Miss Kanawhachen To Be Named

by Carmen Wager

Miss Kanawhachen 1990 will be crowned during halftime activities February 14 when the GSC Pioneers host Fairmont State at 7:30 p.m.

The Miss Kanawhachen contest is sponsored annually by the Kanawhachen Staff. Any campus organization may nominate candidates for an entry fee of $5 per contestant. The winner will be decided by a penny-a-vote contest.

Each young lady's picture will be put on a jar and can be viewed Monday, February 12- Wednesday, February 14 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Pioneer Center Lobby. Students may vote for their favorite contestants at this time.

The contestants and their sponsors are as follows: Tonja Clark, PBL; Valerie Hastings, Ladies of the White Rose; Chris Jamison, Student Congress; Kathy Sealey, SAS; Linda Smith, Kanawhachen Staff and Wendy Vanoy, Pioneers In Nursing.

The winner will be crowned by last year's Miss Kanawhachen, Tracy Legg. Miss Kanawhachen 1990 will receive a crown, flowers and a banner as well as being honored with a full color page in the 1990 yearbook.

Tax Help Available for Students

Did you know taxes can be made less taxing? Free help is available through VITA, the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program, sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service and the Glenville State College Student Accounting Society, on Tuesday and Wednesday from 2:00 to 8:00 p.m. beginning January 30 and 31 at Glenville State College, Pioneer Center, Vandalia Room.

VITA helps older, handicapped, and other taxpayers who cannot afford professional assistance fill out Form 1040EZ, Form 1040A, or a basic Form 1040. Volunteers also alert taxpayers to the special credits and deductions for which they may be eligible, such as the child care and earned income credits, the tax credit for the elderly, and deductions for certain medical and dental expenses.

However, VITA volunteers do not handle complicated tax matters or prepare business returns.

People wishing tax assistance can go to Glenville State College, Pioneer Center, Vandalia Room and bring this year's tax package, usually received through the mail; Taxes don't on pg. 6

Maher and Christ Receive Award

by Jayson Scadden

Glenville State College has two representatives for this year's Frazier Singleton Award. The two award winners from GSC are Mary Alice Maher and Katrina Christ. Mary Alice is a senior majoring in history. Upon graduating, Mary Alice will have a minor in political science and two minors in geography. Miss Maher plans to attend law school at WVU or the University of Cincinnati. She belongs to Pi Gamma Mu, Panhellenic Council, and has been a member of Student Congress and president of Delta Zeta. Mary Alice's honors include Who's Who Among Colleges and Universities and a National Student Government award. Mary Alice stated, "I would like to become a politician someday. I've always been interested in politics." She will be the guest of Legislator Harold Michael, a Democrat from Hardy County.

Katrina Christ is the other representative from GSC. Katrina is also a history major. She is a junior hoping to obtain a political science degree upon graduation from GSC. After graduation, she hopes to attend law school somewhere in North Carolina. In the future, Katrina hopes to have her own law firm with her husband. Mrs. Christ will be the guest of Legislator Paul Blake, Jr., a Democrat from Fayetteville.

Both students will attend the next legislative session for one week. They will learn the legislative process by watching their host. The two were chosen for this award because of their outstanding grades and interest.

Seniors Receive Grants

by Tena Rogers

Pam Ramsey and Connie Sandy were this year's recipients of the Delta Kappa Gamma Awards. This award is from the teacher's honorary made up of women from Braxton and Gilmer Counties. Each student is given $50.00 as a recruitment grant (Augustine Wiant Recruitment Grant.) The grant is to help out with student teaching.

Pam Ramsey, the 22-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jearl Ramsey is a 1986 graduate of Gilmer Co. High School. She is involved in Chi Beta Phi, Delta Zeta Sorority,

Student Congress Educational Committee, and the WV Council Teachers of Mathematics. Pam is majoring in mathematics 5-8 and 9-12, and is currently student teaching at Gassaway Middle School. She will later be student teaching at Braxton Co. High School. She had this comment to make: "I really appreciate winning the award, and I would like to thank everybody associated with it."

