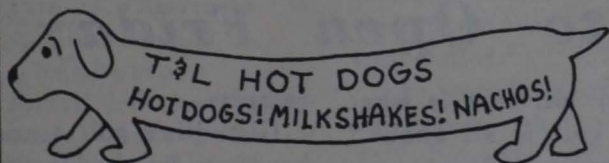

Sports analogies are frequently used in the Bible to describe hard-to-understand spiritual concepts. Here, the writer of Hebrews uses running to explain faithfulness. Maintaining a long-term relationship with God is like preparing for a difficult race. It takes months of hard work and training for a runner to build endurance and speed. A runner's muscles have to be toned and he may have to drop a few pounds if he expects to run well in his next race. But, sometimes a runner, like Christians, may get discouraged and wonder if all the hard work and pain is worth it. He reverts to junk food and late night parties, and before long he is out of shape again. So, the day before the race, he decides to sit back in a "lazy chair" and watch the race on TV.

There are many reasons Christians give for quitting the race (giving up on God). Persistence and endurance are a must. You see, races—even figurative ones—aren't won from easy chairs.

Pioneers Fall to Wesleyan in Opener, 10 - 2

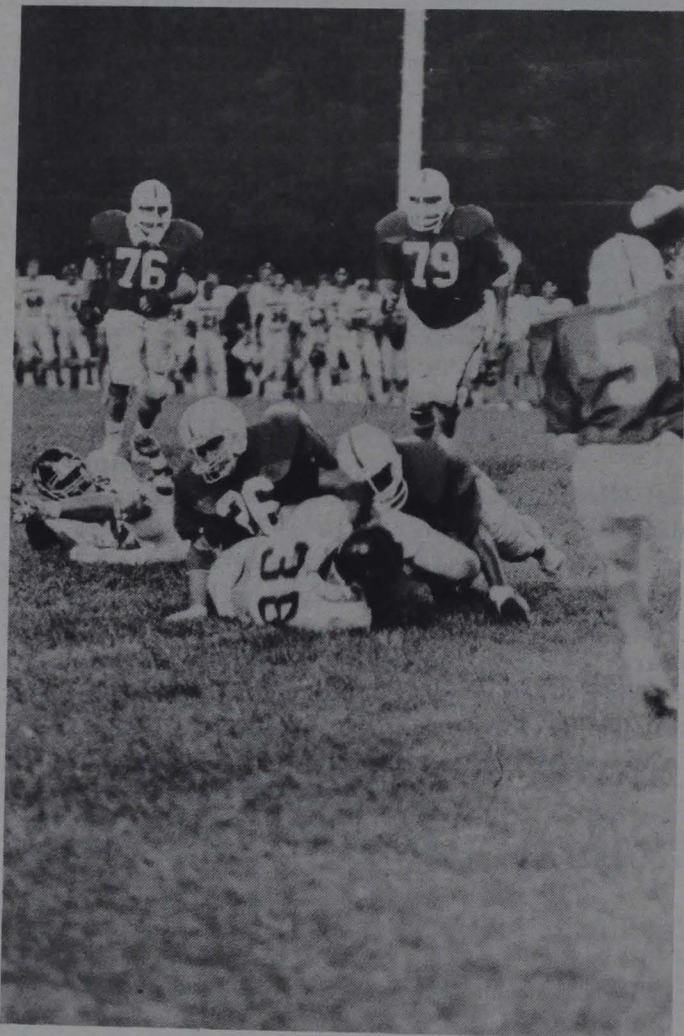

by Jesse Skiles

Glenville's Pioneers opened their grid season Saturday night with a 10-2 loss to the WV Wesleyan Bobcats. The game featured 11 turnovers and 223 yards in penalties as the Pioneers lost their first opener in five years. It was the Bobcats' first victory in an opener in 19 years.

Wesleyan went up 3-0 at 2:45 of the first quarter on a 30-yard field goal by placekicker Dave Jaeger. Glenville countered soon after as Wesleyan punter Doug McMillen watched a snap sail over his head and out of the end zone for a two-point safety. Bobcat fullback Scott Mallison closed out the scoring in the fourth quarter with a one-yard plunge for a touchdown.

Glenville had four different opportunities to put points on the board in the second half, but came away empty handed. In the third quarter, the Pioneers materialized an impressive nine-play drive to inside the Bobcat 10, but the drive ended with a fumble. In the final period Wesleyan fumbled the ball away to Glenville three different times inside their own 30. An interception by Wesleyan and two missed field goals later, the game was all but over.

Statistically, the game was a little closer. Glenville held a 17-13 advantage in first downs, while Wesleyan slightly outgained the Pioneers 228-193. Wesleyan turned the ball over six times (five by fumble), while Glenville turned it over five times.

