All Saints' Party a Success

The Wesley Foundation was the location for the Gilmer Parish's All Saints Party on November 1.

The festivities began with a Biblical character review. Those in costume modeled their character costumes while members of the audience guessed who the characters were. Those participating from our campus were: William Underwood as Jonah, Kathy Freshwater as an angel, Sonja Hill as a she-devil, Yvonne King as a repulsive leper, Freeman Wiant as one of the Magi, Prem Verma as the seductive Salome, and Kevin Ransom made a brief appearance as Judas. William Martin Wine and his wife and daughters portrayed Isaac, Rebecca, Jacob and Esau.

Those winning Silly Saints Awards were: William Underwood, Big Fish for a "whale of a costume;" Kathy Freshwater, Book of Life for "most promising" and Doubting Thomas for "most unbelievable;" Sonja Hill, Brass Serpent for "most cunning," Yvonne King, Fig Leaf for "most original;" and Freeman Wiant, Fish and Loaves for "most generous."

Turning to the more serious, a worship service was conducted in the Wesley Foundation's Rainbow Chapel. Those of our campus family who died during the past year were remembered during a candlelight service. Candles were lit in memory of John Jobs by Diane Tenny; Douglas Moeck by Karen Schoolcraft; Karen Sue Russell by Prem Verma; Susan Schoolcraft by Yvonne King; and Luanna Smith by A.T. Billips.

During the worship service, Living Saints Awards were also presented to individuals who have been particularly helpful in the Parish during the past year. These awards are based on the fruits of the spirit found in Galatians 5. Those receiving awards from our campus community were Yvonne King -- "kindness" and Rose Yoak -- "self-control."

The evening's events concluded with games and refreshments.

Others from GSC in attendance were Don Mercer; Walter and Kathy Mullins and family; Ed Messenger and family; Tracy Chipps; Carri Crigger; Arlene Briski and family; John Glessner and family; Mike, Beth, and Joshua Hanlin; LeRoy Clark; John Fennett; Pam Rastle, Linda Malcomb, and others who did not register.

The Gilmer Parish is composed of sixteen United Methodist churches, including the Wesley Foundation. These congregations are served by five pastors: Margaret

by Editor Paul Biser

There have been several editorials criticizing student support of the activities of their fellow students. Criticism has been especially sharp about poor support of our football team as well as poor turnout for student elections. However, recently, school spirit has made many noticeable improvements. The most noticeable is the overwhelming enthusiasm of the student body as they cheered the football team to victory in the last home football game of the season. The audience came to life at the end of the game. Another example of student support is the large crowds that attended A FUNNY THING HAPPENED ON THE WAY TO THE FORUM. Not only was attendance large, but also the crowds were very responsive during the performance.

In the future, school spirit will have every opportunity to grow stronger. For example, by general consensus the Pioneer Marching Band, a lively group, plans to play the best marches of the season for the students. This free performance will take place in the GSC Auditorium at 12:30 Thursday, Nov. 16 and the band's only purpose for performing is to entertain the audience. Shortly, the Madrigal Dinner and home basketball games will depend on student body support, and we will need to show our traditional support.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Music Major Has Only Good Things to Say...

To Whom it May Concern:

Lately, I have been bothered about all of the negative suggestions written in; so, I decided to take it upon myself to write something positive. My first positive statement is, "the cafeteria showed a considerably great improvement this week!" Keep it up Greg and all of those who are helping to make the place better.

Second, I have a few positive comments about our football team. You may not be the greatest team in your league but I feel very proud of you every time you are out there on the field playing. I am in the band and I know for a fact that we are cheering for you to the best of our ability.

I feel if you are having a great time out there on the field, well who cares if you win or not! I just thank God that all of you are healthy and are able to run around out there and have a good time. Some people may not agree with this because all they care about is winning and being on top. If you think about it, life is too short for everyone to be on top all the time!

I am a music major here at GSC and all my life I have dealt with the conflict of athletics vs. music dept. Well, finally I have come to the point where I feel we should forget about all the past experiences and start supporting each other.

I hope all of our readers will consider what I have said. Try to find positive things in everything—then if there are some negatives maybe with enough encouragement they will become positive!

Good Luck GSC Football and Band, Julie Harbert

GSC Grinch Steals Angel Tree...

To the Editor:

As you probably know by now the Angel Tree was stolen out of the amphitheatre last Tuesday night (October 31). Fortunately, the tree was not taken too far. It was found behind the Administration Building and put back in the amphitheatre.

The Brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity would like to express their displeasure in the idea that some childish people would find enjoyment or excitement in stealing this tree. The Angel Tree is set up by the fraternities and sororities of this campus for the needy children of this community. People choose the angels off the tree and buy Christmas presents for these children because their parents might not be able to buy them something for Christmas. In an area of such unemployment and poor times it is very uplifting to see some people trying to help others. It is a shame to see some people cannot act like they are in college and maybe 19 or 20 years old. They have to act like grade schoolers and be destructive to enjoy their time here at Glenville State College.