Music Students Attend Brass Clinic

The music department held a brass clinic for all music students at GSC. The clinic was held Jan. 6 at 8:30 in the bandroom and auditorium. Victor Rislow of Melinsgrove, Pa., presented a Trumpet Master Class. A freelance trombonist, Regina Swanson, from

Indianapolis, IN gave a clinic in the Horn Master Class. Also in the clinic was Joe Patton, an instrumental music instructor at Pocahontas Middle School. Joe instructed the Trombone Master Class. The tuba instruction was from Term Roush, repair technician of Gorby's Music. After all the sessions were held, all of the different brass sections practiced with each instructor. A concert was held on Tuesday evening to present what they had learned in the clinic.

Teacher Feature - Margaret Egan Appreciates WV

Students who have classes in the Math and Science Building may have noticed a new face this semester. She is Ms. Margaret Egan, the new General Biology instructor at GSC and its Summersville extension.

Ms. Egan is originally from Manhattan, NY. She graduated from Manhattan College in New York City with a Bachelor of Science and obtained her M.S. in Environmental and Microbiology from West Virginia University. She definitely prefers West Virginia over New York, citing "the fact that it's less crowded" and it has a lot of "natural beauty."

Before coming to Glenville in August of 1989, Ms. Egan was a biology lab instructor at WVU. Although she enjoyed the time she spent in Morgantown, Ms. Egan believes that Glenville is a "much prettier area." She is impressed with the "pretty campus" and "beautiful sunsets" and agrees that GSC is a "friendly campus."

Ms. Egan feels "pretty fortunate to have the opportunity to teach here." She stated, "I'm grateful to the people who helped me settle in and move, especially those in the Science and Math Department." She excitedly spoke of her students saying she is "really impressed" with them. "They are very motivated. Many of them are working and going to school or have families and are going to school."

Visiting Ireland as a child sparked Ms. Egan's interest in the environment and ecology. Growing up in an extremely urban area of NY, the outdoors and farm life were a welcome change. Later, being a park ranger in NY City enabled her to be close to nature. Her continued love of nature is evident in her participation in Mountain Stream Monitors. This group is a nonprofit organization that works with community groups to monitor local streams for pollution caused by acid mine drainage. She also believes that recycling programs are extremely important to the preservation of our environment.

Ms. Egan enjoys hobbies that allow her to be close to nature as well. Hiking and travelling were cited as her favorites. She has had the opportunity to travel to Venezuela and hopes to travel to Canada some day. When listening to music she prefers soft rock. REM, Tom Petty, James Taylor and Ten Thousand Maniacs are a few of her favorites.

Ms. Egan is uncertain of her longrange plans. Although she would enjoy an environmental education job, a lot of those would require a transfer to an urban area. She enjoys life in a rural area and "would like to stay in West Virginia."

Destination - Daytona Beach Spring Break 1990

Plans are being finalized for Spring Break 1990 in Daytona Beach and Destination Daytona! The Convention and Visitor's Bureau is filled with activity night and day this time of year.

Once again some of the country's largest corporations have their eye on the student market, and final decisions are being made on entertainment, expos and activities during Spring Break. Hotels and motels are rapidly filling, and now is the time to finalize plans for your trip. Representatives from a number of tour companies are available on many campuses. Travel agencies are also happy to help you with travel plans.

The newly-formed Spring Break Festival Task Force has been working for months to help you have the most enjoyable Spring Break ever by offering assistance in many areas, from coordinating events to managing traffic to informing students about beverage laws.

Each year, the Motel Hotel Association of the Daytona Beach Resort Area provides students with a Spring Break Code of Conduct. This code has been developed to make student visitors aware of certain policies and laws during Spring Break, which in turn assures a hassle-free vacation. Here are just a few important points to remember:

--Most of the Spring Break activities are on the beach. The Daytona Beach Area stretches for 23 miles, and at low tide is up to 500 feet wide, which allows plenty of room for activity. Vehicular traffic is permitted on 18 miles of the beach from one hour before sunrise until one hour past sunset.