This week the Pioneers will travel to Millersville, PA. The kickoff will be at 7:30. The next home game will be in two weeks when Shepherd invades Pioneer Stadium.

Jesse's Place

Saturday night's loss was indeed a heart-breaker for Pioneer faithful everywhere, not only from a standpoint that the young squad squandered many scoring opportunities, but also from the mere fact that the loss occurred in front of a good crowd. The next few games will prove to be a true test of character for Frank Vincent's grid-ders.

Despite the loss, there were some impressive individual numbers posted. Jeff Evans, Todd Layhew, and Gordon Stephens all turned in good games statistically. It again appears that Layhew will be among the conference leaders in defensive efficiency (he tallied 17 tackles against Wesleyan).

Runners Jay Dawkins and Andy Jarrell are two other individuals who performed well this weekend. They were touted highly in Saturday morning's Parkersburg News, and then promptly went out and proved their advanced billing. The team however, received some disturbing news Friday when the ineligibility of Danny Stowers was announced. Our finish at Marietta was indeed satisfying, but without Dan...well, it just wasn't the same.

No matter what the case, we will learn a great deal more about both squads this Saturday. Can the football team bounce back from an opening loss and how will the cross country team fare against conference competition? Several questions will be answered Saturday.

The Buckhannon sportswriters feasted on Wesleyan's first opening game win in 19 years.

It made me sick.

Fall Golf to Open Friday

by Jesse Skiles

Tim Carney's Glenville State golf team will embark on their fall schedule this weekend. The squad will be in action this Friday and Saturday at the VMI-Washington and Lee Invitational in Lexington, Virginia.

Carney said that the squad will be participating in four tournaments this fall. "Primarily, I just want to see where everyone is right now.

After all, that is what fall golf is all about," Carney stated.

Returning this year is last spring's top seven of Jeff Bennett, Tracy Bush, Mike Dynda, Bill Forrest, Danny Wassick, Mark Wanstreet, and Jeff Wine. Carney is expecting several freshmen to make an impact. Parker Long, Bob Sowards, and Kirk Wassick were the freshmen Carney mentioned as his top recruits.

Glenville's golf team has never finished lower than fourth during Carney's tenure as coach, which has spanned nearly two decades. Last year the golfers placed third in the WVIAC as Mike Dynda made All-Conference.

Volleyball In Limbo

With two less women than last week, the GSC volleyball team is now down to seven members and their season is uncertain. Coach Kay Chico says that she will know more after this week.

As for now, the team will continue to practice and see what happens. "I'm going to continue practicing the girls and hope everything works out," the disgruntled Chico commented.

Chico's team is still scheduled to play on September 18, and if Entry forms for the first annual 10K Pioneer Road Run on Sept. 27 are available by contacting Jimmie Dean, Danny Ray, or Kenny Pack. Deadline for $5 pre-registration is Sept. 13. After that, the fee will be $6. The race, sponsored by Student Congress, will begin at 8 a.m.

everything is go, we will have a full team preview in next week's Mercury. Coach Chico thought it best to withhold the team roster at this point.

Runners Open Strong

by Steve Keenan

With an impressive showing at a five-team meet in Marietta under their belts, the GSC cross country team now prepares to face West Virginia Conference competition for the initial time this season.

Glenville finished second in the Saturday meet at Marietta's Cisler Estates. Case Western Reserve, an NCAA Division III team, won with 21 points by placing six of the first eight runners. GSC's team score was 59, followed by Muskingum-61, Marietta-106, and Kenyon-120.

Sophomore Andy Jarrell led the Pioneer charge with a second place individual placing in 26:00 on the 4.6-mile course. Junior Jay Dawkins clocked 26:33 for fifth position. They were the only two runners to break up Case's stranglehold on the top eight spots.

Other GSC runners were: Tom Clark, 13th in 27:20; Chris Shockey, 19th in 27:56; Jeff Trippett, 26th in 28:22; Jim Kelly, 34th in 29:32, and Jesse Skiles, 35th in 30:03. A total of 48 runners began the race.

On the women's side, GSC frosh Lori Barker placed 10th out of 30 runners. Her time for the 3.3-mile course was 25:04.

Pioneer mentor Lou Geary was fairly satisfied with his team's performance. "I don't think we have the strength right now for a hilly course like at Marietta, but we'll be all right," he said. "We know where we are now and what work we need to do to get ready for the conference."

"I was especially surprised with the way Jeff Trippett ran. He had a good race," Geary continued. "All in all, I enjoyed my first cross country meet. You can go to a meet and get out of there in an hour and a half and not spend all day like with a track meet."

GSC runs against WVC schools in a meet sponsored by West Virginia Tech at Oak Hill Saturday.

Mueller Joins Athletic Staff

by Steve Keenan

Judy Mueller, a dark-haired 23-year old from Westminster, MD., has been hired to replace Art Lilly as assistant athletic trainer at Glenville State College.