It is a shame they cannot grow up and take responsibility for their actions like real men would. To the fraternities and sororities, keep up the good work. It is very commendable to see you try to do some good in a world that is full of so much bad. To those responsible for the theft of the Angel Tree, please grow up. There are enough children in the world without the adults trying to act like children.

Sincerely,
The Brothers of Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity

Hart's Headlines

As the college football season marches on, the picture for the Heisman Trophy could not be any more elusive. Every sportswriter seems to have their favorite, changing from week to week depending on the player's performance the week before.

Rating the candidates can be a difficult task, as no candidate has stepped up to become a legitimate contender. A candidate must not be judged on one game's performance. The player who is overall the most valuable to his team should be chosen for the award. Throughout the year the favorites have to be West Virginia's Major Harris and Notre Dame's Tony Rice. Both have had a game with bad performances, but when it comes down to team leadership no one comes close. Rice may at this time have a slight edge over Harris due to his team's twenty-one game winning streak. Against Penn St., Harris accounted for 301 total yards (135 yds. rushing, 166 yds. passing) but his three fumbles and an interception did not help his cause.

The following is my choice for the Heisman Trophy candidates to this date: 1. Tony Rice, QB, Notre Dame; 2. Major Harris, QB, West Virginia; 3. Emmitt Smith, RB, Florida; 4. Anthony Thompson, RB, Indiana; 5. Andre Ware, QB, Houston; 6. Shawn Moore, QB, Virginia; 7. Darian Hagan, QB, Colorado; 8. Dee Dowis, QB, Air Force; 9. Siran Stacy, RB, Alabama; 10. Raghib Ismail, WR, Notre Dame.

Jeff Swisher Leads Pioneers To Victory

Glenville State, led by Jeff Swisher, defeated Newport News of Virginia 18-7 on Saturday. Swisher threw for two touchdowns as well as running for another.

Newport News (3-5-1) held a 7-0 halftime lead behind quarterback David Riddle's 3-yard touchdown pass to John Davis and Jerry Call's point-after.

With 8:22 left in the third quarter, Swisher ran 45 yards up the middle for a touchdown. The two-point conversion failed, and the score stood at 7-6 in favor of the visitors. Early in the fourth quarter, Swisher connected to wide receiver Rick Lewis on a 2-yard scoring pass. The conversion again failed, but the touchdown put the Pioneers up for good. With Glenville holding a 12-7 lead, Swisher once again hit Rick Lewis for a touchdown. The touchdown pass covered 25 yards and ended the Pioneer's scoring.

On the day, Swisher was 12-of-25 passing for 137 yards and an interception. Lewis caught nine passes for 123 yards and two touchdowns. The leading rusher for the Pioneers was Swisher with 68 yards on seven carries.

Defensively, the Pioneers intercepted the Newport News quarterback six times, with Linton Turner having two pick-offs.

Although the Pioneers defeated the small community college team, it cannot be recorded as a victory. WVIAC Commissioner Barry Blizzard announced Sunday that Glenville State will not be credited with a victory, despite their 18-7 victory. Blizzard stated the Virginia school does not meet the requirement of being a four-year college and will not count in the standings. Yes, Pioneer fans, that means Glenville State's grid team is still 0-7 overall.

No matter what the standings show, a victory is a victory. In this case, a victory is a much needed one. The Pioneers deserve a lot of credit for playing a hard fought game among all the pressure of having a down year.

Glenville State plays at West Virginia State next Saturday at 1:30 to close out their season's schedule.

Kappa Delta Phi

The GSC chapter of Kappa Delta Phi met Oct. 31 in 001 Clark Hall. The topic of discussion was creating resource packets to sell to education majors. The purpose of creating these packets is to aid future student teachers in honor of National Education Week, which will be observed Nov. 13-17.

These resource packets will consist of lesson plans, activities, bulletin board ideas, and classroom management technique handouts. All the information in the packets will be submitted by both teachers and the students of GSC. We are asking all fellow Kappian members to submit at least three resources to be included in these packets. If you submit three one-page resources, you will receive $1.00 off a resource packet. If you submit three 2-3 page resources, you will receive $2.00 off a resource packet.

The average price of each packet will be $5.00. We will be selling packets in each content area of 5-8 and 9-12, and the Elementary areas will be sold in one packet with all subject divisions.

If you have resources, please send them to Patty Snyder in the Education office. Have all handouts typed, and include your name on them so that you can receive a discount when the packets are sold. The deadline for submission is Nov. 13 and the packets will be on sale the week after Thanksgiving break! Help support this activity so that you can receive a discount on a resource packet! These packets will be lifesavers to new teachers!

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 14 at 12:30 in 001 Clark Hall. If you have not submitted your resources at that time, please bring them to the meeting!