There is a $3.00 daily beach access fee for motorized vehicles. The charge is per vehicle, not per person. Entering the beach on foot or by bicycle is free. The speed limit on the beach is 10 mph and is strictly enforced. Special sunbathing areas are designated; and surfing, jet skiing and surf fishing are permitted only in specified areas. While on the beach, if you have any questions, be sure to ask one of the helpful Beach Rangers in the area.

--Florida Law requires that students must be 21 years old to purchase, consume or possess alcoholic beverages. It is also illegal to provide alcoholic beverages to any person under age. Local ordinances prohibit open containers of alcoholic beverages on any public property including streets, sidewalks or the beach. Kegs

"A student may read less, but see much more. It is a true living educational experience."

During the summer, students will be housed in the Studentenhaus at the 300 year old University of Innsbruck. The school is a short walk from the many inns, cafes, and beer gardens in the "Old Town" of Innsbruck. Three-day weekends offer ample time for students to travel to many different destinations in Europe, to hike in the Alps and even to ski the nearby glaciers. "You don't have to go very far to see someplace that is very different," said Meg Hanks, a former participant. From Innsbruck, the efficient Eurail system reaches all of Austria and much of Europe within a few hours. Innsbruck is an ideal location for weekend travel.

"Spending the summer in Innsbruck, Austria was one of the most broadening experiences of my life, not only educationally, but socially and culturally as well," Meg continued. "If I ever have the chance to go again, I'll have my bags packed and ready in no time flat." Stephanie Rondenell had this to say about her UNO-INNSBRUCK experience. "If someone were to ask me to name the most memorable experience of my life, all I would have to say is 'UNO-INNSBRUCK.' When I think of my summer in Austria, I think of the mountains outside my dorm window and how wonderful it was to wake up to them every morning." Student Robert Styron stressed the learning experience of mingling with local residents: "You get to meet and talk with people and look at their perception of the United States."

The UNO-INNSBRUCK INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL will convene with gala opening ceremonies on July 1 and end on August 11, 1990. Several optional pre-study tours are offered for those students who want to spend an extra month living and learning in a different and stimulating European environment. Pre-study credit programs are offered in Belgium and Italy, and an educational travel tour through Western Europe is also offered.

The UNO-INNSBRUCK INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL is a wonderful opportunity for students to travel, live, learn, and earn a semester credit hours in a rich and beautiful European setting, alive with dramatic current events.

Enrollment is limited, so interested students should apply as soon as possible. For a full color brochure and course descriptions write to: UNO-INNSBRUCK-1990, International Study Programs, Box 1315, University of New Orleans, New Orleans, LA 70148; or call the UNO Office of International Study Programs at (504) 286-7116.

HART'S HEADLINES

Starting an exercise program is invigorating; sticking with it is the hard part. Up to half of those who start an exercise program drop out within the first six months.

Exercise, as invigorating as it may seem, can actually prolong your life. When you expend more than 1,000 calories in exercise each week, your chances of heart disease decreases considerably.

For some, just starting exercise programs becomes a problem. Many people wanting to begin a type of beneficial exercise program may not know where to begin.

In beginning a program, you need to change training techniques every 3-4 weeks. Variety is the key to continued gains in your training. A new training program challenges your body and brings improvements in size, strength and skill. After the body adapts to the same techniques, you soon hit a plateau.

When beginning your fitness program, remember three basic principles. First, you need to individualize your training according to your personal goals and your present strength and skills. Next, you must intensify your program to show desired progress. Finally, you must vary your training and use a wide range of training methods and programs to develop every element of your athletic ability and to keep you from hitting training plateaus.

Remember, fitness is vital for good health, but it can also be fun if you stick with it. If you have trouble sticking to your fitness program, discuss your progress with family and friends, or even monitor your progress in a training log. Sharing your progression with others might give you an extra push toward sticking with your program.