Mueller has a good background in the field of athletic training, and her previous involvement with sports in general will prove to be an asset to GSC students.

She received her Bachelor's degree from Salisbury State College in Maryland in May 1985. While at Salisbury, Mueller was a member of both the field hockey and women's lacrosse teams.

This past July, Mueller received her Masters of Science in Education and Athletic Training from Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA. She worked with all major sports at both colleges and at a high school before accepting her first full-time position at GSC.

Mueller points out that her duties will primarily include working with the women's sports. In the spring, she will work with the track and field program.

In addition to her duties as assistant trainer, Mueller is currently serving as an instructor. She teaches classes in first aid / CPR, Introduction to Athletic Training, and Adaptive Physical Education.

"I like it a lot. Glenville's small but I was expecting it when I came here," said Mueller, who is a middle child of three for her parents, Tim and Pat. "The people are friendly. I can see myself staying here for at least a couple years."

Lipscomb Doing the Job

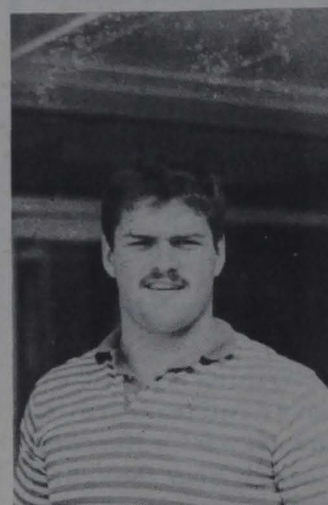

by Jesse Skiles

You can always count on the Pioneer football team to possess a fine defense. Throughout the 1980's they have consistently fielded strong and physical defensive linemen. Despite Saturday's 10-2 loss to Wesleyan, it was once again a fine performance by the Glenville defense.

John Lipscomb is now in his fourth season as a GSC defensive tackle, and has been a major cog in some great Pioneer defensive machines. Last year John was named to the second team of the All-WVIAC team.

Lipscomb says there are several factors that have led to the success of the GSC defense as well as his own personal success. "We have always had a good defensive philosophy from our coaching staff since I've been here, and we have also had the players to make it work," Lipscomb said.

From an individual standpoint, the big

defensive tackle feels his success stems from past teammates: primarily former all-conference performers Mike Chadwick and Dave Darst. "Chad and Dave really helped me those first couple of years. I value a great deal what they have taught me," John stated.

Lipscomb and fellow senior Donn Layhew have obviously continued the GSC tradition of outstanding defensive linemen, and Lipscomb foresees this tradition continuing in the years to come. "Bubba Hill comes from my high school (Clarksburg Liberty), and I am really expecting big things from him. He has been progressing well and I will always be pulling for him," Lipscomb said. Liberty High has certainly provided GSC with some talented linemen.

John has set several goals for the 1986 season. Team-wise, he wants to go out with a winning season. Individually, he hopes to accumulate 80 tackles and 10 sacks. Lipscomb commented on his lofty goal by saying "The team is the main thing. I know that if I can reach my personal goals, I will be helping our overall team defense."

Just two days after my interview with John, he tallied 13 tackles against WV Wesleyan. . . the best game statistically of his career. Don't be surprised if John does top the 80-tackle plateau this season -- he's that type of clutch performer.

Wyatt Joins Pickens Hall Staff

Glenville State is full of new faces this year. Not only are there many new students, but there are a few new staff members. Among these different faces is the new House Director of Wagner Wing in Pickens Hall. Mark Wyatt, 23, was born on March 18, 1963 in Annapolis, Maryland, and resided there until six years ago when he moved to Weston. He moved into Pickens Hall in August with his wife Sherri, a music education major at GSC.

A graduate of Glenville State College in 1983, Wyatt obtained an associate degree in social work while minoring in psychology. In 1984, Mark received his bachelor's degree in psychology at WVU.

masters degree in Rehabilitation counseling which he received at WVU in 1985. In the spring, he plans to continue his education to obtain his doctorate.

Making the transition to house director has been quite easy for Mark because there are no set hours, the work isn't difficult, and it is a pleasant change from his nine to five job. This leaves him with plenty of time for frisbee, weight-lifting, and mingling with others. Mark hopes that, all in all, everyone gets along and that residents will have a good year. Wyatt also hopes to get residents more involved while trying to make the dorm more than just a place to live.

criteria. Financial need is not stressed as heavily in private aid as in government funding. Numerous new grants exist this year for business, liberal arts, health care, law, and humanities. Students are also urged to investigate well-paying corporate internships as part of their over-all financial package.

Students interested in supplementing their current financial aids should send a stamped, self-addressed business-sized envelope to The Scholarship Bank, 4626 N. Grand, Covina, CA, 91724.