Pioneers Fall to Fairmont

Glenville State tumbled to 6-4 overall and 5-9 in the West Virginia Conference with a 90-85 loss to up-state rival Fairmont State back on Monday, January 29th. The loss was the Pioneers' third straight, as their problems on the road continue. Glenville has only won two games on the road this season.

Fairmont State posted a well-balanced scoring attack, with six players finishing in double figures. Anthony Naylor paced the Fairmont attack with 19 points. Bobby Dee-Everhart scored 18 for the Falcons, and Alfonso Davis had 15, while Terence Coleman and Levi Hunter finished with 14 each.

Senior Melvin Smith led the Pioneers in scoring with 28 points, while William Jackson finished with 23 and Bernie Rees added 16.

The Pioneers closed to within a point at half-time, with Fairmont State holding a slim 43-42 advantage. In the second half, the Falcons increased their lead to as much as 10 points, but the Pioneers used three-point shooting to remain close. Glenville State hit 14 of 29 three-pointers, with Smith going 7 of 14 and Rees hitting 4 of 9.

A technical foul called against Smith with 1:30 remaining, allowed Fairmont State to go on a four-point run and put up a lead for good.

Fairmont State improved to 11-8 overall and 8-5 in the West Virginia Conference.

Women Place

The Glenville State College Women's Track Team competed in the Slippery Rock University Open Indoor Track Meet on Sat., February 2. The meet served as a tune-up for the upcoming outseason, however turned up some outstanding performances by several athletes.

Freshmen Kathy Koontz, Tammy Taylor, and Tammy Niven performed exceptionally in their first indoor meet. Koontz placed 4th overall with a jump of 15'8 1/2" in the Long Jump. Taylor won her mile heat with a 5:53. Janie Hoffman ran a 6:22 in the same event, much improved over her 1989 first meet. Niven ran 2:54 in the 880 run. Dawn Farley placed 2nd in the 55 meter hurdles with a time of 9.6.

The women have one more indoor meet at WVU next weekend. They will be participating in the Valentine 5K this Sunday, Feb. 11 sponsored by the Kanawha Running Club. This is the third race in the winter series in which Katrina Riggelman won the first race and Lori Barker-Gardner won the Frostbite 5 miler the second race. If Riggelman or Janie Hoffman (runner-up) do well in the final race on the 11th of February, they can win their age group and be honored at a banquet in March honoring runners of the winter series. Best wishes to these distance gals.

Lady Pioneers Lose and Win

Glenville State's Lady Pioneers won their eighth consecutive game, as they defeated Fairmont State College 77-72 on Monday, January 29th.

The Lady Pioneers, behind the scoring of junior Tami Simons, raised their record to 18-3 overall and 16-1 in the West Virginia Conference.

Simons scored 24 points to lead all scorers, while Tammy Pence-Hughes scored 15 points to become Glenville State College's all-time leading women's basketball scorer. Pence-Hughes, a senior from Strasburg, VA, surpassed Monique Johnson in career points scored.

Mary Jo Ellyson had 12 points for the Lady Pioneers, while Jackie Myers added 11 for the winners.

Fairmont St. was led in scoring by Lisa Monteleone with 18 points while Lori Smith and Christina Navy added 10 and 7 points, respectively.

Glenville State out-rebounded Fairmont State, with Simons pulling down 13 boards.

The loss dropped Fairmont to 7-11 overall and 5-9 in the West Virginia Conference.

James Accepts

Associate Professor of Education John James accepted an invitation to attend the Ohio State University's Children's Literature Festival on January 25, 26, 27. While there he was able to talk to Paula Fox, Leonard Everett Fisher, and Lee Bennett Hopkins and obtain their autographs. Many new authors and illustrators were presented this year and they were able to describe the background and sources of inspiration which goes into their works. Some recent names in the field of Children's literature include George Ella Lyon, Molly Bang, Arnold Adoff, Bruce Degan, and Joanna Cole. The conference was well attended, informative, and very exciting. "A book means so much more when there is an opportunity to understand its origins," said Mr. James.

Nauman Assumes Duty

by Lori Burton

Laura Nauman

Laura Nauman, House Director of Pickens Hall, has taken on additional responsibilities this semester as acting Pioneer Center Director. In a recent interview she was asked:

Q-How did you get this position as Pioneer Center Director?

A-I'm not full time. I am only temporary until they hire someone to take Bill Vincent's place.

Q-What duties will you be performing?

A-Bill Vincent, the former director, had made several plans before he left, so I'm really just overseeing his plans and activities, and making sure they are carried out.

Tuition Bill Amended

In hopes of amending a state college tuition bill, Delegate Minard, Harrison, is proposing legislation to allow graduates of West Virginia high schools to pay in-state tuition, regardless of their residency status.

Delegate Minard is sponsoring House Bill 4029, which will amend the code that concerns enrollment, tuition, and fees collected at state institutions of higher learning. This bill was introduced January 10, 1990, the first day of session, where it was then sent to the committees on Education and Finance.

"As our students leave the state for employment in other states or for any reason, we should make it very clear that when they return home they can do so to open arms. They should not be penalized by requiring them to reestablish residency requirements, which takes one year, to enter our institutions of higher learning. In most cases, students are forced to leave the state because of our poor economic opportunities and we should be happy when they want to come home," Minard said.

Bureau of the Census

The United States Bureau of the Census is currently hiring local area residents for work on preliminary operations pertaining to the 1990 Census.

An applicant must have a valid driver's license and access to a vehicle. Applicants should be at least 18 years old. Persons 16 to 17 years old may be considered for employment if they have a high school diploma.

Ideally, applicants should be available to work 30 to 40 hours per week. Persons available to work 20 to 30 hours a week are also encouraged to apply.

Pay rate is $6.00 per hour. Mileage is paid at a rate of .24 cents per mile.

For more Census job information, contact Mike Coe, Recruiting Operations Supervisor, Parkersburg District Office at (304) 422-9050.

Video Contest Available

Here's a chance to win $3,000 cash and see your film or video on national television.

The top entries in the 1990 Christopher Video Contest will share an $8,500 prize money. The winning works will also be broadcasted on 100 commercial and cable television stations via the nationally and internationally syndicated Christopher Closeup series.

College students at all levels are invited to participate. Just produce an audio-visual essay of five minutes or less which captures the contest theme: "One person can make a difference." Students are encouraged to use their creativity in expressing this idea on either film or video.

Entries must be submitted on 1/4-inch or VHS cassette only, along with an official entry form. To get these forms contact The Christophers, New York, N.Y. 10017, (212) 759-4050; or ask at the college mass media or communication departments. The Spring Break can't from pg. 4 of beer are not allowed in guest rooms.

--Climbing over or on balcony railings, windows, roofs or ledges is both dangerous and illegal. Many of the hotels limit access to balconies in order to avoid hazardous situations.

--In accordance with local fire codes, a limited number of students may occupy a guest room. Visitors are permitted at the discretion of the management.

contest deadline is Friday, June 15, 1990.

Projects will be judged on artistic and technical proficiency, their ability to capture the theme and an adherence to contest rules.

Students who have won in two previously conducted Christopher contests hail from campuses such as Stanford, the College of Mount St. Vincent, Emerson College, Howard University and N.Y.U. Enter now and join their ranks.

The Christophers, Inc. is a non-profit media organization based in New York City. Founded in 1945, it uses print, radio and television to encourage people to get personally involved in helping to shape a better world. Based on the Judco-Christian concept of service to God and to all humanity, this message is addressed to people of all faiths and of no particular faith. The organization popularized the ancient Chinese proverb, "It's better to light one candle than to curse the darkness."

--Excessive noise or music is prohibited both in guest rooms and public areas.

--Each hotel sets its own pool hours, as well as its own policies for room keys, security, phone charges and room payment. Damage to any hotel property will be the responsibility of registered guests.

Amateur Radio Meeting Scheduled

The Pioneer Amateur Radio Association is going to hold a meeting Tuesday February 6, 7:00 p.m., at Common Place restaurant in Glenville. You are invited to attend the meeting. The agenda for the meeting includes election of officers and a program on amateur radio.

The association has been organized for the purpose of amateur radio fellowship among hams so we can enjoy our hobby much more. Our theme is education, emergency services, technical assistance, and having fun. We need your ideas and help. Please plan to attend and bring a friend.

Annual membership dues are $12.00 per year with $3.00 per year for each additional family member. Associate membership (non-ham) dues are $6.00 per year.

Many things are planned for the 90's including our monthly newsletter and meeting programs.

If you have questions or need any assistance please use 145.290(-) repeater or call 462-7988- Dave, 462-5815- Gene, or 462-8841-Ken. Hope to see you all.

Reflections

It is so simple, and yet so difficult. Just three little words: "I am sorry."

Why is it so hard to apologize to those we have offended?

I suppose it is because we have to admit that we were wrong. And even though we know we are wrong at times, we do not like to admit our imperfections, as if admittance makes us less of a person. We do not like to acknowledge our "weakness." After all how can we then have a sense of dignity and pride?

Welcome to the human race? We are all imperfect, weak, and yes, even wrong at times. We need to learn to accept that in ourselves and in others.

Far too often we choose to ignore our responsibility to others. And the feelings of guilt, anger, fear, frustration, and bitterness are intensified in the "disrelationship." The denial of such feelings may suffice for awhile, but left unchallenged the damage erodes our character throughout life.

So what happens when we swallow our pride, humble ourselves (not thinking more of ourselves than we should, rather than "demeaning" ourselves), and say "I am sorry?"

There are no guarantees of forgiveness or reconciliation. That fact alone magnifies our reluctance to apologize. After all we could totally humiliate ourselves. Apologizing, we become vulnerable to the anger and bitterness of others. We may be hurt in the process. Turn about is fair play isn't it? Only in a game (of losers) where there are only losers.

Our humility also opens up the possibility of understanding and reconciliation. It gives the opportunity for clearing the air. And it affords us the chance to grow and build character, even when the apology goes unaccepted.

Like a quiet, little mouse I witnessed such an encounter during the past week. No doubt it was very difficult for the young man to apologize to the young woman, crossing cultural differences. Some would have felt it was even unnecessary, by today's standards.

It was "awesome" like a breath of fresh air. There was communication and understanding. And there was growth and great character exhibited by both. And that commands respect!

Q-What prompted you to take on additional responsibility besides House Director?

A-Well, the college needed someone and since there are two house directors at Pickens Hall, I have extra time available and I wanted to help out.

Q-What activities do you have planned?

A-Right now we are working on getting G.S.C. Week organized, which will be April 16-21. Please remember the variety show will be going on at that time. Sign up in my office if you are interested.

If anyone has any ideas for activities, please stop upstairs in the Pioneer Center and see Laura Nauman. She will do the best she can to see that your plans are carried out.

Laura also wants to extend her thanks to Jerry Burkhammer and Philip Ash for their help and support.

Show your Valentine you care! Send a message through The Mercury. Only .50! Stop in The Mercury office, located downstairs Clark Hall.

Student Education Association

On January 22, 1990, the Glenville State College Student Education Association held its first meeting of the new year. First on the meeting's agenda was the election of new officers. The SEA Officers for 1990 are: Jeannie Bennett-President, Kristi Rogucki-Vice President, Secretary- Diane Alvis, and Mandy Bumgarner-Treasurer. Those who attended the meeting found it necessary to create a new office. The new office is that of reporter. The duties of the reporter will include editing the SEA newsletter, and possibly composition of MERCURY articles. SEA's reporter for the 1990 term will be Angie Young. Good luck, officers! The SEA also wishes luck to those students who are entering the student teaching phase of their program. We send special wishes to senior, Tracy Probst, our former president! The next meeting of SEA will be held Tuesday, February 6, 1990 at 5:00 p.m. in Clark Hall Room 101. All SEA meetings are held on the first Tuesday of the month at the already designated time and place. Don't be shy! All education majors are welcome!
